PREFACE.

THE ENGLISH HYMNAL is a collection of the best hymns in the English language, and is offered as a humble companion to the Book of Common Prayer for use in the Church. It is not a party-book, expressing this or that phase of negation or excess, but an attempt to combine in one volume the worthiest expressions of all that lies within the Christian Creed, from those 'ancient Fathers' who were the earliest hymn-writers down to contemporary exponents of modern aspirations and ideals.

We therefore offer the book to all broad-minded men, in the hope that every one will find within these pages the hymns which he rightly wants. At the same time, since literary, musical, and religious standards vary, a really inclusive collection must of necessity be larger than the needs of each particular individual: hymn books, indeed, afford special facilities in this respect, because those who use them can select according to their requirements. Such a method of selection we have ourselves suggested in the Musical Edition by a List of simple hymns, which may satisfy the ordinary needs of many parishes; while we have also arranged a Table of hymns for all the Sundays and Holy-days of the year, which covers the whole ground. Thus we have endeavoured to produce a book that shall suit the needs of learned and simple alike, and shall at the same time exhibit the characteristic virtue of hymnody,—its witness, namely, to the fact that in the worship of God Christians are drawn the closer together as they are drawn more closely to the one Lord. In Christian song Churches have forgotten their quarrels and men have lost their limitations, because they have reached the higher ground where the soul is content to affirm and to adore. The hymns of Christendom show more clearly than anything else that there is even now such a thing as the unity of the Spirit.

Little explanation is needed of the principles which governed the selection and arrangement of the hymns. The new work, inserted in every case to fill an acknowledged gap or to introduce a tune of special excellence, must stand or fall on its merits. One feature, however, requires a word of comment. Hymns are printed, wherever possible, as their authors wrote them. To many it will be a surprise to find that the ascription of a hymn to this or that author, when it was given at all in hymnals of the last century, was very often misleading. The public now has the opportunity of comparing many originals with their altered versions; and few, we venture to predict, will deny that they had been altered for the worse. Occasionally, indeed, the music requires the removal of an extra word if a hymn is to be used at all, as for instance in Neale's hymn, No. 137 (The Day of Resurrection), and in Milton's, No. 532 (Let us with a gladsome mind); but although these hymns are marked as altered, none of their characteristic epithets have been changed. Sometimes alterations are justified for other reasons; and some translations are the work of several hands. But, apart from such exceptional cases, the efforts, so often made in the past to improve the work of competent authors, have had the inevitable result. The freshness and strength of the originals have been replaced by stock phrases and commonplace sentiments; and injury has been done to the quality of our public worship as well as to the memory of great hymn-writers.

A Hymn Book that is offered as a companion to the Book of Common Prayer must provide adequately not only for Sundays but also for all those other Holy-days which in the Prayer Book are ordered to be observed precisely in the same way as Sundays. The Office Hymns for the Saints' Days 'to be observed' are therefore given, as well as many suitable modern hymns: to these have been added the hymns for the Minor Saints' Days of the Anglican Calendar (since it is a common practice to sing a hymn as a memorial of such days), although we recognize the fact that as there is no Office for such days in the Prayer Book they can have no Office Hymn in the strict sense of the word.

The Hymns marked 'Office Hymn' are translations from those appointed in the ancient choir-services of the English Church. In suggesting these as specially suitable, by placing them out of the alphabetical order under a special heading, we have followed the example of the Reformers, who went to the same source for our present Offices of Morning and Evening Prayer. Very many of these hymns are already well known, thanks to the good work of former hymnals ; but there remained many Sundays and other days for which the proper hymns were not provided. There is indeed no need for all the hymns of all the ancient services, such as the hymns for both Mattins and Lauds on every occasion ; but there is a legitimate demand for all those hymns which belong to the services of Morning and Evening Prayer, according to the Prayer Book Calendar. The need has long been felt of such a complete set of these ancient hymns, which in their Scriptural simplicity and sober dignity represent the deep Christian experience of more than a thousand years. This need we have now supplied, endeavouring where new translations were required to convey as faithfully as possible the spirit of the originals, so that in these hymns also the authors should speak for themselves.

Thus we have made complete provision for the liturgical requirements of Churchmen, while we have at the same time added many modern hymns of the first rank which have not hitherto been at their disposal. In so doing we have attempted to redress those defects in popular hymnody which are deeply felt by thoughtful men ; for the best hymns of Christendom are as free as the Bible from the self-centred sentimentalism, the weakness and unreality which mark inferior productions. The great hymns, indeed, of all ages abound in the conviction that duty lies at the heart of the Christian life—a double duty to God and to our neighbour ; and such hymns, like the Prayer Book, are for all sorts and conditions of men.

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

THE book is divided into twelve parts, and the hymns are arranged alphabetically in each part or section, so that they may be readily found. In Parts I to III, the Office Hymns for each occasion are placed first, and after them the other hymns follow in alphabetical order. Part X is divided into two sections : the first consists of hymns and prayers arranged so that processions may be definite acts of prayer and worship, after the manner of the Prayer Book Litany and the older processions upon which it is based ; the second contains other hymns that are suitable for use in procession. The Metrical Litanies in Part XI are similarly arranged, so that they form complete acts of prayer. Part XII consists of liturgical prose pieces, which are arranged in their natural order.

The heading 'OFFICE HYMN' shows that the original was the Office Hymn for the corresponding service in the Salisbury service-books, except in the case of No. 175, which is taken from those of York. The letters 'E.' and 'M.' stand for Evensong and Mattins, the first Evensong being that on the day before the festival. When these letters occur twice for the same festival or season ('E.' and 'M.,' 'M.' and 'E.'), the first 'E.' denotes the hymn for the first Evensong, and the second 'E.' the Evensong on the day itself ; while the first 'M.' shows that the hymn anciently belonged to Mattins only, and the second 'M.' stands over the hymn that belonged to Lauds: as our present Mattins occupies the place of the older Mattins and Lauds, either hymn is equally suitable.

The names and dates of all authors are given, in so far as they are known. Initials only are provided in the case of living translators, whose names are given in the Index of Authors, and in the case of a few living authors. The letters 'Tr.' are prefixed to the names of all translators. The number of the Psalm (Ps.) is given in the case of paraphrases, though it must be remembered that some paraphrases are extremely free, while others are based upon one or two verses only of a Psalm.

Where the author's or translator's name has no mark, the hymn is unaltered or has been revised by the author himself. The sign '+' shows that an alteration has been made in one line only; the sign '‡' denotes alterations in two or three lines. To hymns that are the work of more than one writer a second name is given, or the words 'and others' are added. Translations which have no one special source are marked 'Tr. cento.' Alterations in spelling are not marked, nor is any note made of the omission of verses, nor do the statements as to authorship refer to the doxologies.

In the case of long hymns and of hymns with slow tunes, the sign '*' is prefixed to those verses which may be most conveniently omitted. It does not follow that verses so marked are considered in any way inferior, but only that they can be omitted without doing violence to the context.

Choruses and refrains are printed once for all in italic. 'Amen' is only printed with doxologies. In the case of other hymns its use is sometimes appropriate and sometimes not; but in the Musical Edition it is given with its musical setting in every case except that of sequences, so that it can be sung when desired. The verses are numbered, and in order to show when the last verse of a hymn is reached at the bottom of a page, a full point is in every case printed after the number of the last verse.

The Introits are given in Part XII, and as in some churches other Scriptural passages from the older Liturgy are occasionally used, these also are for convenience given in full. They follow the Introit, and are marked by letters which are explained in a note at the head of this Part.

We have spared no effort to discover the owners of all copyright hymns; but if through inadvertence any should have been overlooked, we desire to offer our apologies, and to promise that the omitted acknowledgement shall be inserted at the earliest opportunity.

We cannot exaggerate our indebtedness to Dr. Julian's Dictionary of Hymnology, a monumental work, without which we could not have reached the high standard of accuracy, as to both texts and authorship, which we set before us when entering upon our labours. We are also exceedingly grateful to Dr. Julian personally, and to the sub-editor of the Dictionary, the Rev. J. Mearns, for their most valuable assistance and information on many doubtful points.

Amidst a very large number of scholars, experts, and other friends who have materially lightened our labours, we must make special mention of the Very Rev. Dr. Furneaux, Dean of Winchester, and Mr. Arthur Reynolds, on whose taste and judgement we have often relied.

One member of the Committee, the late Rev. W. H. H. Jervois, was called to his rest shortly after the printing of the book was begun. We cannot therefore place his name among our own, but we dedicate to the memory of our friend the work in which he bore so large a share.

ADVENT.

- 1 OFFICE HYMN. E. 7th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale

Conditor alme siderum.

CREATOR of the stars of night,
Thy people's everlasting light,
Jesu, Redeemer, save us all,
And hear thy servants when they call.

- 2 Thou, grieving that the ancient curse
Should doom to death a universe,
Hast found the medicine, full of grace,
To save and heal a ruined race.
- 3 Thou cam'st, the Bridegroom of the bride,
As drew the world to evening-tide ;
Proceeding from a virgin shrine,
The spotless Victim all divine :
- 4 At whose dread name, majestic now,
All knees must bend, all hearts must bow ;
And things celestial thee shall own,
And things terrestrial, Lord alone.
- 5 O thou whose coming is with dread
To judge and doom the quick and dead,
Preserve us, while we dwell below,
From every insult of the foe.
6. To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Laud, honour, might, and glory be
From age to age eternally. Amen.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

2 OFFICE HYMN. M. 10th cent. Tr. C. B.

Verbum supernum prodiens.

- HIGH Word of God, who once didst come,
Leaving thy Father and thy home,
To succour by thy birth our kind,
When, towards thine advent, time declined,
- 2 Pour light upon us from above,
And fire our hearts with thy strong love,
That, as we hear thy Gospel read,
All fond desires may flee in dread ;
- 3 That when thou comest from the skies,
Great Judge, to open thine assize,
To give each hidden sin its smart,
And crown as kings the pure in heart,
- 4 We be not set at thy left hand,
Where sentence due would bid us stand,
But with the Saints thy face may see,
For ever wholly loving thee.
5. Praise to the Father and the Son,
Through all the ages as they run ;
And to the holy Paraclete
Be praise with them and worship meet. Amen.

3 Horologion. c. 8th cent. Tr. G. Moultrie.

Ἴδὸν ὁ Νυμφίος ἔρχεται.

- BEHOLD the Bridegroom cometh in the middle of the night,
And blest is he whose loins are girt, whose lamp is burning bright ;
But woe to that dull servant, whom the Master shall surprise
With lamp untrimmed, unburning, and with slumber in his eyes.

ADVENT.

- 2 Do thou, my soul, beware, beware, lest thou in sleep sink down,
 Lest thou be given o'er to death, and lose the golden crown ;
 But see that thou be sober, with a watchful eye, and thus
 Cry—'Holy, holy, holy God, have mercy upon us.
- 3 That day, the day of fear, shall come ; my soul,
 slack not thy toil,
 But light thy lamp, and feed it well, and make it bright with oil ;
 Who knowest not how soon may sound the cry at eventide,
 'Behold, the Bridegroom comes ! Arise ! Go forth to meet the bride.'
4. Beware, my soul ; beware, beware, lest thou in slumber lie,
 And, like the Five, remain without, and knock,
 and vainly cry ;
 But watch, and bear thy lamp undimmed, and Christ shall gird thee on His own bright wedding-robe of light—the glory of the Son.

*Anon. (1802), W. B. Collyer (1812),
 T. Cotterill (1819), and others.*

GREAT God, what do I see and hear !
 The end of things created :
 The Judge of mankind doth appear,
 On clouds of glory seated ;
 The trumpet sounds, the graves restore
 The dead which they contained before :
 Prepare, my soul, to meet him !

- 2 The dead in Christ shall first arise
 At that last trumpet's sounding,
 Caught up to meet him in the skies,
 With joy their Lord surrounding ;

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

No gloomy fears their souls dismay ;
 His presence sheds eternal day
 On those prepared to meet him.

- 3 The ungodly, filled with guilty fears,
 Behold his wrath prevailing ;
 For they shall rise, and find their tears
 And sighs are unavailing :
 The day of grace is past and gone ;
 Trembling they stand before his throne,
 All unprepared to meet him.
4. Great Judge, to thee our prayers we pour,
 In deep abasement bending ;
 O shield us through that last dread hour,
 Thy wondrous love extending.
 May we, in this our trial day,
 With faithful hearts thy word obey,
 And thus prepare to meet thee.

6th cent. Tr. E. Caswall †.

Vox clara ecce intonat.

HARK ! a herald voice is calling :
 ' Christ is nigh,' it seems to say ;
 ' Cast away the dreams of darkness,
 O ye children of the day ! '

- 2 Startled at the solemn warning,
 Let the earth-bound soul arise ;
 Christ, her Sun, all sloth dispelling,
 Shines upon the morning skies.
- 3 Lo ! the Lamb, so long expected,
 Comes with pardon down from heaven ;
 Let us haste, with tears of sorrow,
 One and all to be forgiven ;
- 4 So when next he comes with glory,
 Wrapping all the earth in fear,
 May he then as our defender
 On the clouds of heaven appear.

ADVENT.

5. Honour, glory, virtue, merit,
To the Father and the Son,
With the co-eternal Spirit,
While unending ages run. Amen.

P. Doddridge, 1702-51.

HARK the glad sound ! the Saviour comes,
The Saviour promised long !
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song.

- 2 He comes the prisoners to release
In Satan's bondage held ;
The gates of brass before him burst,
The iron fetters yield.
- 3 He comes the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And with the treasures of his grace
To enrich the humble poor.
4. Our glad hosannas, Prince of peace,
Thy welcome shall proclaim ;
And heaven's eternal arches ring
With thy beloved name.

C. Wesley (1758), and J. Cennick (1750).

LO ! he comes with clouds descending,
Once for favoured sinners slain ;
Thousand thousand Saints attending
Swell the triumph of his train :
Alleluya !
God appears, on earth to reign.

- 2 Every eye shall now behold him
Robed in dreadful majesty ;
Those who set at nought and sold him,
Pierced and nailed him to the tree,
Deeply wailing
Shall the true Messiah see.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 3 Those dear tokens of his passion
Still his dazzling body bears,
Cause of endless exultation
To his ransomed worshippers :
With what rapture
Gaze we on those glorious scars !
4. Yea, amen ! let all adore thee,
High on thine eternal throne ;
Saviour, take the power and glory :
Claim the kingdom for thine own :
O come quickly !
Alleluya ! Come, Lord, come !

18th cent. Tr. T. A. L.

Veni, veni, Emmanuel.

- O COME, O come, Emmanuel !
Redeem thy captive Israel,
That into exile drear is gone
Far from the face of God's dear Son.
*Rejoice ! Rejoice ! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.*
- 2 O come, thou Branch of Jesse ! draw
The quarry from the lion's claw ;
From the dread caverns of the grave,
From nether hell, thy people save.
- 3 O come, O come, thou Dayspring bright !
Pour on our souls thy healing light ;
Dispel the long night's lingering gloom,
And pierce the shadows of the tomb.
- 4 O come, thou Lord of David's Key !
The royal door fling wide and free ;
Safeguard for us the heavenward road,
And bar the way to death's abode.
5. O come, O come, Adonāi,
Who in thy glorious majesty
From that high mountain clothed with awe
Gavest thy folk the elder law.

Jordanis oras praevia.

ON Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry
Announces that the Lord is nigh;
Come then and hearken, for he brings
Glad tidings from the King of kings.

- 2 Then cleansed be every Christian breast,
And furnished for so great a guest !
Yea, let us each our hearts prepare
For Christ to come and enter there.
- 3 For thou art our salvation, Lord,
Our refuge and our great reward ;
Without thy grace our souls must fade,
And wither like a flower decayed.
- 4 Stretch forth thine hand, to heal our sore,
And make us rise to fall no more ;
Once more upon thy people shine,
And fill the world with love divine.
5. All praise, eternal Son, to thee
Whose advent sets thy people free,
Whom, with the Father, we adore,
And Holy Ghost, for evermore. Amen.

Salus aeterna.

SAVIOUR eternal !
Health and life of the world unfailing,

- 2 Light everlasting !
And in verity our redemption,
- 3 Grieving that the ages of men must perish
Through the tempter's subtlety,
- 4 Still in heaven abiding, thou camest earthward
Of thine own great clemency :

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 5 Then freely and graciously
Deigning to assume humanity,
- 6 To lost ones and perishing
Gavest thou thy free deliverance,
Filling all the world with joy.
- 7 O Christ, our souls and bodies cleanse
By thy perfect sacrifice ;
- 8 That we as temples pure and bright
Fit for thine abode may be.
- 9 By thy former advent justify,
- 10 By thy second grant us liberty :
- 11 That when in the might of glory
Thou descendest, Judge of all,
12. We in raiment undefiled,
Bright may shine, and ever follow,
Lord, thy footsteps blest, where'er they lead us.

C. Coffin, 1676-1749. Tr. H. P.

Instantis adventum Dei.

- THE advent of our God
With eager prayers we greet,
And singing haste upon his road
His glorious gift to meet.
- 2 The everlasting Son
Scorns not a Virgin's womb ;
That we from bondage may be won
He bears a bondman's doom.
 - 3 Daughter of Sion, rise
To meet thy lowly King ;
Let not thy stubborn heart despise
The peace he deigns to bring.
 - 4 In clouds of awful light
As Judge he comes again,
His scattered people to unite,
With them in heaven to reign.

ADVENT.

- 5 Let evil flee away
Ere that dread hour shall dawn,
Let this old Adam day by day
God's image still put on.
6. Praise to the Incarnate Son,
Who comes to set us free,
With God the Father, ever one,
To all eternity. Amen.

Wachet auf.

WAKE, O wake ! with tidings thrilling
The watchmen all the air are filling,
Arise, Jerusalem, arise !
Midnight strikes ! no more delaying,
'The hour has come !' we hear them saying.
Where are ye all, ye virgins wise ?
The Bridegroom comes in sight,
Raise high your torches bright !
Alleluya !
The wedding song
Swells loud and strong :
Go forth and join the festal throng.

- 2 Sion hears the watchmen shouting,
Her heart leaps up with joy undoubting,
She stands and waits with eager eyes ;
See her Friend from heaven descending,
Adorned with truth and grace unending !
Her light burns clear, her star doth rise.
Now come, thou precious Crown,
Lord Jesu, God's own Son !
Hosanna !
Let us prepare
To follow there,
Where in thy supper we may share.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

3. Every soul in thee rejoices ;
From men and from angelic voices
Be glory given to thee alone !
Now the gates of pearl receive us,
Thy presence never more shall leave us,
We stand with Angels round thy throne.
Earth cannot give below
The bliss thou dost bestow.
Alleluya!
Grant us to raise,
To length of days,
The triumph-chorus of thy praise.

J. Anstice, 1808-36.

- WHEN came in flesh the incarnate Word,
The heedless world slept on,
And only simple shepherds heard
That God had sent his Son.
- 2 When comes the Saviour at the last,
From east to west shall shine
The awful pomp, and earth aghast
Shall tremble at the sign.
- 3 Then shall the pure of heart be blest ;
As mild he comes to them,
As when upon the Virgin's breast
He lay at Bethlehem :
- 4 As mild to meek-eyed love and faith,
Only more strong to save ;
Strengthened by having bowed to death,
By having burst the grave.
- 5 Lord, who could dare see thee descend
In state, unless he knew
Thou art the sorrowing sinner's friend,
The gracious and the true ?

CHRISTMAS EVE.

6. Dwell in our hearts, O Saviour blest ;
So shall thine advent's dawn
'Twixt us and thee, our bosom-guest,
Be but the veil withdrawn.

The following are also suitable :

- 374 Christian, seek not yet repose.
462 O quickly come, dread judge of all.
487 That day of wrath, that dreadful day.
492 The Lord will come and not be slow.
495 The world is very evil.
504 Thy kingdom come ! on bended knee.
518 Ye servants of the Lord.
554 Thy kingdom come, O God.

CHRISTMAS EVE.

- 14 OFFICE HYMN. E. St. Ambrose, 340-97.
Tr. J. M. Neale and others.

Veni, Redemptor gentium.

COME, thou Redeemer of the earth,
And manifest thy virgin-birth :
Let every age adoring fall ;
Such birth befits the God of all.

- 2 Begotten of no human will,
But of the Spirit, thou art still
The Word of God in flesh arrayed,
The promised fruit to man displayed.
- 3 The virgin womb that burden gained
With virgin honour all unstained ;
The banners there of virtue glow ;
God in his temple dwells below.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 4 Forth from his chamber goeth he,
That royal home of purity,
A giant in twofold substance one,
Rejoicing now his course to run.
- 5 From God the Father he proceeds,
To God the Father back he speeds ;
His course he runs to death and hell,
Returning on God's throne to dwell.
- 6 O equal to thy Father, thou !
Gird on thy fleshly mantle now ;
The weakness of our mortal state
With deathless might invigorate.
- 7 Thy cradle here shall glitter bright,
And darkness breathe a newer light,
Where endless faith shall shine serene,
And twilight never intervene.
8. All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee :
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

15

Bishop Phillips Brooks, 1835-93.

- O LITTLE town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie !
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by.
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting light ;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee to-night.
- 2 O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth,
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth ;

CHRISTMAS EVE.

For Christ is born of Mary ;
And, gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.

3 How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given !
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear his coming ;
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him, still
The dear Christ enters in.

4* Where children pure and happy
Pray to the blessèd Child,
Where misery cries out to thee,
Son of the mother mild ;
Where charity stands watching
And faith holds wide the door,
The dark night wakes, the glory breaks,
And Christmas comes once more.

5. O holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray ;
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us to-day.
We hear the Christmas Angels
The great glad tidings tell :
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel.

16

Laurence Housman.

THE Maker of the sun and moon,
The Maker of our earth,
Lo ! late in time, a fairer boon,
Himself is brought to birth !

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 How blest was all creation then,
When God so gave increase ;
And Christ, to heal the hearts of men,
Brought righteousness and peace !
- 3 No star in all the heights of heaven
But burned to see him go ;
Yet unto earth alone was given
His human form to know.
- 4 His human form, by man denied,
Took death for human sin :
His endless love, through faith descried,
Still lives the world to win.
5. O perfect Love, outpassing sight,
O Light beyond our ken,
Come down through all the world to-night,
And heal the hearts of men !

CHRISTMAS.

17 OFFICE HYMN. M. 6th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Christe Redemptor omnium.

JESU, the Father's only Son,
Whose death for all redemption won ;
Before the worlds, of God most high
Begotten all ineffably :

- 2 The Father's light and splendour thou,
Their endless hope to thee that bow ;
Accept the prayers and praise to-day
That through the world thy servants pay.

CHRISTMAS.

- 3 Salvation's author, call to mind,
How, taking form of humankind,
Born of a Virgin undefiled,
Thou in man's flesh becam'st a child.
- 4 Thus testifies the present day,
Through every year in long array,
That thou, salvation's source alone,
Proceededst from the Father's throne.
- 5 Whence sky, and stars, and sea's abyss,
And earth, and all that therein is,
Shall still, with laud and carol meet,
The Author of thine advent greet.
- 6 And we who, by thy precious blood
From sin redeemed, are marked for God,
On this the day that saw thy birth,
Sing the new song of ransomed earth :
7. For that thine advent glory be,
O Jesu, virgin-born, to thee ;
With Father, and with Holy Ghost,
From men and from the heavenly host. Amen.

18 OFFICE HYMN. M., E. Coelius Sedulius, c. 450. Tr. J. Ellerton.

A solis ortus cardine.

- FROM east to west, from shore to shore,
Let every heart awake and sing
The holy Child whom Mary bore,
The Christ, the everlasting King.
- 2 Behold, the world's Creator wears
The form and fashion of a slave ;
Our very flesh our Maker shares,
His fallen creature, man, to save.
 - 3 For this how wondrously he wrought !
A maiden, in her lowly place,
Became in ways beyond all thought,
The chosen vessel of his grace.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 4 She bowed her to the Angel's word
 Declaring what the Father willed,
 And suddenly the promised Lord
 That pure and hallowed temple filled.
- 5 He shrank not from the oxen's stall,
 He lay within the manger-bed,
 And he, whose bounty feedeth all,
 At Mary's breast himself was fed.
- 6 And while the Angels in the sky
 Sang praise above the silent field,
 To shepherds poor the Lord most high,
 The one great Shepherd, was revealed.
7. All glory for this blessed morn
 To God the Father ever be ;
 All praise to thee, O Virgin-born,
 All praise, O Holy Ghost, to thee. Amen.

19. Suitable till Candlemas. St. Germanus, 634-734.
Tr. J. M. Neale †.

Μεγα καὶ παράδοξον θαῦμα.

A GREAT and mighty wonder,
 A full and holy cure !
 The Virgin bears the Infant
 With virgin-honour pure.

Repeat the hymn again !

*'To God on high be glory,
 And peace on earth to men !'*

- 2 The Word becomes incarnate
 And yet remains on high !
 And Cherubim sing anthems
 To shepherds from the sky.
- 3 While thus they sing your Monarch,
 Those bright angelic bands,
 Rejoice, ye vales and mountains,
 Ye oceans clap your hands.

CHRISTMAS.

- 4 Since all he comes to ransom,
By all be he adored,
The Infant born in Bethl'em,
The Saviour and the Lord.
5. And idol forms shall perish,
And error shall decay,
And Christ shall wield his sceptre,
Our Lord and God for ay.

20 Suitable till Candlemas. T. Pestel, 1584-1659.

- BEHOLD the great Creator makes
Himself a house of clay,
A robe of Virgin flesh he takes
Which he will wear for ay.
2 Hark, hark, the wise eternal Word,
Like a weak infant cries !
In form of servant is the Lord,
And God in cradle lies.
3 This wonder struck the world amazed,
It shook the starry frame ;
Squadrons of spirits stood and gazed,
Then down in troops they came.
4 Glad shepherds ran to view this sight ;
A choir of Angels sings,
And eastern sages with delight
Adore this King of kings.
5. Join then, all hearts that are not stone,
And all our voices prove,
To celebrate this holy One
The God of peace and love.

21 John Byrom, 1690-1763.

CHRISTIANS, awake, salute the happy morn,
Whereon the Saviour of the world was born ;
Rise to adore the mystery of love,
Which hosts of Angels chanted from above ;
With them the joyful tidings first begun
Of God incarnate and the Virgin's Son :

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,
Who heard the angelic herald's voice, 'Behold,
I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth
To you and all the nations upon earth ;
This day hath God fulfilled his promised word,
This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord.'
- 3 He spake ; and straightway the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire.
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole orb with Alleluyas rang :
God's highest glory was their anthem still,
Peace upon earth, and mutual goodwill.
- 4 To Bethlehem straight the enlightened shepherds ran,
To see the wonder God had wrought for man,
And found, with Joseph and the blessed Maid,
Her Son, the Saviour, in a manger laid ;
Amazed the wondrous story they proclaim,
The first apostles of his infant fame.
5. * Like Mary let us ponder in our mind
God's wondrous love in saving lost mankind ;
Trace we the Babe, who hath retrieved our loss,
From his poor manger to his bitter cross ;
Then may we hope, the angelic thrones among,
To sing, redeemed, a glad triumphal song.

Laetabundus.

COME rejoicing,
Faithful men, with rapture singing
Alleluya !

- 2 Monarch's Monarch,
From a holy maiden springing,
Mighty wonder !

CHRISTMAS.

- 3 Angel of the Counsel here,
Sun from star, he doth appear,
Born of maiden :
- 4 He a sun who knows no night,
She a star whose paler light
Fadeth never.
- 5 As a star its kindred ray,
Mary doth her Child display,
Like in nature ;
- 6 Still undimmed the star shines on,
And the maiden bears a Son,
Pure as ever.
- 7 Lebanon his cedar tall
To the hyssop on the wall
Lowly bendeth ;
- 8 From the highest, him we name
Word of God, to human frame
Now descendeth.
- 9 Yet the synagogue denied
What Esaias had descried :
Blindness fell upon the guide,
Proud, unheeding.
- 10 If her prophets speak in vain,
Let her heed a Gentile strain,
And, from mystic Sibyl, gain
Light and leading.
- 11 No longer then delay,
Hear what the Scriptures say,
Why be cast away
A race forlorn ?
12. Turn and this Child behold,
That very Son, of old
In God's writ foretold,
A maid hath borne.

C. Wesley, 1707-88.

HARK, how all the welkin rings !
‘ Glory to the King of kings,
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled.’

- 2 Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
Join the triumph of the skies ;
Universal nature say
‘ Christ the Lord is born to-day.’
- 3 Christ, by highest heaven adored,
Christ, the everlasting Lord,
Late in time behold him come
Offspring of a Virgin’s womb.
- 4 Veiled in flesh, the Godhead see !
Hail the incarnate Deity !
Pleased as man with men to appear
Jesus, our Emmanuel here !
- 5 Hail the heavenly Prince of peace !
Hail the Sun of righteousness !
Light and life to all he brings,
Risen with healing in his wings.
- 6 Mild he lays his glory by,
Born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth !
- 7 Come, Desire of nations, come,
Fix in us thy humble home ;
Rise, the woman’s conquering Seed,
Bruise in us the serpent’s head.
8. Now display thy saving power,
Ruined nature now restore,
Now in mystic union join
Thine to ours, and ours to thine.

CHRISTMAS.

M. Madan (1760), and others.*

HARK! the herald Angels sing
Glory to the new-born King,
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled:
Joyful all ye nations rise,
Join the triumph of the skies,
With the angelic host proclaim,
Christ is born in Bethlehem.

*Hark! the herald Angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.*

- 2 Christ, by highest heaven adored,
Christ, the everlasting Lord,
Late in time behold him come
Offspring of a Virgin's womb!
Veiled in flesh the Godhead set,
Hail the incarnate Deity!
Pleased as man with man to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel.
3. Hail the heaven-born Prince of peace!
Hail the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings,
Risen with healing in his wings;
Mild he lays his glory by,
Born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.

Christina G. Rossetti, 1830-94.

IN the bleak mid-winter
Frosty wind made moan,
Earth stood hard as iron,
Water like a stone;

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- Snow had fallen, snow on snow,
Snow on snow,
In the bleak mid-winter,
Long ago.
- 2 Our God, heaven cannot hold him
Nor earth sustain ;
Heaven and earth shall flee away
When he comes to reign :
In the bleak mid-winter
A stable-place sufficed
The Lord God Almighty
Jesus Christ.
- 3 Enough for him, whom Cherubim
Worship night and day,
A breastful of milk,
And a mangerful of hay ;
Enough for him, whom Angels
Fall down before,
The ox and ass and camel
Which adore.
- 4 Angels and Archangels
May have gathered there,
Cherubim and Seraphim
Thronged the air—
But only his mother
In her maiden bliss
Worshipped the Belovèd
With a kiss.
5. What can I give him
Poor as I am ?
If I were a shepherd
I would bring a lamb ;
If I were a wise man
I would do my part ;
Yet what I can I give him—
Give my heart.

CHRISTMAS.

26 Suitable till Candlemas. E. H. Sears, 1810-76.*

IT came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From Angels bending near the earth
To touch their harp of gold :
'Peace on the earth, good-will to men,
From heaven's all-gracious King !'
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the Angels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled ;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world ;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing ;
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed Angels sing.

3 Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long ;
Beneath the Angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong ;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The love-song which they bring :
O hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the Angels sing !

4 * And ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow,
Look now ! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing ;
O rest beside the weary road,
And hear the Angels sing !

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

5. For lo ! the days are hastening on,
By prophet-bards foretold,
When, with the ever-circling years,
Comes round the age of gold ;
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendours fling,
And the whole world give back the song
Which now the Angels sing.

C. Coffin, 1676-1749. Tr. W. J. Blew.

Jam desinant suspiria.

LET sighing cease and woe,
God from on high hath heard,
Heaven's gate is opening wide, and lo !
The long-expected Word.

2. Peace ! through the deep of night
The heavenly choir breaks forth,
Singing, with festal songs and bright,
Our God and Saviour's birth.
- 3 The cave of Bethlehem
Those wakeful shepherds seek :
Let us too rise and greet with them
That infant pure and meek.
- 4 We enter—at the door
What marvel meets the eye ?
A crib, a mother pale and poor,
A child of poverty.
- 5 Art thou the eternal Son,
The eternal Father's ray ?
Whose little hand, thou infant one,
Doth lift the world alway ?

CHRISTMAS.

- 6 Yea—faith through that dim cloud,
 Like lightning, darts before,
 And greets thee, at whose footstool bowed
 Heaven's trembling hosts adore.

- 7 Chaste be our love like thine,
 Our swelling souls bring low,
 And in our hearts, O Babe divine,
 Be born, abide, and grow.

8. So shall thy birthday morn,
 Lord Christ, our birthday be,
 Then greet we all, ourselves new-born,
 Our King's nativity.

18th cent. Tr. F. Oakeley †, 1802-80.
 [For the Complete Version, see No. 614.]

Adeste, fideles.

- O COME, all ye faithful,
 Joyful and triumphant,
 O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
 Come and behold him,
 Born the King of Angels:
- O come, let us adore him,
 O come, let us adore him,
 O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord.*
- 2 God of God,
 Light of Light,
 Lo! he abhors not the Virgin's womb;
 Very God,
 Begotten not created:

 - 3 Sing, choirs of Angels,
 Sing in exultation,
 Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above,
 Glory to God
 In the highest:

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

Yea, Lord, we greet thee,
Born this happy morning,
Jesu, to thee be glory given;
Word of the Father,
Now in flesh appearing :

29 Suitable till Candlemas. H. R. Bramley.

THE great God of heaven is come down to earth,
His mother a Virgin, and sinless his birth;
The Father eternal his Father alone :
He sleeps in the manger; he reigns on the throne :
*Then let us adore him, and praise his great love :
To save us poor sinners he came from above.*

- 2 A Babe on the breast of a Maiden he lies,
Yet sits with the Father on high in the skies ;
Before him their faces the Seraphim hide,
While Joseph stands waiting, unscared, by his side :
- 3 Ho ! here is Emmanuel, here is the Child,
The Son that was promised to Mary so mild ;
Whose power and dominion shall ever increase,
The Prince that shall rule o'er a kingdom of peace :
- 4 The Wonderful Counsellor, boundless in might,
The Father's own image, the beam of his light ;
Behold him now wearing the likeness of man,
Weak, helpless, and speechless, in measure a span :
- 5 O wonder of wonders, which none can unfold :
The Ancient of days is an hour or two old ;
The Maker of all things is made of the earth,
Man is worshipped by Angels, and God comes to birth :
6. The Word in the bliss of the Godhead remains,
Yet in flesh comes to suffer the keenest of pains ;
He is that he was, and for ever shall be,
But becomes that he was not, for you and for me.

CHRISTMAS.

30

Nahum Tate, 1682-1715.

- WHILE shepherds watched their flocks by night,
All seated on the ground,
The Angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.
- 2 'Fear not,' said he (for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind);
'Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind.
- 3 'To you in David's town this day
Is born of David's line
A Saviour, who is Christ the Lord ;
And this shall be the sign :
- 4 'The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid.'
- 5 Thus spake the Seraph ; and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of Angels praising God, who thus
Addressed their joyful song :
6. 'All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace ;
Good-will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin and never cease.'

31 OFFICE HYMN. M and E.

*10th-16th cent.
Tr. J. M. Neale.*

Sancte Dei pretiose.

SAINTE of God, elect and precious,
Protomartyr Stephen, bright
With thy love of amplest measure,
Shining round thee like a light ;
Who to God commendedst, dying,
Them that did thee all despise :

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 Glisters now the crown above thee,
 Figured in thy sacred name :
 O that we, who truly love thee,
 May have portion in the same ;
 In the dreadful day of judgement
 Fearing neither sin nor shame.
3. Laud to God, and might, and honour,
 Who with flowers of rosy dye
 Crowned thy forehead, and hath placed thee
 In the starry throne on high :
 He direct us, he protect us
 From death's sting eternally. Amen.

Anatolius, c. 800. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Τῷ Βασιλεῖ καὶ Δεσπότῃ.

- THE Lord and King of all things
 But yesterday was born ;
 And Stephen's glorious offering
 His birth-tide shall adorn :
 No pearls of orient splendour,
 No jewels can he show ;
 But with his own true heart's blood
 His shining vestments glow.
- 2 Come, ye that love the Martyrs,
 And pluck the flowers of song,
 And weave them in a garland
 For this our suppliant throng ;
 And cry, ' O thou that shinest
 In grace's brightest ray,
 Christ's valiant Protomartyr,
 For peace and favour pray ! '
3. Thou first of all confessors,
 Of all the deacons crown,
 Of every following athlete
 The glory and renown :

ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST.

Make supplication, standing
Before Christ's royal throne,
That he would give the kingdom,
And for our sins atone !

ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST.

(Office Hymns, 174-6.)

J. Keble, 1792-1866

WORD supreme, before creation
Born of God eternally,
Who didst will for our salvation
To be born on earth, and die ;
Well thy Saints have kept their station,
Watching till thine hour drew nigh.

2 Now 'tis come, and faith espies thee ;
Like an eaglet in the morn,
One in steadfast worship eyes thee,
Thy beloved, thy latest born :
In thy glory he describes thee
Reigning from the tree of scorn.

3 * He first hoping and believing
Did beside the grave adore ;
Latest he, the warfare leaving,
Landed on the eternal shore ;
And his witness we receiving
Own thee Lord for evermore.

4 * Much he asked in loving wonder,
On thy bosom leaning, Lord !
In that secret place of thunder,
Answer kind didst thou accord,
Wisdom for thy Church to ponder
Till the day of dread award.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 5 Lo ! heaven's doors lift up, revealing
 How thy judgements earthward move ;
 Scrolls unfolded, trumpets pealing,
 Wine-cups from the wrath above,
 Yet o'er all a soft voice stealing—
 'Little children, trust and love !'
6. Thee, the 'Almighty King eternal,
 Father of the eternal Word ;
 Thee, the Father's Word supernal,
 Thee, of both, the Breath adored ;
 Heaven, and earth, and realms infernal
 Own, one glorious God and Lord. Amen.

THE INNOCENTS' DAY.

- 34 (Office Hymns, 182, 183.) Prudentius, b. 348. Tr. A. R.
 Salvete flores martyrum.

ALL hail, ye little Martyr flowers,
 Sweet rosebuds cut in dawning hours !
 When Herod sought the Christ to find
 Ye fell as bloom before the wind.

- 2 First victims of the Martyr bands,
 With crowns and palms in tender hands,
 Around the very altar, gay
 And innocent, ye seem to play.
- 3 What profited this great offence ?
 What use was Herod's violence ?
 A Babe survives that dreadful day,
 And Christ is safely borne away.
4. All honour, laud, and glory be,
 O Jesu, virgin-born, to thee ;
 All glory, as is ever meet
 To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

INNOCENTS' DAY.

35

The Venerable Bede, 673-735. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Hymnum canentes martyrum.

THE hymn for conquering Martyrs raise,
The victor Innocents we praise,
Whom in their woe earth cast away,
But heaven with joy received to-day ;
Whose Angels see the Father's face
World without end, and hymn his grace ;
And, while they chant unceasing lays,
The hymn for conquering Martyrs raise.

2 A voice from Ramah was there sent,
A voice of weeping and lament,
When Rachel mourned the children's care
Whom for the tyrant's sword she bare.
Triumphal is their glory now,
Whom earthly torments could not bow,
What time, both far and near that went,
A voice from Ramah was there sent.

3* Fear not, O little flock and blest,
The lion that your life opprest !
To heavenly pastures ever new
The heavenly Shepherd leadeth you ;
Who, dwelling now on Sion's hill,
The Lamb's dear footsteps follow still ;
By tyrant there no more distress,
Fear not, O little flock and blest.

4* And every tear is wiped away
By your dear Father's hands for ay :
Death hath no power to hurt you more,
Whose own is life's eternal store.
Who sow their seed, and sowing weep,
In everlasting joy shall reap,
What time they shine in heavenly day,
And every tear is wiped away.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

5. O city blest o'er all the earth,
Who gloriest in the Saviour's birth,
Whose are his earliest Martyrs dear,
By kindred and by triumph here ;
None from henceforth may call thee small,
Of rival towns thou passest all :
In whom our Monarch had his birth,
O city blest o'er all the earth !

The following is also suitable : 611 When Christ was born.

THE CIRCUMCISION OF CHRIST.

- 36 (Office Hymns, E. M. 18, M. 17.) S. Besnault, d. 1724.
Tr. J. Chandler.

Felix dies quem proprio.

- O HAPPY day, when first was poured
The blood of our redeeming Lord !
O happy day, when first began
His sufferings for sinful man !
- 2 Just entered on this world of woe,
His blood already learned to flow ;
His future death was thus expressed,
And thus his early love confessed.
- 3 From heaven descending to fulfil
The mandates of his Father's will,
E'en now behold the victim lie,
The Lamb of God, prepared to die !
- 4 Lord, circumcise our hearts, we pray,
Our fleshly natures purge away ;
Thy name, thy likeness may they bear :
Yea, stamp thy holy image there !
5. O Lord, the virgin-born, to thee
Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore,
And Holy Ghost for evermore. Amen.

CIRCUMCISION.—EPIPHANY.

c. 1786. Mr. J. Chandler.

Victis sibi cognomina.

CONQUERING kings their titles take
From the lands they captive make :
Jesu, thine was given thee
For a world thou madest free.

- 2 Not another name is given,
Power possessing under heaven,
Strong to call dead souls to rise
And exalt them to the skies.
- 3 That which Christ so hardly wrought,
That which he so dearly bought,
That salvation, mortals, say,
Will ye madly cast away?
- 4 Rather gladly for that name
Bear the Cross, endure the shame ;
Joyfully for him to die
Is not death but victory.
- 5 Jesu, if thou condescend
To be called the sinner's Friend,
Ours the joy and glory be
Thus to make our boast of thee.
6. Glory to the Father be,
Glory, Virgin-born, to thee,
Glory to the Holy Ghost,
Ever from the heavenly host. Amen.

OFFICE HYMN. E. and M. C. Sedulius, c. 450.

Hostis ~~Herodes~~ impie.

Tr. P. D.

WHY, impious ~~Herod~~, shouldst thou fear
Because ~~the~~ Christ is come so near?
He who doth heavenly kingdoms grant
Thine earthly ~~realm~~ can never want.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 Lo, sages from the East are gone
To where the star hath newly shone :
Led on by light to Light they press,
And by their gifts their God confess.
- 3 The Lamb of God is manifest
Again in Jordan's water blest,
And he who sin had never known
By washing hath our sins undone.
- 4 Yet he that ruleth everything
Can change the nature of the spring,
And gives at Cana this for sign--
The water reddens into wine.
5. Then glory, Lord, to thee we pay
For thine Epiphany to-day ;
All glory through eternity
To Father, Son, and Spirit be. Amen.

39

W. Chatterton Dix, 1837-

- AS with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold,
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright,
So, most gracious God, may we
Evermore be led to thee.
- 2 As with joyful steps they sped,
To that lowly manger-bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore,
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek thy mercy-seat.
 - 3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare,
So may we with holy joy,
Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to thee our heavenly King.

THE EPIPHANY

- 4 Holy Jesu, every day
Keep us in the narrow way ;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds thy glory hide.
5. In the heavenly country bright
Need they no created light ;
Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,
Thou its Sun which goes not down
There for ever may we sing
Alleluyas to our King.

40

Prudentius, b. 348, Tr. E. Caswall.

O sola magnarum urbium.

- BETHLEHEM, of noblest cities
None can once with thee compare ;
Thou alone the Lord from heaven
Didst for us incarnate bear.
- 2 Fairer than the sun at morning
Was the star that told his birth ;
To the lands their God announcing,
Hid beneath a form of earth.
 - 3 By its lambent beauty guided
See the eastern kings appear ;
See them bend, their gifts to offer,
Gifts of incense, gold and myrrh.
 - 4 Solemn things of mystic meaning :
Incense doth the God disclose,
Gold a royal child proclaimeth,
Myrrh a future tomb foreshows.
 5. Holy Jesu, in thy brightness
To the Gentile world displayed,
With the Father and the Spirit
Endless praise to thee be paid. Amen.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

41

Bishop R. Heber, 1783-1826.

BRIGHTEST and best of the sons of the morning,

Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid ;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining,
Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall :
Angels adore him in slumber reclining,
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
Odours of Edom and offerings divine ?
Gems of the mountain and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest or gold from the mine ?

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gifts would his favour secure ;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
• Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

5. Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid ;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

Suitable till Septuagesima. J. S. B. Monsell, 1811-75.

O WORSHIP the Lord in the beauty of holiness !
Bow down before him, his glory proclaim ;
With gold of obedience, and incense of lowliness,
Kneel and adore him, the Lord is his name !

2 Low at his feet lay thy burden of carefulness,
High on his heart he will bear it for thee,
Comfort thy sorrows, and answer thy prayerful-
ness,
Guiding thy steps as may best for thee be.

THE EPIPHANY.

- 3 Fear not to enter his courts in the ~~slenderness~~ ^{slenderness} ;
 Of the poor wealth thou wouldst reckon as thine :
 Truth in its beauty, and love in its tenderness,
 These are the offerings to lay on his shine.
- 4 These, though we bring them in trembling and fearfulness,
 He will accept for the name that is dear ;
 Mornings of joy give for evenings of tearfulness,
 Trust for our trembling and hope for our fear.
5. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness !
 Bow down before him, his glory proclaim ;
 With gold of obedience, and incense of lowliness,
 Kneel and adore him, the Lord is his name !

43 Suitable till Septuagesima. J. Morison, 1749-98
(Scottish Paraphrases).

- THE race that long in darkness pined
 Have seen a glorious light ;
 The people dwell in day, who dwelt
 In death's surrounding night.
- 2 To hail thy rise, thou better Sun,
 The gathering nations come,
 Joyous as when the reapers bear
 The harvest-treasures home.
- 3 To us a Child of hope is born,
 To us a Son is given ;
 Him shall the tribes of earth obey,
 Him all the hosts of heaven.
- 4 His name shall be the Prince of Peace,
 For evermore adored ;
 The Wonderful, the Counsellor,
 The great and mighty Lord.
5. His power increasing still shall spread ;
 His reign no end shall know :
 Justice shall guard his throne above,
 And peace abound below.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

C. Coffin, 1676-1749. Tr. J. Chandler †.

Quae stella sole pulchrior.

WHAT star is this, with beams so bright,
More lovely than the noonday light ?
'Tis sent to announce a new-born King,
Glad tidings of our God to bring.

- 2 'Tis now fulfilled what God decreed,
'From Jacob shall a star proceed' ;
And lo ! the eastern sages stand,
To read in heaven the Lord's command.
- 3 While outward signs the star displays,
An inward light the Lord conveys,
And urges them, with force benign,
To seek the giver of the sign.
- 4 True love can brook no dull delay :
Through toils and dangers lies their way ;
And yet their home, their friends, their all,
They leave at once, at God's high call.
- 5 ☉, while the star of heavenly grace
Invites us, Lord, to seek thy face,
May we no more that grace repel,
Or quench that light which shines so well !
6. To God the Father, God the Son,
And Holy Spirit, Three in One,
May every tongue and nation raise
An endless song of thankful praise ! Amen.

FROM THE EPIPHANY TILL SEPTUAGESIMA

45

J. Montgomery, 1771-1854.

HAIL to the Lord's Anointed !
Great David's greater Son ;
Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun !

FROM EPIPHANY TILL SEPTUAGESIMA.

He comes to break oppression,
To let the captive free ;
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

2 He comes with succour speedy
To those who suffer wrong ;
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong ;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemned and dying,
Were precious in his sight.

3 He shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth,
And love, joy, hope, like flowers,
Spring in his path to birth :
Before him on the mountains
Shall peace the herald go ;
And righteousness in fountains
From hill to valley flow.

4 * Arabia's desert-ranger
To him shall bow the knee ;
The Ethiopian stranger
His glory come to see ;
With offerings of devotion
Ships from the isles shall meet,
To pour the wealth of ocean
In tribute at his feet.

5 Kings shall fall down before him,
And gold and incense bring ;
All nations shall adore him,
His praise all people sing ;
To him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend ;
His kingdom still increasing,
A kingdom without end.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

6. O'er Every foe victorious,
He on his throne shall rest,
From age to age more glorious,
All-blessing and all-blest :
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove ;
His name shall stand for ever ;
That name to us is Love.

46

J.-B. de Santeuil, 1630-97. Tr. J. Chandler.

Divine crescebas Puer.

- IN stature grows the heavenly Child,
With death before his eyes ;
A Lamb unblemished, meek and mild,
Prepared for sacrifice.
- 2 The Son of God his glory hides
With parents mean and poor ;
And he who made the heaven abides
In dwelling-place obscure.
- 3 Those mighty hands that stay the sky
No earthly toil refuse ;
And he who set the stars on high
A humble trade pursues.
- 4 He before whom the Angels stand,
At whose behest they fly,
Now yields himself to man's command,
And lays his glory by.
5. Jesu, the Virgin's holy Son,
We praise thee and adore,
Who art with God the Father one,
And Spirit evermore. Amen.

47

Bishop Chr. Wordsworth, 1807-85.

SONGS of thankfulness and praise,
S Jesu, Lord, to thee we raise,
Manifested by the star
To the sages from afar ;

FROM EPIPHANY TILL SEPTUAGESIMA.

Branch of royal David's stem
In thy birth at Bethlehem ;
Anthems be to thee address,
God in Man made manifest.

2 Manifest at Jordan's stream,
Prophet, Priest, and King supreme ;
And at Cana wedding-guest •
In thy Godhead manifest ;
Manifest in power divine,
Changing water into wine ;
Anthems be to thee address,
God in Man made manifest.

3 Manifest in making whole
Palsied limbs and fainting soul ;
Manifest in valiant fight,
Quelling all the devil's might ;
Manifest in gracious will,
Ever bringing good from ill ;
Anthems be to thee address,
God in Man made manifest.

4 * Sun and moon shall darkened be,
Stars shall fall, the heavens shall flee ;
Christ will then like lightning shine,
All will see his glorious sign ;
All will then the trumpet hear,
All will see the Judge appear ;
Thou by all wilt be confest,
God in Man made manifest.

5. Grant us grace to see thee, Lord,
Mirrored in thy holy word ;
May we imitate thee now,
And be pure, as pure art thou ;
That we like to thee may be
At thy great Epiphany,
And may praise thee, ever blest,
God in Man made manifest.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

48

A. P. Stanley, 1815-81.

- THE Lord is come ! On Syrian soil,
 The child of poverty and toil ;
 The Man of Sorrows, born to know
 Each varying shade of human woe :
 His joy, his glory, ~~to~~ fulfil,
 In earth and heaven, his Father's will ;
 On lonely mount, by festive board,
 On bitter Cross, despised, adored.
- 2 The Lord is come ! In him we trace
 The fullness of God's truth and grace ;
 Throughout those words and acts divine
 Gleams of the eternal splendour shine ;
 And from his inmost Spirit flow,
 As from a height of sunlit snow,
 The rivers of perennial life,
 To heal and sweeten Nature's strife.
3. The Lord is come ! In every heart
 Where truth and mercy claim a part ;
 In every land where right is might,
 And deeds of darkness shun the light ;
 In every Church where faith and love
 Lift earthward thoughts to things above ;
 In every holy, happy home,
 We bless thee, Lord, that thou hast come.

The following are also suitable :—

- 364 All hail the power of Jesu's name.
 380 Come, ye faithful, raise the anthem.
 381 Crown him with many crowns.
 384 Eternal Ruler of the ceaseless round.
 395 God of mercy, God of grace.
 419 Jesu, the very thought of thee.
 420 Jesus shall reign where'er the sun.
 423 Judge eternal, throned in splendour.
 459 O Love, how deep, how broad, how high.
 481 Songs of praise the Angels sang.
 514 Who is this so weak and helpless.

49 OFFICE HYMN. Saturday, E. St. Ambrose, 340-97.
Tr. C. B.

Deus Creator omnium.

- CREATOR of the earth and sky,
Ruling the firmament on high,
Clothing the day with robes of light,
Blessing with gracious sleep the night,
2 That rest may comfort weary men,
And brace to useful toil again,
And soothe awhile the harassed mind,
And sorrow's heavy load unbind :
3 Day sinks ; we thank thee for thy gift ;
Night comes ; and once again we lift
Our prayer and vows and hymns that we
Against all ills may shielded be.
4 Thee let the secret heart acclaim,
Thee let our tuneful voices name,
Round thee our chaste affections cling,
Thee sober reason own as King.
5 That when black darkness closes day,
And shadows thicken round our way,
Faith may no darkness know, and night
From faith's clear beam may borrow light.
6 Rest not, my heaven-born mind and will ;
Rest, all ye thoughts and deeds of ill ;
May faith its watch unwearied keep,
And cool the dreaming warmth of sleep.
7 From cheats of sense, Lord, keep me free,
And let my heart's depth dream of thee ;
Let not my envious foe draw near,
To break my rest with any fear.
8. Pray we the Father and the Son,
And Holy Ghost : O Three in One,
Blest Trinity, whom all obey,
Guard thou thy sheep by night and day. Amen.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

50 OFFICE HYMN. Sunday, M. Ascribed to St Gregory the Great, 6th cent. Tr. V. H.

Primo dierum omnium.

THIS day the first of days was made,
When God in light the world arrayed ;
Or when his Word arose again,
And, conquering death, gave life to men.

2 Slumber and sloth drive far away ;

• Earlier arise to greet the day ;
And ere its dawn in heaven unfold
The heart's desire to God be told :

3 Unto our prayer that he attend,
His all-creating power extend,
And still renew us, lest we miss
Through earthly stain our heavenly bliss.

4 That us, who here this day repair
To keep the Apostles' time of prayer,
And hymn the quiet hours of morn,
With blessed gifts he may adorn.

• 5 For this, Redeemer, thee we pray
That thou wilt wash our sins away,
And of thy loving-kindness grant
Whate'er of good our spirits want :

6 That exiles here awhile in flesh
Some earnest may our souls refresh
Of that pure life for which we long,
Some foretaste of the heavenly song.

7. O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son ;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

51 OFFICE HYMN. Sunday, E. 6th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Lucis Creator optime.

O BLEST Creator of the light,
Who mak'st the day with radiance bright,

FROM THE EPIPHANY TILL LENT.

And o'er the forming world didst call
The light from chaos first of all ;

- 2 Whose wisdom joined in meet array
The morn and eve, and named them Day :
Night comes with all its darkling fears,
Regard thy people's prayers and tears,
- 3 Lest, sunk in sin, and whelm'd with strife,
They lose the gift of endless life ;
While thinking but the thoughts of time,
They weave new chains of woe and crime.
- 4 But grant them grace that they may strain
The heavenly gate and prize to gain :
Each harmful lure aside to cast,
And purge away each error past.
5. O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son ;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

MONDAY MORNING.

52 OFFICE HYMN.

St. Ambrose, 840-97.

Tr. F. H.

Splendor paternae gloriae.

O SPLENDOUR of God's glory bright,
O thou that bringest light from light,
O Light of light, light's living spring,
O Day, all days illumining,

- 2 O thou true Sun, on us thy glance
Let fall in royal radiance,
The Spirit's sanctifying beam
Upon our earthly senses stream.
- 3 The Father, too, our prayers implore,
Father of glory evermore ;
The Father of all grace and might,
To banish sin from our delight :

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 4 To guide whate'er we nobly do,
With love all envy to subdue,
To make ill-fortune turn to fair,
And give us grace our wrongs to bear.
- 5 Our mind be in his keeping placed,
Our body true to him and chaste,
Where only faith her fire shall feed,
To burn the tares of Satan's seed.
- 6 And Christ to us for food shall be,
From him our drink that wellethe free,
The Spirit's wine, that maketh whole,
And, mocking not, exalts the soul.
- 7 Rejoicing may this day go hence,
Like virgin dawn our innocence,
Like fiery noon our faith appear,
Nor know the gloom of twilight drear.
- 8 Morn in her rosy car is borne ;
Let him come forth our perfect morn,
The Word in God the Father one,
The Father perfect in the Son.
9. All land to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee ;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

TUESDAY MORNING.

53 OFFICE HYMN.

*Prudentius, b. 348.
Tr. J. M. Neale.*

Ales diei nuntius.

THE wingèd herald of the day
Proclaims the morn's approaching ray :
And Christ the Lord our souls excites,
And so to endless life invites.

FROM THE EPIPHANY TIL LENT.

- 2 Take up thy bed, to each he cries,
Who sick or wrapt in slumber lies ;
And chaste and just and sober stand,
And watch : my coming is at hand.
- 3 With earnest cry, with tearful care,
Call we the Lord to hear our prayer ;
While supplication, pure and deep,
Forbids each chastened heart to sleep.
- 4 Do thou, O Christ, our slumbers wake ;
Do thou the chains of darkness break .
Purge thou our former sins away,
And in our souls new light display.
5. All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee ;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

54 OFFICE HYMN.

*Prudentius, b. 348.
Tr. R. M. P.*

Nox et tenebrae et nubila.

- YE clouds and darkness, hosts of night,
That breed confusion and affright,
Begone ! o'erhead the dawn shines clear,
The light breaks in and Christ is here.
- 2 Earth's gloom flees broken and dispersed,
By the sun's piercing shafts coerced :
The day-star's eyes rain influence bright,
And colours glimmer back to sight.
 - 3 Thee, Christ, alone we know ; to thee
We bend in pure simplicity ;
Our songs with tears to thee arise ;
Prove thou our hearts with thy clear eyes.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

Though we be stained with blots within,
Thy quickening rays shall purge our sin ;
Light of the Morning Star, thy grace
Shed on us from thy cloudless face.

All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

THURSDAY MORNING.

55 OFFICE HYMN.

*Prudentius, b. 348.
Tr. R. M. P.*

Lux ecce surgit aurea.

LO! golden light rekindles day :
Let paling darkness steal away,
Which all too long o'erwhelmed our gaze
And led our steps by winding ways.

- 2 We pray thee, rising Light serene,
E'en as thyself our hearts make clean ;
Let no deceit our lips defile,
Nor let our souls be vexed by guile.

- 3 O keep us, as the hours proceed,
From lying word and evil deed ;
Our roving eyes from sin set free,
Our body from impurity.

- 4 For thou dost from above survey
The converse of each fleeting day ;
Thou dost foresee from morning light
Our every deed, until the night.

5. All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee ;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

FROM THE EPIPHANY TIDE

FRIDAY MORNING.

56 OFFICE HYMN. 6th cent. Tr.

Aeterna caeli gloria.

ETERNAL Glory of the sky,
Blest hope of frail humanity,
The Father's sole-begotten One,
Yet born a spotless Virgin's Son !

- 2 Uplift us with thine arm of might.
And let our hearts rise pure and bright,
And, ardent in God's praises, pay
The thanks we owe him every day.
- 3 The day-star's rays are glittering clear,
And tell that day itself is near :
The shadows of the night depart ;
Thou, holy Light, illumine the heart !
- 4 Within our senses ever dwell,
And worldly darkness thence expel ;
Long as the days of life endure,
Preserve our souls devout and pure.
- 5 The faith that first must be possest,
Root deep within our inmost breast ;
And joyous hope in second place,
Then charity, thy greatest grace.
6. All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee ;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

SATURDAY MORNING.

57 OFFICE HYMN. Before 8th cent. Tr. E. Caswall.

Aurora jam spargit polum.

THE dawn is sprinkling in the east
Its golden shower, as day flows in ;
Fast mount the pointed shafts of light :
Farewell to darkness and to sin !

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 Away, ye midnight phantoms all !
 Away, despondence and despair !
 Whatever guilt the night has brought
 Now let it vanish into air.
- 3 So, Lord, when that last morning breaks,
 Looking to which we sigh and pray,
 O may it to thy minstrels prove
 The dawning of a better day.
4. To God the Father glory be,
 And to his sole-begotten Son ;
 Glory, O Holy Ghost, to thee
 While everlasting ages run. Amen.

MONDAY EVENING.

58 OFFICE HYMN. c. 6th. cent. Tr. G. G.

Immense caeli Conditor.

- O BOUNDLESS Wisdom, God most high,
O Maker of the earth and sky,
Who bid'st the parted waters flow
• In heaven above, on earth below :
- 2 The streams on earth, the clouds in heaven,
By thee their ordered bounds were given,
Lest 'neath the untempered fires of day
The parched soil should waste away.
- 3 E'en so on us who seek thy face
Pour forth the waters of thy grace ;
Renew the fount of life within,
And quench the wasting fires of sin.
- 4 Let faith discern the eternal Light
Beyond the darkness of the night,
And through the mists of falsehood see
The path of truth revealed by thee.
5. O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son ;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

Telluris ingens Conditor.

EARTH'S mighty Maker, whose command
Raised from the sea the solid land,
And drove each billowy heap away,
And bade the earth stand firm for ay :

- 2 That so, with flowers of golden hue,
The seeds of each it might renew ;
And fruit-trees bearing fruit might yield—
And pleasant pasture of the field ;
3 Our spirit's rankling wounds efface
With dewy freshness of thy grace :
That grief may cleanse each deed of ill,
And o'er each lust may triumph still.
4 Let every soul thy law obey,
And keep from every evil way ;
Rejoice each promised good to win,
And flee from every mortal sin.
5. O Father, that we ask be done,

Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

- 60 OFFICE HYMN. 4th or 5th cent. Tr. M. F. B.
Caeli Deus sanctissime.

MOST holy Lord and God of heaven,
Who to the glowing sky hast given
The fires that in the east are born
With gradual splendours of the morn ;

The sun's enkindled flaming wheel,
Didst set the moon her ordered ways,
And stars their ever-winding maze ;

Unburdened of our guilty load
May we unfettered serve our God.
5. O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son ;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,

THURSDAY EVENING.

61 OFFICE HYMN. 6th or 7th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale †.

Magnae Deus potentiae.

- ALmighty God, who from the flood
Didst bring to light a twofold brood ;
Part in the firmament to fly,
And part in ocean's depths to lie ;
2. Appointing fishes in the sea,
And fowls in open air to be,
That each, by origin the same,
Its separate dwelling-place might claim :
 3. Grant that thy servants, by the tide
Of Blood and water purified,
No guilty fall from thee may know,
Nor death eternal undergo.
 4. Be none submerged in sin's distress,
None lifted up in boastfulness ;
That contrite hearts be not dismayed,
Nor haughty souls in ruin laid.
 5. O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son ;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

62 OFFICE HYMN. c. 7th cent. Tr. J. D. Chambers†.

Plasmator hominis, Deus.

MAKER of man, who from thy throne
Dost order all things, God alone ;
By whose decree the teeming earth
To reptile and to beast gave birth :

- 2 The mighty forms that fill the land,
Instinct with life at thy command,
Are given subdued to humankind
For service in their rank assigned.
- 3 From all thy servants drive away
Whate'er of thought impure to-day
Hath been with open action blent,
Or mingled with the heart's intent.
- 4 In heaven thine endless joys bestow,
And grant thy gifts of grace below ;
From chains of strife our souls release,
Bind fast the gentle bands of peace.
5. O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son ;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

Alleluya, dulce carmen.

ALLELUYA, song of sweetness,
Voice of joy, eternal lay ;
Alleluya is the anthem
Of the choirs in heavenly day,
Which the Angels sing, abiding

- 3 Alleluya we deserve not
Here to chant for evermore :
Alleluya our transgressions
Make us for awhile give o'er ;
For the holy time is coming,
Bidding us our sins deplore.
4. Trinity of endless glory,
Hear thy people as they cry ;
Grant us all to keep thy Easter
In our home beyond the sky ;
There to thee our Alleluya
Singing everlastingly. Amen.

SEPTUAGESIMA TO LENT.

C. Coffin, 1676-1749. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Te laeta, mundi Conditor.

MAKER of earth, to thee alone
Perpetual rest belongs ;
And the bright choirs around thy throne
May pour their endless songs.

- 2 But we—ah, holy now no more !
Are doomed to toil and pain ;
Yet exiles on an alien shore
May sing their country's strain.
- 3 Father, whose promise binds thee still
To heal the suppliant throng,
Grant us to mourn the deeds of ill
That banish us so long ;

LENT.

- 4 And, while we mourn, in faith to rest
Upon thy love and care,
Till thou restore us with the blest
The song of heaven to share.
5. O God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Holy Ghost,
To thee be praise, great Three in One,
From thy created host. Amen.

The following are also suitable:—

- 459 O Love, how deep, how broad, how high.
471 Praise to the Holiest in the height.
497 There is a book who runs may read.

- 65 OFFICE HYMN. E. Till Lent iii. c. 6th cent.
Tr. J. M. Neale.

Ex more docti mystico.

- THE fast, as taught by holy lore,
We keep in solemn course once more :
The fast to all men known, and bound
In forty days of yearly round.
- 2 The law and seers that were of old
In divers ways this Lent foretold,
Which Christ, all seasons' King and guide,
In after ages sanctified.
- 3 More sparing therefore let us make
The words we speak, the food we take,
Our sleep and mirth,—and closer barred
Be every sense in holy guard.
- 4 In prayer together let us fall,
And cry for mercy, one and all,
And weep before the Judge's feet,
And his avenging wrath entreat.
- 5 Thy grace have we offended sore,
By sins, O God, which we deplore ;
But pour upon us from on high,
O pardoning One, thy clemency.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 6 Remember thou, though frail we be,
That yet thine handiwork are we ;
Nor let the honour of thy name
Be by another put to shame.
- 7 Forgive the sin that we have wrought ;
Increase the good that we have sought ;
That we at length, our wanderings o'er,
May please thee here and evermore.
8. We pray thee, Holy Trinity,
One God, unchanging Unity,
That we from this our abstinence
May reap the fruits of penitence. Amen.

66 OFFICE HYMN. M. Till Lent iii.
Asc. to St. Gregory the Great, 6th cent. Tr. T. A. L.
Audi benigne Conditor.

- (O) KIND Creator, bow thine ear
To mark the cry, to know the tear
Before thy throne of mercy spent
• In this thy holy fast of Lent.
- 2 Our hearts are open, Lord, to thee :
Thou knowest our infirmity ;
Pour out on all who seek thy face
Abundance of thy pardoning grace.
 - 3 Our sins are many, this we know ;
Spare us, good Lord, thy mercy show ;
And for the honour of thy name
Our fainting souls to life reclaim.
 - 4 Give us the self-control that springs
From discipline of outward things,
That fasting inward secretly
The soul may purely dwell with thee.
 5. We pray thee, Holy Trinity,
One God, unchanging Unity,
That we from this our abstinence
May reap the fruits of penitence. Amen.

67 OFFICE HYMN. E. Lent iii. till Passion Sunday. Before 12th cent. Tr. T. A. L.

Ecce tempus idoneum.

- NOW is the healing time decreed
For sins of heart, of word or deed,
When we in humble fear record
The wrong that we have done the Lord ;
- 2 Who, alway merciful and good,
Has borne so long our wayward mood,
Nor cut us off unsparingly
In our so great iniquity.
- 3 Therefore with fasting and with prayer,
Our secret sorrow we declare ;
With all good striving seek his face,
And lowly hearted plead for grace.
- 4 Cleanse us, O Lord, from every stain,
Help us the meed of praise to gain,
Till with the Angels linked in love
Joyful we tread thy courts above.
5. Father and Son and Spirit blest,
To thee be every prayer addrest,
Who art in threefold Name adored,
From age to age, the only Lord. Amen.

68 OFFICE HYMN. M. Lent iii. till Passion Sunday. Ascr. to St. Gregory the Great. 6th cent. Tr. M. F. B.

Clarum decus jejunii.

- THE glory of these forty days
We celebrate with songs of praise ;
For Christ, by whom all things were made,
Himself has fasted and has prayed.
- 2 Alone and fasting Moses saw
The loving God who gave the Law ;
And to Elijah, fasting, came
The steeds and chariots of flame.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 3 So Daniel trained his mystic sight,
Delivered from the lions' might ;
And John, the Bridegroom's friend, became
The herald of Messiah's name.
- 4 Then grant us, Lord, like them to be
Full oft in fast and prayer with thee ;
Our spirits strengthen with thy grace,
And give us joy to see thy face.
5. Father and Son and Spirit blest,
To thee be every prayer address,
Who art in threefold Name adored,
From age to age, the only Lord. Amen.

69 OFFICE HYMN. M. Lent iii. till Passion Sunday. c. 9th cent. Tr. T. A. L.

Jesu quadragenariae.

- O JESU Christ, from thee began
This healing for the soul of man,
By fasting sought, by fasting found,
Through forty days of yearly round ;
- 2 That he who fell from high delight,
Borne down to sensual appetite,
By dint of stern control may rise
To climb the hills of Paradise.
 - 3 Therefore behold thy Church, O Lord,
And grace of penitence accord
To all who seek with generous tears
Renewal of their wasted years.
 - 4 Forgive the sin that we have done,
Forgive the course that we have run,
And show henceforth in evil day
Thyself our succour and our stay.
 - 5 But now let every heart prepare,
By sacrifice of fast and prayer,
To keep with joy magnificent
The solemn Easter festival.

LENT.

6. Father and Son and Spirit blest,
To thee be every prayer address,
Who art in threefold Name adored,
From age to age, the only Lord. Amen.

J. Heilmann, 1585-1647. Tr. V. H.

Herzliebster Jesu.

- AH, holy Jesu, how hast thou offended,
That man to judge thee hath in hate pretended?
By foes derided, by thine own rejected,
O most afflicted.
- 2 Who was the guilty? Who brought this upon thee?
Alas, my treason, Jesu, hath undone thee.
'Twas I, Lord Jesu, I it was denied thee :
I crucified thee.
- 3 Lo, the good Shepherd for the sheep is offered ;
The slave hath sinnèd, and the Son hath suffered ;
For man's atonement, while he nothing heedeth,
God intercèdeth.
- 4 For me, kind Jesu, was thy incarnation,
Thy mortal sorrow, and thy life's oblation ;
Thy death of anguish and thy bitter passion,
For my salvation.
5. Therefore, kind Jesu, since I cannot pay thee,
I do adore thee, and will ever pray thee,
Think on thy pity and thy love unswerving,
Not my deserving.

Whatever sorrow vex the mind,
Or guilt the soul oppress,

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 Jesus, who gave himself for you
Upon the Cross to die,
Opens to you his sacred Heart ;
O to that Heart draw nigh.
- 3 Ye hear how kindly he invites ;
Ye hear his words so blest—
'All ye that labour come to me,
And I will give you rest.'
- 4 O Jesus, joy of Saints on high,
Thou hope of sinners here,
Attracted by those loving words
To thee I lift my prayer.
5. Wash thou my wounds in that dear Blood
Which forth from thee doth flow ;
New grace, new hope inspire, a new
And better heart bestow.

72

J. M. Neale, 1818-66. From the Greek.

CHRISTIAN, dost thou see them
On the holy ground,
How the troops of Midian
Prowl and prowl around ?
Christian, up and smite them,
Counting gain but loss ;
Smite them by the merit
Of the holy Cross.

2 Christian, dost thou feel them,
How they work within,
Striving, tempting, luring,
Goading into sin ?
Christian, never tremble ;
Never be down-cast ;
Smite them by the virtue
Of the Lenten fast.

3 Christian, dost thou hear them,
How they speak thee fair ?
'Always fast and vigil ?
Always watch and prayer ?'

LENT.

Christian, answer boldly,
‘While I breathe, I pray :’
Peace shall follow battle,
Night shall end in day.

4. ‘Well I know thy trouble,
O my servant true;
Thou art very weary,—
I was weary too ;
But that toil shall make thee
Some day all mine own,—
But the end of sorrow
Shall be near my throne.’

73

G. H. Smyttan, 1825–70, and F. Pott.

- FORTY days and forty nights
Thou wast fasting in the wild ;
Forty days and forty nights
Tempted, and yet undefiled :
2 Sunbeams scorching all the day ;
Chilly dew-drops nightly shed ;
Prowling beasts about thy way ;
Stones thy pillow, earth thy bed.
3 Shall not we thy watchings share,
And from earthly joys abstain,
Fasting with unceasing prayer,
Glad with thee to suffer pain ?
4 And if Satan, vexing sore,
Flesh or spirit should assail,
Thou, his vanquisher before,
Grant we may not faint nor fail.
5 So shall we have peace divine ;
Holier gladness ours shall be ;
Round us too shall Angels shine,
Such as ministered to thee.
6. Keep, O keep us, Saviour dear,
Ever constant by thy side ;
That with thee we may appear
At the eternal Eastertide.

Ps. 51. N. Tate and N. Brady. (New Version, 1698.)

- HAVE mercy, Lord, on me,
As thou wert ever kind;
Let me, opprest with loads of guilt,
Thy wonted mercy find.
- 2 Wash off my foul offence,
And cleanse me from my sin;
For I confess my crime, and see How great my guilt has been.
- 3 The joy thy favour gives
Let me again obtain,
And thy free Spirit's firm support
My fainting soul sustain.
4. To God the Father, Son,
And Spirit glory be,
As 'twas, and is, and shall be so
To all eternity. Amen.

75

J. J. Cummins †, 1795–1867.

- JESU, Lord of life and glory,
Bend from heaven thy gracious ear;
While our waiting souls adore thee,
Friend of helpless sinners, hear:
By thy mercy,
O deliver us, good Lord.
- 2* Taught by thine unerring Spirit
Boldly we draw nigh to God,
Only in thy spotless merit,
Only through thy precious Blood:
By thy mercy,
O deliver us, good Lord.
- 3 From the depth of nature's blindness,
From the hardening power of sin,
From all malice and unkindness,
From the pride that lurks within:
By thy mercy,
O deliver us, good Lord.

LENT.

- 4 When temptation sorely presses,
In the day of Satan's power,
In our times of deep distresses,
In each dark and trying hour :
By thy mercy,
O deliver us, good Lord.
- 5 * In the weary hours of sickness,
In the times of grief and pain,
When we feel our mortal weakness,
When the creature's help is vain :
By thy mercy,
O deliver us, good Lord.
- 6 In the solemn hour of dying,
In the awful judgement day,
May our souls, on thee relying,
Find thee still our rock and stay :
By thy mercy,
O deliver us, good Lord.
7. Jesu, may thy promised blessing
Comfort to our souls afford ;
May we now, thy love possessing,
And at length our full reward,
Ever praise thee,
Thee, our ever-glorious Lord.

76

Isaac Williams †, 1802-65.

- L ORD, in this thy mercy's day,
Ere it pass for ay away,
On our knees we fall and pray.
- 2 Holy Jesu, grant us tears,
Fill us with heart-searching fears,
Ere that awful-doom appears.
- 3 Lord, on us thy Spirit pour,
Kneeling lowly at the door,
Ere it close for evermore.
- 4 By thy night of agony,
By thy supplicating cry,
By thy willingness to die ;

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 5 By thy tears of bitter woe
For Jerusalem below,
Let us not thy love forgo.
6. Grant us 'neath thy wings a place,
Lest we lose this day of grace,
Ere we shall behold thy face.

77

Bp. Synesius, 375-430. Tr. A. W. Chatfield.

Μνώο Χριστέ.

- LORD Jesus, think on me,
And purge away my sin;
From earthborn passions set me free,
And make me pure within.
- 2 Lord Jesus, think on me,
With care and woe opprest;
Let me thy loving servant be,
And taste thy promised rest.
- 3 Lord Jesus, think on me,
Amid the battle's strife;
In all my pain and misery
Be thou my health and life.
- 4 Lord Jesus, think on me,
Nor let me go astray;
Through darkness and perplexity
Point thou the heavenly way.
- 5 Lord Jesus, think on me,
When flows the tempest high:
When on doth rush the enemy
O Saviour, be thou nigh.
6. Lord Jesus, think on me,
That, when the flood is past,
I may the eternal brightness see,
And share thy joy at last.

78

J. Montgomery, 1771-1854.

- LORD, teach us how to pray aright
With reverence and with fear;
Though dust and ashes in thy sight,
We may, we must draw near.

LENT.

- 2 We perish if we cease from prayer ;
O grant us power to pray ;
And when to meet thee we prepare,
Lord, meet us by the way.
- 3 God of all grace, we come to thee
With broken contrite hearts ;
Give, what thine eye delights to see,
Truth in the inward parts ;
- 4 Faith in the only sacrifice
That can for sin atone ;
To cast our hopes, to fix our eyes,
On Christ, on Christ alone ;
- 5 Patience to watch, and wait, and weep,
Though mercy long delay ;
Courage our fainting souls to keep,
And trust thee though thou slay.
6. Give these, and then thy will be done ;
Thus, strengthened with all might,
We, through thy Spirit and thy Son,
Shall pray, and pray aright.

79

J. D. Carlyle, 1758-1804.

LORD, when we bend before thy throne,
And our confessions pour,
Teach us to feel the sins we own,
And hate what we deplore.

- 2 Our broken spirits pitying see
And penitence impart ;
Then let a kindling glance from thee
Beam hope upon the heart.
- 3 When we disclose our wants in prayer
May we our wills resign,
And not a thought our bosom share
That is not wholly thine.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

4. Let faith each meek petition fill,
And waft it to the skies ;
And teach our hearts 'tis goodness still
That grants it or denies.

80

St. Francis Xavier, 1506-52. Tr. E. Caswall †.

O Deus, ego amo te.

MY God, I love thee ; not because
I hope for heaven thereby,
Nor yet because who love thee not
Are lost eternally.

- 2 Thou, O my Jesus, thou didst me
Upon the Cross embrace ;
For me didst bear the nails and spear,
And manifold disgrace,

- 3 And griefs and torments numberless,
And sweat of agony ;
E'en death itself ; and all for one
Who was thine enemy.

- 4 Then why, O blessed Jesu Christ,
Should I not love thee well,
Not for the sake of winning heaven,
Or of escaping hell ;

- 5 Not with the hope of gaining aught,
Not seeking a reward ;
But as thyself hast lovèd me,
O ever-loving Lord !

6. E'en so I love thee, and will love,
And in thy praise will sing,
Solely because thou art my God,
And my eternal King.

81

Compline. Before 800. Tr. W. J. Copeland and others.

Christe qui lux es et dies.

O CHRIST, who art the Light and Day,
Thou drivest darksome night away !
We know thee as the Light of light,
Illuminating mortal sight.

DEFEND.

- 2 All-holy Lord, we pray to thee,
Keep us to-night from danger free ;
Grant us, dear Lord, in thee to rest,
So be our sleep in quiet blest.
- 3 And while the eyes soft slumber take,
Still be the heart to thee awake ;
Be thy right hand uphold above
Thy servants resting in thy love.
- 4 Yea, our Defender, be thou nigh
To bid the powers of darkness fly ;
Keep us from sin, and guide for good
Thy servants purchased by thy Blood.
- 5 Remember us, dear Lord, we pray,
While in this mortal flesh we stay :
'Tis thou who dost the soul defend—
Be present with us to the end.
6. Blest Three in One and One in Three,
Almighty God, we pray to thee
That thou wouldst now vouchsafe to bless
Our fast with fruits of righteousness. Amen.

82

C. Wesley, 1707-88.

- O FOR a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free ;
A heart that always feels thy Blood
So freely spilt for me :
- 2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My dear Redeemer's throne ;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone :
 - 3 A humble, lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within .
 - 4 A heart in every thought renewed,
And full of love divine ;
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
A copy, Lord, of thine.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 5 My heart, thou know'st, can never rest
Till thou create my peace ;
Till of mine Eden reposest,
From self, and sin, I cease.
6. Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart,
Come quickly from above ;
Write thy new name upon my heart,
Thy new best name of love.

83

H. H. Milman, 1791-1868.

- O HELP us, Lord ; each hour of need
Thy heavenly succour give ;
Help us in thought, and word, and deed,
Each hour on earth we live.
- 2 O help us, when our spirits bleed
With contrite anguish sore,
And when our hearts are cold and dead,
O help us, Lord, the more.
- 3 O help us through the prayer of faith
More firmly to believe ;
For still the more the servant hath,
The more shall he receive.
4. O help us, Jesu, from on high,
We know no help but thee ;
O help us so to live and die
As thine in heaven to be.

84

J. Marckant (Old Version, 1560).

- O LORD, turn not away thy face
From him that lies prostrate,
Lamenting sore his sinful life
Before thy mercy-gate ;
- 2 Which gate thou openest wide to those
That do lament their sin :
Shut not that gate against me, Lord,
But let me enter in.

LENT.

- 3 And call me not to mine account
How I have livèd here ;
For then I know right well, O Lord,
How vile I shall appear.
- 4 So come I to thy mercy-gate,
Where mercy doth abound,
Requiring mercy for my sin
To heal my deadly wound.
5. Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask,
This is the total sum ;
For mercy, Lord, is all my suit :
Lord, let thy mercy come.

85

T. Haweis, 1732-1820, and others.

- O THOU from whom all goodness flows,
I lift my heart to thee ;
In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
Dear Lord, remember me.
- 2 When on my poor distressèd heart
My sins lie heavily,
Thy pardon grant, new peace impart :
Dear Lord, remember me.
- 3 When trials sore obstruct my way,
And ills I cannot flee,
O let my strength be as my day :
Dear Lord, remember me.
- 4 If, for thy sake, upon my name
Shame and reproaches be,
All hail reproach and welcome shame :
Dear Lord, remember me.
- 5 If worn with pain, disease, or grief
This feeble spirit be ;
Grant patience, rest, and kind relief :
Dear Lord, remember me.
6. And O, when in the hour of death
I wait thy just decree,
Be this the prayer of my last breath :
Dear Lord, remember me.

*J. W. Hewett and others. Based on Summi largitor

- O THOU who dost accord us
The highest prize and guerdon,
Thou hope of all our race,
Jesu, do thou afford us
The gift we ask of pardon
For all who humbly seek thy face.
- 2 With whispered accusation
Our conscience tells of sinning
In thought, and word, and deed ;
Thine is our restoration,
The work of grace beginning
For souls from every burthen freed.
- 3 For who, if thou reject us,
Shall raise the fainting spirit ?
'Tis thine alone to spare :
If thou to life elect us,
With cleansèd hearts to near it,
Shall be our task, our lowly prayer.
4. O Trinity most glorious,
Thy pardon free bestowing,
Defend us evermore ;
That in thy courts victorious,
Thy love more truly knowing,
We may with all thy Saints adore.

87

Sir R. Grant, 1785-1838.

SAVIOUR, when in dust to thee
Low we bow the adoring knee ;
When repentant, to the skies
Scarce we lift our weeping eyes :
O, by all thy pains and woe,
Suffered once for man below,
Bending from thy throne on high,
Hear our solemn Litany.

LENT.

- 2 By thy helpless infant years,
By thy life of want and tears,
By thy days of sore distress
In the savage wilderness,
By the dread mysterious hour
Of the insulting tempter's power :
Turn, O turn a favouring eye,
Hear our solemn Litany.
- 3 By the sacred griefs that wept
O'er the grave where Lazarus slept ;
By the boding tears that flowed
Over Salem's loved abode ;
By the anguished sigh that told
Treachery lurked within thy fold :
From thy seat above the sky
Hear our solemn Litany.
- 4 By thine hour of dire despair,
By thine agony of prayer,
By the Cross, the nail, the thorn,
Piercing spear and torturing scorn ;
By the gloom that veiled the skies
O'er the dreadful Sacrifice :
Listen to our humble cry,
Hear our solemn Litany.
5. By thy deep expiring groan,
By the sad sepulchral stone,
By the vault whose dark abode
Held in vain the rising God
O ! from earth to heaven restored,
Mighty reascended Lord,
Listen, listen to the cry
Of our solemn Litany.

J. S. B. Monsell, 1811-75.

SINFUL, sighing to be blest ;
Bound, and longing to be free ;
Weary, waiting for my rest :
God, be merciful to me.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 Holiness I've none to plead,
Sinfulness in all I see,
I can only bring my need :
God, be merciful to me.
- 3 Broken heart and downcast eyes
Dare not lift themselves to thee ;
Yet, thou canst interpret sighs :
God, be merciful to me.
- 4 From this sinful heart of mine
To thy bosom I would flee ;
I am not mine own, but thine :
God, be merciful to me.
- 5 There is One beside thy throne,
And my only hope and plea
Are in him and him alone :
God, be merciful to me.
- 6 He my cause will undertake,
My interpreter will be ;
He's my all, and for his sake,
God, be merciful to me.

Paraphrase of 14th cent.

Anima Christi sanctifica me. Anon. † 1855.

SOUL of Jesus, make me whole,
Meek and contrite make my soul ;
Thou most stainless Soul Divine,
Cleanse this sordid soul of mine,
Hallow this my contrite heart,
Purify my every part ;
Soul of Jesus, hallow me,
Miserere Domine.

- 2 Save me, Body of my Lord,
Save a sinner, vile, abhorred ;
Sacred Body, wan and worn,
Bruised and mangled, scourged and torn,

LENT.

Piercèd hands, and feet, and side,
Rent, insulted, crucified :
Save me—to the Cross I flee,

Miserere Domine.

- 3 Blood of Jesus, stream of life,
Sacred stream with blessings rife,
From thy broken Body shed
On the Cross, that altar dread ;
Given to be our drink Divine,
Fill my heart and make it thine ;
Blood of Christ, my succour be,
Miserere Domine.

- 4 Holy Water, stream that poured
From thy riven side, O Lord,
Wash thou me without, within,
Cleanse me from the taint of sin,
Till my soul is clean and white,
Bathed, and purified, and bright
As a ransomed soul should be,
Miserere Domine.

- 5 Jesu, by the wondrous power
Of thine awful Passion hour,
By the unimagined woe
Mortal man may never know ;
By the curse upon thee laid,
By the ransom thou hast paid,
By thy Passion comfort me,
Miserere Domine.

- 6 Jesu, by thy bitter Death,
By thy last expiring breath,
Give me the eternal life,
Purchased by that mortal strife ;
Thou didst suffer death that I
Might not die eternally ;
By thy dying quicken me,
Miserere Domine.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

7. Miserere; let me be
Never parted, Lord, from thee ;
Guard me from my ruthless foe,
Save me from eternal woe ;
When the hour of death is near,
And my spirit faints for fear,
Call me with thy voice of love,
Place me near to thee above,
With thine Angel host to raise
An undying song of praise,
Miserere Domine.

90 Ps. 86. Joseph Bryan (c. 1620).

TO my humble supplication,
Lord, give ear and acceptation ;
Save thy servant, that hath none
Help nor hope but thee alone.

- 2 Send, O send, relieving gladness
To my soul opprest with sadness,
Which, from clog of earth set free,
Winged with zeal, flies up to thee ;
- 3 To thee, rich in mercies' treasure,
And in goodness without measure,
Never-failing help to those
Who on thy sure help repose.
4. Heavenly Tutor, of thy kindness,
Teach my dullness, guide my blindness,
That my steps thy paths may tread,
Which to endless bliss do lead.

91 S. J. Stone, 1839-1900.

WEARY of earth and laden with my sin,
I look at heaven and long to enter in ;

LENT.

But there no evil thing may find a home,
And yet I hear a voice that bids me 'Come.'

- 2 So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand
In the pure glory of that holy land?
Before the whiteness of that throne appear?
Yet there are hands stretched out to draw me near.
- 3 The while I fain would tread the heavenly way,
Evil is ever with me day by day;
Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall,
'Repent, confess, thou shalt be loosed from all.'
4. It is the voice of Jesus that I hear,
His are the hands stretched out to draw me near,
And his the Blood that can for all atone,
And set me faultless there before the throne.

Part 2.

- 5 O great Absolver, grant my soul may wear
The lowliest garb of penitence and prayer,
That in the Father's courts my glorious dress
May be the garment of thy righteousness.
- 6 Yea, thou wilt answer for me, righteous Lord;
Thine all the merits, mine the great reward;
Thine the sharp thorns, and mine the golden
crown;
Mine the life won, and thine the life laid down.
7. Naught can I bring, dear Lord, for all I owe,
Yet let my full heart what it can bestow;
Like Mary's gift, let my devotion prove,
Forgiven greatly, how I greatly love.

- WHEN, rising from the bed of death,
 O'erwhelmed with guilt and fear,
 I see my Maker face to face,
 'O how shall I appear ?
- 2 If yet, while pardon may be found,
 And mercy may be sought,
 My heart with inward horror shrinks,
 And trembles at the thought ;
- 3 When thou, O Lord, shalt stand disclosed
 In majesty severe,
 And sit in judgement on my soul,
 O how shall I appear ?
- 4 But thou hast told the troubled mind
 Who does her sins lament,
 The timely tribute of her tears
 Shall endless woe prevent.
- 5 Then see the sorrow of my heart,
 Ere yet it be too late ;
 And hear my Saviour's dying groans,
 To give those sorrows weight.
6. For never shall my soul despair
 Her pardon to procure,
 Who knows thine only Son has died
 To make her pardon sure.

The following are also suitable :

- 316 Just as I am, without one plea.
 366 Art thou weary, art thou languid.
 386 Father of all, to thee.
 418 Jesu, name all names above.
 456 O Lord, and Master of us all.
 477 Rock of ages, cleft for me.
 484 Take up thy cross, the Saviour said.
 495 The world is very evil.
 510 We sing the praise of him who died.
 515 Wilt thou forgive that sin.
 648 Litany of Penitence.
 736 Hear us, O Lord.

Ps. 23.

George Herbert, 1598-1633.

THE God of love my Shepherd is.
And he that doth me feed ;
While he is mine and I am his,
What can I want or need ?

2 He leads me to the tender grass,
Where I both feed and rest ;
Then to the streams that gently pass .
In both I have the best.

3 Or if I stray, he doth convert,
And bring my mind in frame,
And all this not for my desert,
But for his holy name.

4 Yea, in death's shady black abode
Well may I walk, not fear ;
For thou art with me, and thy rod
To guide, thy staff to bear.

5. Surely thy sweet and wondrous love
Shall measure all my days ;
And as it never shall remove
So neither shall my praise.

OFFICE HYMN (in full). E. Passion Sunday, and daily till Maundy Thursday.

1-5 Bishop Venantius Fortunatus, 530-609. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Vexilla Regis prodeunt.

THE royal banners forward go ;
The Cross shines forth in mystic glow ;
Where he in flesh, our flesh who made,
Our sentence bore, our ransom paid :

2 Where deep for us the spear was dyed,
Life's torrent rushing from his side
To wash us in that precious flood,
Where mingled Water flowed, and Blood.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

Part 2.

- 3 Fulfilled is all that David told
In true prophetic song of old ;
Amidst the nations, God, saith he,
Hath reigned and triumphed from the tree.
- 4 O Tree, of beauty, Tree of light !
O Tree with royal purple dight !
Elect on whose triumphal breast
Those holy limbs should find their rest :
- 5 On whose dear arms, so widely flung,
The weight of this world's ransom hung :
The price of humankind to pay,
And spoil the spoiler of his prey.
- 6 O Cross, our one reliance, hail !
So may thy power with us avail
To give new virtue to the saint,
And pardon to the penitent.
7. To thee, eternal Three in One,
Let homage meet by all be done :
Whom by the Cross thou dost restore,
Preserve and govern evermore. Amen.

95 OFFICE HYMN. M. Passion Sunday and daily till Maundy Thursday.

Bishop Venantius Fortunatus, 530-609. Tr. P. D.

Pange lingua gloriosi proelium certaminis.

SING, my tongue, the glorious battle,
Sing the ending of the fray ;
Now above the Cross, the trophy,
Sound the loud triumphant lay :
Tell how Christ, the world's Redeemer,
As a Victim won the day.

PASSIONTIDE.

- 2 God in pity saw man fallen,
Shamed and sunk in misery,
When he fell on death by tasting
Fruit of the forbidden tree ;
Then another tree was chosen
Which the world from death should free.
- 3 Thus the scheme of our salvation
Was of old in order laid,
That the manifold deceiver's
Art by art might be outweighed,
And the lure the foe put forward
Into means of healing made.
- 4 Therefore when the appointed fullness
Of the holy time was come,
He was sent who maketh all things
Forth from God's eternal home ;
Thus he came to earth, incarnate,
Offspring of a maiden's womb.
5. To the Trinity be glory
Everlasting, as is meet ;
Equal to the Father, equal
To the Son and Paraclete :
Trinal Unity, whose praises
All created things repeat. Amen.

96 OFFICE HYMN (in full). M. Passion Sunday and daily till Maundy Thursday.

Bishop Venantius Fortunatus, 580-609. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Lustra sex qui jam peracta.

THIRTY years among us dwelling,
His appointed time fulfilled,
Born for this, he meets his Passion,
For that this he freely willed,
On the Cross the Lamb is lifted
Where his life-blood shall be spilled.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 He endured the nails, the spitting,
Vinegar, and spear, and reed ;
From that holy Body broken
Blood and water forth proceed :
Earth, and stars, and sky, and ocean
By that flood from stain are freed.

Part 2.

- 3 Faithful Cross ! above all other,
One and only noble tree !
None in foliage, none in blossom,
None in fruit thy peer may be ;
Sweetest wood and sweetest iron !
Sweetest weight is hung on thee.
- 4 Bend thy boughs, O Tree of Glory !
Thy relaxing sinews bend ;
For awhile the ancient rigour
That thy birth bestowed, suspend ;
And the King of heavenly beauty
On thy bosom gently tend !
- 5 Thou alone wast counted worthy
This world's ransom to uphold ;
For a shipwreck'd race preparing
Harbour, like the Ark of old ;
With the sacred Blood anointed
From the smitten Lamb that rolled.
6. To the Trinity be glory
Everlasting, as is meet ;
Equal to the Father, equal
To the Son, and Paraclete :
Trinal Unity, whose praises
All created things repeat. Amen.

PASSIONTIDE.

97

14th or 15th cent. Tr. A. R.

Si vis vere gloriari.

DOST thou truly seek renown
 Christ his glory sharing?
 Wouldst thou win the heavenly crown
 Victor's meed declaring?
 Tread the path the Saviour trod,
 Look upon the crown of God,
 See what he is wearing.

2 This the King of heaven bore
 In that sore contending;
 This his sacred temples wore,
 Honour to it lending;
 In this helm he faced the foe,
 On the Rood he laid him low,
 Satan's kingdom ending.

3 Christ upon the Tree of Scorn,
 In salvation's hour,
 Turned to gold these pricks of thorn
 By his Passion's power;
 So on sinners, who had earned
 Endless death, from sin returned,
 Endless blessings shower.

4. When in death's embrace we lie,
 Then, good Lord, be near us;
 With thy presence fortify,
 And with victory cheer us;
 Turn our erring hearts to thee,
 That we crowned for ay may be:
 O good Jesu, hear us!

98

Phineas Fletcher, 1582-1650.

DROP, drop, slow tears,
 And bathe those beauteous feet,
 Which brought from heaven
 The news and Prince of peace.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 Cease not, wet eyes,
His mercies to entreat ;
To cry for vengeance
Sin doth never cease.
- 3 In your deep floods
Drown all my faults and fears ;
Nor let his eye
See sin, but through my tears.

99

18th cent. Tr. E. Caswall.

Viva ! Viva ! Gesù.

- GLORY be to Jesus,
Who, in bitter pains,
Poured for me the life-blood
From his sacred veins.
- 2 Grace and life eternal
In that Blood I find ;
Blest be his compassion,
Infinitely kind.
- 3 Blest through endless ages
Be the precious stream,
Which from endless torment
Doth the world redeem.
- 4 Abel's blood for vengeance
Pleaded to the skies ;
But the Blood of Jesus
For our pardon cries.
- 5 Oft as it is sprinkled
On our guilty hearts,
Satan in confusion
Terror-struck departs.
- 6 Oft as earth exulting
Wafts its praise on high,
Hell with terror trembles,
Heaven is filled with joy.

PASSIONTIDE.

7. Lift ye then your voices ;
Swell the mighty flood ;
Louder still and louder
Praise the precious Blood.

100

J. Montgomery, 1771-1854.

- GO to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel the Tempter's power ;
Your Redeemer's conflict see,
Watch with him one bitter hour :
Turn not from his griefs away,
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.
- 2 See him at the judgement-hall,
Beaten, bound, reviled, arraigned ;
See him meekly bearing all !
Love to man his soul sustained.
Shun not suffering, shame, or loss ;
Learn of Christ to bear the Cross.
3. Calvary's mournful mountain view ;
There the Lord of Glory see,
Made a sacrifice for you,
Dying on the accursèd tree :
'It is finished !' hear him cry ;
Trust in Christ and learn to die.

101

F. W. Faber, 1814-63

- MY God ! my God ! and can it be
That I should sin so lightly now,
And think no more of evil thoughts
Than of the wind that waves the bough ?
- I I walk the earth with lightsome step,
Smile at the sunshine, breathe the air,
Do my own will, nor ever heed
Gethsemane and thy long prayer.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 3 Shall it be always thus, O Lord ?
 Wilt thou not work this hour in me
 The grace thy Passion merited,
 Hatred of self, and love of thee !
- 4 Ever when tempted, make me see,
 Beneath the olives' moon-pierced shade,
 My God, alone, outstretched, and bruised,
 And bleeding, on the earth he made ;
5. And make me feel it was my sin,
 As though no other sins there were,
 That was to him who bears the world
 A load that he could scarcely bear.

102 P. Gerhardt, 1607-76, based on Salve caput crucen-
tatum (ascribed to St. Bernard). Tr. Y. H.

O Haupt voll Blut und Wunden.

O SACRED head, sore wounded,
 Defiled and put to scorn ;

O kingly head, surrounded
 With mocking crown of thorn :
 What sorrow mars thy grandeur ?
 Can death thy bloom deflower ?

O countenance whose splendour
 The hosts of heaven adore.

- 2 Thy beauty, long-desired,
 Hath vanished from our sight ;
 Thy power is all expired,
 And quenched the light of light.
 Ah me ! for whom thou diest,
 Hide not so far thy grace :
 Show me, O Love most highest,
 The brightness of thy face.

- 3* I pray thee, Jesus, own me,
 Me, Shepherd good, for thine ;
 Who to thy fold hast won me,
 And fed with truth divine.

PASSIONTIDE.

- Me guilty, me refuse not;
 Incline thy face to me,
 This comfort that I lose not,
 On earth to comfort thee.
- 4 In thy most bitter passion
 My heart to share doth cry,
 With thee for my salvation.
 Upon the Cross to die.
 Ah, keep my heart thus movèd
 To stand thy Cross beneath,
 To mourn thee, well-belovèd,
 Yet thank thee for thy death.
- 5*. My days are few, O fail not,
 With thine immortal power,
 To hold me that I quail not
 In death's most fearful hour :
 That I may fight befriended,
 And see in my last strife
 To me thine arms extended
 Upon the Cross of life.

103

c. 17th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale and others.

Attolle paulum lumina.

- O SINNER, raise the eye of faith,
 To true repentance turning,
 Consider well the curse of sin,
 Its shame and guilt discerning :
 Upon the Crucified One look,
 So shalt thou learn, as in a book,
 What well is worth thy learning.
- 2 Look on the head, with such a crown
 Of bitter thorns surrounded ;
 Look on the blood that trickles down
 The feet and hands thus wounded ;
 And see his flesh with scourges rent :
 Mark how upon the Innocent
 Man's malice hath abounded.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 3 * But though upon him many a pain
Its bitterness is spending,
Yet more, O how much more ! his heart
Man's wickedness is rending !
Such is the load for sinners borne,
As Mary's Son in woe forlorn
His life for us is ending.
- 4 None ever knew such pangs before,
None ever such affliction,
As when his people brought to pass
The Saviour's crucifixion.
He willed to bear for us the throes,
For us the unimagined woes,
Of death's most fell infliction.
- 5 * O sinner, stay and ponder well
Sin's fearful condemnation ;
Think on the wounds that Christ endured
In working thy salvation ;
For if thy Lord had never died,
Nought else could sinful man betide
But utter reprobation.
6. Lord, give us sinners grace to flee
The death of evil-doing,
To shun the gloomy gates of hell,
Thine awful judgement viewing.
So thank we thee, O Christ, to-day,
And so for life eternal pray,
The holy road pursuing.

104 Compline. Prudentius, b. 348. Tr. T. A. L.

Cultor Dei memento.

SERVANT of God, remember
The stream thy soul bedewing,
The grace that came upon thee
Anointing and renewing.

PASSIONTIDE.

- 2 When kindly slumber calls thee,
Upon thy bed reclining,
Trace thou the Cross of Jesus,
Thy heart and forehead signing.
- 3 The Cross dissolves the darkness,
And drives away temptation ;
It calms the wavering spirit,
By quiet consecration.
- 4 Begone, begone, the terrors
Of vague and formless dreaming
Begone, thou fell deceiver,
With all thy boasted scheming.
- 5 Begone, thou crookèd serpent,
Who, twisting and pursuing,
By fraud and lie preparest
The simple soul's undoing ;
- 6 Tremble, for Christ is near us,
Depart, for here he dwelleth,
And this, the Sign thou knowest,
Thy strong battalions quelleth.
- 7 Then while the weary body
Its rest in sleep is nearing,
The heart will muse in silence
On Christ and his appearing.
8. To God, eternal Father,
To Christ, our King, be glory,
And to the Holy Spirit,
In never-ending story. Amen.

105

W. Shirley, 1725-86, and others.

SWEET the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the Cross I spend,
Life, and health, and peace possessing
From the sinner's dying Friend.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 Here I stay, for ever viewing
 Mercy streaming in his Blood ;
 Precious drops, my soul bedewing,
 Plead and claim my peace with God.
- 3 Truly blessed is this station,
 Low before his Cross to lie,
 While I see divine compassion
 Floating in his languid eye.
- 4 Lord, in ceaseless contemplation
 Fix our hearts and eyes on thee,
 Till we taste thy full salvation,
 And unveiled thy glories see.

106

Mrs. C. F. Alexander, 1823-95.

- THERE is a green hill far away,
 Without a city wall,
 Where the dear Lord was crucified
 Who died to save us all.
- 2 We may not know, we cannot tell,
 What pains he had to bear,
 But we believe it was for us
 He hung and suffered there.
 - 3 He died that we might be forgiven,
 He died to make us good ;
 That we might go at last to heaven,
 Saved by his precious Blood.
 - 4 There was no other good enough
 To pay the price of sin ;
 He only could unlock the gate
 Of heaven, and let us in.
 5. O, dearly, dearly has he loved,
 And we must love him too,
 And trust in his redeeming Blood,
 And try his works to do.

PASSIONTIDE.

107

L. Watts, 1674-1748.

- WHEN I survey the wondrous Cross,
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
- 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast
Save in the death of Christ my God ;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his Blood.
- 3 See from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down ;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown ?
- 4 His dying crimson like a robe,
Spreads o'er his body on the Tree ;
Then am I dead to all the globe,
And all the globe is dead to me.
5. Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small ;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

108

Bishop A. Cleveland Cox, 1818-96.

- WHO is this with garments gory,
Triumphing from Bozrah's way ;
This that weareth robes of glory,
Bright with more than victory's ray ?
Who is this unwearied comer
From his journey's sultry length,
Travelling through Idumè's summer
In the greatness of his strength ?
- 2 Wherefore red in thine apparel
Like the conquerors of earth,
And arrayed like those who carol
O'er the reeking vineyard's mirth ?

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

Who art thou, the valleys seeking
Where our peaceful harvests wave ?

'I, in righteous anger speaking,
I, the mighty One to save ;

3 "I, that of the raging heathen
Trode the winepress all alone,
Now in victor garlands wreathen
Coming to redeem mine own :
'I am he with sprinkled raiment,
Glorious for my vengeance-hour,
Ransoming, with priceless payment,
And delivering with power.'

4. Hail ! All hail ! Thou Lord of Glory !
Thee, our Father, thee we own ;
Abram heard not of our story,
Israel ne'er our Name hath known.
But, Redeemer, thou hast sought us,
Thou hast heard thy children's wail,
Thou with thy dear Blood hast bought us :
Hail ! Thou mighty Victor, hail !

623 Now, my soul, thy voice upraising.

PASSIONTIDE : GOOD FRIDAY.

109

J. M. Neale, 1818-1866; (4.) W. Denton.

- O THOU who through this holy week
Didst suffer for us all,
The sick to cure, the lost to seek,
To raise up them that fall:
- 2 We cannot understand the ~~w~~we
Thy love was pleased to bear;
O Lamb of God, we only know
That all our hopes are there.
- 3 Thy feet the path of suffering trod;
Thy hand the victory won:
What shall we render to our God
For all that he hath done?
4. O grant us, Lord, with thee to die,
With thee to rise anew;
Grant us the things of earth to fly,
The things of heaven pursue.

MAUNDY THURSDAY.

The following are suitable:

- 300 According to thy gracious word.
317 Laud, O Sion, thy salvation.
326 Of the glorious Body telling.
330 The Word of God, proceeding forth.

GOOD FRIDAY.

See also 737 The Reproaches.

110

Bishop R. Mant, 1776-1848.

SEE the destined day arise!
See, a willing sacrifice,
To redeem our fatal loss,
Jesus hangs upon the Cross!

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 Jesu, who but thou had borne,
Lifted on that Tree of scorn,
Every pang and bitter throe,
Finishing thy life of woe?
- 3 Who but thou had dared to drain,
Steeped in gall, the cup of pain,
And with tender body bear
Thorns, and nails, and piercing spear?
- 4 Thence, poured forth, the water flowed,
Mingled from thy side with blood,—
Sign to all attesting eyes
Of the finished Sacrifice.
- 5 Holy Jesu, grant us grace
In that Sacrifice to place
All our trust for life renewed,
Pardoned sin, and promised good.
6. Grant us grace to sing to thee,
In the Trinal Unity,
Ever with the sons of light,
Blessing, honour, glory, might. Amen.

111

F. W. Faber, 1814-63.

- O COME and mourn with me awhile;
See Mary calls us to her side;
O come and let us mourn with her:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.
- 2 Have we no tears to shed for him,
While soldiers scoff and Jews deride?
Ah, look how patiently he hangs:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.
- 3 * How fast his hands and feet are nailed;
His blessed tongue with thirst is tied;
His failing eyes are blind with blood:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.

PASSIONTIDE: GOOD FRIDAY.

- 4 * His Mother cannot reach his face;
She stands in helplessness beside;
Her heart is martyred with her Son's:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.
- 5 Seven times he spoke, seven words of love;
And all three hours his silence cried
For mercy on the souls of men;
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.
- 6 O break, O break, hard heart of mine;
Thy weak self-love and guilty pride
His Pilate and his Judas were:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.
- 7 A broken heart, a fount of tears,
Ask, and they will not be denied;
A broken heart love's cradle is:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.
8. O Love of God! O sin of Man!
In this dread act your strength is tried;
And victory remains with Love:
For he, our Love, is crucified.

Or the following :

- 97 Dost thou truly seek renown.
108 Who is this with garments gory.

112

Mrs. C. F. Alexander, 1823-95.

‘Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.’

‘FORGIVE them, O my Father,
They know not what they do :’
The Saviour spake in anguish,
As the sharp nails went through.

- 2 No pained reproaches gave he
To them that shed his Blood,
But prayer and tenderest pity
Large as the love of God.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

3 For me was that compassion,
For me that tender care;
I need his wide forgiveness
As much as any there.

4 It was my pride and hardness
That hung him on the Tree;
Those cruel nails, O Saviour,
Were driven in by me.

5 And often I have slighted
Thy gentle voice that chid;
• Forgive me too, Lord Jesus;
I knew not what I did.

6. O depth of sweet compassion!
O love divine and true!
Save thou the souls that slight thee,
And know not what they do.

Or the following:

416 Jesu, meek and lowly.

113

Archbishop W.D. MacLagan.

‘Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.’

‘LORD, when thy kingdom comes, remember me;’

Thus spake the dying lips to dying ears;
O faith, which in that darkest hour could see
The promised glory of the far-off years!

2 No kingly sign declares that glory now,
No ray of hope lights up that awful hour;
A thorny crown surrounds the bleeding brow,
The hands are stretched in weakness, not in power.

3 Hark! through the gloom the dying Saviour saith,
‘Thou too shalt rest in Paradise to-day;’

PASSIONTIDE : GOOD FRIDAY.

- O words of love to answer words of faith !
O words of hope for those that live to pray !
- 4 Lord, when with dying lips my prayer is said,
Grant that in faith thy kingdom I may see ;
And, thinking on thy Cross and bleeding head,
May breathe my parting words, 'Remember
me.'
- 5 Remember me, but not my shame or sin ;
Thy cleansing Blood hath washed them all away ;
Thy precious death for me did pardon win ;
Thy Blood redeemed me in that awful day.
6. Remember me ; and, ere I pass away,
Speak thou the assuring word that sets us free,
And make thy promise to my heart, 'To-day
Thou too shalt rest in Paradise with me.'

114

T. A. L.

- THE dying robber raised his aching brow
To claim the dying Lord for company ;
And heard, in answer to his trembling vow,
The promise of the King : Thou—even thou—
To-day shalt be in Paradise with me.
- 2 We too the measure of our guilt confess,
Knowing thy mercy, Lord, our only plea ;
That we, like him, through judgement and distress,
For all the weight of our unworthiness,
May win our way to Paradise with thee.
- 3 But so bewildered is our failing heart,
So dim the lustre of thy royalty,
We hardly know thee, Lord, for what thou art,
Till we begin to take the better part
And lose ourselves in Paradise with thee.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

4. Then lift our eyes, dear Lord, from this poor dross,
To see thee reigning in humility,
The King of love; that, wresting gain from loss,
We too may climb the ladder of the Cross,
To find our home in Paradise with thee.

Or the following:
"99 Glory be to Jesus.

115 *Ascribed to Jacopone da Todi, d. 1306. Tr. Bishop
Mant, Aubrey de Vere, and others.*

‘Behold thy Mother.’

Stabat mater dolorosa.

- AT the Cross her station keeping,
Stood the mournful Mother weeping,
Close to Jesus at the last.
Through her soul, of joy bereavèd,
Bowed with anguish, deeply grievèd,
Now at length the sword hath passed.
- 2 O, that blessèd one, grief-laden,
Blessèd Mother, blessèd Maiden,
Mother of the all-holy One;
O that silent, ceaseless mourning,
O those dim eyes, never turning
From that wondrous, suffering Son.
- 3 Who on Christ’s dear Mother gazing,
In her trouble so amazing,
Born of woman, would not weep?
Who on Christ’s dear Mother thinking,
Such a cup of sorrow drinking,
Would not share her sorrow deep?
- 4 For his people’s sins, in anguish,
There she saw the victim languish,
Bleed in torments, bleed and die:
Saw the Lord’s anointed taken;
Saw her Child in death forsaken;
Heard his last expiring cry.

PASSIONTIDE: GOOD FRIDAY.

- 5 * In the Passion of my Maker,
Be my sinful soul partaker,
May I bear with her my part;
Of his Passion bear the token,
In a spirit bowed and broken
Bear his death within my heart.
- 6 * May his wounds both wound and heal me,
He enkindle, cleanse, anneal me,
Be his Cross my hope and stay.
May he, when the mountains quiver,
From that flame which burns for ever
Shield me on the judgement day.
7. Jesu, may thy Cross defend me,
And thy saving death befriend me,
Cherished by thy deathless grace:
When to dust my dust returneth,
Grant a soul that to thee yearneth
In thy Paradise a place.

Or the following:

510 We sing the praise of him who died.

116

J. Ellerton, 1826-93.

‘My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?’

THRONED upon the awful Tree,
King of grief, I watch with thee;
Darkness veils thine anguished face,
None its lines of woe can trace,
None can tell what pangs unknown
Hold thee silent and alone;

- 2 Silent through those three dread hours,
Wrestling with the evil powers,
Left alone with human sin,
Gloom around thee and within,
Till the appointed time is nigh,
Till the Lamb of God may die.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 3 Hark that cry that peals aloud
Upward through the whelming cloud !
Thou, the Father's only Son,
Thou his own anointed One,
• Thou dost ask him—can it be?—
‘Why hast thou forsaken me?’
4. Lord, should fear and anguish roll
Darkly o'er my sinful soul,
Thou, who once wast thus bereft
That thine own might ne'er be left,
Teach me by that bitter cry
In the gloom to know thee nigh.

Or the following :

103 O sinner, raise the eye of faith.

117

Mrs. C. F. Alexander, 1823-95.

• ‘I thirst.’

- HIS are the thousand sparkling rills
That from a thousand fountains burst,
And fill with music all the hills:
And yet he saith, ‘I thirst.’
- 2 All fiery pangs on battlefields,
On fever beds where sick men toss,
Are in that human cry he yields
To anguish on the Cross.
- 3 * But more than pains that racked him then
Was the deep longing thirst divine
That thirsted for the souls of men :
Dear Lord ! and one was mine.
4. O Love most patient, give me grace ;
Make all my soul athirst for thee :
That parched dry lip, that fading face,
That thirst, were all for me.

Or the following :

106 There is a green hill far away.

PASSIONTIDE: GOOD FRIDAY.

118

Gabriel Gillett.

‘It is finished.’

IT is finished ! Christ hath known
All the life of men wayfaring,
Human joys and sorrows sharing,
Making human needs his own.
Lord, in us thy life renewing,
Lead us where thy feet have trod,
Till, the way of truth pursuing,
Human souls find rest in God.

- 2 It is finished ! Christ is slain,
On the altar of creation,
Offering for a world's salvation
Sacrifice of love and pain.
Lord, thy love through pain revealing,
Purge our passions, scourge our vice,
Till, upon the Tree of Healing,
Self is slain in sacrifice.

3. It is finished ! Christ our King
Wins the victor's crown of glory ;
Sun and stars recite his story,
Floods and fields his triumph sing.
Lord, whose praise the world is telling,
Lord, to whom all power is given,
By thy death, hell's armies quelling,
Bring thy saints to reign in heaven.

Or the following :

107 When I survey the wondrous Cross.

119

Mrs. E. S. Alderson, 1818-88.

‘Father, into thy hands I commend my Spirit.’

AND now, beloved Lord, thy soul resigning
Into thy Father's arms with conscious will,
Calmly, with reverend grace, thy head inclining,
The throbbing brow and labouring breast grow still.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 O Love ! o'er mortal agony victorious,
Now is thy triumph ! now that Cross shall shine
To earth's remotest age revered and glorious,
Of suffering's deepest mystery the sign.
- 3 My Saviour, in mine hour of mortal anguish,
When earth grows dim, and round me falls the night, . . .
O breathe thy peace, as flesh and spirit languish ;
At that dread eventide let there be light.
4. To thy dear Cross turn thou mine eyes in dying ;
Lay but my fainting head upon thy breast ;
Those outstretched arms receive my latest sighing ;
And then, O ! then, thine everlasting rest.

Or the following :

102 O sacred head, sore wounded.

The following are also suitable :

80 My God, I love thee ; not because.

95 Sing, my tongue, the glorious battle.

471 Praise to the Holiest in the height.

GOOD FRIDAY EVENING AND EASTER EVEN.

120

Archbishop W. D. Maclagan.

- IT is finished ! Blessèd Jesus,
Thou hast breathed thy latest sigh,
Teaching us the sons of Adam
How the Son of God can die.
- 2 Lifeless lies the piercèd Body,
Resting in its rocky bed ;
Thou hast left the Cross of anguish
For the mansions of the dead.
- 3 In the hidden realms of darkness
Shines a light unseen before,
When the Lord of dead and living
Enters at the lowly door.

GOOD FRIDAY AND EASTER EVEN.

- 4 Lo ! in spirit, rich in mercy
Comes he from the world above,
Preaching to the souls in prison
Tidings of his dying love.
- 5 * Lo ! the heavenly light around him.
As he draws his people near ;
All amazed they come rejoicing
At the gracious words they hear.
- 6 Patriarch and Priest and Prophet
Gather round him as he stands,
In adoring faith and gladness
Hearing of the piercèd hands.
- 7 There in lowliest joy and wonder
Stands the robber by his side,
Reaping now the blessed promise
Spoken by the Crucified.
8. Jesus, Lord of our salvation,
Let thy mercy rest on me ;
Grant me too, when life is finished,
Rest in Paradise with thee.

121

Isaac Gregory Smith.

- BY Jesus' grave on either hand,
While night is brooding o'er the land,
The sad and silent mourners stand.
- 2 At last the weary life is o'er,
The agony and conflict sore
Of him who all our sufferings bore.
 - 3 Deep in the rock's sepulchral shade
The Lord, by whom the world was made,
The Saviour of mankind, is laid.
 4. O hearts bereaved and sore distressed,
Here is for you a place of rest ;
Here leave your griefs on Jesus' breast.

122 OFFICE HYMN. Saturday evenings : i. e. 1st E. of Sundays after Easter. St. Fulbert of Chartres, c. 1000. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Chorus novae Jerusalem.

- YE choirs of new Jerusalem,
To sweet new strains attune your theme
The while we keep, from care released,
With sober joy our Paschal feast :
- 2 When Christ, unconquer'd Lion, first
The dragon's chains by rising burst :
And while with living voice he cries,
The dead of other ages rise.
- 3 Engorged in former years, their prey
Must death and hell restore to-day :
And many a captive soul, set free,
With Jesus leaves captivity.
- 4 Right gloriously he triumphs now,
Worthy to whom should all things bow ;
And joining heaven and earth again,
Links in one commonweal the twain.
- 5 And we, as these his deeds we sing,
His suppliant soldiers, pray our King,
That in his palace, bright and vast,
We may keep watch and ward at last.

EASTERTIDE.

6. Long as unending ages run,
To God the Father, laud be done :
To God the Son, our equal praise,
And God the Holy Ghost, we raise. Amen.

123 OFFICE HYMN (in full). • Low Sunday till Ascension, M.

4th or 5th cent. Tr. T. & A. L.

Aurora lucis rutilat.

THE day draws on with golden light,
Glad songs go echoing through the height,
The broad earth lifts an answering cheer,
The deep makes moan with wailing fear.

- 2 For lo, he comes, the mighty King,
To take from death his power and sting,
To trample down his gloomy reign
And break the weary prisoner's chain.

- 3 Enclosed he lay in rocky cell,
With guard of armed sentinel ;
But thence returning, strong and free,
He comes with pomp of jubilee.

Part 2.

- 4 The sad Apostles mourn him slain,
Nor hope to see their Lord again ;
Their Lord, whom rebel thralls defy,
Arraign, accuse, and doom to die.

- 5 But now they put their grief away,
The pains of hell are loosed to-day ;
For by the grave, with flashing eyes,
'Your Lord is risen,' the Angel cries.

- 6 Maker of all, to thee we pray,
Fulfil in us thy joy to-day ;
When death assails, grant, Lord, that we
May share thy Paschal victory.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

7. To thee who, dead, again dost live,
All glory, Lord, thy people give ;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

124 OFFICE HYMN (in full). Low Sunday till Ascension, M.

4th or 5th cent. Tr. T. A. L.

Sermone blando Angelus.

HIS cheering message from the grave
An Angel to the women gave :
'Full soon your Master ye shall see ;
He goes before to Galilee.'

- 2 But while with flying steps they press
To bear the news, all eagerness,
Their Lord, the living Lord, they meet,
And prostrate fall to kiss his feet.
- 3 So when his mourning followers heard
The tidings of that faithful word,
Quick went they forth to Galilee,
Their loved and lost once more to see.

Part 2.

- 4 On that fair day of Paschal joy
The sunshine was without alloy,
When to their very eyes restored
They looked upon the risen Lord.
- 5 The wounds before their eyes displayed
They see in living light arrayed,
And that they see they testify
In open witness fearlessly.
- 6 O Christ, the King of gentleness,
Our several hearts do thou possess,
That we may render all our days
Thy meed of thankfulness and praise.

EASTERTIDE.

- 7 Maker of all, to thee we pray,
Fulfil in us thy joy to-day ;
When death assails, grant, Lord, that we
May share thy Paschal victory.
8. To thee who, dead, again dost live,
All glory, Lord, thy people give ;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

125 OFFICE HYMN. Low Sunday till Ascension, E. 7th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Ad cenam Agni providi.

- THE Lamb's high banquet we await
In snow-white robes of royal state ;
And now, the Red Sea's channel past,
To Christ, our Prince, we sing at last.
- 2 Upon the altar of the Cross
His Body hath redeemed our loss ;
And tasting of his roseate Blood
Our life is hid with him in God
- 3 That Paschal eve God's arm was bared ;
The devastating Angel spared :
By strength of hand our hosts went free
From Pharaoh's ruthless tyranny.
- 4 Now Christ our Paschal Lamb is slain,
The Lamb of God that knows no stain ;
The true Oblation offered here,
Our own unleavened Bread sincere.
- 5 O thou from whom hell's monarch flies,
O great, O very Sacrifice,
Thy captive people are set free,
And endless life restored in thee.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 6 For Christ, arising from the dead,
From conquered hell victorious sped ;
He thrusts the tyrant down to chains,
And Paradise for man regains.
- 7 Maker of all, to thee we pray,
Fulfil in us thy joy to-day ;
When death assails, grant, Lord, that we
May share thy Paschal victory.
8. To thee who, dead, again dost live,
All glory, Lord, thy people give ;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

P. D.

- A BRIGHTER dawn is breaking,
And earth with praise is waking ;
For thou, O King most highest,
The power of death defiest ;
- 2 And thou hast come victorious,
With risen Body glorious,
Who now for ever livest,
And life abundant givest.
- 3 O free the world from blindness,
And fill the world with kindness,
Give sinners resurrection,
Bring striving to perfection ;
4. In sickness give us healing,
In doubt thy clear revealing,
That praise to thee be given
In earth as in thy heaven.

127

Bishop Chr. Wordsworth, 1807-85.

- A LLELUYA ! Alleluya !
Hearts to heaven and voices raise ;
Sing to God a hymn of gladness,
Sing to God a hymn of praise ;

EASTERTIDE.

He who on the Cross a victim
For the world's salvation bled,
Jesus Christ, the King of glory,
Now is risen from the dead.

2 Christ is risen, Christ the first-fruits*
Of the holy harvest field,
Which will all its full abundance
At his second coming yield;
Then the golden ears of harvest
Will their heads before him wave,
Ripen'd by his glorious sunshine
From the furrows of the grave.

3 Christ is risen, we are risen;
Shed upon us heavenly grace,
Rain, and dew, and gleams of glory
From the brightness of thy face;
That we, Lord, with hearts in heaven
Here on earth may fruitful be,
And by angel-hands be gathered,
And be ever safe with thee.

4. Alleluya! Alleluya!
Glory be to God on high;
To the Father, and the Saviour,
Who has gained the victory;
Glory to the Holy Spirit,
Fount of love and sanctity;
Alleluya! Alleluya!
To the Triune Majesty. Amen.

128 R. Campbell †, 1814-68. Based on Ad regias Agni dapes.

AT the Lamb's high feast we sing
Praise to our victorious King:
Who hath washed us in the tide
Flowing from his pierced side;
Praise we him whose love Divine
Gives the guests his Blood for wine,
Gives his Body for the feast,
Love the Victim, Love the Priest.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 * Where the Paschal blood is poured,
Death's dark angel sheathes his sword ;
Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe.
Christ, the Lamb whose Blood was shed,
Paschal victim, Paschal bread !
With sincerity and love
Eat we Manna from above.
- 3 Mighty Victim from on high,
Powers of hell beneath thee lie ;
Death is broken in the fight,
Thou hast brought us life and light.
Now thy banner thou dost wave,
Conquering Satan and the grave.
See the prince of darkness quelled ;
Heaven's bright gates are open held.
4. Paschal triumph, Paschal joy,
Only sin can this destroy ;
From sin's death do thou set free,
Souls re-born, dear Lord, in thee.
Hymns of glory, songs of praise,
Father, unto thee we raise.
Risen Lord, all praise to thee,
Ever with the Spirit be.

129

Michael Weisse, c. 1490-1534. Tr. C. Winkworth.

Christus ist erstanden.

CHRIST the Lord is risen again !
Christ hath broken every chain !
Hark, the angels shout for joy,
Singing evermore on high,
Alleluya !

- 2 He who gave for us his life,
Who for us endured the strife,
Is our Paschal Lamb to-day !
We too sing for joy, and say
Alleluya !

EASTERTIDE.

- 3 He who bore all pain and loss
Comfortless upon the Cross,
Lives in glory now on high,
Pleads for us, and hears our cry.
Alleluya !
- 4 He whose path no records tell,
Who descended into hell ;
Who the strong man armed hath bound,
Now in highest heaven is crowned.
Alleluya !
- 5 Now he bids us tell abroad
How the lost may be restored,
How the penitent forgiven,
How we too may enter heaven.
Alleluya !
6. Thou, our Paschal Lamb indeed,
Christ, to-day thy people feed ;
Take our sins and guilt away,
That we all may sing for aye,
Alleluya !

Victimae Paschali.

CHRISTIANS, to the Paschal Victim
Offer your thankful praises !

- 2 A Lamb the sheep redeemeth :
Christ, who only is sinless,
Reconcileth sinners to the Father ;
- 3 Death and life have contended
In that combat stupendous :
The Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal.
- 4 Speak Mary, declaring
What thou sawest wayfaring :
- 5 'The Tomb of Christ, who is living,
The glory of Jesu's Resurrection :

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 6 Bright angels attesting,
The shroud and napkin resting.
7 Yea, Christ my hope is arisen :
To Galilee he goes before you.'
8 Happy they who hear the witness, Mary's word believing
Above the tales of Jewry deceiving.
9. Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining.
Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning !

131

St. John Damascene, c. 750. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Αἰσῶμεν πάντες λαοί.

- COME, ye faithful, raise the strain
Of triumphant gladness ;
God hath brought his Israel
Into joy from sadness ;
Loosed from Pharaoh's bitter yoke
Jacob's sons and daughters ;
Led them with unmoistened foot
Through the Red Sea waters.
2 'Tis the Spring of souls to-day ;
Christ hath burst his prison,
And from three days' sleep in death
As a Sun hath risen ;
All the winter of our sins,
Long and dark, is flying
From his Light, to whom we give
Laud and praise undying.
3 Now the Queen of seasons, bright
With the Day of splendour,
With the royal Feast of feasts,
Comes its joy to render ;
Comes to glad Jerusalem,
Who with true affection
Welcomes in unwearied strains
Jesu's Resurrection.

EASTERTIDE.

4. Neither might the gates of death,
 Nor the tomb's dark portal,
 Nor the watchers, nor the seal,
 Hold thee as a mortal ;
 But to-day amidst the twelve
 Thou didst stand, bestowing
 That thy peace which evermore
 Passeth human knowing.

132

Mrs. C. F. Alexander, 1823-95.

HE is risen, he is risen :
 Tell it with a joyful voice ;
 He has burst his three days' prison ;
 Let the whole wide earth rejoice.
 Death is conquered, man is free,
 Christ has won the victory.

- 2 Come, ye sad and fearful-hearted,
 With glad smile and radiant brow ;
 Lent's long shadows have departed,
 All his woes are over now,
 And the passion that he bore :
 Sin and pain can vex no more.

3. Come, with high and holy hymning,
 Chant our Lord's triumphant lay ;
 Not one darksome cloud is dimming
 Yonder glorious morning ray,
 Breaking o'er the purple East,
 Brighter far our Easter-feast.

133

*Lyra Davidica (1708), and the Supplement (1816).

JESUS Christ is risen to-day, Alleluya !
 Our triumphant holy day, Alleluya !
 Who did once, upon the Cross, Alleluya !
 Suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluya !

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 Hymns of praise then let us sing, Alleluya !
 Unto Christ, our heavenly King, Alleluya !
 Who endured the Cross and grave, Alleluya !
 Sinners to redeem and save. Alleluya !
3. But the pains that he endured Alleluya !
 Our salvation have procured ; Alleluya !
 Now above the 'sky he's King, Alleluya !
 Where the angels ever sing. Alleluya !

134. C. F. Gellert, 1715-69. Tr. Frances E. Cox and others.

Jesus lebt, mit ihm auch ich.

- JESUS lives ! thy terrors now
 Can, O Death, no more appal us ;
 Jesus lives ! by this we know
 Thou, O grave, canst not enthrall us.
Alleluya !
- 2 Jesus lives ! henceforth is death
 But the gate of life immortal ;
 This shall calm our trembling breath,
 When we pass its gloomy portal.
Alleluya !
- 3 Jesus lives ! for us he died ;
 Then, alone to Jesus living,
 Pure in heart may we abide,
 Glory to our Saviour giving.
Alleluya !
- 4 Jesus lives ! our hearts know well
 Nought from us his love shall sever ;
 Life, nor death, nor powers of hell
 Tear us from his keeping ever.
Alleluya !
5. Jesus lives ! to him the throne
 Over all the world is given ;
 May we go where he is gone,
 Rest and reign with him in heaven.
Alleluya !

EASTERTIDE.

135

C. Wesley, 1707-88.

- LOVE'S redeeming work is done ;
 Fought the fight, the battle won :
 Lo, our Sun's eclipse is o'er !
 Lo, he sets in blood no more !
- 2 Vain the stone, the watch, the scal,
 Christ has burst the gates of hell ;
 Death in vain forbids his rise ;
 Christ has opened Paradise.
- 3 Lives again our glorious King ;
 Where, O Death, is now thy sting ?
 Dying once, he all doth save ;
 Where thy victory, O grave ?
- 4 Soar we now where Christ has led,
 Following our exalted Head ;
 Made like him, like him we rise ;
 Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.
5. Hail the Lord of earth and heaven !
 Praise to thee by both be given :
 Thee we greet triumphant now ;
 Hail, the Resurrection thou !

136

S. Baring-Gould.

- ON the Resurrection morning
 Soul and body meet again ;
 No more sorrow, no more weeping,
 No more pain !
- 2 Here awhile they must be parted,
 And the flesh its Sabbath keep,
 Waiting in a holy stillness,
 Wrapt in sleep.
- 3 For a while the wearied body
 Lies with feet toward the morn ;
 Till the last and brightest Easter
 Day be born.
- 4 But the soul in contemplation
 Utters earnest prayer and strong,
 Bursting at the Resurrection
 Into song.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 5 Soul and body reunited
Thenceforth nothing shall divide,
Waking up in Christ's own likeness
Satisfied.
- 6 O the beauty, O the gladness
Of that Resurrection day,
Which shall not through endless ages
- 7 On that happy Easter morning
All the graves their dead restore ;
Father, sister, child, and mother
Meet once more.
8. To that brightest of all meetings
Bring us, Jesu Christ, at last,
By thy Cross, through death and judgement,
Holding fast.

137

St. John Damascene, c. 750. Tr. J. M. Neale †.

Ἀναστάσις ἡμέρα.

THE Day of Resurrection !
Earth, tell it out abroad ;
The Passover of gladness,
The Passover of God !
From death to life eternal,
From earth unto the sky,
Our Christ hath brought us over
With hymns of victory.

- 2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
Of resurrection-light ;
And, listening to his accents,
May hear so calm and plain
His own 'All hail,' and, hearing,
May raise the victor strain.

EASTERTIDE.

3. Now let the heavens be joyful,
And earth her song begin,
The round world keep high triumph,
And all that is therein ;
Let all things seen and unseen
Their notes of gladness blend,
For Christ the Lord hath risen,
Our Joy that hath no end.

Αὐτὴ ἡ κλητὴ.

- THOU hallowed chosen morn of praise,
That best and greatest shinest :
Lady and queen and day of days,
Of things divine, divinest !
On thee our praises Christ adore
For ever and for evermore. •
- 2 Come, let us taste the Vine's new fruit,
For heavenly joy preparing ;
To-day the branches with the Root
In Resurrection sharing :
Whom as true God our hymns adore
For ever and for evermore.
- 3 Rise, Sion, rise ! and looking forth,
Behold thy children round thee !
From east and west, from south and north,
Thy scattered sons have found thee ;
And in thy bosom Christ adore
For ever and for evermore.
4. O Father, O co-equal Son,
O co-eternal Spirit,
In persons Three, in substance One,
And One in power and merit ;
In thee baptized, we thee adore
For ever and for evermore. Amen.

YE choirs of new Jerusalem,
Your sweetest notes employ,
The Paschal victory to hymn
In strains of holy joy.

- 2 How Judah's Lion burst his chains,
And crushed the serpent's head ;
And brought with him, from death's domains,
The long-imprisoned dead.
- 3 From hell's devouring jaws the prey
Alone our Leader bore ;
His ransomed hosts pursue their way
Where he hath gone before.
- 4 Triumphant in his glory now
His sceptre ruleth all,
Earth, heaven, and hell before him bow,
And at his footstool fall.
- 5 While joyful thus his praise we sing,
His mercy we implore,
Into his palace bright to bring
And keep us evermore.
6. All glory to the Father be,
All glory to the Son,
All glory, Holy Ghost, to thee,
While endless ages run. Alleluya ! Amen.

Thine is the harvest, thine the seed,
The fresh and fading year. • •

- 2 Our hope, when autumn winds blew wild,
We trusted, Lord, with thee ;

The green ear, and the golden grain,
All thine, are ours by prayer.
- 4 Thine too by right, and ours by grace,
The wondrous growth unseen,
The hopes that soothe, the fears that brace,
The love that shines serene.
5. So grant the precious things brought forth
By sun and moon below,
That thee in thy new heaven and earth

Aeterne Rex altissime.

ETERNAL Monarch, King most high,
Whose Blood hath brought redemption nigh,
By whom the death of Death was wrought,
And conquering Grace's battle fought :

- 2 Ascending to the throne of might,
And seated at the Father's right,
All power in heaven is Jesu's own,
That here his manhood had not known.
- 3 That so, in nature's triple frame,
Each heavenly and each earthly name,
And things in hell's abyss abhorred,
May bend the knee and own him Lord.
- 4 Yea, Angels tremble when they see
How changed is our humanity ;
That flesh hath purged what flesh had stained,
And God, the Flesh of God, hath reigned.
- 5 Be thou our joy and strong defence,
Who art our future recompense :
So shall the light that springs from thee
Be ours through all eternity.

Tu Christe nostrum gaudium.

O CHRIST, our joy, to whom is given
A throne o'er all the thrones of heaven,
In thee, whose hand all things obey,
The world's vain pleasures pass away.

2 So, suppliants here, we seek to win
Thy pardon for thy people's sin,
That, by thine all-prevailing grace,
Uplifted, we may seek thy face.

3 And when, all heaven beneath thee bowed,
Thou com'st to judgement throned in cloud,
Then from our guilt wash out the stain
And give us our lost crowns again.

4 Be thou our joy and strong defence,
Who art our future recompense :
So shall the light, that springs from thee

There thy face unclouded see, Alleluya!
Find our heaven of heavens in thee. Alleluya!

144 Compline.

c. 8th cent. Tr. J. Chandler†.

Jesu nostra redemptio.

O CHRIST, our hope, our hearts' desire,
Redemption's only spring;
Creator of the world art thou,
Its Saviour and its King.

2 How vast the mercy and the love
Which laid our sins on thee,
And led thee to a cruel death
To set thy people free.

3 But now the bonds of death are burst,
The ransom has been paid;
And thou art on thy Father's throne
In glorious robes arrayed.

ASCENSIONTIDE.

- 4 O may thy mighty love prevail
Our sinful souls to spare ;
O may we come before thy throne,
And find acceptance there !
- 5 O Christ, be thou our present joy,
Our future great reward ;
Our only glory may it be • •
To glory in the Lord.
6. All praise to thee, ascended Lord ;
All glory ever be
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Through all eternity. Amen.

145

Bishop Chr. Wordsworth, 1807-85.

- SEE the Conqueror mounts in triumph,
See the King in royal state
Riding on the clouds his chariot
To his heavenly palace gate ;
Hark ! the choirs of angel voices
Joyful Alleluyas sing,
And the portals high are lifted
To receive their heavenly King.
- 2 Who is this that comes in glory,
With the trump of jubilee ?
Lord of battles, God of armies,
He has gained the victory ;
He who on the Cross did suffer,
He who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan,
He by death has spoiled his foes.
- 3 Thou hast raised our human nature
In the clouds to God's right hand ;
There we sit in heavenly places,
There with thee in glory stand ;

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- Jesus reigns, adored by Angels ;
Man with God is on the throne ;
Mighty Lord, in thine Ascension
We by faith behold our own.
4. "Glory be to God the Father ;
Glory be to God the Son,
Dying, risen, ascending for us,
Who the heavenly realm has won ;
Glory to the Holy Spirit ;
To One God in persons Three ;
Glory both in earth and heaven,
Glory, endless glory be. Amen.

Part 2.

- 5 Holy Ghost, Illuminator,
Shed thy beams upon our eyes,
Help us to look up with Stephen,
And to see beyond the skies,
Where the Sord of Man in glory
Standing is at God's right hand,
Beckoning on his Martyr army,
Succouring his faithful band ;
- 6 See him, who is gone before us,
Heavenly mansions to prepare,
See him, who is ever pleading
For us with prevailing prayer,
See him, who with sound of trumpet
And with his angelic train,
Summoning the world to judgement,
On the clouds will come again.
7. Glory be to God the Father ;
Glory be to God the Son,
Dying, risen, ascending for us,
Who the heavenly realm has won ;
Glory to the Holy Spirit ;
To One God in persons Three ;
Glory both in earth and heaven,
Glory, endless glory, be. Amen.

ASCENSIONTIDE.

The Venerable Bede, 673-735. Tr. B. Webb.

Hymnum canamus gloriæ.

SING we triumphant hymns of praise,
New hymns to heaven exulting raise :
Christ, by a road before untrod,
Ascendeth to the throne of God.

- 2 The holy apostolic band
Upon the Mount of Olives stand,
And with the Virgin-mother see
Jesu's resplendent majesty.
- 3 To whom the Angels, drawing nigh,
'Why stand and gaze upon the sky ?
This is the Saviour !' thus they say,
'This is his noble triumph-day !'
- 4 'Again shall ye behold him, so
As ye to-day have seen him go ;
In glorious pomp ascending high,
Up to the portals of the sky.'
- 5 * O grant us thitherward to tend,
And with unwearied hearts ascend
Toward thy kingdom's throne, where thou,
As is our faith, art seated now.
- 6 * Be thou our joy and strong defence,
Who art our future recompense :
So shall the light that springs from thee
Be ours through all eternity.
7. O risen Christ, ascended Lord,
All praise to thee let earth accord,
Who art, while endless ages run,
With Father and with Spirit One. Amen.

T. Kelly, 1769-1854.

THE head that once was crowned with thorns
Is crowned with glory now :
A royal diadem adorns
The mighty Victor's brow.

2 The highest place^a that heaven affords
Is his, is his by right,
The King of kings and Lord of lords,
And heaven's eternal Light ;

3 The joy of all who dwell above,
The joy of all below,
To whom he manifests his love,
And grants his name to know.

4 To them the Cross, with all its shame,
With all its grace is given :
Their name an everlasting name,
Their joy the joy of heaven.

5 They suffer with their Lord below,
They reign with him above,
Their profit and their joy to know
The mystery of his love.

6. The Cross he bore is life and health,
Though shame and death to him ;
His people's hope, his people's wealth,
Their everlasting theme.

148

A. T. Russell, 1806-74, and others.

THE Lord ascendeth up on high,
Loud anthems round him swelling ;
The Lord hath triumphed gloriously,
In power and might excelling :
Hell and the grave are captive led ;
Lo, he returns, our glorious Head,
To his eternal dwelling.

ASCENSIONTIDE.

- 2 The heavens with joy receive their Lord ;
O day of exultation !
By Saints, by Angel-hosts adored
For his so great salvation :
O earth, adore thy glorious King,
His Rising, his Ascension sing
With grateful adoration, .
3. By Saints in earth and Saints in heaven,
With songs for ever blended,
All praise to Christ our King be given,
Who hath to heaven ascended :
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God of heaven's resplendent host,
In bright array extended. Amen.

149

Mrs. E. Toke, 1812-72.

- THOU art gone up on high,
To mansions in the skies,
And round thy throne unceasingly
The songs of praise arise ;
But we are lingering here,
With sin and care opprest ;
Lord, send thy promised Comforter,
And lead us to thy rest.
- 2 Thou art gone up on high ;
But thou didst first come down,
Through earth's most bitter misery
To pass unto thy crown ;
And girt with griefs and fears
Our onward course must be ;
But only let that path of tears
Lead us at last to thee.
3. Thou art gone up on high ;
But thou shalt come again,
With all the bright ones of the sky
Attendants in thy train.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

O, by thy saving power
So make us live and die,
That we may stand in that dread hour
At thy right hand on high.

150 OFFICE HYMN. Whitsun Eve, E. : and daily till Trinity Sunday, M. c. 4th cent. Tr. P. D.

Jam Christus astra ascenderat.

WHEN Christ our Lord had passed once more
Into the heaven he left before,
He sent a Comforter below
The Father's promise to bestow.

2 The solemn time was soon to fall
Which told the number mystical;
For since the Resurrection day
A week of weeks had passed away.

3 At the third hour a rushing noise
Came like the tempest's sudden voice,
And mingled with the Apostles' prayer,
Proclaiming loud that God was there.

WHITSUNTIDE.

- 4 From out the Father's light it came,
That beautiful and kindly flame,
To kindle every Christian heart,
And fervour of the Word impart.
- 5 As then, O Lord, thou didst fulfil,
Each holy heart to do thy will,
So now do thou our sins forgive
And make the world in peace to live.
6. To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, praise be done;
May Christ the Lord upon us pour
The Spirit's gift for evermore. Amen.

151 OFFICE HYMN. Daily till Trinity Sunday, E.
c. 4th cent. Tr. R. E. R.

Beata nobis gaudia.

REJOICE! the year upon its way
Has brought again that blessed day,
When on the chosen of the Lord
The Holy Spirit was outpoured.

- 2 On each the fire, descending, stood
In quivering tongues' similitude—
Tongues, that their words might ready prove,
And fire, to make them flame with love.
- 3 To all in every tongue they spoke;
Amazement in the crowd awoke,
Who mocked, as overcome with wine,
Those who were filled with power divine.
- 4 These things were done in type that day,
When Eastertide had passed away,
The number told which once set free
The captive at the jubilee.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 5 And now, O holy God, this day
Regard us as we humbly pray,
And send us, from thy heavenly seat,
The blessings of the Paraclete.
- 6 To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, praise be done ;
May Christ the Lord upon us pour
The Spirit's gift for evermore. Amen.

152

Bianco da Siena, d. 1434. Tr. R. F. Littledale.

Discendi, Amor santo.

- COME down, O Love divine,
Seek thou this soul of mine,
And visit it with thine own ardour glowing ;
O Comforter, draw near,
Within my heart appear,
And kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.
- 2 O let it freely burn,
Till earthly passions turn
To dust and ashes in its heat consuming ;
And let thy glorious light
Shine ever on my sight,
And clothe me round, the while my path illum-
ing.
- 3 Let holy charity
Mine outward vesture be,
And lowliness become mine inner clothing ;
True lowliness of heart,
Which takes the humbler part,
And o'er its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.
- 4 And so the yearning strong,
With which the soul will long,
Shall far outpass the power of human telling ;
For none can guess its grace,
Till he become the place
Wherein the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.

WHITSUNTIDE.

Bishop J. Cosin, 1594-1672. Based on Veni, Creator Spiritus.

- COME, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire ;
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart :
- 2 Thy blessèd unction from above
Is comfort, life, and fire of love ;
Enable with perpetual light
The dullness of our blinded sight :
- 3 Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of thy grace :
Keep far our foes, give peace at home ;
Where thou art guide no ill can come.
4. Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And thee, of Both, to be but One ;
That through the ages all along
This may be our endless song,
Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

154

*Terce. Before 10th cent. Tr. and rev. Y. H.
Veni, Creator Spiritus.*

- COME, O Creator Spirit, come,
And make within our hearts thy home ;
To us thy grace celestial give,
Who of thy breathing move and live.
- 2 O Comforter, that name is thine,
Of God most high the gift divine ;
The well of life, the fire of love,
Our souls' anointing from above.
- 3 Thou dost appear in sevenfold dower
The sign of God's almighty power ;
The Father's promise, making rich
With saving truth our earthly speech.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 4 Our senses with thy light inflame,
Our hearts to heavenly love reclaim ;
Our bodies' poor infirmity
With strength perpetual fortify.
- 5 Our mortal foe afar repel,
Grant us henceforth in peace to dwell ;
And so to 'us, with thee for guide,
No ill shall come, no harm betide.
6. May we by thee the Father learn,
And know the Son, and thee discern,
Who art of both ; and thus adore
In perfect faith for evermore. Amen.

155 The Golden Sequence. 13th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Veni, sancte Spiritus.

COME, thou holy Paraclete,
And from thy celestial seat
Send thy light and brilliancy :
Father of the poor, draw near ;
Giver of all gifts, be here ;
Come, the soul's true radiancy :

- 2 Come, of comforters the best,
Of the soul the sweetest guest,
Come in toil refreshingly :
Thou in labour rest most sweet,
Thou art shadow from the heat,
Comfort in adversity.
- 3 O thou Light, most pure and blest,
Shine within the inmost breast
Of thy faithful company.
Where thou art not, man hath nought ;
Every holy deed and thought
Comes from thy Divinity.
- 4 What is soiled, make thou pure ;
What is wounded, work its cure ·
What is parchèd, fructify ;

WHITSUNTIDE.

What is rigid, gently bend ;
What is frozen, warmly tend ;
Strengthen what goes erringly.

5. Fill thy faithful, who confide
In thy power to guard and guide,
With thy sevenfold Mystery.
Here thy grace and virtue send :
Grant salvation in the end,
And in heaven felicity.

156

J. Dryden, 1631-1701. Based on Veni, Creator Spiritus.

CREATOR Spirit, by whose aid
The world's foundations first were laid,
Come, visit every pious mind ;
Come, pour thy joys on human kind ;
From sin and sorrow set us free,
And make thy temples worthy thee.

- 2 O Source of uncreated light,
The Father's promised Paraclete,
Thrice holy Fount, thrice holy Fire,
Our hearts with heavenly love inspire ;
Come, and thy sacred unction bring
To sanctify us while we sing.

- 3 Plenteous of grace, descend from high
Rich in thy sevenfold energy ;
Make us eternal truths receive,
And practise all that we believe ;
Give us thyself, that we may see
The Father and the Son by thee.

4. Immortal honour, endless fame,
Attend the almighty Father's name ;
The Saviour Son be glorified,
Who for lost man's redemption died ;
And equal adoration be,
Eternal Paraclete, to thee. Amen.

Harriet Auber, 1773-1862.

- OUR blest Redeemer, ere he breathed
His tender last farewell,
A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed
With us to dwell.
- 2 He came in tongues of living flame,
To teach, convince, subdue ;
All-powerful as the wind he came,
As viewless too.
- 3 He came sweet influence to impart,
A gracious, willing Guest,
While he can find one humble heart
Wherein to rest.
- 4 And his that gentle voice we hear,
Soft as the breath of even,
That checks each fault, that calms each fear,
And speaks of heaven.
- 5 And every virtue we possess,
And every victory won,
And every thought of holiness,
Are his alone.
6. Spirit of purity and grace,
Our weakness, pitying, see :
O make our hearts thy dwelling-place,
And worthier thee.

158

J. Keble, 1792-1866.

- WHEN God of old came down from heaven,
In power and wrath he came ;
Before his feet the clouds were riven,
Half darkness and half flame :
- 2 But when he came the second time,
He came in power and love ;
Softer than gale at morning prime
Hovered his holy Dove.

WHITSUNTIDE.

- 3 The fires that rushed on Sinai down
In sudden torrents dread,
Now gently light, a glorious crown,
On every sainted head.
- 4 And as on Israel's awe-struck ear
The voice exceeding loud,
The trump, that Angels quake to hear,
Thrilled from the deep dark cloud ;
- 5 So, when the Spirit of our God
Came down his flock to find,
A voice from heaven was heard abroad,
A rushing mighty wind.
- 6 It fills the Church of God ; it fills
The sinful world around ;
Only in stubborn hearts and wills
No place for it is found.
7. Come Lord, come Wisdom, Love, and Power,
Open our ears to hear ;
Let us not miss the accepted hour ;
Save, Lord, by love or fear.

The following are also suitable :

Adesto, sancta Trinitas.

BE present, Holy Trinity,
Like splendour, and one Deity :
Of things above, and things below,
Beginning, that no end shall know.

- 2 Thee all the armies of the sky
Adore, and laud, and magnify ;
And Nature, in her triple frame,
For ever sanctifies thy name.
- 3 And we, too, thanks and homage pay,
Thine own adōring flock to-day ;
O join to that celestial song
The praises of our suppliant throng !
- 4 Light, sole and one, we thee confess,
With triple praise we rightly bless ;
Alpha and Omega we own,
With every spirit round thy throne.
5. To thee, O unbegotten One,
And thee, O sole-begotten Son,
And thee, O Holy Ghost, we raise
Our equal and eternal praise. Amen.

160 OFFICE HYMN. M. c. 10th cent. Tr. P. D.
O Pater sancte.

FATHER most holy, merciful and tender ;
Jesus our Saviour, with the Father reigning ;
Spirit of mercy, Advocate, Defender,
Light never waning ;

TRINITY SUNDAY.

- 2 Trinity sacred, Unity unshaken ;
Deity perfect, giving and forgiving,
Light of the Angels, Life of the forsaken,
Hope of all living ;
- 3 Maker of all things, all thy creatures praise thee ;
Lo, all things serve thee through thy whole creation :
Hear us, Almighty, hear us as we raise thee
Heart's adoration.
4. To the almighty triune God be glory :
Highest and greatest, help thou our endeavour ,
We too would praise thee, giving honour worthy,
Now and for ever. Amen.

- HAVE mercy on us, God most high,
Who lift our hearts to thee ;
Have mercy on us, worms of earth,
Most holy Trinity.
- 2 Most ancient of all mysteries,
Before thy throne we lie ;
Have mercy now, most merciful,
Most holy Trinity.
- 3 When heaven and earth were yet unmade,
When time was yet unknown,
Thou in thy bliss and majesty
Didst live and love alone.
- 4 Thou wert not born ; there was no fount
From which thy Being flowed ;
There is no end which thou canst reach ;
But thou art simply God.
- 5 How wonderful creation is,
The work which thou didst bless,
And O ! what then must thou be like,
Eternal loveliness !

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 6 How beautiful the Angels are,
 The Saints how bright in bliss ;
 But with thy beauty, Lord, compared,
 How dull how poor is this !
- 7 O listen then, most pitiful,
 To thy poor creature's heart :
 It blesses thee that thou art God,
 That thou art what thou art.
8. Most ancient of all mysteries,
 Still at thy throne we lie :
 Have mercy now, most merciful,
 Most holy Trinity.

- HOLY, Holy, Holy ! Lord God Almighty !
 Early in the morning our song shall rise to
 thee ;
 Holy, Holy, Holy ! Merciful and mighty !
 God in three Persons, blessed Trinity !
- 2 Holy, Holy, Holy ! all the Saints adore thee,
 Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea ;
 Cherubim and Seraphim falling down before thee,
 Which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.
- 3 Holy, Holy, Holy ! though the darkness hide
 thee,
 Though the eye of sinful man thy glory may not see,
 Only thou art holy, there is none beside thee
 Perfect in power, in love, and purity.
4. Holy, Holy, Holy ! Lord God Almighty !
 All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth,
 and sky, and sea ;
 Holy, Holy, Holy ! Merciful and mighty !
 God in three Persons, blessed Trinity ! Amen.

Tr. J. M. Neale.*

Τριφεγγὴς μὲν ἀς θαρχει.

O UNITY of threefold light,
Send out thy loveliest ray,
And scatter our transgressions' night,
And turn it into day ;
Make us those temples pure and fair
Thy glory loveth well,
The spotless tabernacles, where
Thou may'st vouchsafe to dwell.

2 The glorious hosts of peerless might,
That ever see thy face,
Thou mak'st the mirrors of thy light,
The vessels of thy grace.
Thou, when their wondrous strain they weave,
Hast pleasure in the lay :
Deign thus our praises to receive,
Albeit from lips of clay.

3. And yet thyself they cannot know,
Nor pierce the veil of light
That hides thee from the Thrones below,
As in profoundest night.
How then can mortal accents frame
Due tribute to their King ?
Thou, only, while we praise thy name,
Forgive us as we sing.

 Active and watchful, stand we all before thee;
 Singing we offer prayer and meditation:
 Thus we adore thee.

2 Monarch of all things, fit us for thy mansions;
 Banish our weakness, health and wholeness send-

 Bring us to heaven, where thy Saints united Joy without ending.

EMBER DAYS.

166

J. M. Neale, 1818-66.

CHRISt is gone up ; yet ere he passed
From earth, in heaven to reign,
He formed one holy Church to last
Till he should come again.

2 His twelve Apostles first he made
His ministers of grace ;
And they their hands on others laid,
To fill in turn their place.

3 So age by age, and year by year,
His grace was handed on ;
And still the holy Church is here,
Although her Lord is gone.

4. Let those find pardon, Lord, from thee,
Whose love to her is cold :
And bring them in, and let there be
One Shepherd and one Fold.

167

J. Montgomery †, 1771-1854.

POUR out thy Spirit from on high ;
Lord, thine assembled servants bless ;
Graces and gifts to each supply,
And clothe thy priests with righteousness.

- 2 Within the temple when they stand,
To teach the truth, as taught by thee,
Saviour, like stars in thy right hand
May all thy Church's pastors be.
- 3 Wisdom, and zeal, and faith impart,
Firmness with meekness, from above,
To bear thy people in their heart,
And love the souls whom thou dost love :
- 4 To watch, and pray, and never faint,
By day and night, strict guard to keep,
To warn the sinner, cheer the saint,
Nourish thy lambs, and feed thy sheep.

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

5. Then, when their work is finished here,
May they in hope their charge resign;
When the Chief Shepherd shall appear,
O God, may they and we be thine.

168

J. M. Neale, 1818-66.

THE earth, O Lord, is one great field
Of all thy chosen seed;
The crop prepared its fruit to yield;
The labourers few indeed.

2 We therefore come before thee now
By fasting and by prayer,
Beseeching of thy love that thou
Wouldst send more labourers there.

3 Not for our land alone we pray,
Though that above the rest;
The realms and islands far away,
O let them all be blest.

4 Endue the bishops of thy flock
With wisdom and with grace,
Against false doctrine, like a rock,
To set the heart and face:

5 To all thy priests thy truth reveal,
And make thy judgements clear;
Make thou thy deacons full of zeal
And humble and sincere:

6. And give their flocks a lowly mind
To hear and not in vain;
That each and all may mercy find
When thou shalt come again.

Urbs beata Jerusalem.

BLESSED City, heavenly Salem,
Vision dear of peace and love,
Who, of living stones upbuilded,
Art the joy of heaven above,
And, with Angel cohorts circled,
As a bride to earth dost move !

- 2 From celestial realms descending,
Bridal glory round her shed,
To his presence, decked with jewels,
By her Lord shall she be led :
All her streets, and all her bulwarks,
Of pure gold are fashioned.
- 3 Bright with pearls her portals glitter,
They are open evermore ;
And, by virtue of his merits,
Thither faithful souls may soar,
Who for Christ's dear name in this world
Pain and tribulation bore.
- 4 Many a blow and biting sculpture
Fashioned well those stones elect,
In their places now compacted
By the heavenly Architect,
Who therewith hath willed for ever
That his palace should be decked.
- 5 Laud and honour to the Father ;
Laud and honour to the Son ;
Laud and honour to the Spirit ;
Ever Three, and ever One :
Consubstantial, co-eternal,
While unending ages run. Amen.

Bound in each, binds both in one,
Holy Sion's help for ever,
And her confidence alone.

2 All that dedicated City,
Dearly loved by God on high,
In exultant jubilation
Pours perpetual melody:
God the One, and God the Trinal,
Singing everlastingly.

3 To this temple, where we call thee,
Come, O Lord of Hosts, to-day ;
With thy wonted loving-kindness
Hear thy people as they pray ;
And thy fullest benediction
Shed within its walls for ay.

4 Here vouchsafe to all thy servants
What they supplicate to gain ;
Here to have and hold for ever
Those good things their prayers obtain,
And hereafter in thy glory
With thy blessed ones to reign.

5. Laud and honour to the Father ;
Laud and honour to the Son ;
Laud and honour to the Spirit ;

The Spirit's blest anointing poured
Brightens the once defiled.
- 3 Here Christ of his own Blood
Himself the chalice gives,
And feeds his own with Angels' food,
On which the spirit lives.
- 4 For guilty souls that pine
Sure mercies here abound,
And healing grace with oil and wine
For every secret wound.
- 5 God from his throne afar,
Comes in this house to dwell ;
And prayer, beyond the evening star,
Builds here her citadel.
6. All might, all praise be thine,
The God whom all adore ;
The Father, Son, and Spirit divine,
Both now and evermore. Amen.

SION'S daughters ! Sons of Jerusalem !
All ye hosts of heavenly chivalry !
Lift your voices, singing right merrily
Alleluya !

THE CHRISTIAN YEAR.

- 2 Christ our Saviour weds on this festival
Holy Church, the Pattern of Righteousness,
Whom from depths of uttermost misery
He hath rescued.
- 3 Now the Bride receiveth his benison,
Tasteth now the joys of the Paraclete ;
Kings and queens with jubilant melody
Call her blessed.
- 4 Mother meet for sinful humanity,
Life's sure haven, rest for the sorrowful,
Strong protectress, born in a mystery
Ever wondrous.
- 5 Not more fair the moon in her loveliness !
Not more bright the sun in his majesty !
Like an army splendid and terrible,
Ranged for battle—
- 6 So the Church shines forth on her pilgrimage,
Signed with Jordan's waters of penitence,
Drawn to hear the wisdom of Solomon,
From the world's end.
- 7 * So, foretold by figures and prophecies,
Clothed in nuptial vesture of charity,
Joined with Christ, o'er heaven's glad citizens
Now she reigneth.
- 8 * Welcome ! feast of light and felicity,
Bride to Bridegroom joining in unity ;
In her mystic marriage is typified
Our salvation.
9. Christ, whose joys we joyfully celebrate,
Grant us all a place with thy chosen ones,
True delights, ineffable happiness,
Rest eternal.

DEDICATION OR RESTORATION OF A CHURCH.

173

J. G. Whittier, 1807-92.

- ALL things are thine ; no gift have we,
Lord of all gifts, to offer thee :
And hence with grateful hearts to-day
Thine own before thy feet we lay.
- 2 Thy will was in the builders' thought ;
Thy hand unseen amidst us wrought ;
Through mortal motive, scheme and plan,
Thy wise eternal purpose ran.
- 3 In weakness and in want we call
On thee for whom the heavens are small ;
Thy glory is thy children's good,
Thy joy thy tender Fatherhood.
4. O Father, deign these walls to bless ;
Fill with thy love their emptiness ;
And let their door a gateway be
To lead us from ourselves to thee.

For a Dedication Festival, or for a Special Service of Dedication, the following are also suitable :

- 450 O God, our help in ages past.
472 Pray that Jerusalem may have.
489 The Church's one foundation.
508 We love the place, O God.
533 Now thank we all our God.
534 Praise the Lord of heaven ; praise him in the height.
535 Praise the Lord ! ye heavens, adore him.
536 Praise to the Lord, the Almighty.
537 Rejoice to-day with one accord.
544 O Faith of England, taught of old.

174 OFFICE HYMN. Common of Apostles and Evangelists.
E. and M. Before 11th cent. Tr. T. A. L.

Annu Christe saeculorum Domine.

LORD of Creation, bow thine ear, O Christ, to hear

The intercession of thy servant true and dear,
 That we unworthy, who have trespassed in thy sight,

May live before thee where he dwells in glorious light.

2 O God our Saviour, look on thine inheritance,
 Sealed by the favour shining from thy countenance ;

That no false spirit bring to nought the souls of price

Bought by the merit of thy perfect Sacrifice.

3 We bear the burden of our guilt and enmity,
 Until thy pardon lift the heart from slavery ;
 Then through the spending of thy life-blood,
 King of grace,

Grant us unending triumph in thy holy place.

4. To thee the glorious Christ, our Saviour manifest,
 All wreaths victorious, praise and worship be
 address,

Whom with the living Father humbly we adore,
 And the life-giving Spirit, God for evermore.

Amen.

APOSTLES AND EVANGELISTS.

- 175 OFFICE HYMN. Common of Apostles and Evangelists.
 (York) M. Before 11th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.
 Aeterna Christi munera.

THE eternal gifts of Christ the King,
 The Apostles' glorious deeds, we sing ;
 And while due hymns of praise we pay,
 Our thankful hearts cast grief away.

- 2 The Church in these her princes boasts,
 These victor chiefs of warrior hosts ;
 The soldiers of the heavenly hall,
 The lights that rose on earth for all.

- 3 'Twas thus the yearning faith of Saints,
 The unconquered hope that never faints,
 The love of Christ that knows not shame,
 The prince of this world overcame.

- 4 In these the Father's glory shone ;
 In these the will of God the Son ;
 In these exults the Holy Ghost ;
 Through these rejoice the heavenly host.

5. Redeemer, hear us of thy love,
 That, with this glorious band above,
 Hereafter, of thine endless grace,
 Thy servants also may have place. Amen.

- 176 OFFICE HYMN. Common of Apostles and Evangelists.
 M. and E. c. 10th cent. Tr. Bishop R. Mant.
 Exultet cælum laudibus.

LET the round world with songs rejoice ;
 Let heaven return the joyful voice ;
 All mindful of the Apostles' fame,
 Let heaven and earth their praise proclaim.

- 2 Ye servants who once bore the light
 Of Gospel truth o'er heathen night,
 Still may your work that light impart,
 To glad our eyes and cheer our heart.

SAINTS' DAYS : GENERAL.

- 3 O God, by whom to them was given
 The key that shuts and opens heaven,
 Our chains unbind, our loss repair,
 And grant us grace to enter there ;
- 4 For at thy will they preached the word
 Which cured disease, which health conferred :
 O may that healing power once more
 Our souls to grace and health restore :
- 5 That when thy Son again shall come,
 And speak the world's unerring doom,
 He may with them pronounce us blest,
 And place us in thy endless rest.
6. To thee, O Father ; Son, to thee ;
 To thee, blest Spirit, glory be !
 So was it ay for ages past,
 So shall through endless ages last. Amen.

 Tr. Sir H. W. Baker.*

Caelestis aulae principes.

CAPTAINS of the saintly band,
 Lights who lighten every land,
 Princes who with Jesus dwell,
 Judges of his Israel :

- 2 On the nations sunk in night
 Ye have shed the Gospel light ;
 Sin and error flee away ;
 Truth reveals the promised day.
- 3 Not by warrior's spear and sword,
 Not by art of human word,
 Preaching but the Cross of shame,
 Rebel hearts for Christ ye tame.

APOSTLES AND EVANGELISTS.

- 4 Earth, that long in sin and pain
Groaned in Satan's deadly chain,
Now to serve its God is free
In the law of liberty.
- 5 Distant lands with one acclaim
Tell the honour of your name,
Who, wherever man has trod,
Teach the mysteries of God.
6. Glory to the Three in One
While eternal ages run,
Who from deepest shades of night
Called us to his glorious light. Amen.

178

J.-B. de Santeuil, 1630-97. Tr. I. Williams †.
Supreme, quales, Arbiter.

- DISPOSER supreme, and Judge of the earth,
Who choosest for thine the weak and the poor ;
To frail earthen vessels, and things of no worth,
Entrusting thy riches which ay shall endure ;
- 2 Those vessels soon fail, though full of thy light,
And at thy decree are broken and gone ;
Then brightly appeareth the arm of thy might,
As through the clouds breaking the lightnings have shone.
- 3 Like clouds are they borne to do thy great will,
And swift as the winds about the world go ;
All full of thy Godhead, while earth lieth still,
They thunder, they lighten, the waters o'erflow.
- 4 * Their sound goeth forth, ' Christ Jesus is Lord ! '
Then Satan doth fear, his citadels fall :
As when the dread trumpets went forth at thy word,
And one long blast shattered the Canaanites' wall.

SAINTS' DAYS: GENERAL.

- 5 O loud be their trump, and stirring the sound,
 To rouse us, O Lord, from sin's deadly sleep ;
 May lights which thou kindlest in darkness around
 The dull soul awaken her vigils to keep !
6. All honour and praise, dominion and might,
 To thee, Three in One, eternally be,
 Who pouring around us thy glorious light,
 Dost call us from darkness thy glory to see.
 Amen.

Plausu chorus laetabundo.

- COME sing, ye choirs exultant,
 Those messengers of God,
 Through whom the living Gospels
 Came sounding all abroad !
 Whose voice proclaimed salvation
 That poured upon the night,
 And drove away the shadows,
 And flushed the world with light.
- 2 He chose them, our Good Shepherd,
 And, tending evermore
 His flock through earth's four quarters,
 In wisdom made them four ;
 True Lawgiver, he bade them
 Their healing message spread,
 One charter for all nations,
 One glorious title-deed.
- 3* In one harmonious witness
 The chosen Four combine,
 While each his own commission
 Fulfils in every line ;
 As, in the Prophet's vision,
 From out the amber flame
 In form of visage diverse
 Four living creatures came.

MARTYRS.

4 * Lo, these the wingèd chariots
 That bring Emmanuel nigh ;
 The golden staves uplifting
 The ark of God on high ;
 And these the fourfold river
 Of Paradise above,
 Whence flow for all the nations
 New mysteries of love.

5. Foursquare on this foundation
 The Church of Christ remains,
 A house to stand unshaken
 By floods or winds or rains.
 O glorious happy portion
 In this safe home to be,
 By God, true Man, united
 With God eternally !

MARTYRS.*

180 OFFICE HYMN. Common of one Martyr. E. and M.
c. 10th cent. Tr. P. D.

Martyr Dei qui unicum.

MARTYR of God, whose strength was steeled
 To follow close God's only Son,
 Well didst thou brave thy battlefield,
 And well thy heavenly bliss was won !

2 Now join thy prayers with ours, who pray
 That God may pardon us and bless ;
 For prayer keeps evil's plague away,
 And draws from life its weariness.

3 Long, long ago, were loosed the chains
 That held thy body once in thrall ;
 For us how many a bond remains !
 O Love of God release us all.

4. All praise to God the Father be,
 All praise to thee, eternal Son ;
 All praise, O Holy Ghost, to thee,
 While never-ending ages run. Amen.

SAINTS' DAYS : GENERAL.

181 OFFICE HYMN. Common of one Martyr. M. and E. 6th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Deus tuorum militum.

O GOD, thy soldiers' crown and guard,
And their exceeding great reward ;
From all transgressions set us free,
Who sing thy Martyr's victory.

2 The pleasures of the world he spurned,
From sin's pernicious lures he turned ;
He knew their joys imbued with gall,
And thus he reached thy heavenly hall.

3 For thee through many a woe he ran,
In many a fight he played the man ;
For thee his blood he dared to pour,
And thence hath joy for evermore.

4 We therefore pray thee, full of love,
Regard us from thy throne above ;
On this thy Martyr's triumph day,
Wash every stain of sin away.

5. O Christ, most loving King, to thee,
With God the Father, glory be ;
Like glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

182 OFFICE HYMN. Common of many Martyrs. E. and M. 8th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Sanctorum meritis.

THE merits of the Saints,
Blessèd for evermore,
Their love that never faints,
The toils they bravely bore—
For these the Church to-day
Pours forth her joyous lay—
These victors win the noblest bay.

MARTYRS.

- 2 They, whom this world of ill,
While it yet held, abhorred ;
Its withering flowers that still
They spurned with one accord—
They knew them short-lived all,
And followed at thy call,
King Jesu, to thy heavenly hall.
- 3 Like sheep their blood they poured ;
And without groan or tear,
They bent before the sword
For that their King most dear :
Their souls, serenely blest,
In patience they possess,
And looked in hope towards their rest.
- 4 What tongue may here declare,
Fancy or thought descry,
The joys thou dost prepare
For these thy Saints on high !
Empurpled in the flood
Of their victorious blood,
They won the laurel from their God.
5. To thee, O Lord most high,
One in Three Persons still,
To pardon us we cry,
And to preserve from ill :
Here give thy servants peace,
Hereafter glad release,
And pleasures that shall never cease. Amen.

183 OFFICE HYMN. Common of many Martyrs. M. and E. c. 6th cent. Tr. R. F. Littledale and others.

Rex gloriose Martyrum.

O GLORIOUS King of Martyr hosts,
Thou Crown that each Confessor boasts,
Who ledest to celestial day
The Saints who cast earth's joys away :

SAINTS' DAYS: GENERAL.

- 2 Thine ear in mercy, Saviour, lend,
While unto thee our prayers ascend ;
And as we count their triumphs won,
Forgive the sins that we have done.
- 3 Martyrs in thee their triumphs gain,
Confessors grace from thee obtain ;
We, sinners humbly seek to thee,
From sin's offence to set us free.
4. All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee ;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

184 Sequence. Before 12th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

O beata beatorum,

BLESSED Feasts of blessed Martyrs,
Saintly days of saintly men,
With affection's recollections
Greet we your return again.

- 2 Mighty deeds they wrought, and wonders,
While a frame of flesh they bore ;
We with meetest praise and sweetest
Honour them for evermore.
- 3 Faith unblenching, hope unquenching,
Well-loved Lord, and single heart,—
Thus they glorious and victorious
Bore the Martyr's happy part.
- 4 Blood in slaughter poured like water,
Torments long and heavy chain,
Flame, and axe, and laceration,
They endured, and conquered pain.
- 5 While they passed through divers tortures,
Till they sank by death opprest,
Earth's rejected were elected
To have portion with the blest.

MARTYRS.

6 By contempt of worldly pleasures,
And by mighty battles done,
Have they merited with Angels
To be knit for ay in one.

7 Wherefore made co-heirs of glory,
Ye that sit with Christ on high,
Join to ours your supplications,
As for grace and peace we cry ;

8. That, this weary life completed,
And its many labours past,
We may merit to be seated
In our Father's home at last.

185

Prudentius, b. 348. Tr. A. R.

Beate Martyr, prospera.

BLEST Martyr, let thy triumph-day
God's favouring grace to us convey ;
The day on which thy life-blood flowed
And he thy crown in meed bestowed.

2 Thy soul to heavenly mansions sped
While this world's gloomy shadows fled ;
The judge and torturer o'erthrown,
Christ claimed the victor for his own.

3 Now consort of the Angels bright
Thou shinest clothed in robes of white ;
Robes thou hast washed in streams of blood,
A dauntless Martyr for thy God.

4 Be thou on this thy holy-day
Our strong upholder ; while we pray
That from our guilt we may be freed,
Stand thou before the throne and plead.

5. All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee ;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

SAINTS' DAYS: GENERAL.

186

A. R.

- COME, let us join the Church above
 The Martyr's praise to sing,
 That soldier true who gave to-day
 His life-blood for his King.
- 2 To-day through heaven the cry rang out,
 'Great God, the fight is done !
 Room for the Victor ! lo, his crown
 Christ's valiant Saint hath won !'
- 3 The Martyr's triumph shall endure,
 His fame time cannot dim :
 See how he calls on one and all
 To rise and follow him !
- 4 We know that in our Saviour Christ
 The blest our troubles heed ;
 That Saints in heaven to saints on earth
 Are very near indeed.
- 5 The cloud of witnesses look down,
 They cheer us on to fight ;
 To God their prayers go up that he
 May lead their friends aright.
- 6 Brave Martyr, we will follow till
 To God we yield our breath ;
 And learn from thee to spurn the world
 And mock at pain and death !
7. To Christ, for whom the Martyrs die,
 All laud and glory be,
 With Father, and with Holy Ghost,
 To all eternity. Amen.

187

St. Joseph the Hymnographer, d. 883. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Τῶν ἱερῶν ἀθλοφόρων.

LET our choir new anthems raise,
 Wake the morn with gladness ;
 God himself to joy and praise
 Turns the Martyrs' sadness :

CONFESSORS.

- This the day that won their crown,
 Opened heaven's bright portal,
 As they laid the mortal down
 And put on the immortal.
- 2 Never flinched they from the flame,
 From the torture never;
 Vain the foeman's sharpest aim,
 Satan's best endeavour:
 For by faith they saw the land
 Decked in all its glory,
 Where triumphant now they stand
 With the victor's story.
3. Up and follow, Christian men!
 Press through toil and sorrow;
 Spurn the night of fear, and then,
 O, the glorious morrow!
 Who will venture on the strife?
 Who will first begin it?
 Who will grasp the land of life?
 Warriors, up and win it!

FOR A CONFESSOR.

188 OFFICE HYMN. Common of a Confessor. E. and M. 8th cent. Tr. L. II.

Iste Confessor.

HE, whose confession God of old accepted,
 Whom through the ages all now hold in honour,

Gaining his guerdon this day came to enter
 Heaven's high portal.

- 2 God-fearing, watchful, pure of mind and body,
 Holy and humble, thus did all men find him;
 While, through his members, to the life immortal
 Mortal life called him.
- 3 Thus to the weary, from the life enshrined,
 Potent in virtue, flowed humane compassion;
 Sick and sore laden, howsoever burdened,
 There they found healing.

SAINTS' DAYS: GENERAL.

- 4 So now in chorus, giving God the glory,
 Raise we our anthem gladly to his honour,
 That in fair kinship we may all be sharers
 Here and hereafter.
5. Honour and glory, power and salvation,
 Be in the highest unto him who reigneth
 Changeless in heaven over earthly changes,
 Triune, eternal. Amen.

189 OFFICE HYMN. Common of a Confessor (in full).

M and E. 8th cent. Tr. R. M. B.

Part 2. For a Matron. (York.)

Jesu, Redemptor omnium.

O THOU whose all-redeeming might Crowns every chief in faith's true fight,
 On this commemoration day
 Hear us, good Jesu, while we pray.

- 2 In faithful strife for thy dear name
 Thy servant earned the saintly fame,
 Which pious hearts with praise revere
 In constant memory year by year.

Part 2.

- 3 Earth's fleeting joys he counted nought,
 For higher, truer joys he sought,
 And now, with Angels round thy throne,
 Unfading treasures are his own.
- 4 O grant that we, most gracious God,
 May follow in the steps he trod;
 And, freed from every stain of sin,
 As he hath won may also win.
5. To thee, O Christ, our loving King,
 All glory, praise, and thanks we bring;
 Whom with the Father we adore
 And Holy Ghost for evermore. Amen.

CONFESSORS.

.190 For a Bishop.

V. S. S. G.

- O SHEPHERD of the sheep,
High Priest of things to come,
Who didst in grace thy servant keep,
And take him safely home :
- 2 Accept our song of praise
 For all his holy care,
His zeal unquenched through length of days,
 The trials that he bare.
- 3 Chief of thy faithful band,
 He held himself the least,
Though thy dread keys were in his hand,
 O everlasting Priest.
- 4 So, trusting in thy might,
 He won a fair renown ;
So, waxing valiant in the fight,
 He trod the lion down ;
- 5 Then rendered up to thee
 The charge thy love had given,
And passed away thy face to see
 Revealed in highest heaven.
- 6 On' all our bishops pour
 The Spirit of thy grace ;
That, as he won the palm of yore,
 So they may run their race ;
7. That, when this life is done,
 They may with him adore
The ever-blessèd Three in One,
 In bliss for evermore.

SAINTS' DAYS: GENERAL.

FOR A VIRGIN.

191 OFFICE HYMN. Common of a Virgin (in full). E. and M. 8th cent. Tr. L. H.

Part 2. For a Matron. (York.)

Virginis Proles.

SON of a Virgin, Maker of thy mother,
Thou, Rod and Blossom from a Stem unstained,

Now while a Virgin fair of fame we honour,
Hear our devotion !

2 Lo, on thy handmaid fell a twofold blessing,
Who, in her body vanquishing the weakness,
In that same body, grace from heaven obtaining,
Bore the world witness.

3 Death, nor the rending pains of death appalled her ;
Bondage and torment found her undefeated:
So by the shedding of her life attained she Heavenly guerdon.

Part 2.

4 Fountain of mercy, hear the prayers she offers ;
Purge our offences, pardon our transgressions,
So that hereafter we to thee may render
Praise with thanksgiving.

5. Thou, the All-Father, thou the One-Begotten,
Thou Holy Spirit, Three in One co-equal,
Glory be henceforth thine through all the ages,
World without ending. Amen.

192 OFFICE HYMN. Common of a Virgin. M. and E.
St. Ambrose, 340-97. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Jesu, Corona Virginum.

JESU, the Virgins' Crown, do thou
Accept us as in prayer we bow ;
Born of that Virgin whom alone
The Mother and the Maid we own.

FOR A MATRON.

- 2 Amongst the lilies thou dost feed,
With Virgin choirs accompanied—
With glory decked, the spotless brides
Whose bridal gifts thy love provides.
- 3 They, wheresoe'er thy footsteps bend,
With hymns and praises still attend ;
In blessed troops they follow thee,
With dance, and song, and melody.
- 4 We pray thee therefore to bestow
Upon our senses here below
Thy grace, that so we may endure
From taint of all corruption pure.
5. All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee ;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

FOR A MATRON.

193

Silvio Antoniano, b. 1540. Tr. A. R.

Fortem, virili pectore.

THE praises of that Saint we sing,
To whom all lands their tribute bring,
Who with indomitable heart
Bore throughout life true woman's part.

- 2 Restraining every froward sense
By gentle bonds of abstinence,
With prayer her hungry soul she fed,
And thus to heavenly joys hath sped.
- 3 King Christ, from whom all virtue springs,
Who only doest wondrous things,
As now to thee she kneels in prayer,
In mercy our petitions hear.
4. All praise to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee ;
Whom with the Spirit we adore
For ever and for evermore. Amen.

SAINTS' DAYS: GENERAL.

FOR A VIGIL.

194

St. Ephraim the Syrian, d. 373. Tr. F. C. B.

Qabbel, Māran, bā'ūth kullan.

- RECEIVE, O Lord, in heaven above
Our prayers and supplications pure ;
Give us a heart all full of love
And steady courage to endure.
- 2 Thy holy name our mouths confess,
Our tongues are harps to praise thy grace ;
Forgive our sins and wickedness,
Who in this vigil seek thy face.
- 3 Let not our song become a sigh,
A wail of anguish and despair ;
In loving-kindness, Lord most high,
Receive to-night our evening prayer.
4. O raise us in that day, that we
May sing, where all thy Saints adore,
Praise to thy Father, and to thee,
And to thy Spirit, evermore. Amen.

FOR A PATRONAL FESTIVAL.

195

St. Paulinus of Nola, 353-431. Tr. A. R.

Ecce dies nobis.

- ANOTHER year completed,
The day comes round once more
Which with our patron's radiance
Is bright as heretofore.
Now, strong in hope, united
His festival we greet ;
He will present our troubles
Before the mercy-seat.
- 2 The Scriptures tell how Moses
Did for the people pray,
Appeased the Judge eternal,
And turned his wrath away ;
Elijah's prayer had power,
To close and open heaven :

FOR ANY SAINT'S DAY.

Such Saints as were aforetime,
Such Saints to us are given.

- 3 O Saint of God, belovèd,
And placed on his right hand,
Thy prayers be like a rampart
As 'gainst the foe we stand ;
For Abraham's God is thy God,
And Isaac's God is thine,
Thine is the God of Jacob,
The Lord of power benign.
4. For forty years his Israel
He fed with Angels' food ;
The flinty rock he opened
And streams of water flowed.
Entreat that Christ his people
May lead to victory ;
The God of Joshua's triumph
The Lord thy God is he.

FOR ANY SAINT'S DAY.

196

Bishop R. Mant, 1776-1848.

- FOR all thy Saints, O Lord,
Who strove in thee to live,
Who followed thee, obeyed, adored,
Our grateful hymn receive.
- 2 For all thy Saints, O Lord,
Accept our thankful cry,
Who counted thee their great reward,
And strove in thee to die.
- 3 They all in life and death,
With thee their Lord in view,
Learned from thy Holy Spirit's breath
To suffer and to do.
- 4 For this thy name we bless,
And humbly beg that we
May follow them in holiness,
And live and die in thee ;

SAINTS' DAYS: GENERAL.

- 5 With them the Father, Son,
And Holy Ghost to praise,
As in the ancient days was done,
And shall through endless days. Amen.

197

I. Watts, 1674-1748.

- GIVE me the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil, and see
The Saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.
- 2 Once they were mourning here below,
And wet their couch with tears ;
They wrestled hard, as we do now,
With sins and doubts and fears.
- 3 I ask them whence their victory came ;
They, with united breath,
Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to his death.
- 4 They marked the footsteps that he trod,
His zeal inspired their breast,
And, following their incarnate God,
Possess the promised rest.
- 5 Our glorious Leader claims our praise
For his own pattern given ;
While the long cloud of witnesses
Show the same path to heaven.

198

Bishop Chr. Wordsworth, 1807-85.

- HARK ! the sound of holy voices,
Chanting at the crystal sea,
Alleluya, Alleluya,
Alleluya, Lord, to thee :
Multitude, which none can number,
Like the stars in glory stands,
Clothed in white apparel, holding
Palms of victory in their hands.

FOR ANY SAINT'S DAY.

- 2 Patriarch, and holy Prophet,
Who prepared the way of Christ,
King, Apostle, Saint, Confessor,
Martyr, and Evangelist,
Sainly Maiden, godly Matron,
Widows who have watched to prayer,
Joined in holy concert, singing
To the Lord of all, are there.
- 3 They have come from tribulation,
And have washed their robes in blood,
Washed them in the Blood of Jesus ;
Tried they were, and firm they stood ;
Mocked, imprisoned, stoned, tormented,
Sawn asunder, slain with sword,
They have conquered death and Satan
By the might of Christ the Lord.
- 4 Marching with thy Cross their banner,
They have triumphed following
Thee, the Captain of salvation,
Thee their Saviour and their King ;
Gladly, Lord, with thee they suffered ;
Gladly, Lord, with thee they died,
And by death to life immortal
They were born, and glorified.
- 5 Now they reign in heavenly glory,
Now they walk in golden light,
Now they drink, as from a river,
Holy bliss and infinite ;
Love and peace they taste for ever,
And all truth and knowledge see
In the beatific vision
Of the blessèd Trinity.
6. God of God, the One-begotten,
Light of light, Emmanuel,
In whose Body joined together
All the Saints for ever dwell ;

SAINTS' DAYS: GENERAL.

Pour upon us of thy fullness,
That we may for evermore
God the Father, God the Son, and
God the Holy Ghost adore. Amen.

I. Watts and others, 18th cent.

- HOW bright these glorious spirits shine !
Whence all their white array ?
How came they to the blissful seats
Of everlasting day ?
- 2 Lo ! these are they from sufferings great
Who came to realms of light,
And in the Blood of Christ have washed
Those robes that shine so bright.
- 3 Now with triumphal palms they stand
Before the throne on high,
And serve the God they love amidst
The glories of the sky.
- 4 Hunger and thirst are felt no more,
Nor sun with scorching ray ;
God is their sun, whose cheering beams
Diffuse eternal day.
- 5 The Lamb, which dwells amid the throne,
Shall o'er them still preside,
Feed them with nourishment divine,
And all their footsteps guide.
6. In pastures green he'll lead his flock
Where living streams appear ;
And God the Lord from every eye
Shall wipe off every tear.

of St. Victor, c. 1150. Tr. Y. H.*

Supernae matris gaudia.

JOY and triumph everlasting
Hath the heavenly Church on high ;
For that pure immortal gladness
All our feast-days mourn and sigh :

FOR ANY SAINT'S DAY.

- Yet in death's dark desert wild
Doth the mother aid her child,
Guards celestial thence attend us,
Stand in combat to defend us.
- 2 Here the world's perpetual warfare
Holds from heaven the soul apart ;
Legioned foes in shadowy terror
Vex the Sabbath of the heart.
O how happy that estate
Where delight doth not abate ;
For that home the spirit yearneth,
Where none languisheth nor mourneth.
- 3 There the body hath no torment,
There the mind is free from care,
There is every voice rejoicing,
Every heart is loving there.
Angels in that city dwell ;
Them their King delighteth well :
Still they joy and weary never,
More and more desiring ever.
- 4 There the seers and fathers holy,
There the prophets glorified,
All their doubts and darkness ended,
In the Light of light abide.
There the Saints, whose memories old
We in faithful hymns uphold,
Have forgot their bitter story
In the joy of Jesu's glory.
5. There from lowliness exalted
Dwelleth Mary, Queen of grace,
Ever with her presence pleading
'Gainst the sin of Adam's race.
To that glory of the blest,
By their prayers and faith confest,
Us, us too, when death hath freed us,
Christ of his good mercy lead us.

SAINTS' DAYS: GENERAL.

201

J. Montgomery, 1771-1854.

- PALMS of glory, raiment bright,
Crowns that never fade away,
Gird and deck the Saints in light,
Priests, and kings, and conquerors they.
- 2 Yet the conquerors bring their palms
To the Lamb amidst the throne,
And proclaim in joyful psalms
Victory through his Cross alone.
- 3 Kings for harps their crowns resign,
Crying, as they strike the chords,
'Take the kingdom, it is thine,
King of kings, and Lord of lords.'
- 4 Round the altar priests confess,
If their robes are white as snow,
'Twas the Saviour's righteousness,
And his Blood, that made them so.
5. They were mortal too like us ;
Ah ! when we like them must die,
May our souls translated thus
Triumph, reign, and shine on high.

202

Bishop R. Heber, 1783-1826.

- THE Son of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain ;
His blood-red banner streams afar !
Who follows in his train ?
- 2 Who best can drink his cup of woe,
Triumphant over pain,
Who patient bears his cross below,
He follows in his train.
- 3 The Martyr first, whose eagle eye
Could pierce beyond the grave ;
Who saw his Master in the sky,
And called on him to save.

FOR ANY SAINT'S DAY.

- 4 Like him, with pardon on his tongue
In midst of mortal pain,
He prayed for them that did the wrong !
Who follows in his train ?
- 5 A glorious band, the chosen few
On whom the Spirit came,
Twelve valiant Saints, their hope they knew,
And mocked the cross and flame.
- 6 They met the tyrant's brandish'd steel,
The lion's gory mane,
They bowed their necks the death to feel ;
Who follows in their train ?
- 7 A noble army, men and boys,
The matron and the maid,
Around the Saviour's throne rejoice
In robes of light arrayed.
8. They climbed the steep ascent of heaven
Through peril, toil, and pain ;
O God, to us may grace be given
To follow in their train.

203

Christina G. Rossetti, 1830-94.

- WHAT are these that glow from afar,
These that lean over the golden bar,
Strong as the lion, pure as the dove,
With open arms, and hearts of love ?
They the blessed ones gone before,
They the blessed for evermore ;
Out of great tribulation they went
Home to their home of heaven content.
- 2 What are these that fly as a cloud,
With flashing heads and faces bowed ;
In their mouths a victorious psalm,
In their hands a robe and a palm ?
Welcoming Angels these that shine,
Your own Angel, and yours, and mine ;
Who have hedged us, both day and night
On the left hand and on the right.

SAINTS' DAYS : GENERAL.

8 Light above light, and bliss beyond bliss,
 Whom words cannot utter, lo, who is this?
 As a King with many crowns he stands,
 And our names are graven upon his hands;
 As a Priest, with God-uplifted eyes,
 He offers for us his Sacrifice;
 As the Lamb of God, for sinners slain,
 That ~~we~~ too may live, he lives again.

4. God the Father give us grace
 To walk in the light of Jesu's face;
 God the Son give us a part
 In the hiding-place of Jesu's heart;
 God the Spirit so hold us up
 That we may drink of Jesu's cup;
 God Almighty, God Three in One,
 God Almighty, God alone. Amen.

204

H. T. Schenk, 1656-1727. Tr. F. E. Cox.

Wer sind die vor Gottes Throne.

WHO are these, like stars appearing,
 These before God's throne who stand?
 Each a golden crown is wearing;
 Who are all this glorious band?
 Alleluya, hark! they sing,
 Praising loud their heavenly King.

2 Who are these of dazzling brightness,
 These in God's own truth arrayed,
 Clad in robes of purest whiteness,
 Robes whose lustre ne'er shall fade,
 Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand—
 Whence comes all this glorious band?

3 These are they who have contended
 For their Saviour's honour long,
 Wrestling on till life was ended,
 Following not the sinful throng;
 These, who well the fight sustained,
 Triumph through the Lamb have gained.

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. ANDREW.

- 4 These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified ;
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.
5. These like priests have watched and waited,
Offering up to Christ their will,
Soul and body consecrated,
Day and night to serve him still :
Now, in God's most holy place
Blest they stand before his face.

The following is also suitable :

205 (O. H., 174-6.) Mrs. C. F. Alexander, 1823-95.

JESUS calls us !—o'er the tumult
Of our life's wild restless sea
Day by day his sweet voice soundeth,
Saying, ' Christian, follow me : '

2 As of old Saint Andrew heard it
By the Galilean lake,
Turned from home, and toil, and kindred,
Leaving all for his dear sake.

3 Jesus calls us from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store,
From each idol that would keep us,
Saying, ' Christian, love me more. '

4 In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still he calls, in cares and pleasures,
' Christian, love me more than these. '

. SAINTS' DAYS : ST. THOMAS.—ST. PAUL.

5. Jesus calls us !—by thy mercies,
Saviour, may we hear thy call,
Give our hearts to thy obedience,
Serve and love thee best of all.

*Mrs. E. Toke, 1812-72, and
W. Denton.*

- O THOU, who didst with love untold
 Thy doubting servant chide,
 Bidding the eye of sense behold
 Thy wounded hands and side :
2 Grant us, like him, with heartfelt awe
 To own thee God and Lord,
 And from his hour of darkness draw
 Faith in the incarnate Word.
3 And while that wondrous record now
 Of unbelief we hear,
 O let us only lowlier bow
 In self-distrusting fear ;
4. And grant that we may never dare
 Thy loving heart to grieve,
 But, at the last, their blessing share
 Who see not, yet believe.

ST. PAUL.

207

(O. H., 174-6.)

J. Ellerton, 1826-93.

- WE sing the glorious conquest
 Before Damascus' gate,
 When Saul, the Church's spoiler,
 Came breathing threats and hate ;
 The ravening wolf rushed forward
 Full early to the prey ;
 But lo ! the Shepherd met him,
 And bound him fast to-day !

SAINTS' DAYS : PURIFICATION.

- 2 O Glory most excelling
That smote across his path !
O Light that pierced and blinded
The zealot in his wrath !
O Voice that spake within him
The calm reproving word !
O Love that sought and held him
The bondman of his Lord !
- 3 O Wisdom, ordering all things
In order strong and sweet,
What nobler spoil was ever
Cast at the Victor's feet ?
What wiser master-builder
E'er wrought at thine employ,
Than he, till now so furious
Thy building to destroy ?
4. Lord, teach thy Church the lesson,
Still in her darkest hour
Of weakness and of danger
To trust thy hidden power.
Thy grace by ways mysterious
The wrath of man can bind,
And in thy boldest foeman
Thy chosen Saint can find !

THE PURIFICATION.

208 OFFICE HYMN E. (M. 214 or 215.) Ascribed to Archbishop Rabanus Maurus, 9th cent. Tr. T. A. L.
Quod chorus vatam.

- ALL prophets hail thee, from of old announcing,
By the inbreathed Spirit of the Father,
God's Mother, bringing prophecies to fullness,
Mary the maiden.
- 2 Thou the true Virgin Mother of the Highest,
Bearing incarnate God in awed obedience,
Meekly acceptest for a sinless offspring
Purification.

SAINTS' DAYS : PURIFICATION.

- 3 In the high temple Simeon receives thee,
Takes to his bent arms with a holy rapture
That promised Saviour, vision of redemption,
Christ long awaited.
- 4 Now the fair realm of Paradise attaining,
And to thy Son's throne, Mother of the Eternal,
Raised all glorious, yet in earth's devotion
Join with us always.
5. Glory and worship to the Lord of all things
Pay we unresting, who alone adorèd,
Father and Son and Spirit, in the highest Reigneth eternal. Amen.

- HAIL to the Lord who comes,
Comes to his temple gate!
Not with his Angel host,
Not in his kingly state;
No shouts proclaim him nigh,
No crowds his coming wait;
- 2 But borne upon the throne
Of Mary's gentle breast,
Watched by her duteous love,
In her fond arms at rest;
Thus to his Father's house
He comes, the heavenly Guest.
- 3 There Joseph at her side
In reverent wonder stands;
And, filled with holy joy,
Old Simeon in his hands
Takes up the promised Child,
The glory of all lands.

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. MATTHIAS.

4 Hail to the great First born
Whose ransom-price they pay !
The Son before all worlds,
The Child of man to-day,
That he might ransom us
Who still in bondage lay.

5. O Light of all the earth,
Thy children wait for thee !
Come to thy temples here,
That we, from sin set free,
Before thy Father's face
May all presented be !

ST. MATTHIAS.

210

(O. H., 174-6.)

H. Alford, 1810-71.

THE highest and the holiest place
Guards not the heart from sin ;
The Church that safest seems without
May harbour foes within.

2 Thus in the small and chosen band,
Beloved above the rest,
One fell from his apostleship,
A traitor-soul unblest.

3 But not the great designs of God
Man's sins shall overthrow ;
Another witness to the truth
Forth to the lands shall go.

4 The soul that sinneth, it shall die ;
Thy purpose shall not fail ;
The word of grace no less shall sound,
The truth no less prevail.

5. Righteous, O Lord, are all thy ways ;
Long as the worlds endure,
From foes without and foes within
Thy Church shall stand secure.

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. DAVID.—ST. PATRICK.

ST. DAVID.

211

E. J. Newell.

- WE praise thy name, all-holy Lord,
For him, the beacon-light
That shone beside our western sea
Through mists of ancient night ;
Who sent to Ireland's fainting Church
New tidings of thy word :
For David, prince of Cambrian Saints,
We praise thee, holy Lord.
- 2 For all the saintly band whose prayers
Still gird our land about,
Of whom, lest men disdain their praise,
The voiceless stones cry out ;
Our hills and vales on every hand
Their names and deeds record :
For these, thy ancient hero host,
We praise thee, holy Lord.
3. Grant us but half their burning zeal,
But half their iron faith,
But half their charity of heart,
And fortitude to death ;
That we with them and all thy Saints
May in thy truth accord,
And ever in thy holy Church
May praise thee, holy Lord..

Ατομπιυγ ινβιυ.

I BIND unto myself to-day
The strong name of the Trinity,
By invocation of the same,
The Three in One, and One in Three.

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. PATRICK.

- 2 I bind this day to me for ever,
By power of faith, Christ's Incarnation;
His baptism in Jordan river;
His death on Cross for my salvation;
His bursting from the spiced tomb;
His riding up the heavenly way;
His coming at the day of doom;
I bind unto myself to-day.
- 3 I bind unto myself the power
Of the great love of Cherubim;
The sweet 'Well done' in judgement hour;
The service of the Seraphim,
Confessors' faith, Apostles' word,
The Patriarchs' prayers, the Prophets' scrolls,
All good deeds done unto the Lord,
And purity of virgin souls.
- 4 I bind unto myself to-day
The virtues of the star-lit heaven,
The glorious sun's life-giving ray,
The whiteness of the moon at even,
The flashing of the lightning free,
The whirling wind's tempestuous shocks,
The stable earth, the deep salt sea,
Around the old eternal rocks.

Part 2.

- 5 I bind unto myself to-day
The power of God to hold and lead,
His eye to watch, his might to stay,
His ear to hearken to my need.
The wisdom of my God to teach,
His hand to guide, his shield to ward;
The word of God to give me speech,
His heavenly host to be my guard.
- 6 * Against the demon snares of sin,
The vice that gives temptation force,
The natural lusts that war within,
The hostile men that mar my course;

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. PATRICK.

Or few or many, far or nigh,
In every place, and in all hours,
Against their fierce hostility,
I bind to me these holy powers.

- 7 * Against all Satan's spells and wiles,
Against false words of heresy,
Against the knowledge that defiles,
Against the heart's idolatry,
Against the wizard's evil craft,
Against the death-wound and the burning,
The choking wave, the poisoned shaft,
Protect me, Christ, till thy returning.

- 8 Christ be with me, Christ within me,
Christ behind me, Christ before me,
Christ beside me, Christ to win me,
Christ to comfort and restore me,
Christ beneath me, Christ above me,
Christ in quiet, Christ in danger,
Christ in hearts of all that love me,
Christ in mouth of friend and stranger.

9. I bind unto myself the name,
The strong name of the Trinity ;
By invocation of the same,
The Three in One, and One in Three.
Of whom all nature hath creation ;
Eternal Father, Spirit, Word :
Praise to the Lord of my salvation,
Salvation is of Christ the Lord. Amen.

This Doxology may be sung also after Part 1.

Ave, maris Stella.

HAIL, O Star that pointest
Towards the port of heaven,
Thou to whom as maiden
God for Son was given.

2 When the salutation
Gabriel had spoken,
Peace was shed upon us,
Eden's bonds were broken.

3 Bound by Satan's fetters,
Health and vision needing,
God will aid and light us
At thy gentle pleading.

4 Jesu's tender Mother,
Make thy supplication
Unto him who chose thee
At his Incarnation ;

5 That, O matchless Maiden,
Passing meek and lowly,
Thy dear Son may make us
Blameless, chaste and holy.

6 So, as now we journey,
Aid our weak endeavour,
Till we gaze on Jesus,
And rejoice for ever.

7. Father, Son and Spirit,
Three in One confessing,
Give we equal glory,
Equal praise and blessing. Amen.

Quem terra, pontus, aethera.

THE God whom earth, and sea, and sky,
Adore, and laud, and magnify,
Who'er their threefold fabric reigns,
The Virgin's spotless womb contains.

2 The God whose will by moon and sun
And all things in due course is done,
Is borne upon a Maiden's breast,
By fullest heavenly grace possest.

3 How blest that Mother, in whose shrine
The great Artificer Divine,
Whose hand contains the earth and sky,
Vouchsafed, as in his ark, to lie !

4 Blest, in the message Gabriel brought ;
Blest, by the work the Spirit wrought :
From whom the Great Desire of earth
Took human flesh and human birth.

5. All honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to thee !
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

215 OFFICE HYMN. M. Conception, Annunciation, Nativity, B.V.M. c. 9th cent. Tr. P. D.

O gloriosa Femina.

O GLORIOUS Maid, exalted far
Beyond the light of burning star,
From him who made thee thou hast won
Grace to be Mother of his Son.

2 That which was lost in hapless Eve
Thy holy Scion did retrieve :

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. MARY THE VIRGIN.

- The tear-worn sons of Adam's race
Through thee have seen the heavenly place.
- 3 Thou wast the gate of heaven's high Lord,
The door through which the light hath poured.
Christians rejoice, for through a Maid
To all mankind is life conveyed !
4. All honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to thee ;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

216

J. Keble, 1792-1866.

- AVE Maria ! blessèd Maid !
Lily of Eden's fragrant shade !
Who can express the love
That nurtured thee, so pure and sweet,
Making thy heart a shelter meet
For Jesus' holy Dove !
- 2 Ave Maria ! Mother blest,
To whom, caressing and caressed,
Clings the eternal Child ;
Favoured beyond Archangels' dream,
When first on thee with tenderest gleam
Thy new-born Saviour smiled.
- 3 Thou wept'st, meek Maiden, Mother mild,
Thou wept'st upon thy sinless Child,
Thy very heart was riven :
And yet, what mourning matron here
Would deem thy sorrows bought too dear
By all on this side heaven !
- 4 A Son that never did amiss,
That never shamed his Mother's kiss,
Nor crossed her fondest prayer :
E'en from the Tree he deign'd to bow
For her his agonizèd brow,
Her, his sole earthly care.

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. MARY THE VIRGIN.

5. Ave Maria ! thou whose name
All but adoring love may claim,
Yet may we reach thy shrine ;
For he, thy Son and Saviour, vows
To crown all lowly lofty brows
With love and joy like thine.

217

Bishop T. Ken, 1637-1711.

- HER Virgin eyes saw God incarnate born,
When she to Bethl'em came that happy morn ;
How high her raptures then began to swell,
None but her own omniscient Son can tell.
- 2 As Eve when she her fontal sin reviewed,
Wept for herself and all she should include,
Blest Mary with man's Saviour in embrace
Joyed for herself and for all human race.
- 3 All Saints are by her Son's dear influence blest,
She kept the very Fountain at her breast ;
The Son adored and nursed by the sweet Maid
A thousandfold of love for love repaid.
4. Heaven with transcendent joys her entrance graced,
Next to his throne her Son his Mother placed ;
And here below, now she's of heaven possess,
All generations are to call her blest.

218

V. S. S. C.

- YE who own the faith of Jesus
Sing the wonders that were done,
When the love of God the Father
O'er our sin the victory won,
When he made the Virgin Mary
Mother of his only Son.

Hail Mary, full of grace.

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. MARY THE VIRGIN.

- 2 Blessed were the chosen people
Out of whom the Lord did come,
Blessèd was the land of promise
Fashioned for his earthly home ;
But more blessèd far the Mother
She who bare him in her womb.
- 3 Wherefore let all faithful people
Tell the honour of her name,
Let the Church in her foreshadowed
Part in her thanksgiving claim ;
What Christ's Mother sang in gladness
Let Christ's people sing the same.
- 4 Let us weave our supplications,
She with us and we with her,
For the advancement of the faithful,
For each faithful worshipper,
For the doubting, for the sinful,
For each heedless wanderer.
- 5 * May the Mother's intercessions
On our homes a blessing win,
That the children all be prospered,
Strong and fair and pure within,
Following our Lord's own footsteps,
Firm in faith and free from sin.
- 6 * For the sick and for the agèd,
For our dear ones far away,
For the hearts that mourn in secret,
All who need our prayers to-day,
For the faithful gone before us,
May the holy Virgin pray.
- 7 Praise, O Mary, praise the Father,
Praise thy Saviour and thy Son,
Praise the everlasting Spirit,
Who hath made thee ark and throne ;
O'er all creatures high exalted,
Lowly praise the Three in One. Amen.

ST. GEORGE.

Laurence Housman.

LORD God of Hosts, within whose hand
Dominion rests on sea and land,
Before whose word of life or death
The strength of nations is but breath :
O King, enthroned all thrones above,
Give strength unto the land we love.

2 Thou Breath of Life since time began,
Breathing upon the lips of man,
Hast taught each kindred race to raise
United word to sound thy praise :
So, in this land, join, we beseech,
All hearts and lips in single speech.

3 To George our Saint thou gavest grace
Without one fear all foes to face,
And to confess by faithful death
That Word of Life which was his breath.
O help us, Helper of Saint George,
To fear no bonds that man can forge.

4. Arm us like him, who in thy trust
Beat down the dragon to the dust ;
So that we too may tread down sin
And with thy Saints a crown may win.
Help us, O God, that we may be
A land acceptable to thee.

THE Saint who first found grace to pen
The Life which was the Life of men,
And shed abroad the Gospel's ray,
His fame we celebrate to-day.

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. PHILIP AND ST. JAMES.

- 2 Lo, drawn by Pentecostal fire,
His heart conceived its great desire,
When pure of mind, inspired, he heard
And with his hand set forth the Word.
- 3 Then, clearly writ, the Godhead shone
Serene and fair to look upon ;
And through that record still comes power
To lighten souls in death's dark hour.
- 4 O holy mind, for wisdom fit
Wherein that Life of lives stood writ,
May we through minds of like accord
Show forth the pattern of our Lord.
- 5 And so may all whose minds are dark
Be led to truth by good Saint Mark,
And after this our earthly strife
Stand written in the Book of Life.
6. Praise God who made the world so fair,
And sent his Son our Saviour there,
And by his Holy Spirit wist
To teach the first Evangelist. Amen.

- THE winter's sleep was long and deep,
But earth is awakened and gay ;
For the life ne'er dies that from God doth rise,
And the green comes after the grey.
- 2 So God doth bring the world to spring ;
And on this holy day
Doth the Church proclaim her Apostles' fame,
To welcome the first of May.
 - 3 Two Saints of God went by the road
That leadeth on to light ;
And they gave up all at their Master's call,
To work in their Master's sight.

SAINTS' DAYS : ST. BARNABAS.

- 4 Would Philip's mind the Father find ?
Lo, he hath found the Way ;
For to know the Son is to know the One
Whom the earth and the heavens obey.
- 5 And, James, 'twas thine by grace divine
To preach the Christian life,
Where our faith is shown by our works alone,
And love overcometh strife.
6. Lord, grant that we may brethren be—
As Christians live in deed ;
For it is but so we can learn to know
The truth that to thee doth lead.

THE Son of Consolation !
Of Levi's priestly line,
Filled with the Holy Spirit
And fervent faith divine,
With lowly self-oblation,
For Christ an offering meet,
He laid his earthly riches
At the Apostles' feet.

- 2 The Son of Consolation !
O name of soothing balm !
It fell on sick and weary
Like breath of heaven's own calm !
And the blest Son of Comfort
With fearless loving hand
The Gentiles' great Apostle
Led to the faithful band.
- 3 The Son of Consolation !
Drawn near unto his Lord,
He won the Martyr's glory,
And passed to his reward :

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. JOHN BAPTIST.

With him is faith now ended,
For ever lost in sight,
But love, made perfect, fills him
With praise, and joy, and light.

4 The Son of Consolation !

Lord, hear our humble prayer,
That each of us thy children
This blessed name may bear ;
That we, sweet comfort shedding
O'er homes of pain and woe,
'Midst sickness and in prisons,
May seek thee here below.

5. The Sons of Consolation !

O what their bliss will be
When Christ the King shall tell them,
'Ye did it unto me !'
The merciful and loving •
The Lord of life shall own,
And as his priceless jewels
Shall set them round his throne.

ST. JOHN BAPTIST.

223 OFFICE HYMN. E. Paulus Diaconus, 8th cent.
Tr. R. E. R.

Ut queant laxis.

LET thine example, holy John, remind us,
Ere we can meetly sing thy deeds of wonder,
Hearts must be chastened, and the bonds that bind us

Broken asunder !

2 Lo ! a swift Angel, from the skies descending,
Tells to thy father what shall be thy naming ;
All thy life's greatness to its bitter ending
Duly proclaiming.

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. JOHN BAPTIST.

- 3 But when he doubted what the Angel told him,
Came to him dumbness to confirm the story ;
At thine appearing, healed again behold him,
Chanting thy glory!
- 4 Oh ! what a splendour and a revelation
Came to each mother, at thy joyful leaping,
Greeting thy Monarch, King of every nation,
In the womb sleeping.
5. Angels in orders everlasting praise thee,
God, in thy triune Majesty tremendous ;
Hark to the prayers we, penitents, upraise thee :
Save and defend us. Amen.

224 OFFICE HYMN. M. Paulus Diaconus, 8th cent. Tr. R. E. R.

'Antra deserti.

- E'EN in thy childhood, 'mid the desert places,
Thou hadst a refuge from the city gained,
Far from all slander and its bitter traces Living unstained.
- 2 Often had prophets in the distant ages
Sung to announce the Daystar and to name him ;
But as the Saviour, last of all the sages,
Thou didst proclaim him.
- 3 Than John the Baptist, none of all Eve's daughters
E'er bore a greater, whether high or lowly :
He was thought worthy, washing in the waters
Jesus the holy.
- 4 Angels in orders everlasting praise thee,
God, in thy triune Majesty tremendous ;
Hark to the prayers we, penitents, upraise thee :
Save and defend us. Amen.

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. JOHN BAPTIST.

225

The Venerable Bede, 673-785. Tr. C. S. Calverley†.

Praecursor altus luminis.

HAIL, harbinger of morn :
Thou that art this day born,
And heraldest the Word with clarion voice !
Ye faithful ones, in him
Behold the dawning dim
Of the bright day, and let your hearts rejoice.

- 2 John ;—by that chosen name
To call him, Gabriel came
By God's appointment from his home on high :
What deeds that babe should do
To manhood when he grew,
God sent his Angel forth to testify.
- 3 There is none greater, none,
Than Zachariah's son ;
Than this no mightier prophet hath been born :
Of prophets he may claim
More than a prophet's fame ;
Sublimar deeds than theirs his brow adorn.
- 4 'Lo, to prepare thy way,'
Did God the Father say,
'Before thy face my messenger I send,
Thy coming to forerun ;
As on the orient sun
Doth the bright daystar morn by morn attend.'
5. Praise therefore God most high ;
Praise him who came to die
For us, his Son that liveth evermore ;
And to the Spirit raise,
The Comforter, like praise,
While time endureth, and when time is o'er.

Amen.

ST. PETER.

226 OFFICE HYMN (St. Peter and St. Paul). E and M.
Ascribed to Elpis, c. 500. Tr. T. A. L.
Aurea luce.

- WITH gold most precious, and with sanguine hues of morn,
O Saviour gracious, Light of light, this day
adorn,
To sinners granting pardon, peace, and welcome home,
Where heaven is chanting praise of splendid martyrdom.
- 2 For thy true servant Peter bearing high the keys,
And Paul whose fervent word proclaimed thy mysteries,
By cross victorious and by sword-stroke triumph-
ing,
Now share the glorious court of life's eternal
King.
- 3 O kindly pastor, unto whose apostolate
The royal Master gave in charge the heavenly gate,
In sin's defiling bondage be our joy to gauge
The reconciling virtue of thine embassy.
- 4 O faithful teacher, noble saint of ecstasy,
Fuller and richer be the truth we learn of thee,
Till for the failing doctrine that in part we know
His all-revealing light our bounteous God bestow.
- 5 In faith unshrinking, fearing not your hope to prove,
And deeply drinking from the fount of either
love,
Ye stood in union like twin olive trees of grace;
Through whose communion may we seek the Father's face.

SAINTS' DAYS : ST. PETER.

6. To thee, the glorious Christ, our Saviour manifest,
All wreaths victorious, praise and worship be
address ;
Whom with the living Father humbly we adore,
And the life-giving Spirit, God for evermore.
Amen.

(Or for O. H., M. 175 or 176.)

227

Mrs. C. F. Alexander, 1828-95.

- FORSAKEN once, and thrice denied,
The risen Lord gave pardon free,
Stood once again at Peter's side,
And asked him, ' Lov'st thou me ?'
- 2 How many times with faithless word
Have we denied his holy name,
How oft forsaken our dear Lord,
And shrunk when trial came !
- 3 Saint Peter, when the cock crew clear,
Went out, and wept his broken faith ;
Strong as a rock through strife and fear,
He served his Lord till death.
- 4 How oft his cowardice of heart
We have without his love sincere,
The sin without the sorrow's smart,
The shame without the tear !
- 5 O oft forsaken, oft denied,
Forgive our shame, wash out our sin ;
Look on us from thy Father's side
And let that sweet look win.
6. Hear when we call thee from the deep,
Still walk beside us on the shore,
Give hands to work, and eyes to weep,
And hearts to love thee more.

THE VISITATION.

228 OFFICE HYMN. E. 15th cent. Tr. L. H.

Festum Matris gloriosae.

NOW in holy celebration
Sing-we of that Mother blest,
In whose flesh for men's salvation
God incarnate deigned to rest,
When a kindred salutation
Named in faith the mystic Guest.

2* Lo, the advent Word confessing,
Spake for joy the voice yet dumb,
Through his mother's lips addressing
Her, of motherhood the sum,—
Bower of beauty, blest and blessing,
Crowned with fruit of Life to come.

3 'Whence,' she cried, at that fair meeting,
'Comes to me this great reward?
For when first I heard the greeting
Of the Mother of my Lord,
In my womb, the joy repeating,
Leapt my babe in sweet accord!'

4 Lo, at that glad commendation
Joy found voice in Mary's breast
While in holy exultation
She her Maker's power confest,
At whose word each generation
Now henceforward names her blest.

5. Triune Godhead, health supplying,
Ruler of eternity,
On the Fount of grace relying,
We uplift our hearts to thee,
Praying that in realms undying
We at one with Life may be. Amen.

SAINTS' DAYS: THE VISITATION.

OFFICE HYMN. M.

15th cent. Tr. L. H.

Mundi salus affutura.

PORTAL of the world's salvation,

Lo, a virgin pure and mild,

Humble-hearted, high in station,

Form of beauty undefiled,

Crown of earth's anticipation,

Comes the Mother-maid with child.

2 * Here, the serpent's power subduing,

See the Bush unburned by fire,

Gideon's Fleece of heaven's imbuing,

Aaron's Rod of bright attire,

Fair, and pure, and peace-ensuing,

Spouse of Solomon's desire.

3 * Jesse's Branch received its Flower,

Mother of Emmanuel,

Portal sealed and mystic Bower

Promised by Ezekiel, *

Rock of Daniel's dream, whose power

Smote, and lo, the image fell !

4 See in flesh so great a wonder

By the power of God ordained,—

Him, whose feet all worlds lay under,

In a Virgin's womb contained ;—

Soon earth, her bonds to sunder,

Righteousness from heaven hath rained.

5 Virgin sweet, with love o'erflowing,

To the hills in haste she fares ;

On a kindred heart bestowing

Blessing from the joy she bears ;

Waiting while with mystic showing

Time the sacred birth prepares.

6 What fair joy o'ershone that dwelling,

Called so great a guest to greet ;

What her joy whose love compelling

Found a rest for Mary's feet,

When, the bliss of time foretelling,

Lo, the Voice and Word did meet !

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. MARY MAGDALENE.

7. God most high, the heaven's Foundation,
Ruler of eternity ;
Jesu, who for man's salvation
Came in flesh to make us free ;
Spirit, moving all creation,
Evermore be praise to thee ! Amen.

ST. MARY MAGDALENE.

230 OFFICE HYMN. E. Philippe de Grève, d. 1236.
Tr. L. H.

Collaudemus Magdalenae.

- SING we all the joys and sorrows
Which in Mary's heart were found ;
To her fame our voices raising
Let consenting praise abound :
So do birds of night and morning
Make their mingled songs resound.
- 2 Through the guest-throng at the banquet
Undismayed she sought her Lord ;
Cleansing tears and salving ointments
Lowly on his feet she poured,—
Wiped them with her hair, obtaining
By her love the great reward.
- 3 * Deigns the Cleanser to be cleansed ;
Stoops the Source to find the flow ;
Drains the Flower in outpoured fragrance
Perfume which its heart let go :
Heavens which have rained their bounty
Drink the dew from earth below !
- 4 There in box of alabaster,
Bearing nard of fragrance pure,
She with gift of outpoured sweetness
Bids the mystic sign endure :
Seeking from anointment healing,
Lo, the sick anoints the Cure !

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. MARY MAGDALENE.

- 5 Dearly then for that dear offering
Did our Lord in love repay :
Since so perfect her devotion,
All her sins he put away :
Made her be his own forerunner
On his Resurrection day.
6. Now be glory, laud, and honour
Unto him the Paschal Host,
Who, in war with Death a Lion,
As a Lamb gave up the ghost,
And the third day rose a Victor
Crowned with spoils that Death had lost.

231 OFFICE HYMN. M. and E. Philippe de Grève, d. 1286. Tr. L. H.

O Maria, noli flere.

MARY, weep not, weep no longer,
Now thy heart hath gained its goal ;
Here, in truth, the Gardener standeth,
But the Gardener of thy soul,
Who within thy spirit's garden
By his love hath made thee whole.

- 2 Now from grief and lamentation
Lift thy drooping heart with cheer ;
While for love of him thou mournest,
Lo, thy Lord regained is here !
Fainting for him, thou hast found him ;
All unknown, behold him near !
- 3 * Whence thy sorrow, whence thy weeping,
Since with thee true bliss abides ?
In thy heart, though undiscovered,
Balm of consolation hides :
Holding all, thou canst no longer
Lack the cure that Health provides.

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. JAMES.

- 4 Nay, no wonder if she knows not
Till the Sower's seed be sown,
Till from him, the Word eternal,
Light within her heart is thrown.
Lo, he calls her ; lo, 'Rabboni,'
She in turn her Lord doth own.
- 5 Faith that washed the feet of Jesus,
Fed with dew the Fount of Grace,
Win for us a like compassion,
That, with all the ransomed race,
At the glory of his rising
We may see him face to face !
6. Glory be to God and honour,
Who, preferring sacrifice,
Far above the rich man's bounty,
Sweetness found in Mary's sighs,
Who for all, his love foretasting,
Spreads the banquet of the skies.

ST. JAMES.

232 (O. H., 174-6.) W. Romanis, 1824-99.

- LORD, who shall sit beside thee,
Enthroned on either hand,
When clouds no longer hide thee,
'Mid all thy faithful band ?
- 2 Who drinks the cup of sorrow
Thy Father gave to thee
'Neath shadows of the morrow
In dark Gethsemane ;
- 3 Who on thy Passion thinking
Can find in loss a gain,
And dare to meet unshrinking
Thy baptism of pain.
- 4 O Jesu, form within us
Thy likeness clear and true ;
By thine example win us
To suffer or to do.

THE TRANSFIGURATION.

5. This law itself fulfilleth,—
Christlike to Christ is nigh,
And, where the Father willeth,
Shall sit with Christ on high.

THE TRANSFIGURATION.

233 OFFICE HYMN. E. 15th cent. Tr. R. E. R.

Caelestis formam gloriae.

AN image of that heavenly light,
The goal the Church keeps ay in sight,
Christ on the holy mount displays
Where he outshines the sun's bright rays.

- 2 Let every age proclaimer be
How, on this day, the chosen three
With Moses and Elias heard
The Lord speak many a gracious word.
- 3 As witnesses to grace are nigh
Those twain, the Law and Prophecy;
And to the Son, from out the cloud,
The Father's record thunders loud.
- 4 With garments whiter than the snows,
And shining face, Lord Jesus shows
What glory for those saints shall be
Who joy in God with piety.
- 5 The vision and the mystery
Make faithful hearts beat quick and high,
So on this solemn day of days
The cry goes up of prayer and praise.
6. O God the Father, God the Son,
And Holy Spirit, Three in One,
Vouchsafe to bring us, by thy grace,
To see thy glory face to face. Amen.

THE TRANSFIGURATION.

234 OFFICE HYMN. M. 10th cent. Tr. L. H.

O nata Lux de lumine.

- O LIGHT of light, by love inclined,
Jesu, Redeemer of mankind,
With loving-kindness deign to hear
From suppliant voices praise and prayer.
- 2 Thou who to raise our souls from hell
Didst deign in fleshly form to dwell,
Vouchsafe us, when our race is run,
In thy fair Body to be one.
- 3 More bright than day thy face did show,
Thy raiment whiter than the snow,
When on the mount to mortals blest
Man's Maker thou wast manifest.
- 4 Two prophets, that had faith to see,
With thine elect found company,
Where unto each, divinely shown,
The Godhead veiled in form was known.
- 5 The heavens above his glory named,
The Father's voice the Son proclaimed;
To whom, the King of glory now,
All faithful hearts adoring bow.
- 6 May all who seek thy praise aright
Through purer lives show forth thy light;
So to the brightness of the skies
By holy deeds our hearts shall rise.
7. Eternal God, to thee we raise,
The King of kings, our hymn of praise,
Who Three in One and One in Three
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

235 Suitable also for Retreats. A. P. Stanley †, 1815-81.

O MASTER, it is good to be
High on the mountain here with thee;
Where stand revealed to mortal gaze
The great old Saints of other days;

THE TRANSFIGURATION.

Who once received on Horeb's height
The eternal laws of truth and right ;
Or caught the still small whisper, higher
Than storm, than earthquake, or than fire.

2 O Master, it is good to be
With thee, and with thy faithful three :
Here, where the Apostle's heart of rock
Is nerved against temptation's shock ;
Here, where the Son of Thunder learns
The thought that breathes, and word that burns ;
Here, where on eagle's wings we move
With him whose last best creed is love.

3 * O Master, it is good to be
Entranced, enwrapt, alone with thee ;
Watching the glistering raiment glow,
Whiter than Hermon's whitest snow,
The human lineaments that shine
Irradiant with a light divine :
Till we too change from grace to grace
Gazing on that transfigured face.

4. O Master, it is good to be
Here on the holy mount with thee :
When darkling in the depths of night,
When dazzled with excess of light,
We bow before the heavenly voice
That bids bewildered souls rejoice,
Though love wax cold, and faith be dim,
'This is my Son ! O hear ye him.'

236 Suitable also for general use. J. Armitage Robinson.

'TIS good, Lord, to be here !
Thy glory fills the night ;
Thy face and garments, like the sun,
Shine with unborrowed light.

THE HOLY NAME.

- 2 'Tis good, Lord, to be here,
Thy beauty to behold,
Where Moses and Elijah stand,
Thy messengers of old.
- 3 Fulfiller of the past !
Promise of things to be !
We hail thy Body glorified,
And our redemption see.
- 4 Before we taste of death,
We see thy kingdom come ;
We fain would hold the vision bright,
And make this hill our home.
5. 'Tis good, Lord, to be here !
Yet we may not remain ;
But since thou bidst us leave the mount
Come with us to the plain.

THE HOLY NAME.

237 OFFICE HYMN. E. 15th cent. Tr. P. D.

Exultet cor præcordiis.

- O LET the heart beat high with bliss,
Yea, let it triumph at the sound
Of Jesu's name, so sweet it is,
For every joy therein is found.
- 2 The name that comforteth in woe,
The name of Jesus healing sin,
The name that curbs the powers below
And drives away the death within :
 - 3 The name that soundeth ever sweet
In speech or verse or holy song,
And bids us run with willing feet,
Consoled, and comforted, and strong.
 - 4 Then let the name of Jesus ring
With lofty praise in every place ;
Let heart and voice together sing—
That name shall every ill efface.

THE HOLY NAME.

- 5 Ah ! Jesu, health of sinful men,
Give ear unto our loving prayer ;
Guide thou our wandering feet again,
And hold our doings in thy care.
- 6 Lord, may thy name supply our needs,
And keep us all from danger free,
And make us perfect in good deeds,
That we may lose our sins by thee.
- 7 To thee, O Christ, all glory be
Who shinest with this holy name ;
We worship thy divinity,
Jesu, thou Lord of gentle fame.
8. O Jesu, of a Virgin born,
Immortal honour be to thee ;
Praise to the Father infinite,
And Holy Ghost eternally. Amen.

238 OFFICE HYMN. (Pts. 1 and 2) M.

The Rosy Sequence (Pts. 1 & 3). Suitable also for other occasions.

St. Bernard, 1091-1153. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Jesu, dulcis memoria.

- JESU !—the very thought is sweet !
In that dear name all heart-joys meet ;
But sweeter than the honey far
The glimpses of his presence are.
- 2 No word is sung more sweet than this :
No name is heard more full of bliss :
No thought brings sweeter comfort nigh,
Than Jesus, Son of God most high.
 - 3 Jesu ! the hope of souls forlorn !
How good to them for sin that mourn !
To them that seek thee, O how kind !
But what art thou to them that find ?
 - 4 Jesu, thou sweetness, pure and blest,
Truth's Fountain, Light of souls distressed,
Surpassing all that heart requires,
Exceeding all that soul desires !

THE HOLY NAME.

- 5 No tongue of mortal can express,
No letters write its blessedness :
Alone who hath thee in his heart
Knows, love of Jesus ! what thou art.

Part 2.

- 6 O Jesu ! •King •of wondrous might !
O Victor, glorious from the fight !
Sweetness that may not be exprest,
And altogether loveliest !
- 7 Remain with us, O Lord, to-day !
In every heart thy grace display :
That now the shades of night are fled,
On thee our spirits may be fed.
8. All honour, laud and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to thee !
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

Part 3.

- 6 I seek for Jesus in repose,
When round my heart its chambers close ;
Abroad, and when I shut the door,
I long for Jesus evermore.
- 7 With Mary in the morning gloom
I seek for Jesus at the tomb ;
For him, with love's most earnest cry,
I seek with heart and not with eye.
- 8 Jesus, to God the Father gone,
Is seated on the heavenly throne ;
My heart hath also passed from me,
That where he is there it may be.
9. We follow Jesus now, and raise
The voice of prayer, the hymn of praise,
That he at last may make us meet
With him to gain the heavenly seat.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW.

239 (O. H., 174-6.)

A. R.

SAINTS of God ! Lo, Jesu's people
Age to age your glory tell ;
In his name for us ye laboured,
Now in bliss eternal dwell.

2 Twelve poor men, by Christ anointed,
Braved the rich, the wise, the great,
All the world counts dear rejecting,
Rapt in their apostolate.

3 Thus the earth their death-wounds purchased,
Hallowed by the blood therefrom,
On her bosom bore the nations.
Laved, illumined,—Christendom.

4. On this feast, almighty Father,
May we praise thee with the Son,
Evermore his love confessing,
Who from Both with Both is One. Amen.

ST. MATTHEW.

240 (O. H., 174-6.)

W. Bright, 1824-1901

HE sat to watch o'er customs paid,
A man of scorned and hardening trade ;
Alike the symbol and the tool
Of foreign masters' hated rule.

2 But grace within his breast had stirred ;
There needed but the timely word ;
It came, true Lord of souls, from thee,
That royal summons, ' Follow me.'

3 Enough, when thou wert passing by,
To hear thy voice, to meet thine eye :
He rose, responsive to the call,
And left his task, his gains, his all.

4 O wise exchange ! with these to part,
And lay up treasure in thy heart ;
With twofold crown of light to shine
Amid thy servants' foremost line.

ST. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS.

- 5 Come, Saviour, as in days of old ;
Pass where the world has strongest hold,
And faithless care and selfish greed
Are thorns that choke the holy seed.
6. Who keep thy gifts, O bid them claim
The steward's, not the owner's name ;
Who yield all up for thy dear sake,
Let them of Matthew's wealth partake.

MICHAELMAS.

241 OFFICE HYMN. E. and M. Ascribed to Archbishop Rabanus Maurus, 9th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Tibi, Christe, splendor Patris.

- THEE, O Christ, the Father's splendour,
Life and virtue of the heart,
In the presence of the Angels
Sing we now with tuneful art,
Meetly in alternate chorus
Bearing our responsive part.
- 2 Thus we praise with veneration
All the armies of the sky ;
Chiefly him, the warrior Primate,
Of celestial chivalry,
Michael, who in princely virtue
Cast Abaddon from on high.
- 3 By whose watchful care repelling—
King of everlasting grace—
Every ghostly adversary,
All things evil, all things base,
Grant us of thine only goodness
In thy Paradise a place.
4. Laud and honour to the Father,
Laud and honour to the Son,
Laud and honour to the Spirit,
Ever Three, and ever One,
Consubstantial, co-eternal,
While unending ages run. Amen.

ST. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS.

242 OFFICE HYMN. M. *Ascribed to Archbishop

Christe, sanctorum decus Angelorum.

CHRIST, the fair glory of the holy Angels,
Thou who hast made us, thou who o'er us rulest,
Grant of thy mercy unto us thy servants
Steps up to heaven.

- 2 Send thy Archangel, Michael, to our succour ;
Peacemaker blessed, may he banish from us
Striving and hatred, so that for the peaceful
All things may prosper.
- 3 Send thy Archangel, Gabriel, the mighty ;
Herald of heaven, may he from us mortals
Spurn the old serpent, watching o'er the temples
Where thou art worshipped.
- 4 Send thy Archangel, Raphael, the restorer
Of the misguided ways of men who wander,
Who at thy bidding strengthens soul and body
With thine anointing.
- 5 May the blest Mother of our God and Saviour,
May the assembly of the Saints in glory,
May the celestial companies of Angels
Ever assist us.
6. Father almighty, Son and Holy Spirit,
God ever blessed, be thou our preserver ;
Thine is the glory which the Angels worship,
Veiling their faces. Amen.

243 J. M. Neale, 1818-66.

AROUND the throne of God a band
Of glorious Angels always stand ;
Bright things they see, sweet harps they hold,
And on their heads are crowns of gold.

- 2 Some wait around him, ready still
To sing his praise and do his will ;
And some, when he commands them, go
To guard his servants here below.

ST. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS.

- 3 Lord, give thy Angels every day
Command to guide us on our way,
And bid them every evening keep
Their watch around us while we sleep.
4. So shall no wicked thing draw near,
To do us harm or cause us fear ;
And we shall dwell, when life is past,
With Angels round thy throne at last.

244

Bishop R. Heber, 1783-1826, and J. Keble.

- O GOD the Son eternal, thy dread might Sent forth Saint Michael and the hosts of heaven,
And from the realms of light
Cast down in burning fight
Satan's rebellious hosts, to darkness given.
- 2 * Thine Angels, Lord, we bless with thankful lays,
Dwelling with thee above yon depths of sky :
Who, 'mid thy glory's blaze,
Heaven's ceaseless anthems raise,
And gird thy throne in faithful ministry.
- 3 We celebrate their love, whose viewless wing
Hath left for us so oft their mansion high,
The mercies of their King
To mortal saints to bring,
Or guard the couch of slumbering infancy.
- 4 But thee, the First and Last, we glorify,
Who, when thy world was sunk in death and sin,
Not with thine hierarchy,
The armies of the sky,
But didst with thine own arm the battle win.
- 5 *. Therefore with Angels and Archangels we
To thy dear love our thankful chorus raise,
And tune our songs to thee,
Who art, and art to be ;
And, endless as thy mercies, sound thy praise !

ST. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS.

245 St. Joseph the Hymnographer, a. 883. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Φωστῆρες τῆς ἀύλου.

STARS of the morning, so gloriously bright,
Filled with celestial resplendence and light,
These that, where night never followeth day,
Raise the Trisagion ever and ay :

- 2 These are thy counsellors, these dost thou own,
Lord God of Sabaoth, nearest thy throne ;
These are thy ministers, these dost thou send,
Help of the helpless ones ! man to defend.
- 3 These keep the guard amid Salem's dear bowers ;
Thrones, Principalities, Virtues, and Powers ;
Where, with the Living Ones, mystical Four,
Cherubim, Seraphim bow and adore.
- 4 * 'Who like the Lord ?' thunders Michael the Chief ;
Raphael, 'the cure of God,' comforteth grief ;
And, as at Nazareth, prophet of peace,
Gabriel, 'the Light of God,' bringeth release.
- 5 Then, when the earth was first poised in mid space,
Then, when the planets first sped on their race,
Then, when were ended the six days' employ,
Then all the Sons of God shouted for joy.
6. Still let them succour us ; still let them fight,
Lord of angelic hosts, battling for right ;
Till, where their anthems they ceaselessly pour,
We with the Angels may bow and adore.

246

H. Campbell, 1814-68, and others.

THEY come, God's messengers of love,
They come from realms of peace above,
From homes of never-fading light,
From blissful mansions ever bright.

- 2 They come to watch around us here,
To soothe our sorrow, calm our fear :
Ye heavenly guides, speed not away,
God willeth you with us to stay.

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. LUKE.

- 3 But chiefly at its journey's end
 'Tis yours the spirit to befriend,
 And whisper to the willing heart,
 ' O Christian soul, in peace depart.'
- 4 Blest Jesu, thou whose groans and tears
 Have sanctified frail nature's fears,
 To earth in bitter sorrow weighed,
 Thou didst not scorn thine Angel's aid.
- 5 To us the zeal of Angels give,
 With love to serve thee while we live ;
 To us an Angel-guard supply,
 When on the bed of death we lie.
6. To God the Father, God the Son,
 And God the Spirit, Three in One,
 From all above and all below
 Let joyful praise unceasing flow. Amen.

ST. LUKE.

H. D. Rawnsley.

- SAVIOUR, who didst healing give,
Still in power go before us ;
Thou through death didst bid men live,
 Unto fuller life restore us ;
Strength from thee the fainting found,
 Deaf men heard, the blind went seeing ;
At thy touch was banished sickness,
 And the leper felt new being.
- 2 Thou didst work thy deeds of old
 Through the loving hands of others ;
Still thy mercies manifold
 Bless men by the hands of brothers ;
Angels still before thy face
 Go, sweet health to brothers bringing ;
Still, hearts glow to tell his praises
 With whose name the Church is ringing.

SAINTS' DAYS : ST. SIMON AND ST. JUDE.

3. Loved physician ! for his word
Lo, the Gospel page burns brighter,
Mission servant of the Lord,
Painter true, and perfect writer ;
Saviour, of thy bounty send
Such as Luke of Gospel story,
Friends to all in body's prison
Till the sufferers see thy glory.

ST. SIMON AND ST. JUDE.

J. Ellerton, 1826-93

- THOU who sentest thine Apostles
Two and two before thy face,
Partners in the night of toiling,
Heirs together of thy grace,
Throned at length, their labours ended,
Each in his appointed place :
- 2 Praise to thee for those thy champions
Whom our hymns to-day proclaim ;
One, whose zeal by thee enlightened
Burned anew with nobler flame ;
One, the kinsman of thy childhood
Brought at last to know thy name.
- 3 Praise to thee ! Thy fire within them
Spake in love, and wrought in power ;
Seen in mighty signs and wonders
In thy Church's morning hour ;
Heard in tones of sternest warning
When the storms began to lour.
4. God the Father, great and wondrous
In thy works, to thee be praise ;
King of Saints, to thee be glory,
Just and true in all thy ways ;
Praise to thee, from both proceeding,
Holy Ghost, through endless days. Amen.

ALL SAINTS.

9th cent. Tr. T. A. L.

Jesu, Salvator sæculi.

O SAVIOUR Jesu, not alone
We plead for help before thy throne ;
Thy Mother's love shall aid our prayer
To win for us that healing care.

2 For souls defaulting supplicate
All orders of the Angel state,
The Patriarchs in line to thee,
The Prophets' goodly company.

3 For souls in guilt ensnarèd pray
The Baptist, herald of thy way,
The wielder of the heavenly keys,
The apostolic witnesses.

4 For souls polluted intercede
Thy Martyrs, hallowed in their deed,
Confessors high in priestly power,
And they who have the virgin dower.

5 Let all who served thy Church below,
And now thy heavenly freedom know,
Give heed to help our lingering strife
And claim for us the crown of life.

6. To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
All honour, praise, and glory be
From age to age eternally. Amen.

Quisquis valet numerare.

IF there be that skills to reckon
All the number of the blest,
He perchance can weigh the gladness

SAINTS' DAYS: ALL SAINTS.

Of the everlasting rest,
Which, their earthly exile finished,
They by merit have possest.

2 Through the vale of lamentation
Happily and safely past,
Now the years of their affliction
In their memory they recast,
And the end of all perfection
They can contemplate at last.

3 There the gifts of each and single
All in common right possess ;
There each member hath his portion
In the Body's blessedness ;
So that he, the least in merits,
Shares the guerdon none the less.

4 * In a glass through types and riddles
Dwelling here, we see alone ;
Then serenely, purely, clearly,
We shall know as we are known,
Fixing our enlightened vision
On the glory of the throne.

5 There the Trinity of Persons
Unbeclouded shall we see ;
There the Unity of Essence
Perfectly revealed shall be ;
While we hail the Threefold Godhead
And the simple Unity.

6 *. Wherefore, man, take heart and courage,
Whatsoever thy present pain ;
Such untold reward through suffering
Thou may'st merit to attain :
And for ever in his glory
With the Light of light to reign.

Caelestis O Jerusalem.

O HEAVENLY Jerusalem,
Of everlasting halls,
Thrice blessed are the people
Thou strest in thy walls.

- 2 Thou art the golden mansion,
Where Saints for ever sing,
The seat of God's own chosen,
The palace of the King.
- 3 There God for ever sitteth,
Himself of all the Crown ;
The Lamb the Light that shineth
And never goeth down.
- 4 Nought to this seat approacheth
Their sweet peace to molest ;
They sing their God for ever,
Nor day nor night they rest.
- 5 Calm hope from thence is leaning,
To her our longings bend ;
No short-lived toil shall daunt us
For joys that cannot end.
6. To Christ, the Sun that lightens
His Church above, below,
To Father, and to Spirit,
All things created bow. Amen.

In domo Patris.

O UR Father's home eternal,
O Christ, thou dost prepare
With many divers mansions,
And each one passing fair ;

SAINTS' DAYS: ALL SAINTS.

They are the victors' guerdon,
Who, through the hard-won fight,
Have followed in thy footsteps,
And reign with thee in light.

2 Amidst the happy number
The Virgins' crown and queen,
The ever-virgin Mother
Is first and foremost seen ;
The Patriarchs in their triumph
Thy praises nobly sing,
The Prophets of thy wisdom
Adore the nations' King ;

3 The Apostles reign in glory,
The Martyrs joy in thee ;
The Virgins and Confessors
Thy shining brightness see ;
And every patient sufferer,
Who sorrow dared contemn,
For each especial anguish
Hath one especial gem.

4* The holy men and women,
Their earthly struggle o'er,
With joy put off the armour
That they shall need no more ;
For these, and all that battled
Beneath their Monarch's eyes,
The harder was the conflict
The brighter is the prize.

5. And every faithful servant,
Made perfect in thy grace,
Hath each his fitting station
'Mid those that see thy face ;
The bondsman and the noble,
The peasant and the king,
All gird one glorious Monarch
In one eternal ring.

Sequence. J.-B. De Contes, 1601-79. Tr. W. Palmer

Sponsa Christi quae per orbem. [and others.]

SPOUSE of Christ, in arms contending
O'er each clime beneath the sun,
Blend with prayers for help ascending
Notes of praise for triumphs won.

- 2 As the Church to-day rejoices
All her Saints to join on high,
So from earth let all our voices
Rise in solemn harmony.
- 3 First amid the laurelled legions
Prays the Mother to her Son,
Close to Christ in those fair regions
Where high praise to him is done.
- 4 Angels next, in due gradation
Of the Spirit's ministry,
Hymn the Father of creation,
Maker of the stars on high.
- 5 John, the herald-voice sonorous,
Head of the prophetic throng,
Patriarchs, and Seers in chorus,
Join to swell the Angels' song.
- 6 Near to Christ the Apostles seated,
Trampling on the powers of hell,
By the promise now completed
Judge the tribes of Israel.
- 7 They who nobly died believing,
Martyrs purpled in their gore,
Crowns of life by death receiving,
Rest in joy for evermore.
- 8 Priests and Levites, Gospel preachers,
And Confessors numberless,
Prelates meek and holy teachers,
Bear the palm of righteousness.

SAINTS' DAYS: ALL SAINTS.

- 9 Virgin souls, by high profession
To the Lamb devoted here,
Strewing flowers in gay procession
At the marriage-feast appear.
- 10 All are blest together, praising
God's eternal Majesty,
Thrice repeated anthems raising
To the all-holy Trinity.
- 11 In your heavenly habitations,
In your blessed home on high,
Hear, ye Saints, our aspirations,
As to God we lift our cry.
- 12 Ever praising, ever praying,
Help ye thus your brethren here,
That the will of God obeying
We in peace may persevere.
13. So may we, with hearts devoted,
Serve our God in holiness ;
So may we, by God promoted,
Share that heaven which ye possess.

Nos. 250-252 are suitable also for other days.

The following are suitable for All Saints' Day :

- 197 Give me the wings of faith to rise.
198 Hark! the sound of holy voices.
199 How bright these glorious spirits shine.
200 Joy and triumph everlasting.
202 The Son of God goes forth to war.
203 What are these that glow from afar.
204 Who are these, like stars appearing.
401 He wants not friends that hath thy love.
486 Ten thousand times ten thousand.
519 Ye watchers and ye holy ones.
641 For all the Saints who from their labours rest.

PART III.

TIMES AND SEASONS.

MORNING.

254 OFFICE HYMN. Prime. 5th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Jam lucis orto sidere.

- NOW that the daylight fills the sky,
We lift our hearts to God on high,
That he, in all we do or say,
Would keep us free from harm to-day :
- 2 Would guard our hearts and tongues from strife ;
From anger's din would hide our life ;
From all ill sights would turn our eyes ;
Would close our ears from vanities :
- 3 Would keep our inmost conscience pure ;
Our souls from folly would secure ;
Would bid us check the pride of sense
With due and holy abstinence.
- 4 So we, when this new day is gone,
And night in turn is drawing on,
With conscience by the world unstained
Shall praise his name for victory gained.
5. All laud to God the Father be ;
All praise, eternal Son, to thee ;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

Anciently the Hymns for the hours were sung with the special doxologies of the M. and E. Office Hymns during Christmastide, Epiphany, Eastertide, Ascension, and Whitsuntide.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—MORNING.

255 OFFICE HYMN. Terce. Ascribed to St. Ambrose,
340-97. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Nunc Sancte nobis Spiritus.

COME, Holy Ghost, with God the Son
And God the Father, ever one ;
Shed forth thy grace within our breast,
And dwell with us a ready guest.

2 By every power, by heart and tongue,
By act and deed, thy praise be sung ;
Inflame with perfect love each sense,
That others' souls may kindle thence.

3. O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, and thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

On Whitsunday and the three following days, at Terce :

154 Come, O Creator Spirit, come.

256 W. Bright, 1824-1901.

AT thy feet, O Christ, we lay
Thine own gift of this new day ;
Doubt of what it holds in store
Makes us crave thine aid the more ;
Lest it prove a time of loss,
Mark it, Saviour, with thy Cross.

2 If it flow on calm and bright,
Be thyself our chief delight ;
If it bring unknown distress,
Good is all that thou canst bless ;
Only, while its hours begin,
Pray we, keep them clear of sin.

3 We in part our weakness know,
And in part discern our foe ;
Well for us, before thine eyes
All our danger open lies ;
Turn not from us, while we plead
Thy compassions and our need.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—MORNING.

- 4 Fain would we thy word embrace,
Live each moment on thy grace,
All our selves to thee consign,
Fold up all our wills in thine,
Think, and speak, and do, and be
Simply that which pleases thee.
5. Hear us, Lord, and that right soon ;
Hear, and grant the choicest boon
That thy love can e'er impart,
Loyal singleness of heart ;
So shall this and all our days,
Christ our God, show forth thy praise.

257

Bishop T. Ken, 1637-1711.

- AWAKE, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run ;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.
- 2 Redeem thy mis-spent time that's past,
Live this day as if 'twere thy last ;
Improve thy talent with due care ;
For the great Day thyself prepare.
- 3 Let all thy converse be sincere,
Thy conscience as the noon-day clear ;
Think how all-seeing God thy ways
And all thy secret thoughts surveys.
- 4 By influence of the light Divine
Let thy own light in good works shine ;
Reflect all heaven's propitious ways
In ardent love and cheerful praise.
- 5 * Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the Angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praise to the eternal King.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—MORNING.

- 6 Awake, awake, ye heavenly choir,
May your devotion me inspire,
That I like you my age may spend,
Like you may on my God attend.

Part 2.

- 7 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept
And hast refreshed me whilst I slept ;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake
I may of endless light partake.
- 8 Heaven is, dear Lord, where'er thou art,
O never then from me depart ;
For to my soul 'tis hell to be
But for one moment void of thee.
- 9 Lord, I my vows to thee renew ;
Scatter my sins as morning dew ;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.
- 10 Direct, control, suggest, this day
All I design, or do, or say ;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite.
11. Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
Praise him, all creatures here below,
Praise him above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

This Doxology may be sung also after Part 1.

258

C. Wesley, 1707-88.

CHRIST, whose glory fills the skies,
Christ, the true, the only Light,
Sun of Righteousness, arise,
Triumph o'er the shades of night ;
Dayspring from on high, be near ;
Daystar, in my heart appear.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—MORNING.

- 2 Dark and cheerless is the morn
Unaccompanied by thee ;
Joyless is the day's return,
Till thy mercy's beams I see ;
Till they inward light impart,
Glad my eyes, and warm my heart.
3. Visit then this soul of mine,
Pierce the gloom of sin and grief ;
Fill me, Radiance Divine,
Scatter all my unbelief ;
More and more thyself display,
Shining to the perfect day.

259 Suitable also for Mid-day Services. C. Wesley, 1707-88.

- FORTH in thy name, O Lord, I go,
My daily labour to pursue ;
Thee, only thee, resolved to know,
In all I think, or speak, or do.
- 2 The task thy wisdom hath assigned
O let me cheerfully fulfil ;
In all my works thy presence find,
And prove thine acceptable will.
- 3 Preserve me from my calling's snare,
And hide my simple heart above,
Above the thorns of choking care,
The gilded baits of worldly love.
- 4 Thee may I set at my right hand,
Whose eyes my inmost substance see,
And labour on at thy command,
And offer all my works to thee.
- 5 Give me to bear thy easy yoke,
And every moment watch and pray,
And still to things eternal look,
And hasten to thy glorious day ;
6. For thee delightfully employ
Whate'er thy bounteous grace hath given,
And run my course with even joy,
And closely walk with thee to heaven.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—MORNING.

260

J. Keble, 1792-1866.

- NEW every morning is the love
 Our wakening and uprising prove ;
 Through sleep and darkness safely brought,
 Restored to life, and power, and thought.
- 2 New mercies, each returning day,
 Hover around us while we pray ;
 New perils past, new sins forgiven,
 New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.
- 3 If on our daily course our mind
 Be set to hallow all we find,
 New treasures still, of countless price,
 God will provide for sacrifice.
- 4 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be,
 As more of heaven in each we see ;
 Some softening gleam of love and prayer
 Shall dawn on every cross and care.
- 5 * We need not bid, for cloistered cell,
 Our neighbour and our work farewell,
 Nor strive to wind ourselves too high
 For sinful man beneath the sky :
- 6 * The trivial round, the common task,
 Would furnish all we ought to ask, —
 Room to deny ourselves, a road
 To bring us daily nearer God.
7. Only, O Lord, in thy dear love
 Fit us for perfect rest above ;
 And help us this and every day
 To live more nearly as we pray.

840-97. Tr. J. M. Neale.*

Rector potens, verax Deus.

O GOD of truth, O Lord of might,
Who orderest time and change aright,
And send'st the early morning ray,
And light'st the glow of perfect day :

2 Extinguish thou each sinful fire,
And banish every ill desire ;
And while thou keep'st the body whole,
Shed forth thy peace upon the soul.

3. O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son ;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

262 OFFICE HYMN. None. *Ascribed to St. Ambrose,
840-97. Tr. J. M. Neale.*

Rerum Deus tenax vigor.

O GOD, Creation's secret force,
Thyself unmoved, all motion's source,
Who from the morn till evening ray
Through all its changes guid'st the day :

2 Grant us, when this short life is past,
The glorious evening that shall last ;
That, by a holy death attained,
Eternal glory may be gained.

3. O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son ;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

TIMES AND SEASONS : NOON.—EVENING.

263

William Wordsworth, 1770–1850.

BLEST are the moments, doubly blest,
That, drawn from this one hour of rest,
Are with a ready heart bestowed
Upon the service of our God !

- 2* Each field is then a hallowed spot,
An altar is in each man's cot,
A church in every grove that spreads
Its living roof above our heads.
- 3 Look up to heaven ! the industrious sun
Already half his race hath run ;
He cannot halt or go astray,
But our immortal spirits may.
- 4 Lord, since his rising in the east,
If we have faltered or transgressed,
Guide, from thy love's abundant source,
What yet remains of this day's course ;
5. Help with thy grace, through life's short day,
Our upward and our downward way ;
And glorify for us the west,
When we shall sink to final rest.

The following is also suitable for Mid-day Services :

259 Forth in thy name, O Lord, I go.

Also many of the simpler Hymns.

264 OFFICE HYMN. Compline.

*Before 8th cent.
Tr. J. M. Neale.*

Te lucis ante terminum.

BEFORE the ending of the day,
Creator of the world, we pray
That with thy wonted favour thou
Wouldst be our Guard and Keeper now.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—EVENING.

- 2 From all ill dreams defend our eyes,
From nightly fears and fantasies ;
Tread under foot our ghostly foe,
That no pollution we may know.
3. O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son ;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

265

C. Coffin, 1676-1749. Tr. J. Chandler†.

Labente jam solis rota.

- AS now the sun's declining rays
At eventide descend,
E'en so our years are sinking down
To their appointed end.
- 2 Lord, on the Cross thine arms were stretched
To draw the nations nigh ;
O grant us then that Cross to love,
And in those arms to die.
3. To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Holy Ghost,
All glory be from saints on earth,
And from the Angel host. Amen.

266

H. Twells†, 1823-1900.

- AT even when the sun was set
The sick, O Lord, around thee lay ;
O, in what divers pains they met !
O with what joy they went away !
- 2 Once more 'tis eventide, and we Oppressed with various ills draw near ;
What if thy form we cannot see ?
We know and feel that thou art here.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—EVENING.

- 3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel ;
For some are sick, and some are sad,
And some have never loved thee well,
And some have lost the love they had ;
- 4 And some have found the world is vain,
Yet from the world they break not free ;
And some have friends who give them pain,
Yet have not sought a friend in thee ;
- 5 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
For none are wholly free from sin ;
And they who fain would serve thee best
Are conscious most of wrong within.
- 6 O Saviour Christ, thou too art Man ;
Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried ;
Thy kind but searching glance can scan
The very wounds that shame would hide ;
7. Thy touch has still its ancient power,
No word from thee can fruitless fall ;
Hear in this solemn evening hour,
And in thy mercy heal us all.

267

Bishop T. Ken, 1637–1711.

- GLORY to thee, my God, this night
For all the blessings of the light ;
Keep me, O keep me, King of kings,
Beneath thy own almighty wings.
- 2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done,
That with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.
 - 3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed ;
Teach me to die, that so I may
Rise glorious at the awful day.
 - 4 O may my soul on thee repose,
And with sweet sleep mine eyelids close,
Sleep that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—EVENING.

- 5 * When in the night I sleepless lie,
 My soul with heavenly thoughts supply ;
 Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
 No powers of darkness me molest.
- 6 * You, my blest guardian, whilst I sleep
 Close to my bed your vigils keep ;
 Divine love into me instil,
 Stop all the avenues of ill.
7. Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
 Praise him, all creatures here below,
 Praise him above, ye heavenly host,
 Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

268 1. Bishop Heber (1827). 2. Archbishop Whately (1855).

GOD, that madest earth and heaven,
 Darkness and light ;
 Who the day for toil hast given,
 For rest the night ;
 May thine Angel-guards defend us,
 Slumber sweet thy mercy send us,
 Holy dreams and hopes attend us,
 This livelong night.

2. Guard us waking, guard us sleeping ;
 And, when we die,
 May we in thy mighty keeping
 All peaceful lie :
 When the last dread call shall wake us,
 Do not thou our God forsake us,
 But to reign in glory take us
 With thee on high.

 Of God the Father's face,

 Celestial, holy, blest,
 Our Saviour Jesus Christ,
 Joyful in thine appearing.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—EVENING.

- 2 Now, ere day fadeth quite,
We see the evening light,
Our wonted hymn outpouring ;
Father of might unknown,
Thee, his incarnate Son,

3. To thee of right belongs
All praise of holy songs,
O Son of God, Lifegiver ;
Thee, therefore, O Most High,
The world doth glorify,
And shall exalt for ever.

R. H. Robinson.

- HOLY Father, cheer our way
With thy love's perpetual ray ;
Grant us every closing day
Light at evening time.
- 2 Holy Saviour, calm our fears
When earth's brightness disappears ;
Grant us in our latter years
Light at evening time.
- 3 Holy Spirit, be thou nigh
When in mortal pains we lie ;
Grant us, as we come to die,
Light at evening time.
4. Holy, blessèd Trinity,
Darkness is not dark with thee ;
Those thou keepest always see
Light at evening time.

*Ascribed to St. Ambrose, 340-97.
Tr. J. Ellerton, F. J. A. Hort.*

Rerum Deus tenax vigor.

- O STRENGTH and Stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide ;

TIMES AND SEASONS.—EVENING.

- 2 Grant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of the eternal day.
3. Hear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
Through Jesus Christ thy co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored. Amen.

272

W. Romanis, 1824-99.

- ROUND me falls the night ;
Saviour, be my Light :
Through the hours in darkness shrouded
Let me see thy face unclouded ;
Let thy glory shine
In this heart of mine.
- 2 Earthly work is done,
Earthly sounds are none ;
Rest in sleep and silence seeking,
Let me hear thee softly speaking ;
In my spirit's ear
Whisper, 'I am near.'
3. Blessèd, heavenly Light,
Shining through earth's night ;
Voice, that oft of love hast told me ;
Arms, so strong to clasp and hold me ;
Thou thy watch wilt keep,
Saviour, o'er my sleep.

273

J. Ellerton, 1826-93.

- SAVIOUR, again to thy dear name we raise
With one accord our parting hymn of praise.
Guard thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
That in this house have called upon thy name.
- 2 Grant us thy peace, Lord, through the coming night ;
Turn thou for us its darkness into light ;
From harm and danger keep thy children free,
For dark and light are both alike to thee.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—EVENING.

- 3 Grant us thy peace throughout our earthly life ;
Peace to thy Church from error and from strife ;
Peace to our land, the fruit of truth and love ;
Peace in each heart, thy Spirit from above :
4. Thy peace in life, the balm of every pain ;
Thy peace in death, the hope to rise again ;
Then, when thy voice shall bid our conflict cease,
Call us, O Lord, to thine eternal peace.

274

J. Keble, 1792-1866.

- SUN of my soul, thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if thou be near :
O may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide thee from thy servant's eyes.
- 2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast.
 - 3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without thee I cannot live ;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without thee I dare not die.
 - 4 If some poor wand'ring child of thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine,
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin ;
Let him no more lie down in sin.
 - 5 Watch by the sick ; enrich the poor
With blessings from thy boundless store ;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night
Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.
 6. Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take ;
Till in the ocean of thy love
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—EVENING.

275

F. W. Faber, 1814-1863.

SWEET Saviour, bless us ere we go ;
Thy word into our minds instil ;
And make our lukewarm hearts to glow
With lowly love and fervent will.
*Through life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus, be our Light.*

- 2 The day is done, its hours have run,
And thou hast taken count of all ;
The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
The broken vow, the frequent fall.
- 3 Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
True absolution and release ;
And bless us, more than in past days,
With purity and inward peace.
- 4* Do more than pardon ; give us joy,
Sweet fear and sober liberty,
And loving hearts without alloy,
That only long to be like thee.
- 5* Labour is sweet, for thou hast toiled,
And care is light, for thou hast cared ;
Let not our works with self be soiled,
Nor in unsimple ways ensnared.
6. For all we love, the poor, the sad,
The sinful,—unto thee we call ;
O let thy mercy make us glad ;
Thou art our Jesus and our All.

276

Ascribed to 6th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Τὴν ἡμέραν διελθών.

THE day is past and over ;
All thanks, O Lord, to thee ;
I pray thee that offenceless
The hours of dark may be :
O Jesu, keep me in thy sight,
And guard me through the coming night.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—EVENING.

- 2 The joys of day are over ;
I lift my heart to thee,
And call on thee that sinless
The hours of dark may be :
O Jesu, make their darkness light,
And guard me through the coming night.
- 3 The toils of day are over ;
I raise the hymn to thee,
And ask that free from peril
The hours of dark may be :
O Jesu, keep me in thy sight,
And guard me through the coming night.
- 4 Be thou my soul's preserver,
O God ! for thou dost know
How many are the perils
Through which I have to go :
Lover of men ! O hear my call,
And guard and save me from them all.

277

J. Ellerton, 1826-93.

- THE day thou gavest, Lord, is ended,
The darkness falls at thy behest ;
To thee our morning hymns ascended,
Thy praise shall sanctify our rest.
- 2 We thank thee that thy Church unsleeping,
While earth rolls onward into light,
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
And rests not now by day or night.
- 3 As o'er each continent and island
The dawn leads on another day,
The voice of prayer is never silent,
Nor dies the strain of praise away.
- 4 The sun that bids us rest is waking
Our brethren 'neath the western sky,
And hour by hour fresh lips are making
Thy wondrous doings heard on high.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—EVENING.

5. So be it, Lord ; thy throne shall never,
Like earth's proud empires, pass away ;
Thy kingdom stands, and grows for ever,
Till all thy creatures own thy sway.

278

P. Gerhardt, 1607-76. Tr. Y. H.

Nun ruhen alle Wälder.

THE duteous day now closeth,
Each flower and tree reposeth,
Shade creeps o'er wild and wood :
Let us, as night is falling,
On God our Maker calling,
Give thanks to him, the Giver good.

- 2 Now all the heavenly splendour
Breaks forth in starlight tender
From myriad worlds unknown ;
And man, the marvel seeing,
Forgets his selfish being,
For joy of beauty not his own.
- 3 His care he drowneth yonder,
Lost in the abyss of wonder ;
To heaven his soul doth steal :
This life he disesteemeth,
The day it is that dreameth,
That doth from truth his vision seal.
4. Awhile his mortal blindness
May miss God's lovingkindness,
And grope in faithless strife :
But when life's day is over
Shall death's fair night discover
The fields of everlasting life.

279

G. Thring, 1823-1903.

THE radiant morn hath passed away,
And spent too soon her golden store ;
The shadows of departing day
Creep on once more.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—EVENING.

- 2 Our life is but an autumn sun,
Its glorious noon how quickly past ;
Lead us, O Christ, our life-work done,
Safe home at last.
- 3 O by thy soul-inspiring grace
Uplift our hearts to realms on high ;
Help us to look to that bright place
Beyond the sky ;—
- 4 Where light, and life, and joy, and peace
In undivided empire reign,
And thronging Angels never cease
Their deathless strain ;—
5. Where Saints are clothed in spotless white,
And evening shadows never fall,
Where thou, eternal Light of light,
Art Lord of all.

280

c. 18th cent. Tr. E. Caswall.

Sol praeceps rapitur.

THE sun is sinking fast,
The daylight dies ;
Let love awake, and pay
Her evening sacrifice.

2 As Christ upon the Cross,
In death reclined,
Into his Father's hands
His parting soul resigned,

3 So now herself my soul
Would wholly give
Into his sacred charge,
In whom all spirits live ;

4 So now beneath his eye
Would calmly rest,
Without a wish or thought
Abiding in the breast,

TIMES AND SEASONS.—EVENING.

- 5 Save that his will be done,
 Whate'er betide,
 Dead to herself, and dead
 In him to all beside.
- 6 Thus would I live ; yet now
 Not I, but he
 In all his power and love
 Henceforth alive in me—
7. One sacred Trinity,
 One Lord Divine,
 Myself for ever his,
 And he for ever mine !

281

T. Kelly, 1769-1854.

- THROUGH the day thy love has spared us ;
 Now we lay us down to rest ;
Through the silent watches guard us,
 Let no foe our peace molest :
 Jesus, thou our Guardian be ;
 Sweet it is to trust in thee.
2. Pilgrims here on earth, and strangers,
 Dwelling in the midst of foes ;
Us and ours preserve from dangers ;
 In thine arms may we repose,
 And, when life's sad day is past,
 Rest with thee in heaven at last.

SATURDAY EVENING.

282

John Samuel Jones.

- NOW the busy week is done,
 Now the rest-time is begun ;
Thou hast brought us on our way,
 Kept and led us day by day ;
Now there comes the first and best,
 Day of worship, light and rest.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—SUNDAY

- 2 Hallow, Lord, the coming day !
When we meet to praise and pray,
Hear thy word, thy Feast attend,
Hours of happy service spend ;
To our hearts be manifest,
Lord of labour and of rest !
- 3 For thy children gone before
We can trust thee and adore ;
All their earthly week is past,
Sabbath-time is theirs at last ;
Fold them, Father, to thy breast,
Give them everlasting rest.
4. Guide us all the days to come,
Till thy mercy call us home :
All our powers do thou employ,
Be thy work our chiefest joy ;
Then, the promised land possesst,
Bid us enter into rest.

SUNDAY.

283 Morning.

Edmund Spenser, 1553-99.

- MOST glorious Lord of life, that on this day
Didst make thy triumph over death and sin,
And having harrowed hell, didst bring away
Captivity thence captive, us to win :
- 2 This joyous day, dear Lord, with joy begin,
And grant that we for whom thou diddest die,
Being with thy dear Blood clean washed from sin,
May live for ever in felicity :
- 3 And that thy love we weighing worthily,
May likewise love thee for the same again ;
And for thy sake, that all like dear didst buy,
With love may one another entertain ;
4. So let us love, dear Love, like as we ought ;
Love is the lesson which the Lord us taught.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—SUNDAY.

284

Bishop Chr. Wordsworth, 1807-85. .

O DAY of rest and gladness,
O day of joy and light,
O balm of care and sadness,
Most beautiful, most bright ;
On thee the high and lowly,
Through ages joined in tune,
Sing Holy, Holy, Holy,
To the great God triune.

2 On thee at the creation
The light first had its birth ;
On thee for our salvation
Christ rose from depths of earth ;
On thee our Lord victorious
The Spirit sent from heaven ;
And thus on thee most glorious
A triple light was given.

3 Thou art a cooling fountain
In life's dry dreary sand ;
From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
We view our promised land :
A day of sweet refection,
A day thou art of love,
A day of resurrection
From earth to things above.

4. New graces ever gaining
From this our day of rest,
We reach the rest remaining
To spirits of the blest.
To Holy Ghost be praises,
To Father, and to Son ;
The Church her voice upraises
To thee, blest Three in One. Amen.

- ANOTHER year is dawning,
 Dear Master, let it be,
 In working or in waiting,
 Another year with thee.
- 2 Another year of leaning
 Upon thy loving breast,
 Of ever-deepening trustfulness,
 Of quiet, happy rest.
- 3 Another year of mercies,
 Of faithfulness and grace ;
 Another year of gladness
 In the shining of thy face.
- 4 Another year of progress,
 Another year of praise,
 Another year of proving
 Thy presence all the days.
- 5 Another year of service,
 Of witness for thy love ;
 Another year of training
 For holier work above.
6. Another year is dawning,
 Dear Master, let it be,
 On earth, or else in heaven,
 Another year for thee !

- FOR thy mercy and thy grace,
 Faithful through another year,
 Hear our song of thankfulness,
 Father, and Redeemer, hear.
- 2 Lo, our sins on thee we cast,
 Thee, our perfect Sacrifice ;
 And, forgetting all the past,
 Press towards our glorious prize.
- 3 Dark the future : let thy light
 Guide us, bright and Morning Star ;
 Fierce our foes, and hard the fight :
 Arm us, Saviour, for the war.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—SPRING.—SUMMER.

- 4 In our weakness and distress,
Rock of strength, be thou our Stay;
In the pathless wilderness
Be our true and living Way.
- 5 Who of us death's awful road
In the coming year shall tread,
With thy rod and staff, O God,
Comfort thou his dying head.
6. Keep us faithful, keep us pure,
Keep us evermore thine own :
Help, O help us to endure ;
Fit us for the promised crown.

The following Hymns are also suitable for the New Year :

- 3 Behold the Bridegroom cometh.
361 A few more years shall roll.
368 At the name of Jesus.
382 Days and moments quickly flying.
389 Fight the good fight.
405 How sweet the name of Jesus sounds.
418 Jesu, name all names above.
450 O God, our help in ages past.

SPRING.

287

J. Newton †, 1725-1807.

- KINDLY spring again is here,
Trees and fields in bloom appear ;
Hark ! the birds with artless lays
Warble their Creator's praise.
- 2 Where in winter all was snow,
Now the flowers in clusters grow ;
And the corn, in green array,
Promises a harvest-day.
- 3 Lord, afford a spring to me,
Let me feel like what I see ;
Speak, and by thy gracious voice,
Make my drooping soul rejoice.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—HARVEST.

4. On thy garden deign to smile,
Raise the plants, enrich the soil ;
Soon thy presence will restore
Life to what seemed dead before.

SUMMER.

288

S. Longfellow †, 1819-92.

- THE summer days are come again ;
Once more the glad earth yields
Her golden wealth of ripening grain,
And breath of clover fields,
And deepening shade of summer woods,
And glow of summer air,
And winging thoughts, and happy moods
Of love and joy and prayer.
2. The summer days are come again ;
The birds are on the wing ;
God's praises, in their loving strain,
Unconsciously they sing.
We know who giveth all the good
That doth our cup o'erbrim ;
For summer joy in field and wood
We lift our song to him.

HARVEST.

289

H. Alford †, 1810-71.

- COME, ye thankful people, come,
Raise the song of harvest-home !
All is safely gathered in,
Ere the winter storms begin ;
God, our Maker, doth provide
For our wants to be supplied ;
Come to God's own temple, come ;
Raise the song of harvest-home !
- 2 We ourselves are God's own field,
Fruit unto his praise to yield ;
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown ;

TIMES AND SEASONS.—HARVEST.

- First the blade and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear :
Grant, O harvest Lord, that we Wholesome grain and pure may be.
- 3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take his harvest home ;
From his field shall purge away
All that doth offend, that day ;
Give his Angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast,
But the fruitful ears to store
In his garner evermore.
4. Then, thou Church triumphant, come,
Raise the song of harvest-home ;
All are safely gathered in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin
There for ever purified
In God's garner to abide :
Come, ten thousand Angels, come,
Raise the glorious harvest-home !

290

J. Hampden Gurney, 1802-62.

- FAIR waved the golden corn
In Canaan's pleasant land,
When full of joy, some shining morn,
Went forth the reaper-band.
- 2 To God so good and great
Their cheerful thanks they pour ;
Then carry to his temple-gate
The choicest of their store.
- 3 Like Israel, Lord, we give
Our earliest fruits to thee,
And pray that, long as we shall live ;
We may thy children be.
- 4 Thine is our youthful prime,
And life and all its powers ;
Be with us in our morning time,
And bless our evening hours.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—HARVEST.

5. In wisdom let us grow,
As years and strength are given,
That we may serve thy Church below,
And join thy Saints in heaven.

291

R. F. Littledale, 1833-90.

- O SING to the Lord, whose bountiful hand
Again doth accord his gifts to the land.
His clouds have shed down their plenteousness
here,
His goodness shall crown the hopes of the year.
- 2 In clefts of the hills the founts he hath burst,
And poureth their rills through valleys athirst.
The river of God the pastures hath blest,
The dry, withered sod in greenness is drest.
- 3 And every fold shall teem with its sheep,
With harvests of gold the fields shall be deep ;
The vales shall rejoice with laughter and song,
And man's grateful voice the music prolong.
4. So too may he pour, the Last and the First,
His graces in store on spirits athirst,
Till, when the great day of harvest hath come,
He takes us away to garner at home.

292

W. Chatterton Dix, 1837-98.

- TO thee, O Lord, our hearts we raise
In hymns of adoration ;
To thee bring sacrifice of praise
With shouts of exultation.
Bright robes of gold the fields adorn,
The hills with joy are ringing,
The valleys stand so thick with corn
That even they are singing.
- 2 And now, on this our festal day,
Thy bounteous hand confessing,
Upon thine altar, Lord, we lay
The first-fruits of thy blessing ;

TIMES AND SEASONS.—HARVEST.

By thee the souls of men are fed
With gifts of grace supernal ;
Thou who dost give us daily bread,
Give us the Bread eternal.

- 3 We bear the burden of the day,
And often toil seems dreary ;
But labour ends with sunset ray,
And rest is for the weary ;
May we, the Angel-reaping o'er,
Stand at the last accepted,
Christ's golden sheaves for evermore
To garners bright elected.

4. O, blessèd is that land of God,
Where Saints abide for ever ;
Where golden fields spread fair and broad,
Where flows the crystal river :
The strains of all its holy throng
With ours to-day are blending ;
Thrice blessèd is that harvest-song
Which never hath an ending.

293

M. Claudius, 1740–1815. Tr. Jane M. Campbell.

Wir pflügen und wir streuen.

WE plough the fields, and scatter
The good seed on the land,
But it is fed and watered
By God's Almighty hand
He sends the snow in winter,
The warmth to swell the grain,
The breezes and the sunshine,
And soft refreshing rain.

*All good gifts around us,
Are sent from heaven above,
Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord,
For all his love.*

- 2 He only is the Maker
Of all things near and far,
He paints the wayside flower,
He lights the evening star.

TIMES AND SEASONS.—AUTUMN.

The winds and waves obey him,
By him the birds are fed ;
Much more to us, his children,
He gives our daily bread.

3. We thank thee then, O Father,
For all things bright and good ;
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food.
No gifts have we to offer
For all thy love imparts,
But that which thou desirest,
Our humble, thankful hearts,

The following are also suitable :

AUTUMN.

294

Bishop W. W. How, 1823-97.

THE year is swiftly waning,
The summer days are past ;
And life, brief life, is speeding ;
The end is nearing fast.

- 2 The ever-changing seasons
In silence come and go ;
But thou, eternal Father,
No time or change canst know.
- 3 O, pour thy grace upon us,
That we may worthier be,
Each year that passes o'er us,
To dwell in heaven with thee.
- 4 Behold the bending orchards
With bounteous fruit are crowned ;
Lord, in our hearts more richly
Let heavenly fruits abound.

SEASONS.—WINTER.—GENERAL.

- 5 O, by each mercy sent us,
And by each grief and pain,
By blessings like the sunshine,
And sorrows like the rain,
6. Our barren hearts make fruitful
With every goodly grace,
That ~~ye~~ thy name may hallow,
And see at last thy face.

WINTER.

295

S. Longfellow, 1819-92.

- 'TIS winter now ; the fallen snow
Has left the heavens all coldly clear ;
Through leafless boughs the sharp winds blow,
And all the earth lies dead and drear.
2 And yet God's love is not withdrawn ;
His life within the keen air breathes ;
His beauty paints the crimson dawn,
And clothes the boughs with glittering wreaths.
3 And though abroad the sharp winds blow,
And skies are chill, and frosts are keen,
Home closer draws her circle now,
And warmer glows her light within.
4. O God ! who giv'st the winter's cold,
As well as summer's joyous rays,
Us warmly in thy love enfold,
And keep us through life's wintry days.

SEASONS.—GENERAL.

296

J. Austin, d. 1669.

- HARK, my soul, how everything
Strives to serve our bounteous King ;
Each a double tribute pays,
Sings its part, and then obeys.
2 Nature's chief and sweetest choir
Him with cheerful notes admire ;
Chanting every day their lauds,
While the grove their song applauds.

SEASONS.—GENERAL.

- 3 Though their voices lower be,
Streams have too their melody ;
Night and day they warbling run,
Never pause, but still sing on.
- 4 All the flowers that gild the spring
Hither their still music bring ;
If heaven bless them, thankful, they
Smell more sweet, and look more gay.
- 5 Only we can scarce afford
This short office to our Lord ;
We, on whom his bounty flows,
All things gives, and nothing owes.
- 6 Wake ! for shame, my sluggish heart,
Wake ! and gladly sing thy part ;
Learn of birds, and springs, and flowers,
How to use thy nobler powers.
- 7 Call whole nature to thy aid ;
Since 'twas he whole nature made ;
Join in one eternal song,
Who to one God all belong.
8. Live for ever, glorious Lord !
Live by all thy works adored,
One in Three, and Three in One,
Thrice we bow to thee alone. Amen.

297

J. Addison, 1672-1719.

THE spacious firmament on high,
With all the blue ethereal sky,
And spangled heavens, a shining frame,
Their great Original proclaim.
The unwearied sun from day to day
Does his Creator's power display,
And publishes to every land
The works of an almighty hand.

- 2 Soon as the evening shades prevail
The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
And nightly to the listening earth
Repeats the story of her birth ;

SEASONS.—GENERAL.

Whilst all the stars that round her burn,
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings, as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

3. What though in solemn silence all
Move round the dark terrestrial ball ;
What though nor real voice nor sound
Amid their radiant orbs be found ;
In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice ;
For ever singing as they shine,
'The hand that made us is Divine.'

298

Thomas Moore, 1779-1852.

- THOU art, O God, the life and light
Of all this wondrous world we see ;
Its glow by day, its smile by night,
Are but reflections caught from thee :
Where'er we turn, thy glories shine,
And all things fair and bright are thine.
- 2 When day with farewell beam delays
Among the opening clouds of even,
And we can almost think we gaze
Through golden vistas into heaven, --
Those hues that make the sun's decline
So soft, so radiant, Lord, are thine.
- 3 When night with wings of starry gloom
O'er shadows all the earth and skies,
Like some dark beauteous bird whose plume
Is sparkling with unnumbered eyes, --
That sacred gloom, those fires divine,
So grand, so countless, Lord, are thine.
4. When youthful spring around us breathes,
Thy Spirit warms her fragrant sigh,
And every flower the summer wreathes
Is born beneath that kindling eye, --
Where'er we turn, thy glories shine,
And all things fair and bright are thine.

SEASONS.—GENERAL.

299

Bishop R. Heber, 1783–1826.

- WHEN spring unlocks the flowers to paint
the laughing soil ;
When summer's balmy showers refresh the mower's toil ;
When winter binds in frosty chains the fallow
and the flood ;
In God the earth rejoiceth still, and owns his Maker good.
- 2 The birds that wake the morning, and those that love the shade ;
The winds that sweep the mountain, or lull the drowsy glade ;
The sun that from his amber bower rejoiceth on his way,
The moon and stars—their Master's name in silent pomp display. •
- 3 Shall man, the lord of nature, expectant of the sky,
Shall man alone, unthankful, his little praise deny ?
No ; let the year forsake his course, the seasons cease to be,
Thee, Master, must we always love, and, Saviour,
honour thee.
4. The flowers of spring may wither, the hope of summer fade,
The autumn droop in winter, the birds forsake
the shade ;
The winds be lulled, the sun and moon forget their old decree ;
But we, in nature's latest hour, O Lord, will cling to thee !

HOLY COMMUNION.

300

J. Montgomery, 1771-1854.

ACCORDING to thy gracious word,
In meek humility,
This will I do, my dying Lord,
I will remember thee.

2 Thy Body, broken for my sake,
My Bread from heaven shall be ;
Thy testamental Cup I take,
And thus remember thee.

3 Gethsemane can I forget ?
Or there thy conflict see,
Thine agony and bloody sweat,
And not remember thee ?

4 When to the Cross I turn mine eyes
And rest on Calvary,
O Lamb of God, my Sacrifice,
I must remember thee :

5 Remember thee, and all thy pains,
And all thy love to me ;
Yea, while a breath, a pulse remains,
Will I remember thee.

6. And when these failing lips grow dumb,
And mind and memory flee,
When thou shalt in thy kingdom come,
Jesu, remember me.

HOLY COMMUNION.

301

W. Chatterton Dix, 1837-98.

ALLELUYA, sing to Jesus,
His the sceptre, his the throne ;
Alleluya, his the triumph,
His the victory alone :
Hark the songs of peaceful Sion
Thunder like a mighty flood ;
Jesus, out of every nation,
Hath redeemed us by his Blood.

2 * Alleluya, not as orphans
Are we left in sorrow now ;
Alleluya, he is near us,
Faith believes, nor questions how ;
Though the cloud from sight received him
When the forty days were o'er,
Shall our hearts forget his promise,
'I am with you evermore' ?

3 Alleluya, Bread of Angels,
Thou on earth our Food, our Stay ;
Alleluya, here the sinful
Flee to thee from day to day ;
Intercessor, Friend of sinners,
Earth's Redeemer, plead for me,
Where the songs of all the sinless
Sweep across the crystal sea.

4. Alleluya, King eternal,
Thee the Lord of lords we own ;
Alleluya, born of Mary,
Earth thy footstool, Heaven thy throne :
Thou within the veil hast entered,
Robed in flesh, our great High Priest ;
Thou on earth both Priest and Victim
In the Eucharistic Feast.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

AND now, O Father, mindful of the love
That bought us, once for all, on Calvary's
Tree,

And having with us him that pleads above,

We here present, we here spread forth to thee
That only Offering perfect in thine eyes,
The one true, pure, immortal Sacrifice.

2 Look, Father, look on his anointed face,
And only look on us as found in him ;
Look not on our misusings of thy grace,
Our prayer so languid, and our faith so dim :
For lo ! between our sins and their reward
We set the Passion of thy Son our Lord.

3* And then for those, our dearest and our best,
By this prevailing presence we appeal ;
O fold them closer to thy mercy's breast,
O do thine utmost for their souls' true weal :
From tainting mischief keep them white and clear,
And crown thy gifts with strength to persevere.

4.* And so we come ; O draw us to thy feet,
Most patient Saviour, who canst love us still ;
And by this Food, so awful and so sweet,
Deliver us from every touch of ill :
In thine own service make us glad and free,
And grant us never more to part with thee.

With fresh supplies of love,
Till all thy life we gain,
And all thy fullness prove,
And, strengthened by thy perfect grace,
Behold without a veil thy face.

BREAD of heaven, on thee we feed,
For thy Flesh is meat indeed ;
Ever may our souls be fed

2. Vine of heaven, thy Blood supplies
This blest cup of sacrifice ;
'Tis thy wounds our healing give ;
To thy Cross we look and live :
Thou our life ! O let us be
Rooted, grafted, built on thee.

305 At the Communion. Bishop R. Heber, 1783-1826.

BREAD of the world in mercy broken,
Wine of the soul in mercy shed,
By whom the words of life were spoken,
And in whose death our sins are dead :
Look on the heart by sorrow broken,
Look on the tears by sinners shed,
And be thy feast to us the token
That by thy grace our souls are fed !

306 Before Communion, or Preparation. J. Franck,
1618-77. Tr. C. Winkworth.
Schmücke dich.

DECK thyself, my soul, with gladness,
Leave the gloomy haunts of sadness,
Come into the daylight's splendour,
There with joy thy praises render

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

Unto him whose grace unbounded
Hath this wondrous banquet founded ;
High o'er all the heavens he reigneth,
Yet to dwell with thee he deigneth.

- 2* Now I sink before thee lowly,
Filled with joy most deep and holy,
As with trembling awe and wonder
On thy mighty works I ponder ;
How, by mystery surrounded,
Depths no man hath ever sounded,
None may dare to pierce unbidden
Secrets that with thee are hidden.

At the Communion. Part 2.

- 3 Sun, who all my life dost brighten ;
Light, who dost my soul enlighten ;
Joy, the sweetest man e'er knoweth ;
Fount, whence all my being floweth :
At thy feet I cry, my Maker,
Let me be a fit partaker
Of this blessed food from heaven,
For our good, thy glory, given.
4. Jesus, Bread of Life, I pray thee,
Let me gladly here obey thee ;
Never to my hurt invited,
Be thy love with love requited :
From this banquet let me measure,
Lord, how vast and deep its treasure ;
Through the gifts thou here dost give me,
As thy guest in heaven receive me.

Sancti, venite, Christi Corpus sumite.

DRAW nigh, and take the Body of the Lord,
And drink the holy Blood for you out-poured,

HOLY COMMUNION.

Saved by that Body, hallowed by that Blood,
Whereby refreshed we render thanks to God.

2 Salvation's giver, Christ the only Son,
By that his Cross and Blood the victory won.
Offered was he for greatest and for least :
Himself the Victim, and himself the Priest.

3 Victims were offered by the law of old,
That, in a type, celestial mysteries told.
He, Ransomer from death and Light from shade,
Giveth his holy grace his saints to aid.

4 Approach ye then with faithful hearts sincere,
And take the safeguard of salvation here.
He that in this world rules his saints and shields,
To all believers life eternal yields :

5. With heavenly Bread makes them that hunger whole,
Gives living waters to the thirsty soul.
Alpha and Omega, to whom shall bow
All nations at the Doom, is with us now.

308 At the Communion. W. H. H. Jervois and W. B. T.

FATHER, see thy children bending at thy throne,
Pleading here the Passion of thine only Son,
Pleading here before thee all his dying love,
As he pleads it ever in the courts above.

2. Not for our wants only we this Offering plead,
But for all thy children who thy mercy need :
Bless thy faithful people, win thy wandering sheep,
Keep the souls departed who in Jesus sleep.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

309 At the Offertory. F. S. Pierpoint (1864).

- FOR the beauty of the earth,
For the beauty of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies :
Christ our God, to thee we raise
•This our sacrifice of praise.
- 2 For the beauty of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower,
Sun and moon and stars of light :
- 3 For the joy of ear and eye,
For the heart and brain's delight,
For the mystic harmony
Linking sense to sound and sight :
- 4 For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above,
For all gentle thoughts and mild :
- 5* For each perfect gift of thine
To our race so freely given,
Graces human and divine,
Flowers of earth and buds of heaven :
- 6* For thy Bride that evermore
Lifteth holy hands above,
Offering up on every shore
This pure sacrifice of love :
- 7 For thy Martyrs' crown of light,
For thy Prophets' eagle eye,
For thy bold Confessors' might,
For the lips of infancy :
8. For thy Virgins' robes of snow,
For thy Maiden-mother mild,
For thyself, with hearts aglow,
Jesu, Victim undefiled :

HOLY COMMUNION.

310 After Communion. Liturgy of St. James, Tr. C. W. H.
Ἄνθ δόξης εἰς δόξαν πορευόμενοι.

FROM glory to glory advancing, we praise thee, O Lord;
Thy name with the Father and Spirit be ever adored.

2 From strength unto strength we go forward on Sion's highway,

To appear before God in the city of infinite day.

3 Thanksgiving, and glory and worship, and blessing and love,

One heart and one song have the Saints upon earth and above.

4. Evermore, O Lord, to thy servants thy presence be nigh;

Ever fit us by service on earth for thy service on high.

311 At the Communion. 14th cent. Tr. H. N. Oxenham.
Ave verum Corpus natum.

HAIL, true Body, born of Mary,
Spotless Virgin's virgin birth;

Thou who truly hangedst weary

On the Cross for sons of earth;

Thou whose sacred side was riven,

Whence the Water flowed and Blood,

O may'st thou, dear Lord, be given

At death's hour to be my food:

O most kind! O gracious One!

O sweetest Jesu, holy Mary's Son!

312 H. Bonar, 1808-89.

HERE, O my Lord, I see thee face to face;
Here faith would touch and handle things unseen;

Here grasp with firmer hand the eternal grace,
And all my weariness upon thee lean.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

- 2 Here would I feed upon the Bread of God ;
Here drink with thee the royal Wine of heaven ;
Here would I lay aside each earthly load ;
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.
- 3 I have no help but thine ; nor do I need
Another arm save thine to lean upon :
It is enough, my Lord, enough indeed ;
My strength is in thy might, thy might alone.
4. Mine is the sin, but thine the righteousness ;
Mine is the guilt, but thine the cleansing Blood ;
Here is my robe, my refuge, and my peace,—
Thy Blood, thy righteousness, O Lord my God.

313 At the Communion.

P. D.

HOLY God, we offer here
Jesu's death our sins to clear,
Jesu's life our life to be,
Jesu's love the world to free.
Stay the faithful, win the strayed,
Bless the living and the dead.
Father lead us,
Jesu feed us,
Spirit be our store,
Now and evermore.

Part 2.

2. Lord, unite us every one
Each to other, through thy Son ;
Join us truly heart to heart,
Let us ne'er be drawn apart :
All one Bread, one Body we,
Bound by love to all and thee.
Blessèd Master,
Bind us faster ;
In thy love divine,
Love we thee and thine !

HOLY COMMUNION.

314

T. Parnell, 1679-1717.

HOLY Jesus ! God of love !
Look with pity from above !
Shed the precious purple tide
From thine hands, thy feet, thy side ;

2. Let thy streams of comfort roll,
Let them please and fill my soul.
Let me thus for ever be,
Full of gladness, full of thee.

315

After Communion.

F. W. Faber, 1814-68.

JESU, gentlest Saviour,
God of might and power,
Thou thyself art dwelling
In us at this hour.

- 2 Nature cannot hold thee,
Heaven is all too strait
For thine endless glory
And thy royal state.

- 3 Out beyond the shining
Of the furthest star
Thou art ever stretching Infinitely far.

- 4 Yet the hearts of children
Hold what worlds cannot,
And the God of wonders
Loves the lowly spot.

- 5 Jesu, gentlest Saviour,
Thou art in us now ;
Fill us full of goodness
Till our hearts o'erflow.

6. Multiply our graces,
Chiefly love and fear,
And, dear Lord, the chiefest,
Grace to persevere.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

316 Suitable also for other occasions.
Charlotte Elliott, 1789-1871.

JUST as I am, without one plea
But that thy Blood was shed for me,
And that thou bidd'st me 'come to thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

- 2 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings within, and fears without,
- 3 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind ;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea all I need, in thee to find,
- 4 Just as I am, thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve :
Because thy promise I believe,
- 5 Just as I am (thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down),
Now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
6. Just as I am, of that free love
The breadth, length, depth, and height to prove,
Here for a season, then above,

317 Sequence. St. Thomas Aquinas, 1227-74. Tr. cento.
Lauda Sion Salvatorem.

LAUD, O Sion, thy salvation,
Laud with hymns of exultation
Christ, thy King and Shepherd true :
Spend thyself, his honour raising,
Who surpasseth all thy praising ;
Never canst thou reach his due.

- 2* Sing to-day, the mystery showing
Of the living, life-bestowing
Bread from heaven before thee set ;
E'en the same of old provided,
Where the Twelve, divinely guided,
At the holy Table met.

HOLY COMMUNION.

- 3 Full and clear ring out thy chanting,
Joy nor sweetest grace be wanting
To thy heart and soul to-day ;
When we gather up the measure
Of that Supper and its treasure,
Keeping feast in glad array.
- 4 Lo, the new King's Table gracing,
This new Passover of blessing
Hath fulfilled the elder rite :
Now the new the old effaceth,
Truth revealed the shadow chaseth,
Day is breaking on the night.
- 5 What he did at Supper seated,
Christ ordained to be repeated,
His memorial ne'er to cease :
And, his word for guidance taking,
Bread and wine we hallow, making
Thus our Sacrifice of peace.
- 6 This the truth to Christians given—
Bread becomes his Flesh from heaven,
Wine becomes his holy Blood.
Doth it pass thy comprehending ?
Yet by faith, thy sight transcending,
Wondrous things are understood.
- 7 Yea, beneath these signs are hidden
Glorious things to sight forbidden :
Look not on the outward sign.
Wine is poured and Bread is broken,
But in either sacred token
Christ is here by power divine.
- 8 Whoso of this Food partaketh,
Rendeth not the Lord nor breaketh :
Christ is whole to all that taste.
Thousands are, as one, receivers
One, as thousands of believers,
Takes the Food that cannot waste,

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

- 9* Good and evil men are sharing
One repast, a doom preparing
 Varied as the heart of man ;
Doom of life or death awarded,
As their days shall be recorded
 Which from one beginning ran.
- 10 When the Sacrament is broken,
Doubt not in each severed token,
Hallowed by the word once spoken,
 Resteth all the true content :
Nought the precious Gift divideth,
Breaking but the sign betideth,
He himself the same abideth,
 Nothing of his fullness spent.

Part 2.

Ecce! Panis Angelorum.

- 11 Lo! the Angels' Food is given
To the pilgrim who hath striven ;
See the children's Bread from heaven,
 Which to dogs may not be cast ;
Truth the ancient types fulfilling,
Isaac bound, a victim willing,
Paschal lamb, its life-blood spilling,
 Manna sent in ages past.

Part 3.

Bone Pastor, Panis vere.

12. O true Bread, good Shepherd, tend us,
Jesu, of thy love befriend us,
Thou refresh us, thou defend us,
Thine eternal goodness send us
 In the land of life to see ;
Thou who all things canst and knowest,
Who on earth such Food bestowest,
Grant us with thy Saints, though lowest,
Where the heavenly Feast thou showest,
 Fellow-heirs and guests to be.

HOLY COMMUNION.

318

Liturgy of St. James. Tr. G. Moultrie.

Σιγησάτω πάντα σὰπξ βροτεία.

LET all mortal flesh keep silence, and with fear and trembling stand ;

Ponder nothing earthly-minded, for with blessing
in his hand,

Christ our God to earth descendeth, our full homage to demand.

2 King of kings, yet born of Mary, as of old on earth he stood,

Lord of lords, in human vesture—in the Body and the Blood—

He will give to all the faithful his own Self for heavenly Food.

3 Rank on rank the host of heaven spreads its vanguard on the way,

As the Light of light descendeth from the realms of endless day,

That the powers of hell may vanish as the darkness clears away.

4. At his feet the six-winged Seraph; Cherubim with sleepless eye,

Veil their faces to the Presence, as with ceaseless voice they cry,

Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Lord most high.

319

G. H. Bourne.

LORD, enthroned in heavenly splendour,
First-begotten from the dead,

Thou alone, our strong Defender,
Liftest up thy people's head.

Alleluya,

Jesu, true and living Bread !

2 Here our humblest homage pay we ;

Here in loving reverence bow ;

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

Here for Faith's discernment pray we,
Lest we fail to know thee now.

Alleluya,

Thou art here, we ask not how.

- 3 Though the lowliest form doth veil thee
As of old in Bethlehem,
Here as there thine Angels hail thee,
Branch and Flower of Jesse's stem.

Alleluya,

We in worship join with them.

- 4 Paschal Lamb, thine Offering, finished
Once for all when thou wast slain,
In its fullness undiminished
Shall for evermore remain,

Alleluya,

Cleansing souls from every stain.

5. Life-imparting heavenly Manna,
Stricken Rock with streaming side,
Heaven and earth with loud hosanna
Worship thee, the Lamb who died,

Alleluya,

Risen, ascended, glorified !

320

P. Doddridge, 1702-51.

MY God, and is thy Table spread,
And does thy Cup with Love o'erflow?
Thither be all thy children led,
And let them all thy sweetness know.

- 2 Hail, sacred Feast, which Jesus makes !
Rich Banquet of his Flesh and Blood !
Thrice happy he, who here partakes
That sacred Stream, that heavenly Food.

3. O let thy Table honoured be,
And furnished well with joyful guests ;
And may each soul salvation see,
That here its sacred Pledges tastes.

HOLY COMMUNION.

321 At the Communion.

c. 1661. Tr. A. R.

O esca viatorum.

O FOOD of men wayfaring,
The Bread of Angels sharing,
O Manna from on high !
We hunger ; Lord, supply us,
Nor thy delights deny us,
Whose hearts to thee draw nigh.

2 O Stream of love past telling,
O purest Fountain, welling
From out the Saviour's side !
We faint with thirst ; revive us,
Of thine abundance give us,
And all we need provide.

3. O Jesu, by thee bidden,
We here adore thee, hidden
'Neath forms of bread and wine.
Grant when the veil is riven,
We may behold, in heaven,
Thy countenance divine.

322

W. E. Gladstone, 1809-98.

O LEAD my blindness by the hand,
Lead me to thy familiar Feast,
Not here or now to understand,
Yet even here and now to taste,
How the eternal Word of heaven
On earth in broken bread is given.

2 We, who this holy precinct round
In one adoring circle kneel,
May we in one intent be bound,
And one serene devotion feel ;
And grow around thy sacred shrine
Like tendrils of the deathless Vine.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

8. We, who with one blest Food are fed,
Into one body may we grow,
And one pure life from thee, the Head,
Informing all the members flow ;
One pulse be felt in every vein,
One law of pleasure and of pain.

323

Bishop R. Heber, 1788-1826.

O, MOST merciful!
O, most bountiful !
God the Father Almighty !
By the Redeemer's
Sweet intercession
Hear us, help us when we cry.

324

Col. W. H. Turton.

- O THOU, who at thy Eucharist didst pray
That all thy Church might be for ever one,
Grant us at every Eucharist to say
With longing heart and soul, 'Thy will be done.'
Oh, may we all one Bread, one Body be,
One through this Sacrament of unity.
- 2 For all thy Church, O Lord, we intercede ;
Make thou our sad divisions soon to cease ;
Draw us the nearer each to each, we plead,
By drawing all to thee, O Prince of Peace :
Thus may we all one Bread, one Body be,
One through this Sacrament of unity.
- 3 We pray thee too for wanderers from thy Fold ;
O bring them back, good Shepherd of the sheep,
Back to the Faith which Saints believed of old,
Back to the Church which still that Faith doth keep :
Soon may we all one Bread, one Body be,
Through this one Sacrament of unity.

HOLY COMMUNION.

4. So, Lord, at length when Sacraments shall cease,
 We may be one with all thy Church above,
 One with thy Saints in one unbroken peace,
 One with thy Saints in one unbounded love :
 More blessed still, in peace and love to be
 One with the Trinity in Unity.

325

Emperor Justinian, 483-565. Tr. T. A. L.

Ὁ μονογενὴς Υἱός.

- O WORD immortal of eternal God,
 Only-begotten of the only Source,
 For our salvation stooping to the course
 Of human life, and born of Mary's blood ;
 Sprung from the ever-virgin womanhood
 Of her who bare thee, God immutable,
 Incarnate, made as man with man to dwell,
 And condescending to the bitter Rood ;
2. Save us, O Christ our God, for thou hast died
 To save thy people to the uttermost,
 And dying tramplest death in victory ;
 One of the ever-blessèd Trinity,
 In equal honour with the Holy Ghost,
 And with the eternal Father glorified. Amen.

326

*St. Thomas Aquinas, 1227-74. Tr. J. M. Neale,
 E. Caswall, and others.*

Pange lingua, gloriosi Corporis mysterium.

- O F the glorious Body telling,
 O my tongue, its mysteries sing,
 And the Blood, all price excelling,
 Which the world's eternal King,
 In a noble womb once dwelling,
 Shed for this world's ransoming.
- 2 Given for us, for us descending,
 Of a Virgin to proceed,
 Man with man in converse blending,
 Scattered he the Gospel seed,
 Till his sojourn drew to ending,
 Which he closed in wondrous deed.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

- 3 At the last great Supper lying
 Circled by his brethren's band,
 Meekly with the law complying,
 First he finished its command,
 Then, immortal Food supplying,
 Gave himself with his own hand.
- 4 Word made Flesh, by word he maketh
 Very bread his Flesh to be ;
 Man in wine Christ's Blood partaketh :
 And if senses fail to see,
 Faith alone the true heart waketh
 To behold the mystery.

Part 2.

Tantum ergo.

- 5 Therefore we, before him bending,
 This great Sacrament revere ;
 Types and shadows have their ending,
 For the newer rite is here ;
 Faith, our outward sense befriending,
 Makes the inward vision clear.
6. Glory let us give, and blessing
 To the Father and the Son ;
 Honour, might, and praise addressing,
 While eternal ages run ;
 Ever too his love confessing,
 Who, from both, with both is one. Amen.

327

W. Bright, 1824-1901.

- ONCE, only once, and once for all,
 His precious life he gave ;
 Before the Cross in faith we fall,
 And own it strong to save.
- 2 'One offering, single and complete,'
 With lips and hearts we say ;
 But what he never can repeat
 He shows forth day by day.

HOLY COMMUNION.

- 3 For as the priest of Aaron's line
Within the holiest stood,
And sprinkled all the mercy-shrine
With sacrificial blood ;
- 4 So he, who once atonement wrought,
Our Priest of endless power,
Presents himself for those he bought
In that dark noontide hour.
- 5 His Manhood pleads where now it lives
On heaven's eternal throne,
And where in mystic rite he gives
Its presence to his own.
6. And so we show thy death, O Lord,
Till thou again appear,
And feel, when we approach thy board,
We have an altar here.

328 At the Communion. W. H. H. Jervois, 1852-1905.

- SEE, Father, thy beloved Son,
Whom here we now present to thee ;
The all-sufficient Sacrifice,
The sinner's one and only plea.
2. Through him we pray for all we love,
For all by pain or sin opprest ;
For souls departed in thy fear :
O grant them thine eternal rest.

329 After Communion. Liturgy of Malabar.
Tr. C. W. H. and P. D.

- Hayyēl Māran 'idhē daphshat.
- STRENGTHEN for service, Lord, the hands
That holy things have taken ;
Let ears that now have heard thy songs
To clamour never waken.
- 2 Lord, may the tongues which 'Holy' sang
Keep free from all deceiving ;
The eyes which saw thy love be bright,
Thy blessed hope perceiving.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

3. The feet that tread thy holy courts
From light do thou not banish ;
The bodies by thy Body fed
With thy new life replenish.

330

St. Thomas Aquinas, 1227-74.

Tr. J. M. Neale, E. Caswall, and others.

Verbum supernum prodiens, nec Patris.

THE Word of God, proceeding forth
Yet leaving not his Father's side,
And going to his work on earth,
Had reached at length life's eventide ;

- 2 By false disciple to be given
To foemen for his blood athirst,
Himself, the living Bread from heaven,
He gave to his disciples first.
- 3 In twofold form of sacrament
He gave his Flesh, he gave his Blood,
That man, of twofold substance blent,
Might wholly feed on mystic food.
- 4 In birth man's fellow-man was he,
His meat while sitting at the board ;
He died, his ransom to be,
He reigns to be his great reward.

Part 2.

O salutaris.

- 5 O saving Victim ! opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press hard on every side,—
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.
6. All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three ;
O grant us life that shall not end
In our true native land with thee. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION.

331

St. Thomas Aquinas, 1227-74. Tr. Bishop J. R. Woodford.

Adoro te devote.

THEE we adore, O hidden Saviour, thee,
Who in thy Sacrament art pleased to be ;
Both flesh and spirit in thy presence fail,
Yet here thy Presence we devoutly hail.

- 2 O blest Memorial of our dying Lord,
Who living Bread to men doth here afford !
O may our souls for ever feed on thee,
And thou, O Christ, for ever precious be.
- 3 * Fountain of goodness, Jesu, Lord and God,
Cleanse us, unclean, with thy most cleansing Blood ;
Increase our faith and love, that we may know
The hope and peace which from thy Presence flow.
- 4 *. O Christ, whom now beneath a veil we see,
May what we thirst for soon our portion be,
To gaze on thee unveiled, and see thy face,
The vision of thy glory and thy grace.

332

Suitable also for other occasions.

*W. Cowper,
1781-1800.*

THERE is a fountain filled with Blood,
Drawn from Emmanuel's veins,
And sinners plunged beneath that flood
Lose all their guilty stains.

- 2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day ;
And there have I, as vile as he,
Washed all my sins away.
- 3 Dear dying Lamb, thy precious Blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed Church of God
Be saved to sin no more.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

- 4 E'er since by faith I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.
- 5 Then in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing thy power to save,
When ~~this~~ poor lisping, stammering tongue
Lies silent in the grave.
- 6 Lord, I believe thou hast prepared,
Unworthy though I be,
For me a blood-bought free reward,
A golden harp for me.
- 7 'Tis strung and tuned for endless years,
And formed by power divine,
To sound in God the Father's ears
No other name but thine.

333

C. Wesley, 1707-88.

- VICTIM Divine, thy grace we claim
While thus thy precious Death we show ;
Once offered up, a spotless Lamb,
In thy great temple here below,
Thou didst for all mankind atone,
And standest now before the throne.
- 2 Thou standest in the holiest place,
As now for guilty sinners slain ;
Thy Blood of sprinkling speaks and prays
All-prevalent for helpless man ;
Thy Blood is still our ransom found,
And spreads salvation all around.
 3. We need not now go up to heaven
To bring the long-sought Saviour down ;
Thou art to all already given,
Thou dost e'en now thy banquet crown :
To every faithful soul appear,
And show thy real Presence here.

HOLY COMMUNION.

334

V. S. S. G.

WE pray thee, heavenly Father,
To hear us in thy love,
And pour upon thy children
The unction from above ;
That so in love abiding,
From all defilement free,
We may in pureness offer
Our Eucharist to thee.

2 All that we have we offer,
For it is all thine own,
All gifts, by thine appointment,
In bread and cup are shown ;
One thing alone we bring not,
The wilfulness of sin,*
And all we bring is nothing
Save that which is within.

3 Within the pure oblation,
Beneath the outward sign,
By that his operation,—
The Holy Ghost divine,—
Lies hid the sacred Body,
Lies hid the precious Blood,
Once slain, now ever glorious,
Of Christ our Lord and God.

4. Wherefore, though all unworthy
To offer sacrifice,
We pray that this our duty
Be pleasing in thine eyes ;
For praise, and thanks and worship,
For mercy and for aid,
The Catholic oblation
Of Jesus Christ is made.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

335 At the Communion. W. H. H. Jervois, 1852-1905.

WHEREFORE, O Father, we thy humble servants

Here bring before thee Christ thy well-belovèd,
All-perfect Offering, Sacrifice immortal,
Spotless Oblation.

2. See now thy children, making intercession
Through him our Saviour, Son of God incarnate,
For all thy people, living and departed,
Pleading before thee.

HOLY BAPTISM.

336 B. Schmolck, 1672-1737. Tr. Catherine Winkworth †.
Liebster Jesu, wir sind hier.

BLESSED Jesu ! here we stand,
Met to do as thou hast spoken :
And this child, at thy command,
Now we bring to thee, in token
That to Christ it here is given ;
For of such shall be his heaven.

- 2 * Yes ! thy warning voice is plain,
And we fain would keep it duly :
He who is not born again,
Heart and life renewing truly,
Born of water and the Spirit,
Will God's kingdom ne'er inherit.

- 3 Make it, Head, thy member now ;
Shepherd, take thy lamb and feed it :
Prince of Peace, its peace be thou ;
Way of life, to heaven, O, lead it :
Vine, this branch may nothing sever,
Grafted firm in thee for ever.

4. Now upon thy heart it lies,
What our hearts so dearly treasure ;
Heavenward lead our burdened sighs,
Pour thy blessing without measure ;
Write the name we now have given,
Write it in the book of heaven.

HOLY BAPTISM.

337

H. Alford, 1810-71.

IN token that thou shalt not fear
Christ crucified to own,
We print the Cross upon thee here,
And stamp thee his alone.

2 In token that thou shalt not blush
To glory in his name,
We blazon here upon thy front
His glory and his shame.

3 In token that thou shalt not flinch
Christ's quarrel to maintain,
But 'neath his banner manfully
Firm at thy post remain ;

4 In token that thou too shalt tread
The path he travelled by,
Endure the Cross, despise the shame,
And sit thee down or' high :

5. Thus outwardly and visibly
We seal thee for his own ;
And may the brow that wears his Cross
Hereafter share his crown.

338

H. von Laufenberg, d. c. 1458. Tr. C. Winkworth †.

Ach lieber Herre, Jesu Christ.

LORD Jesu Christ, our Lord most dear,
As thou wast once an infant here,
So give this child of thine, we pray,
Thy grace and blessing day by day.
*O holy Jesu, Lord Divine,
We pray thee guard this child of thine.*

2 As in thy heavenly kingdom, Lord,
All things obey thy sacred word,
Do thou thy mighty succour give,
And shield this child by morn and eve.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

3. Their watch let angels round him keep Where'er he be, awake, asleep ;
Thy holy Cross now let him bear,
That he thy crown with Saints may wear.

339

J. M. Neale, 1818-6

WITH Christ we share a mystic grave,
With Christ we buried lie ;
But 'tis not in the darksome cave
By mournful Calvary.

- 2 The pure and bright baptismal flood
Entombs our nature's stain :
New creatures from the cleansing wave
With Christ we rise again.
- 3 Thrice blest, if through this world of sin
And lust and selfish care
Our resurrection mantle white
And undefiled we wear.
- 4 Thrice blest, if through the gate of death,
Glorious at last and free,
We to our joyful rising pass,
O risen Lord, with thee.
5. And now to thy thrice holy Name,
The God whom we adore,
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Be glory evermore. Amen.

The following are also suitable :

- 93 The God of love my Shepherd is.
389 Fight the good fight with all thy might.
426 Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us.
484 Take up thy cross, the Saviour said.
488 The Church of God a kingdom is.

CONFIRMATION.

340

W. Bright, 1824-1901.

BEHOLD us, Lord, before thee met,
Whom each bright angel serves and fears,
Who on thy throne rememberest yet
Thy spotless boyhood's quiet years;
Whose feet the hills of Nazareth trod,
Who art true Man and perfect God.

- 2 * To thee we look, in thee confide,
Our help is in thine own dear name;
For who on Jesus e'er relied,
And found not Jesus still the same?
Thus far thy love our souls hath brought:
O stablish well what thou hast wrought.
- 3 The seed of our baptismal life,
O living Word, by thee was sown;
So where thy soldiers wage their strife
Our post we take, our vows we own,
And ask, in thine appointed way,
Confirm us in thy grace to-day.
- 4 * We need thee more than tongue can speak,
'Mid foes that well might cast us down;
But thousands, once as young and weak,
Have fought the fight, and won the crown;
We ask the help that bore them through,
We trust the Faithful and the True.
5. So bless us with the gift complete
By hands of thy chief pastors given,
That awful Presence kind and sweet
Which comes in sevenfold might from heaven;
Eternal Christ, to thee we bow,
Give us thy Spirit here and now.

341

M. Bridges, 1800-94.

MY God, accept my heart this day,
And make it always thine,
That I from thee no more may stray,
No more from thee decline.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

- 2 Before the Cross of him who died,
Behold, I prostrate fall ;
Let every sin be crucified,
And Christ be All in all.
- 3 Anoint me with thy heavenly grace,
And seal me for thine own ;
That, I may see thy glorious face,
And worship at thy throne.
- 4 Let every thought, and work, and word
To thee be ever given ;
Then life shall be thy service, Lord,
And death the gate of heaven.
5. All glory to the Father be,
All glory to the Son,
All glory, Holy Ghost, to thee,
While endless ages run. Amen.

342

Anon† (c. 1856).

- LORD, in thy presence dread and sweet,
Thine own dear Spirit we entreat
His sevenfold gifts to shed
On us, who fall before thee now,
Bearing the Cross upon our brow
On which our Master bled.
- 2 Spirit of Wisdom ! turn our eyes
From earth and earthly vanities,
To heavenly truth and love.
Spirit of Understanding true !
Our souls with holy light endue
To seek the things above.
 - 3 Spirit of Counsel ! be our guide ;
Teach us by earthly struggles tried
Our heavenly crown to win.
Spirit of Fortitude ! thy power
Be with us in temptation's hour,
To keep us pure from sin.

CONFIRMATION.

- 4 Spirit of Knowledge ! lead our feet
In thine own paths secure and sweet,
By Angel footsteps trod ;
Where thou our Guardian true shalt be,
Spirit of gentle Piety !
To keep us close to God.
- 5 But most of all, be ever near,
Spirit of God's most holy Fear,
In our heart's inmost shrine :
Our souls with loving reverence fill,
To worship his most holy Will
All-righteous and divine.
6. So, dearest Lord, through peace or strife,
Lead us to everlasting life,
Where only rest may be.
What matter where our lot is cast,
If only it may end at last
In Paradise with thee !.

343

C. Wesley, 1707-88.

- O THOU who camest from above,
The pure celestial fire to impart,
Kindle a flame of sacred love
On the mean altar of my heart.
- 2 There let it for thy glory burn
With inextinguishable blaze,
And trembling to its source return
In humble prayer, and fervent praise.
- 3 Jesus, confirm my heart's desire
To work, and speak, and think for thee ;
Still let me guard the holy fire,
And still stir up thy gift in me.
4. Ready for all thy perfect will,
My acts of faith and love repeat,
Till death thy endless mercies seal,
And make my sacrifice complete.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

Mrs. M. F. Maude (1847).

THINE for ever ! God of love,
Hear us from thy throne above ;
Thine for ever may we be
Here and in eternity.

2 Thine for ever ! O, how blest
They who find in thee their rest !
Saviour, Guardian, heavenly Friend,
O defend us to the end.

3 Thine for ever ! Lord of life,
Shield us through our earthly strife ;
Thou the Life, the Truth, the Way,
Guide us to the realms of day.

4 Thine for ever ! Shepherd, keep
These thy frail and trembling sheep ;
Safe alone beneath thy care,
Let us all thy goodness share.

5. Thine for ever ! thou our Guide,
All our wants by thee supplied,
All our sins by thee forgiven,
Led by thee from earth to heaven.

The following are also suitable :

153 Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire.

154 Come, O Creator Spirit, come.

155 Come, thou holy Paraclete.

157 Our blest Redeemer, ere he breathed.

389 Fight the good fight with all thy might.

390 Firmly I believe and truly.

429 ' Lift up your hearts ! '

479 Soldiers of Christ, arise.

480 Soldiers, who are Christ's below.

518 Ye servants of the Lord.

MARRIAGE.

345

J. Ellerton, 1826-98.

- O FATHER all creating,
Whose wisdom, love, and power
First bound two lives together
In Eden's primal hour, •
To-day to these thy children
Thine earliest gifts renew,—
A home by thee made happy,
A love by thee kept true.
- 2 O Saviour, Guest most bounteous
Of old in Galilee,
Vouchsafe to-day thy presence
With these who call on thee ;
Their store of earthly gladness
Transform to heavenly wine,
And teach them, in the tasting,
To know the gift is thine.
- 3 O Spirit of the Father,
Breathe on them from above,
So mighty in thy pureness,
So tender in thy love ;
That guarded by thy presence,
From sin and strife kept free,
Their lives may own thy guidance,
Their hearts be ruled by thee.
4. Except thou build it, Father,
The house is built in vain ;
Except thou, Saviour, bless it,
The joy will turn to pain ;
But nought can break the marriage
Of hearts in thee made one,
And love thy Spirit hallows
Is endless love begun.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

346

Mrs. Dorothy Frances Gurney.

O PERFECT Love, all human thought transcending,

Lowly we kneel in prayer before thy throne,
That theirs may be the love which knows no ending

Whom thou for evermore dost join in one.

2 O perfect Life, be thou their full assurance

Of tender charity and steadfast faith,

Of patient hope, and quiet brave endurance,

With childlike trust that fears nor pain nor death.

3. Grant them the joy which brightens earthly sorrow,

Grant them the peace which calms all earthly strife ;

And to life's day the glorious unknown morrow

That dawns upon eternal love and life.

347

Bishop Mandell Creighton, 1843-1901.

O THOU who gavest power to love
That we might fix our hearts on thee,
Preparing us for joys above

By that which here on earth we see :

2 Thy Spirit trains our souls to know

The growing purpose of thy will,

And gives to love the power to show

That purpose growing larger still ;

3 * Larger, as love to reverent eyes

Makes manifest another soul,

And shows to life a richer prize,

A clearer course, a nobler goal.

4 Lord, grant thy servants who implore

Thy blessing on the hearts they blend,

That from that union evermore

New joys may blossom to the end.

MARRIAGE.

- 5 Make what is best in each combine
 To purge all earthly dross away,
 To strengthen, purify, refine,
 To beautify each coming day.
6. So may they hand in hand advance
 Along life's path from troubles free ;
 Brave to meet adverse circumstance
 Because their love points up to thee.

348

J. Keble, 1792-1866.

- THE voice that breathed o'er Eden,
 That earliest wedding day,
The primal marriage blessing,
 It hath not passed away :
- 2 Still in the pure espousal
 Of Christian man and maid
The Holy Three are with us,
 The threefold grace is said,
- 3 For dower of blessed children,
 For love and faith's sweet sake,
For high mysterious union
 Which naught on earth may break.
- 4 * Be present, awful Father,
 To give away this bride,
As Eve thou gav'st to Adam
 Out of his own pierced side ;
- 5 * Be present, Son of Mary,
 To join their loving hands,
As thou didst bind two natures
 In thine eternal bands ;
- 6 * Be present, holiest Spirit,
 To bless them as they kneel,
As thou for Christ, the Bridegroom,
 The heavenly Spouse dost seal.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

- 7 O spread thy pure wing o'er them,
 Let no ill power find place,
 When onward to thine altar
 The hallowed path they trace,
 8. To cast their crowns before thee
 In perfect sacrifice,
 Till to the home of gladness
 With Christ's own Bride they rise.

The following are also suitable :

- 385 Father, hear the prayer we offer.
 387 Father of heaven, whose love profound.
 398 Happy are they, they that love God.
 426 Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us.
 437 Love divine, all loves excelling.
 450 O God, our help in ages past.
 453 O Holy Spirit, Lord of grace.
 454 O King enthroned on high.
 502 Through all the changing scenes of life.

THE SICK.

349 Troparia: Greek Office of Anointing. Tr. J. B.

Τὰς εἰς ἀντίληψιν, μόνος ὑπάρχων Χριστέ.

- THOU, Lord, hast power to heal,
 And thou wilt quickly aid,
 For thou dost deeply feel
 The stripes upon us laid :
 Thou who wast wounded by the rod
 Uplifted in the hand of God.
 2 Send speedy help, we pray,
 To him who ailing lies,
 That from his couch he may
 With thankful heart arise ;
 Through prayers which all availing find
 Thine ear, O Lover of mankind.

THE DEPARTED.

3. O blinded are our eyes,
And all are held in night ;
But like the blind who cries,
We cry to thee for light ;
In penitence, O Christ, we pray,
Give us the radiant light of day.

THE DEPARTED.

350

Verses 2 and 3 at Holy Communion only.

18th cent. Tr. R. F. Littledale.

De profundis exclamantes.

- CHRIST, enthroned in highest heaven,
Hear us crying from the deep,
For the faithful ones departed,
For the souls of all that sleep ;
As thy kneeling Church entreateth,
Hearken, Shepherd of the sheep.
- 2* King of Glory, hear our voices,
Grant thy faithful rest, we pray ;
We have sinned, and may not bide it,
If thou mark our steps astray,
Yet we plead that saving Victim,
Which for them we bring to-day.
- 3* That which thou thyself hast offered
To thy Father, offer we ;
Let it win for them a blessing,
Bless them, Jesu, set them free :
They are thine, they wait in patience,
Merciful and gracious be.
- 4 They are thine, O take them quickly,
Thou their Hope, O raise them high ;
Ever hoping, ever trusting,
Unto thee they strive and cry ;
Day and night, both morn and even,
Be, O Christ, their Guardian nigh.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

- 5* Let thy plenteous loving-kindness
 On them, as we pray, be poured ;
 Let them through thy boundless mercy,
 From all evil be restored ;
 Hearken to the gentle pleading
 Of thy Mother, gracious Lord.
- 6* When, O kind and radiant Jesu,
 Kneels the Queen thy throne before,
 Let the court of Saints attending,
 Mercy for the dead implore ;
 Hearken, loving Friend of sinners,
 Whom the Cross exalted bore.
7. Hear and answer prayers devoutest,
 Break, O Lord, each binding chain,
 Dash the gates of death asunder,
 Quell the devil and his train ;
 Bring the souls which thou hast ransomed
 Evermore in joy to reign.

351 Sequence.

*Thomas of Celano, 13th cent.
 Tr. W. J. Irons †.*

Dies irae, dies illa.

- DAY of wrath and doom impending,
 David's word with Sibyl's blending !
 Heaven and earth in ashes ending !
- 2 O, what fear man's bosom rendeth,
 When from heaven the Judge descendeth,
 On whose sentence all dependeth !
- 3 Wondrous sound the trumpet flingeth,
 Through earth's sepulchres it ringeth,
 All before the throne it bringeth.
- 4 Death is struck, and nature quaking,
 All creation is awaking,
 To its Judge an answer making.
- 5 Lo ! the book exactly worded,
 Wherein all hath been recorded ;
 Thence shall judgement be awarded.

THE DEPARTED.

- 6 When the Judge his seat attaineth,
And each hidden deed arraigneth,
Nothing unavenged remaineth.
- 7 What shall I, frail man, be pleading ?
Who for me be interceding,
When the just are mercy needing ?
- 8 King of majesty tremendous,
Who dost free salvation send us,
Fount of pity, then befriend us !
- 9 Think, kind Jesu !—my salvation
Caused thy wondrous Incarnation ;
Leave me not to reprobation.
- 10 Faint and weary thou hast sought me,
On the Cross of suffering bought me ;
Shall such grace be vainly brought me ?
- 11 Righteous Judge ! for sin's pollution
Grant thy gift of absolution,
Ere that day of retribution.
- 12 Guilty, now I pour my moaning,
All my shame with anguish owning ;
Spare, O God, thy suppliant groaning !
- 13 Through the sinful woman shriven,
Through the dying thief forgiven,
Thou to me a hope hast given.
- 14 Worthless are my prayers and sighing,
Yet, good Lord, in grace complying,
Rescue me from fires undying.
- 15 With thy sheep a place provide me,
From the goats afar divide me,
To thy right hand do thou guide me.
- 16 When the wicked are confounded,
Doomed to flames of woe unbounded,
Call me, with thy Saints surrounded.
- 17 Low I kneel, with heart submission ;
See, like ashes my contrition !
Help me in my last condition !

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

18. Ah ! that day of tears and mourning !
From the dust of earth returning,
Man for judgement must prepare him ;
Spare, O God, in mercy spare him !
Lord, all-pitying, Jesu blest,
Grant them thine eternal rest.

352

Prudentius, b. 348. Tr. P. D.

Deus ignee fons animarum.

- FATHER of spirits, whose divine control
Doth bind the soul and body into one,
Thou wilt restore this body now undone ;
For once it was the mansion of a soul,
Where dwelt the glowing wisdom of thy Son.
- 2 Thou, Maker of the body, dost ordain
That this thine image, moulded by thy will,
Our every hope in glory shall fulfil ;
So, till the body thou dost build again,
Thou wilt preserve the spirit freed from ill.
- 3 In that blest region shall this spirit dwell
Where flowers undying bloom on every side :
For, lo, we trust thy word, O Crucified,
When in thy triumph over death and hell,
The thief forgiven took thee for his guide.
4. Our brother goeth by the shining way,
That ever to the faithful open lies :
Lord, train thy servant now in Paradise,
And bless him in his fatherland, we pray,
Till thou shalt bid his body to arise.

353

Part 1. For a Child.

J. W. Meinhold, 1797-1851.

Tr. C. Winkworth and others.

Guter Hirt, du hast gestillt.

- GENTLE Shepherd, thou hast stilled
Now thy little lamb's long weeping,
In thy loving arms 'tis sleeping—
Ah ! how peaceful, pure and mild !

THE DEPARTED.

Now no sigh of helpless anguish
 Heaves that little bosom more ;
 Ne'er again in pain to languish,
He has reached the happy shore.

2. In this world of pain and care,
 Lord, thou wouldst no longer leave him ;
 Lovingly thou dost receive him
 To thy meadows bright and fair.
 Ah, Lord Jesu, bring us thither
 Where he dwells with thee above ;
 Where thy Saints rejoice together
 Reunite us to our love.

Part 2. For an Adult.

P. D.

- God, we thank thee ; not in vain
 Lived our friend on thee believing ;
 Not for him can we be grieving :
 Ours the loss, but his the gain.
 Ours the vanity of sorrow,
His the vision from the height ;
His to-day, and ours to-morrow,
 Change and awe and love and light.
2. What thou doest, Lord, is good :
 Though his body now is sleeping,
 Lives his spirit in thy keeping,
 Pain and sorrow understood.
 Grant him rest among the living,
 Bring him to thy vision clear,
 All his sin in love forgiving
 When as Judge thou dost appear.

354

I. Watts, 1674-1748.

- HEAR what the voice from heaven proclaims
 For all the pious dead ;
 Sweet is the savour of their names,
 And soft their sleeping bed.
- 2 They die in Jesus and are blest ;
 How kind their slumbers are ;

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

From sufferings and from sins released,
And freed from every snare.

3. Far from this world of toil and strife,
They're present with the Lord ;
The labours of their mortal life
End in a large reward.

355 For a young child. R. F. Littledale, 1888-90.

IN Paradise reposing,
By life's eternal well,
The tender lambs of Jesus
In greenest pastures dwell.

- 2 There palms and tiny crownlets
Aglow with brightest gem,
Bedeck the baby martyrs
Who died in Bethlehem.
- 3 With them the rose-wreathed army
Of children undefiled,
Who passed through mortal torments
For love of Christ the Child ;
- 4 With them in peace unending,
With them in joyous mirth,
Are all the stainless infants
Which since have gone from earth.
- 5 The Angels, once their guardians,
Their fellows now in grace,
With them, in love adoring,
See God the Father's face.
- 6 The lullaby to hush them
In that eternal rest,
Is sweet angelic singing,
Their nurse God's Mother blest.
7. O Jesu, loving Shepherd,
Who tenderly dost bear
Thy lambs in thine own bosom,
Bring us to join them there.

THE DEPARTED.

356 At Holy Communion. *Written in Swahili, and
tr. E. S. Palmer.*

Yesu Bin Mariamu.

JESU, Son of Mary,
Fount of life alone,
Here we hail thee present
On thine altar-throne.
Humbly we adore thee,
Lord of endless might,
In the mystic symbols
Veiled from earthly sight.

2 Think, O Lord, in mercy
On the souls of those
Who, in faith gone from us,
Now in death repose.
Here 'mid stress and conflict
Toils can never cease ;
There, the warfare ended,
Bid them rest in peace.

3 Often were they wounded
In the deadly strife ;
Heal them, Good Physician,
With the balm of life.
Every taint of evil,
Frailty and decay,
Good and gracious Saviour,
Cleanse and purge away.

4. Rest eternal grant them,
After weary fight ;
Shed on them the radiance
Of thy heavenly light.
Lead them onward, upward,
To the holy place,
Where thy Saints made perfect
Gaze upon thy face.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES.

357

H. D. Rawnsley.

- LORD Jesu, who at Lazarus' tomb
To weeping friends from death's dark womb
Didst bring new joy to life,
Grant to the friends who stand forlorn
A vision of that larger morn
Where peace has conquered strife.
- 2 May we behold across the bar
The dear immortals as they are,
Empowered in act and will,
With purer eyes to see their King,
With fuller hearts his praise to sing,
With strength to help us still ;
- 3 Not fettered now by fleshly bond,
But tireless in the great beyond,
And growing day by day.
Can we not make their gladness ours,
And share their thoughts, their added powers,
And follow as we pray?
4. O Holy Ghost, the strength and guide
Of those who to this earth have died,
But live more near to God,
Give us thy grace to follow on,
Till we with them the crown have won
Who duty's paths have trod.

358

G. Moultrie †, 1829-85.

- NOW the labourer's toils are o'er,
Fought the battle, won the crown :
On life's rough and barren shore
Thou hast laid thy burden down :
*Grant him, Lord, eternal rest,
With the spirits of the blest.*
- 2 Angels bear thee to the land
Where the towers of Sion rise ;
Safely lead thee by the hand
To the fields of Paradise :

THE DEPARTED.

- 3 White-robed, at the golden gate
Of the new Jerusalem,
May the host of Martyrs wait ;
Give thee part and lot with them :
- 4 Friends and dear ones gone before
To the land of endless peace,
Meet thee on that further shore
Where all tears and weeping cease :
- 5 * Rest in peace : the gates of hell
Touch thee not, till he shall come
For the souls he loves so well,—
Dear Lord of the heavenly home :
- 6 *. Earth to earth, and dust to dust,
Clay we give to kindred clay,
In the sure and certain trust
Of the Resurrection day :

359

R. F. Littledale†, 1833-90.

- O LORD, to whom the spirits live
Of all the faithful passed away,
Upon their path that brightness give
Which shineth to the perfect day :
*O Light eternal, Jesu blest,
Shine on them all, and grant them rest.*
- 2 In thy green, pleasant pastures feed
The sheep which thou hast summoned hence ;
And by the still, cool waters lead
Thy flock in loving providence :
- 3 * How long, O holy Lord, how long
Must we and they expectant wait
To hear the gladsome bridal song,
To see thee in thy royal state ?
- 4 O hearken, Saviour, to their cry,
O rend the heavens and come down,
Make up thy jewels speedily,
And set them in thy golden crown :

5. Direct us with thine arm of might,
And bring us perfected with them
To dwell within thy city bright,
The heavenly Jerusalem :

St. John Damascene, c. 750. Tr. A. R.

Πότα τοῦ βίου τρυφή διαμένει λύπης ἀμέτοχος.

WHAT sweet of life endureth
Unmixed with bitter pain ?
'Midst earthly change and chances
What glory doth remain ?

- 2 All is a feeble shadow,
A dream that will not stay ;
Death cometh in a moment,
And taketh all away.
- 3 O Christ, a light transcendent
Shines in thy countenance,
And none can tell the sweetness,
The beauty of thy glance.
4. In this may thy poor servant
His joy eternal find ;
Thou calledst him, O rest him,
Thou Lover of mankind !

The following are also suitable :

- 134 Jesus lives ! thy terrors now.
251 O heavenly Jerusalem.
371 Brief life is here our portion.
373 Children of the heavenly King.
401 He wants not friends that hath thy love.
428 Let saints on earth in concert sing.
455 O let him whose sorrow.
498 There is a land of pure delight.
500 They whose course on earth is o'er.
744 Give rest, O Christ, to thy servant.

PART V.
GENERAL HYMNS.

361

H. Bonart, 1808-89.

- A FEW more years shall roll,
A few more seasons come,
And we shall be with those that rest
In peace beyond the tomb.
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that great day ;
O wash me in thy precious Blood,
And take my sins away.
- 2 A few more suns shall set
O'er these dark hills of time,
And we shall be where suns are not,
A far serener clime.
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day ;
O wash me in thy precious Blood,
And take my sins away.
- 3 A few more storms shall beat
On this wild rocky shore,
And we shall be where tempests cease,
And surges swell no more.
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that calm day ;
O wash me in thy precious Blood,
And take my sins away.
- 4 A few more struggles here,
A few more partings o'er,
A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day ;
O wash me in thy precious Blood,
And take my sins away.
5. 'Tis but a little while
And he shall come again,
Who died that we might live, who lives
That we with' him may reign.
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that glad day ;
O wash me in thy precious Blood,
And take my sins away.

362

Martin Luther, 1483-1546. Tr. Thomas Carlyle.
Ein' feste Burg.

- A SAFE stronghold our God is still,
A trusty shield and weapon ;
He'll help us clear from all the ill
That hath us now o'ertaken.
The ancient prince of hell
Hath risen with purpose fell ;
Strong mail of craft and power
He weareth in this hour ;
On earth is not his fellow.
- 2 With force of arms we nothing can,
Full soon were we down-ridden ;
But for us fights the proper Man,
Whom God himself hath bidden.
Ask ye, Who is this same ?
Christ Jesus is his name,
The Lord Sabaoth's Son ;
He, and no other one,
Shall conquer in the battle.
- 3* And were this world all devils o'er,
And watching to devour us,
We lay it not to heart so sore ;
Not they can overpower us.

GENERAL HYMNS.

And let the prince of ill
Look grim as e'er he will,
He harms us not a whit ;
For why ?—his doom is writ ;
A word shall quickly slay him.

4. God's word, for all their craft and force,
One moment will not linger,
But, spite of hell, shall have its course ;
'Tis written by his finger.
And though they take our life,
Goods, honour, children, wife,
Yet is their profit small ;
These things shall vanish all,
The city of God remaineth.

363

H. F. Lyte, 1798-1847.

ABIDE with me ; fast falls the eventide ;
The darkness deepens ; Lord, with me
abide !

When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day ;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away ;
Change and decay in all around I see ;
O thou who changest not, abide with me.
- 3 I need thy presence every passing hour ;
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power ?
Who like thyself my guide and stay can be ?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me.
- 4 I fear no foe with thee at hand to bless ;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting ? where, grave, thy victory ?
I triumph still, if thou abide with me.

GENERAL HYMNS.

5. Hold thou thy Cross before my closing eyes ;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies :
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain
shadows flee ;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me !

364

E. Perronet, 1726-92 ; and others.

- ALL hail the power of Jesu's name ;
Let Angels prostrate fall ;
Bring forth the royal diadem
To crown him Lord of all.
- 2 Crown him, ye morning stars of light,
Who fixed this floating ball ;
Now hail the Strength of Israel's might,
And crown him Lord of all.
- 3 Crown him, ye Martyrs of your God,
Who from his altar call ;
Praise him whose way of pain ye trod,
And crown him Lord of all.
- 4 * Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
Ye ransomed of the fall,
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all.
- 5 * Hail him, ye heirs of David's line,
Whom David Lord did call ;
The God Incarnate, Man Divine,
And crown him Lord of all.
- 6 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.
7. Let every tribe and every tongue
To him their hearts enthral,
Lift high the universal song,
And crown him Lord of all.

GENERAL HYMNS.

365

Ps. 100.

W. Kethe, Daye's Psalter (1560-1).

- ALL people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with fear, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him, and rejoice.
- 2 The Lord, ye know, is God indeed,
Without our aid he did us make;
We are his folk, he doth us feed,
And for his sheep he doth us take.
- 3 O enter then his gates with praise,
Approach with joy his courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless his name always,
For it is seemly so to do.
- 4 For why? the Lord our God is good:
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.
5. To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom heaven and earth adore,
From men and from the Angel-host
Be praise and glory evermore. Amen.

366

J. M. Neale, 1818-66.

- ART thou weary, art thou languid,
Art thou sore distrest?
'Come to me,' saith One, 'and coming
Be at rest!'
- 2 Hath he marks to lead me to him,
If he be my Guide?
'In his feet and hands are wound-prints,
And his side.'
- 3 Is there diadem as Monarch
That his brow adorns?
'Yea, a crown, in very surety,
But of thorns.'

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 4 If I find him, if I follow,
 What his guerdon here?
 ‘Many a sorrow, many a labour,
 Many a tear.
- 5 If I still hold closely to him,
 What hath he at last?
 ‘Sorrow vanquished, labour ended,
 Jordan past.’
- 6 If I ask him to receive me,
 Will he say me nay?
 ‘Not till earth, and not till heaven
 Pass away.’
7. Finding, following, keeping, struggling,
 Is he sure to bless?
 ‘Angels, Martyrs, Prophets, Virgins,
 Answer, Yes!’

367 Ps. 42. N. Tate and N. Brady, New Version (1696).

- AS pants the hart for cooling streams
 When heated in the chase,
 So longs my soul, O God, for thee,
 And thy refreshing grace.
- 2 For thee, my God, the living God,
 My thirsty soul doth pine:
 O when shall I behold thy face,
 Thou Majesty Divine!
- 3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
 Hope still, and thou shalt sing
 The praise of him who is thy God,
 Thy health's eternal spring.
4. To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 The God whom we adore,
 Be glory, as it was, is now,
 And shall be evermore. Amen.

GENERAL HYMNS.

368

Caroline M. Noel, 1817-77.

AT the name of Jesus
Every knee shall bow,
Every tongue confess him
King of glory now ;
'Tis the Father's pleasure
We should call him Lord,
Who from the beginning
Was the mighty Word.

- 2 At his voice creation
Sprang at once to sight,
All the Angel faces,
All the hosts of light,
Thrones and dominations,
Stars upon their way,
All the heavenly orders,
In their great array.
- 3 Humbled for a season,
To receive a name
From the lips of sinners
Unto whom he came,
Faithfully he bore it,
Spotless to the last,
Brought it back victorious
When from death he passed :

- 4 Bore it up triumphant
With its human light,
Through all ranks of creatures,
To the central height,
To the throne of Godhead,
To the Father's breast ;
Filled it with the glory
Of that perfect rest.
- 5 Name him, brothers, name him,
With love as strong as death,
But with awe and wonder,
And with bated breath ;

GENERAL HYMNS.

He is God the Saviour,
He is Christ the Lord,
Ever to be worshipped,
Trusted, and adored.

6 * In your hearts enthrone him ;
There let him subdue
All that is not holy,
All that is not true :
Crown him as your captain
In temptation's hour ;
Let his will enfold you
In its light and power.

7 *. Brothers, this Lord Jesus
Shall return again,
With his Father's glory,
With his Angel train ;
For all wreaths of empire
Meet upon his brow,
And our hearts confess him
King of glory now.

369

J. Williams, 1802-65.

BE thou my Guardian and my Guide,
And hear me when I call ;
Let not my slippery footsteps slide,
And hold me lest I fall.

2 The world, the flesh, and Satan dwell
Around the path I tread ;
O, save me from the snares of hell,
Thou Quickener of the dead.

3 And if I tempted am to sin,
And outward things are strong,
Do thou, O Lord, keep watch within,
And save my soul from wrong.

4. Still let me ever watch and pray,
And feel that I am frail ;
That if the tempter cross my way,
Yet he may not prevail.

GENERAL HYMNS.

370

J. Keble, 1792-1868,

- BLEST are the pure in heart,
 For they shall see our God,
 The secret of the Lord is theirs,
 Their soul is Christ's abode.
- 2 The Lord, who left the heavens
 Our life and peace to bring,
 To dwell in lowliness with men,
 Their Pattern and their King ;
- 3 Still to the lowly soul
 He doth himself impart,
 And for his dwelling and his throne
 Chooseth the pure in heart.
4. Lord, we thy presence seek ;
 May ours this blessing be ;
 Give us a pure and lowly heart,
 A temple meet for thee.

371

Part of Hora novissima (495). Bernard of Cluny, 12th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Hic breve vivitur.

- BRIEF life is here our portion,
 Brief sorrow, short-lived care ;
 The life that knows no ending,
 The tearless life, is there.
- 2 O happy retribution,
 Short toil, eternal rest,
 For mortals and for sinners
 A mansion with the blest !
- 3 And martyrdom hath roses
 Upon that heavenly ground,
 And white and virgin lilies
 For virgin-souls abound.
- 4 There grief is turned to pleasure,
 Such pleasure as below
 No human voice can utter,
 No human heart can know.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 5 And now we fight the battle,
But then shall wear the crown
Of full and everlasting
And passionless renown.
- 6 And now we watch and struggle,
And now we live in hope,
And Sion in her anguish
With Babylon must cope.
- 7 But he whom now we trust in Shall then be seen and known,
And they that know and see him
Shall have him for their own.
- 8 The morning shall awaken,
The shadows shall decay,
And each true-hearted servant
Shall shine as doth the day.
9. Then all the halls of Sion
For ay shall be complete,
And, in the Land of Beauty,
All things of beauty meet.

372

Bishop R. Mant, 1776-1848.

- BRIGHT the vision that delighted
Once the sight of Judah's seer;
Sweet the countless tongues united
To entrance the prophet's ear.
- 2 Round the Lord in glory seated
Cherubim and Seraphim
Filled his temple, and repeated
Each to each the alternate hymn :
- 3 ' Lord, thy glory fills the heaven ;
Earth is with its fullness stored ;
Unto thee be glory given,
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord.'

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 4 Heaven is still with glory ringing,
Earth takes up the Angels' cry,
'Holy, Holy, Holy,' singing,
'Lord of hosts, the Lord most high.'
- 5 With his seraph train before him,
With his holy Church below,
Thus conspire we to adore him,
Bid we thus our anthem flow :
6. 'Lord, thy glory fills the heaven ;
Earth is with its fullness stored ;
Unto thee be glory given,
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord.'

373

J. Cennick, 1718-55.

- CHILDREN of the heavenly King,
As ye journey sweetly sing ;
Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
Glorious in his works and ways.
- 2 We are travelling home to God
In the way the fathers trod ;
They are happy now, and we
Soon their happiness shall see.
- 3 Fear not, brethren, joyful stand
On the borders of your land ;
Jesus Christ your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.
4. Lord, obediently we go,
Gladly leaving all below ;
Only thou our Leader be,
And we still will follow thee.

374

Charlotte Elliott, 1789-1871.

- CHRISTIAN, seek not yet repose,
Hear thy guardian Angel say ;
'Thou art in the midst of foes :
Watch and pray !'

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 Principalities and powers,
Mustering their unseen array,
Wait for thy unguarded hours :
Watch and pray !
- 3 Gird thy heavenly armour on,
Wear it ever, night and day ;
Ambushed lies the evil one :
Watch and pray !
- 4 Hear the victors who o'ercame ;
Still they mark each warrior's way ;
All with one sweet voice exclaim :
' Watch and pray ! '
- 5 Hear, above all, hear thy Lord,
Him thou lovest to obey ;
Hide within thy heart his word :
' Watch and pray ! '
6. Watch, as if on that alone
Hung the issue of the day ;
Pray, that help may be sent down :
Watch and pray !

375

S. Johnson, 1822-82.

- CITY of God, how broad and far
Outspread thy walls sublime !
The true thy chartered freemen are
Of every age and clime.
- 2 One holy Church, one army strong,
One steadfast, high intent ;
One working band, one harvest-song,
One King omnipotent.
- 3 How purely hath thy speech come down
From man's primæval youth !
How grandly hath thine empire grown
Of freedom, love and truth !

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 4 How gleam thy watch-fires through the night
With never-fainting ray !
How rise thy towers, serene and bright,
To meet the dawning day !
5. In vain the surge's angry shock,
In vain the drifting sands :
Unharmed upon the eternal Rock
The eternal City stands. •

376

I. Watts, 1674-1748.

- COME, let us join our cheerful songs
With Angels round the throne ;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.
- 2 'Worthy the Lamb that died,' they cry,
'To be exalted thus ;'
'Worthy the Lamb,' our lips reply,
'For he was slain for us.'
- 3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honour and power divine ;
And blessings more than we can give
Be, Lord, for ever thine.
4. The whole creation join in one
To bless the sacred name
Of him that sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

377

J. Newton, 1725-1807.

- COME, my soul, thy suit prepare,
Jesus loves to answer prayer ;
He himself has bid thee pray,
Therefore will not say thee nay.
- 2 Thou art coming to a King,
Large petitions with thee bring ;
For his grace and power are such
None can ever ask too much.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 8 With my burden I begin ;
 Lord, remove this load of sin ;
 Let thy Blood, for sinners spilt,
 Set my conscience free from guilt.
- 4 Show me what I have to do,
 Ev'ry hour my strength renew ;
 Let me live a life of faith,
 Let me die 'thy people's death.
5. While I am a pilgrim here,
 Let thy love my spirit cheer ;
 Be my Guide, my Guard, my Friend ;
 Lead me to my journey's end.

378

C. Wesley †, 1707-88.

- COME, O thou Traveller unknown,
 Whom still I hold, but cannot see,
 My company before is gone,
 And I am left alone with thee ;
 With thee all night I mean to stay,
 And wrestle till the break of day.
- 2 I need not tell thee who I am,
 My misery or sin declare ;
 Thyself hast called me by my name ;
 Look on thy hands, and read it there !
 But who, I ask thee, who art thou ?
 Tell me thy name, and tell me now.
- 3 Yield to me now, for I am weak,
 But confident in self-despair ;
 Speak to my heart, in blessings speak,
 Be conquered by my instant prayer !
 Speak, or thou never hence shalt move,
 And tell me if thy name is Love.
4. 'Tis Love ! 'tis Love ! Thou diedst for me !
 I hear thy whisper in my heart !
 The morning breaks, the shadows flee ;
 Pure universal Love thou art ;
 To me, to all, thy mercies move ;
 Thy nature and thy name is Love.

GENERAL HYMNS.

379

W. Chatterton Dix, 1867-98.

- ‘COME unto me, ye weary,
And I will give you rest.’
O blessed voice of Jesus,
Which comes to hearts opprest ;
It tells of benediction,
Of pardon, grace, and peace,
Of joy that hath no ending,
Of love which cannot cease.
- 2 ‘Come unto me, ye wanderers,
And I will give you light.’
O loving voice of Jesus,
Which comes to cheer the night ;
Our hearts were filled with sadness,
And we had lost our way ;
But morning brings us gladness,
And songs the break of day.
- 3 ‘Come unto me, ye fainting,
And I will give you life.’
O cheering voice of Jesus,
Which comes to aid our strife ;
The foe is stern and eager,
The fight is fierce and long ;
But thou hast made us mighty,
And stronger than the strong.
4. ‘And whosoever cometh,
I will not cast him out.’
O patient love of Jesus,
Which drives away our doubt ;
Which calls us very sinners,
Unworthy though we be
Of love so free and boundless,
To come, dear Lord, to thee.

GENERAL HYMNS.

380

J. Hupton, 1762-1849, and J. M. Neale.

- COME, ye faithful, raise the anthem,
Cleave the skies with shouts of praise ;
Sing to him who found the ransom,
Ancient of eternal days,
God eternal, Word incarnate,
Whom the heaven of heaven obeys.
- 2 Ere he raised the lofty mountains,
Formed the sea, or built the sky,
Love eternal, free, and boundless,
Forced the Lord of life to die,
Lifted up the Prince of princes
On the throne of Calvary.
- 3 Now on those eternal mountains
Stands the sapphire throne, all bright,
With the ceaseless alleluyas
Which they raise, the sons of light ;
Sion's people tell his praises,
Victor after hard-won fight.
- 4 Bring your harps, and bring your incense,
Sweep the string and pour the lay ;
Let the earth proclaim his wonders,
King of that celestial day ;
He the Lamb once slain is worthy,
Who was dead, and lives for ay.
5. Laud and honour to the Father,
Laud and honour to the Son,
Laud and honour to the Spirit,
Ever Three and ever One,
Consubstantial, co-eternal,
While unending ages run. Amen.

381

M. Bridges, 1800-94.

- CROWN him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon his throne ;
Hark ! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own :

GENERAL HYMNS.

- Awake, my soul, and sing
Of him who died for thee,
And hail him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity.
- 2 Crown him the Virgin's Son,
The God incarnate born,
Whose arm those crimson trophies won
Which now his brow adorn :
Fruit of the mystic Rose,
As of that Rose the Stem ;
The Root whence mercy ever flows,
The Babe of Bethlehem.
- 3 Crown him the Lord of love !
Behold his hands and side,
Rich wounds yet visible above
In beauty glorified :
No Angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his burning eye
At mysteries so bright.
- 4 Crown him the Lord of peace,
Whose power a sceptre sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
Absorbed in prayer and praise :
His reign shall know no end,
And round his piercèd feet
Fair flowers of Paradise extend
Their fragrance ever sweet.
5. Crown him the Lord of years,
The Potentate of time,
Creator of the rolling spheres,
Ineffably sublime.
Glassed in a sea of light,
Where everlasting waves
Reflect his throne—the Infinite !
Who lives—and loves—and saves.

GENERAL HYMNS.

382

E. Caswall, 1814-78; and others.

DAYS and moments quickly flying
Blend the living with the dead;
Soon our bodies will be lying
Each within its narrow bed.

2 Soon our souls to God who gave them
Will have sped their rapid flight :
Able now by grace to save them,
O that, while we can, we might !

3 Jesu, infinite Redeemer,
Maker of this mighty frame,
Teach, O teach us to remember
What we are, and whence we came.

4 Whence we came and whither wending,
So that by thy mercy we
May at last, in life unending,
Find our perfect rest with thee.

5 Jesu, merciful Redeemer,
Rouse dead souls to hear thy voice ;
Wake, O wake each idle dreamer
Now to make the eternal choice.

6. Soon before the Judge all glorious
We with all the dead shall stand :
Saviour, over death victorious,
Place us then on thy right hand.

383

J. G. Whittier, 1807-92.

DEAR Lord and Father of mankind,
Forgive our foolish ways !
Re-clothe us in our rightful mind,
In purer lives thy service find,
In deeper reverence praise.

2 In simple trust like theirs who heard,
Beside the Syrian sea,
The gracious calling of the Lord,
Let us, like them, without a word
Rise up and follow thee.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 * O Sabbath rest by Galilee !
O calm of hills above,
Where Jesus knelt to share with thee
The silence of eternity,
Interpreted by love !
- 4 Drop thy still dews of quietness,
Till all our strivings cease ;
Take from our souls the strain* and stress,
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of thy peace.
5. Breathe through the heats of our desire
Thy coolness and thy balm ;
Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire ;
Speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
O still small voice of calm !

384

J. W. Chadwick, 1840-1904.

- ETERNAL Ruler of the ceaseless round
Of circling planets singing on their way ;
Guide of the nations from the night profound
Into the glory of the perfect day ;
Rule in our hearts, that we may ever be Guided and strengthened and upheld by thee.
- 2 We are of thee, the children of thy love,
The brothers of thy well-belovèd Son ;
Descend, O Holy Spirit, like a dove,
Into our hearts, that we may be as one :
As one with thee, to whom we ever tend ;
As one with him, our Brother and our Friend.
- 3 We would be one in hatred of all wrong,
One in our love of all things sweet and fair,
One with the joy that breaketh into song,
One with the grief that trembleth into prayer,
One in the power that makes the children free
To follow truth, and thus to follow thee.

GENERAL HYMNS.

4. O clothe us with thy heavenly armour, Lord,
 Thy trusty shield, thy sword of love divine ;
 Our inspiration be thy constant word ;
 We ask no victories that are not thine :
 Give or withhold, let pain or pleasure be ;
 Enough to know that we are serving thee.

385

Mrs. L. M. Willis (1864).

FATHER, hear the prayer we offer ;
 Not for ease that prayer shall be,
 But for strength that we may ever
 Live our lives courageously.

2 Not for ever in green pastures
 Do we ask our way to be ;
 But the steep and rugged pathway
 May we tread rejoicingly.

3 Not for ever by still waters
 Would we idly rest and stay ;
 But would smite the living fountains
 From the rocks along our way.

4. Be our Strength in hours of weakness,
 In our wanderings be our Guide ;
 Through endeavour, failure, danger,
 Father, be thou at our side.

386

J. Julian.

FATHER of all, to thee
 With loving hearts we pray,
 Through him, in mercy given,
 The Life, the Truth, the Way :
 From heaven, thy throne, in mercy shed
 Thy blessings on each bended head.

2 * Father of all, to thee
 Our contrite hearts we raise,
 Unstrung by sin and pain,
 Long voiceless in thy praise :
 Breathe thou the silent chords along,
 Until they tremble into song.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 Father of all, to thee
 We breathe unuttered fears,
 Deep-hidden in our souls,
 That have no voice but tears :
 Take thou our hand, and through the wild
 Lead gently on each trustful child.
4. Father of all, may we
 In praise our tongues employ,
 When gladness fills the soul
 With deep and hallowed joy :
 In storm and calm give us to see
 The path of peace which leads to thee.

387

E. Cooper †, 1770-1833.

- FATHER of heaven, whose love profound
 A ransom for our souls hath found,
 Before thy throne we sinners bend :
 To us thy pardoning love extend.
- 2 Almighty Son, incarnate Word,
 Our Prophet, Priest, Redeemer, Lord,
 Before thy throne we sinners bend :
 To us thy saving grace extend.
- 3 Eternal Spirit, by whose breath
 The soul is raised from sin and death,
 Before thy throne we sinners bend :
 To us thy quickening power extend.
4. Thrice Holy ! Father, Spirit, Son,
 Mysterious Godhead, Three in One,
 Before thy throne we sinners bend :
 Grace, pardon, life to us extend. Amen.

388

Anatolius, c. 8th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Ζοφεράς τρικυμίας.

FIERCE was the wild billow,
 Dark was the night ;
 Oars laboured heavily,
 Foam glimmered white ;

GENERAL HYMNS.

- Trembled the mariners,
Peril was nigh :
Then said the God of God,
'Peace ! It is I.'
- 2 Ridge of the mountain-wave,
Lower thy crest !
Wail of Euroclydon
Be thou at rest !
Sorrow can never be,
Darkness must fly,
Where saith the Light of light,
'Peace ! It is I.'
3. Jesu, Deliverer,
Near to us be ;
Soothe thou my voyaging
Over life's sea :
Thou, when the storm of death
Roars, sweeping by,
Whisper, O Truth of truth,
'Peace ! It is I.'

389

J. S. B. Monsell, 1811-75.

- FIGHT the good fight with all thy might,
Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right ;
Lay hold on life, and it shall be
Thy joy and crown eternally.
- 2 Run the straight race through God's good grace,
Lift up thine eyes, and seek his face ;
Life with its way before us lies,
Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.
- 3 Cast care aside, upon thy Guide
Lean, and his mercy will provide ;
Lean, and the trusting soul shall prove
Christ is its life, and Christ its love.
4. Faint not nor fear, his arms are near,
He changeth not, and thou art dear ;
Only believe, and thou shalt see
That Christ is all in all to thee.

GENERAL HYMNS.

390

J. H. Newman, 1801-90.

FIRMLY I believe and truly
God is Three, and God is One ;
And I next acknowledge duly
Manhood taken by the Son.

2 And I trust and hope most fully
In that Manhood crucified ;
And each thought and deed unruly
Do to death, as he has died.

3 Simply to his grace and wholly
Light and life and strength belong,
And I love supremely, solely,
Him the Holy, him the Strong.

4 And I hold in veneration,
For the love of him alone,
Holy Church as his creation,
And her teachings as his own.

5. Adoration ay be given,
With and through the angelic host,
To the God of earth and heaven,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

391

J. Montgomery, 1771-1854.

FOR ever with the Lord !
Amen ; so let it be ;
Life from the dead is in that word,
'Tis immortality.
Here in the body pent,
Absent from him I roam,
Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 My Father's house on high,
 Home of my soul, how near
 At times to faith's foreseeing eye
 Thy golden gates appear !
 Ah ! then my spirit faints
 To reach the land I love,
 The bright inheritance of Saints,
 Jerusalem above.
- 3 'For ever with the Lord !'—
 Father, if 'tis thy will,
 The promise of that faithful word ,
 E'en here to me fulfil.
 Be thou at my right hand,
 Then can I never fail ;
 Uphold thou me, and I shall stand ;
 Fight, and I must prevail.
4. So when my latest breath
 Shall rend the veil in twain,
 By death I shall escape from death,
 And life eternal gain.
 Knowing as I am known,
 How shall I love that word,
 And oft repeat before the throne,
 'For ever with the Lord !'

392 *Part of Hora novissima (495). Bernard of Cluny,
 12th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.*

O bona patria!

- FOR thee, O dear, dear country,
 Mine eyes their vigils keep ;
 For very love, beholding
 Thy happy name, they weep.
- 2 The mention of thy glory
 Is unction to the breast,
 And medicine in sickness,
 And love and life and rest.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 With jaspers glow thy bulwarks,
Thy streets with emeralds blaze ;
The sardius and the topaz
Unite in thee their rays ;
- 4 Thine ageless walls are bonded
With amethyst unpriced ;
Thy saints build up its fabric,
The corner-stone is Christ.
- 5 O one, O only mansion !
O Paradise of joy !
Where tears are ever banished,
And smiles have no alloy ;
- 6 The Cross is all thy splendour,
The Crucified thy praise ;
His laud and benediction
Thy ransomed people raise.
- 7 Thou hast no shore, fair ocean !
Thou hast no time, bright day !
Dear fountain of refreshment
To pilgrims far away !
- 8 Upon the Rock of Ages
They raise thy holy tower ;
Thine is the victor's laurel,
And thine the golden dower.
- 9 O mine, my golden Sion !
O lovelier far than gold !
With laurel-girt battalions,
And safe victorious fold.
10. O fields that see no sorrow !
O state that fears no strife !
O princely bowers ! O land of flowers !
O realm and home of life !

GENERAL HYMNS.

393

J. Newton, 1725-1807.

GLORIOUS things of thee are spoken,
Sion, city of our God !
He whose word cannot be broken
Formed thee for his own abode :
On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose ?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

2 See, the streams of living waters,
Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove :
Who can faint while such a river
Ever flows their thirst to assuage ?
Grace, which like the Lord the Giver,
Never fails from age to age.

3. Saviour, if of Sion's city
I, through grace, a member am,
Let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in thy name :
Fading is the worldling's pleasure,
All his boasted pomp and show ;
Solid joys and lasting treasure
None but Sion's children know.

394

W. Cowper, 1731-1800.

GOD moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform ;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his sovereign will.
- 3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take,
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.
- 4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace ;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.
- 5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour ;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.
6. Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain ;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

395

H. F. Lyte, 1793-1847.

GOD of mercy, God of grace,
Show the brightness of thy face :
Shine upon us, Saviour, shine,
Fill thy Church with light divine ;
And thy saving health extend
Unto earth's remotest end.

- 2 Let the people praise thee, Lord ;
Be by all that live adored :
Let the nations shout and sing,
Glory to their Saviour King ;

GENERAL HYMNS.

At thy feet their tributes pay,
And thy holy will obey.

3. Let the people praise thee, Lord ;
Earth shall then her fruits afford ;
God to man his blessing give,
Man to God devoted live ;
All below, and all above,
One in joy, and light, and love.

396

Bp. Chr. Wordsworth, 1807-85.

GRACIOUS Spirit, Holy Ghost,
Taught by thee, we covet most
Of thy gifts at Pentecost,
Holy, heavenly love.

- 2 Love is kind, and suffers long,
Love is meek, and thinks no wrong,
Love than death itself more strong ;
Therefore give us love.
- 3 Prophecy will fade away,
Melting in the light of day ;
Love will ever with us stay ;
Therefore give us love.
- 4 Faith will vanish into sight ;
Hope be emptied in delight ;
Love in heaven will shine more bright ;
Therefore give us love.
- 5 Faith and hope and love we see
Joining hand in hand agree ;
But the greatest of the three,
And the best, is love.
6. From the overshadowing
Of thy gold and silver wing
Shed on us, who to thee sing,
Holy, heavenly love.

GENERAL HYMNS.

397

W. Williams, 1717-91. Tr. P. and W. Williams †.

Arglwydd arwain trwy'r anialwch.

GUIDE me, O thou great Redeemer,
Pilgrim through this barren land ;
I am weak, but thou art mighty,
Hold me with thy powerful hand :

Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more.

2 Open now the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing stream doth flow ;
Let the fire and cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through :
Strong Deliverer,
Be thou still my strength and shield.

3. When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside ;
Death of death, and hell's Destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side :
Songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.

398

C. Coffin, 1676-1749. Tr. Y. H.

O quam juvat fratres.

HAPPY are they, they that love God,
Whose hearts have Christ confest,
Who by his Cross have found their life,
And 'neath his yoke their rest.

2 Glad is the praise, sweet are the songs,
When they together sing ;
And strong the prayers that bow the ear
Of heaven's eternal King.

3 Christ to their homes giveth his peace,
And makes their loves his own :
But ah, what tares the evil one
Hath in his garden sown.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 4 Sad were our lot, evil this earth,
 Did not its sorrows prove
 The path whereby the sheep may find
 The fold of Jesu's love.
5. Then shall they know, they that love him,
 How all their pain is good ;
 And death itself cannot unbind
 Their happy brotherhood.

399

F. W. Faber, 1814-63.

HARK ! hark, my soul ! Angelic songs are swelling

O'er earth's green fields, and ocean's wave-beat shore ;

How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling

Of that new life when sin shall be no more !

Angels of Jesus, Angels of light,

Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night !

- 2 Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
 Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come ;
 And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,
 The music of the Gospel leads us home.
- 3 Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,
 The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea,
 And laden souls, by thousands meekly stealing,
 Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to thee.
- 4 Rest comes at length ; though life be long and dreary,
 The day must dawn, and dark some night be past ;
 All journeys end in welcomes to the weary,
 And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.
5. Angels ! sing on, your faithful watches keeping,
 Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above ;
 While we toil on, and soothe ourselves with weeping,
 Till life's long night shall break in endless love.

GENERAL HYMNS.

400

W. Cowper, 1781-1800.

- HARK, my soul ! it is the Lord ;
'Tis thy Saviour, hear his word ;
Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee :
' Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou me ?
- 2 ' I delivered thee when bound,
And, when wounded, healed thy wound ;
Sought thee wandering, set thee right,
Turned thy darkness into light.
- 3 ' Can a woman's tender care
Cease towards the child she bare ?
Yes, she may forgetful be,
Yet will I remember thee.
- 4 ' Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above,
Deeper than the depths beneath,
Free and faithful, strong as death.
- 5 ' Thou shalt see my glory soon,
When the work of grace is done ;
Partner of my throne shalt be ;
Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou me ?'
6. Lord, it is my chief complaint
That my love is weak and faint ;
Yet I love thee, and adore ;
O for grace to love thee more !

401

R. Baxter, 1615-91.

- HE wants not friends that hath thy love,
And may converse and walk with thee,
And with thy Saints here and above,
With whom for ever I must be.
- 2 In the communion of Saints
Is wisdom, safety and delight ;
And when my heart declines and faints,
It's raised by their heat and light !

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 As for my friends, they are not lost ;
The several vessels of thy fleet,
Though parted now, by tempests tost,
Shall safely in the haven meet.
- 4 Still we are centred all in thee,
Members, though distant, of one Head ;
In the same family we be,
By the same faith and spirit led.
- 5 Before thy throne we daily meet
As joint-petitioners to thee ;
In spirit we each other greet,
And shall again each other see.
6. The heavenly hosts, world without end,
Shall be my company above ;
And thou, my best and surest Friend,
Who shall divide me from thy love?

402

J. Bunyan, 1628-88, and others.

HE who would valiant be
'Gainst all disaster,
Let him in constancy
Follow the Master.
There's no discouragement
Shall make him once relent
His first avowed intent
To be a pilgrim.

- 2 Who so beset him round
With dismal stories,
Do but themselves confound—
His strength the more is.
No foes shall stay his might,
Though he with giants fight :
He will make good his right
To be a pilgrim.

GENERAL HYMNS.

3. Since, Lord, thou dost defend
Us with thy Spirit,
We know we at the end
Shall life inherit.
Then fancies flee away !
I'll fear not what men say,
I'll labour night and day
To be a pilgrim.

403

W. Canton.

- HOLD thou my hands !
In grief and joy, in hope and fear,
Lord, let me feel that thou art near :
Hold thou my hands !
- 2 If e'er by doubts
Of thy good Fatherhood depressed,
I cannot find in thee my rest :
Hold thou my hands !
- 3 Hold thou my hands !
These passionate hands too quick to smite,
These hands so eager for delight :
Hold thou my hands !
4. And when at length,
With darkened eyes and fingers cold,
I seek some last loved hand to hold,
Hold thou my hands !

404

John Mason, c. 1645-94.

- HOW shall I sing that Majesty
Which Angels do admire ?
Let dust in dust and silence lie ;
Sing, sing, ye heavenly choir.
Thousands of thousands stand around
Thy throne, O God most high ;
Ten thousand times ten thousand sound
Thy praise ; but who am I ?

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 Thy brightness unto them appears,
 Whilst I thy footsteps trace ;
A sound of God comes to my ears,
 But they behold thy face.
They sing because thou art their Sun ;
 Lord, send a beam on me ;
For where heaven is but once begun
 There Alleluyas be.
- 3 Enlighten with faith's light my heart,
 Inflame it with love's fire ;
Then shall I sing and bear a part
 With that celestial choir.
I shall, I fear, be dark and cold,
 With all my fire and light ;
Yet when thou dost accept their gold,
 Lord, treasure up my mite.
4. How great a being, Lord, is thine,
 Which doth all beings keep !
Thy knowledge is the only line
 To sound so vast a deep.
Thou art a sea without a shore,
 A sun without a sphere ;
Thy time is now and evermore,
 Thy place is everywhere.

405

J. Newton, 1725-1807.

- HOW sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear !
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear.
- 2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast ;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 Dear name ! the rock on which I build,
My shield and hiding-place,
My never-failing treasury filled
With boundless stores of grace.
- 4 Jesus ! my Shepherd, Husband, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King,
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.
- 5 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought ;
But when I see thee as thou art,
I'll praise thee as I ought.
6. Till then I would thy love proclaim
With every fleeting breath ;
And may the music of thy name
Refresh my soul in death.

406

S. Longfellow, 1819-92.

- I LOOK to thee in every need,
And never look in vain ;
I feel thy strong and tender love,
And all is well again :
The thought of thee is mightier far
Than sin and pain and sorrow are.
- 2 Discouraged in the work of life,
Disheartened by its load,
Shamed by its failures or its fears,
I sink beside the road ;
But let me only think of thee,
And then new heart springs up in me.
 - 3 Thy calmness bends serene above,
My restlessness to still ;
Around me flows thy quickening life,
To nerve my faltering will :
Thy presence fills my solitude ;
Thy providence turns all to good.

GENERAL HYMNS.

4. Embosomed deep in thy dear love,
Held in thy law, I stand ;
Thy hand in all things I behold,
And all things in thy hand ;
Thou ledest me by unsought ways,
And turn'st my mourning into praise.

407

W. Chalmers Smith.

- IMMORTAL, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessèd, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, thy great name we praise.
- 2 Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light,
Nor wanting, nor wasting, thou rulest in might ;
Thy justice like mountains high soaring above
Thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.
- 3 To all life thou givest—to both great and small ;
In all life thou livest, the true life of all ;
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
And wither and perish—but nought changeth thee.
4. Great Father of Glory, pure Father of Light,
Thine Angels adore thee, all veiling their sight ;
All laud we would render : O help us to see
'Tis only the splendour of light hideth thee.

408

J. G. Whittier, 1807-92.

- IMMORTAL love for ever full,
For ever flowing free,
For ever shared, for ever whole,
A never-ebbing sea !
- 2 Our outward lips confess the name,
All other names above ;
Love only knoweth whence it came
And comprehendeth love.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 We may not climb the heavenly steeps
To bring the Lord Christ down ;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For him no depths can drown ;
- 4 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is he ;
And faith has still its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.
- 5 The healing of his seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain ;
We touch him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.
- 6 Through him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame ;
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with his name.
7. Alone, O Love ineffable,
Thy saving name is given ;
To turn aside from thee is hell,
To walk with thee is heaven.

409

Sir J. Bowring, 1792-1872.

- IN the Cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time ;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.
- 2 When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive and fears annoy,
Never shall the Cross forsake me :
Lo ! it glows with peace and joy.
- 3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the Cross the radiance streaming,
Adds more lustre to the day.

GENERAL HYMNS.

4. Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the Cross are sanctified ;
Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

410

R. Herrick, 1591-1674.

- IN the hour of my distress,
When temptations me oppress,
And when I my sins confess,
Sweet Spirit, comfort me.
- 2 When I lie within my bed,
Sick in heart, and sick in head,
And with doubts discomfited,
Sweet Spirit, comfort me.
- 3 When the house doth sigh and weep,
And the world is drowned in sleep,
Yet mine eyes the watch do keep,
Sweet Spirit, comfort me.
- 4 When, God knows, I'm tost about,
Either with despair or doubt,
Yet, before the glass be out,
Sweet Spirit, comfort me.
5. When the Judgement is revealed,
And that opened which was sealed,
When to thee I have appealed,
Sweet Spirit, comfort me.

411

S. Crossman †, 1624-83.

- JERUSALEM on high
My song and city is,
My home whene'er I die,
The centre of my bliss :
*O happy place ! when shall I be,
My God, with thee, to see thy face.*
- 2 There dwells my Lord, my King,
Judged here unfit to live ;
There Angels to him sing,
And lowly homage give :

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 The Patriarchs of old
 There from their travels cease ;
 The Prophets there behold
 Their longed-for Prince of peace :
- 4 The Lamb's Apostles there
 I might with joy behold,
 The harpers I might hear,
 Harping on harps of gold :
- 5 The bleeding Martyrs, they
 Within those courts are found,
 Clothèd in pure array,
 Their scars with glory crowned :
6. Ah me ! ah me ! that I
 In Kedar's tents here stay ;
 No place like that on high ;
 Lord, thither guide my way :

412 *Part of Hora novissima (495). Bernard of Cluny,
 12th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.*
 Urbs Sion aurea.

- JERUSALEM the golden,
 With milk and honey blest,
 Beneath thy contemplation
 Sink heart and voice opprest.
 I know not, O I know not,
 What social joys are there,
 What radiancy of glory,
 What light beyond compare.
- 2 They stand, those halls of Sion,
 Conjubilant with song,
 And bright with many an Angel,
 And all the Martyr throng ;
 The Prince is ever in them,
 The daylight is serene,
 The pastures of the blessèd
 Are decked in glorious sheen.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 There is the throne of David,
And there, from care released,
The song of them that triumph,
The shout of them that feast ;
And they who, with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.
4. O sweet and blessed country,
Shall I ever see thy face ?
O sweet and blessed country,
Shall I ever win thy grace ?
Exult, O dust and ashes !
The Lord shall be thy part :
His only, his for ever,
Thou shalt be, and thou art !

413

17th cent. Tr. Sir H. W. Baker.

Dignare me, O Jesu, rogo te.

- JESU, grant me this, I pray,
Ever in thy heart to stay ;
Let me evermore abide
Hidden in thy wounded side.
- 2 If the evil one prepare,
Or the world, a tempting snare,
I am safe when I abide
In thy heart and wounded side.
- 3 If the flesh, more dangerous still,
Tempt my soul to deeds of ill,
Naught I fear when I abide
In thy heart and wounded side.
4. Death will come one day to me ;
Jesu, cast me not from thee :
Dying let me still abide
In thy heart and wounded side.

GENERAL 'HYMNS.

414

C. Wesley, 1707-88.

JESU, Lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high :
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life is^apast ;
Safe into the haven guide,
O receive my soul at last.

2 Other refuge have I none ;
Hangs my helpless soul on thee ;
Leave, ah ! leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me.
All my trust on thee is stayed,
All my help from thee I bring ;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of thy wing.

3 * Thou, O Christ, art all I want ;
More than all in thee I find :
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
Just and holy is thy name ;
I am all unrighteousness ;
False and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

4. Plenteous grace with thee is found,
Grace to cover all my sin ;
Let the healing streams abound ;
Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of life the fountain art ;
Freely let me take of thee ;
Spring thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

GENERAL HYMNS.

415

G. R. Prynne, 1818-1903.

- JESU, meek and gentle,
Son of God most high,
Pitying, loving Saviour,
Hear thy children's cry.
- 2 Pardon our offences,
Loose our captive chains,
Break down every idol
Which our soul detains.
- 3 Give us holy freedom,
Fill our hearts with love,
Draw us, holy Jesu,
To the realms above.
- 4 Lead us on our journey,
Be thyself the Way
Through terrestrial darkness
To celestial day.
5. Jesu, meek and gentle,
Son of God most high,
Pitying, loving Saviour,
Hear thy children's cry.

416

H. Collins.

- JESU, meek and lowly,
Saviour, pure and holy,
On thy love relying
Hear me humbly crying.
- 2 Prince of life and power,
My salvation's tower,
On the Cross I view thee
Calling sinners to thee.
- 3 There behold me gazing
At the sight amazing ;
Bending low before thee,
Helpless I adore thee.
- 4 By thy red wounds streaming,
With thy Life-blood gleaming,

GENERAL HYMNS.

- Blood for sinners flowing,
 Pardon free bestowing ;
 5 By that fount of blessing,
 Thy dear love expressing,
 All my aching sadness
 Turn thou into gladness.
 6. Lord, in mercy guide me,
 Be thou e'er beside me ;
 In thy ways direct me,
 'Neath thy wings protect me.

417

H. Collins.

JESU, my Lord, my God, my All,
 Hear me, blest Saviour, when I call ;
 Hear me, and from thy dwelling-place
 Pour down the riches of thy grace :
*Jesu, my Lord, I thee adore,
 O make me love thee more and more.*

- 2 Jesu, too late I thee have sought,
 How can I love thee as I ought ?
 And how extol thy matchless fame,
 The glorious beauty of thy name ?
 3 Jesu, what didst thou find in me,
 That thou hast dealt so lovingly ?
 How great the joy that thou hast brought,
 So far exceeding hope or thought !
 4. Jesu, of thee shall be my song,
 To thee my heart and soul belong ;
 All that I am or have is thine,
 And thou, sweet Saviour, thou art mine.

418

St. Theoctistus, c. 890. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Ἰησοῦ γλυκύτατε.

JESU, name all names above ;
 Jesu, best and dearest ;
 Jesu, Fount of perfect love,
 Holiest, tenderest, nearest ;

GENERAL HYMNS.

Jesu, Source of grace completest ;
Jesu purest, Jesu sweetest ;
Jesu, Well of power Divine,
Make me, keep me, seal me thine !

- 2 Woe that I have turned aside
After fleshly pleasure !
Woe that I have never tried
For the heavenly treasure !
Treasure, safe in homes supernal,
Incorruptible, eternal ;
Treasure no less price hath won
Than the Passion of the Son !

- 3 Jesu, crowned with thorns for me,
Scourged for my transgression !
Witnessing, through agony,
That thy good confession !
Jesu, clad in purple raiment,
For my evils making payment :
Let not all thy woe and pain,
Let not Calvary be in vain !

4. Jesu, open me the gate
That of old he entered
Who, in that most lost estate,
Wholly on thee ventured ;
Thou, whose wounds are ever pleading,
And thy Passion interceding,
From my misery let me rise
To a home in Paradise !

419

St. Bernard, 1091-1153. Tr. E. Caswall.

Jesu, dulcis memoria.

JESU, the very thought of thee
With sweetness fills my breast ;
But sweeter far thy face to see,
And in thy presence rest.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than thy blest name,
O Saviour of mankind!
- 3 O hope of every contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind thou art!
How good to those who seek!
- 4 But what to those who find? Ah! this
Nor tongue nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus! what it is None but his loved ones know.
- 5 Jesu, our only joy be thou,
As thou our prize wilt be;
Jesu, be thou our glory now,
And through eternity.

Part 2.

Jesu, Rex admirabilis.

- 6 O Jesu, King most wonderful,
Thou Conqueror renowned,
Thou sweetness most ineffable,
In whom all joys are found!
- 7 When once thou visitest the heart,
Then truth begins to shine;
Then earthly vanities depart;
Then kindles love divine.
- 8 O Jesu! Light of all below!
Thou Fount of life and fire,
Surpassing all the joys we know,
And all we can desire:
- 9 May every heart confess thy name,
And ever thee adore;
And, seeking thee, itself inflame
To seek thee more and more.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 10 Thee may our tongues for ever bless,
Thee may we love alone ;
And ever in our lives express
The image of thine own.

Part 3.

Jesu, decus angelicum.

- 11 O Jesu, thou the beauty art
Of Angel worlds above ;
Thy name is music to the heart,
Enchanting it with love.
- 12 Celestial sweetness unalloyed !
Who eat thee hunger still ;
Who drink of thee still feel a void,
Which nought but thou can fill.
- 13 O my sweet Jesu ! hear the sighs
Which unto thee I send ;
To thee mine inmost spirit cries,
My being's hope and end !
- 14 Stay with us, Lord, and with thy light
Illumine the soul's abyss ;
Scatter the darkness of our night,
And fill the world with bliss.
15. O Jesu ! spotless virgin-flower !
Our life and joy ! to thee
Be praise, beatitude, and power
Through all eternity.

420

I. Watts, 1674-1748.

- JESUS shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run ;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
- 2 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song,
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 Blessings abound where'er he reigns ;
The prisoner leaps to lose his chains ;
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.
4. Let every creature rise and bring
Peculiar honours to our King ;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the long amen.

421

Ray Palmer, 1808-87.

- JESUS, these eyes have never seen
That radiant form of thine ;
The veil of sense hangs dark between
Thy blessèd face and mine.
- 2 I see thee not, I hear thee not,
Yet art thou oft with me ;
And earth hath ne'er so dear a spot
As where I met with thee.
- 3 Yet, though I have not seen, and still Must rest in faith alone,
I love thee, dearest Lord, and will,
Unseen, but not unknown.
4. When death these mortal eyes shall seal,
And still this throbbing heart,
The rending veil shall thee reveal
All glorious as thou art.

422

W. Cowper, 1731-1800.

- JESUS, where'er thy people meet,
There they behold thy mercy-seat ;
Where'er they seek thee, thou art found,
And every place is hallowed ground.
- 2 For thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind ;
Such ever bring thee where they come,
And going, take thee to their home.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 Dear Shepherd of thy chosen few,
Thy former mercies here renew ;
Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
The sweetness of thy saving name.
- 4 Here may we prove the power of prayer,
To strengthen faith and sweeten care ;
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes.
5. Lord, we are few, but thou art near ;
Nor short thine arm, nor deaf thine ear ;
O rend the heavens, come quickly down,
And make a thousand hearts thine own !

423

Henry Scott Holland.

- JUDGE eternal, throned in splendour,
Lord of lords and King of kings,
With thy living fire of judgement
Purge this realm of bitter things :
Solace all its wide dominion
With the healing of thy wings.
- 2 Still the weary folk are pining
For the hour that brings release :
And the city's crowded clangour
Cries aloud for sin to cease ;
And the homesteads and the woodlands
Plead in silence for their peace.
3. Crown, O God, thine own endeavour :
Cleave our darkness with thy sword :
Feed the faint and hungry heathen
With the richness of thy Word :
Cleans the body of this empire
Through the glory of the Lord.

424

George Herbert, 1593-1632.

- KING of glory, King of peace,
I will love thee ;
And that love may never cease,
I will move thee.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 Thou hast granted my request,
Thou hast heard me ;
Thou didst note my working breast,
Thou hast spared me.
- 3 Wherefore with my utmost art
I will sing thee,
And the cream of all my heart
I will bring thee.
- 4 Though my sins against me cried,
Thou didst clear me ;
And alone, when they replied,
Thou didst hear me.
- 5 Seven whole days, not one in seven,
I will praise thee ;
In my heart, though not in heaven,
I can raise thee.
6. Small it is, in this poor sort
To enrol thee :
E'en eternity's too short
To extol thee.

425

J. H. Newman, 1801-90.

LEAD, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead thou me on ;
The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead thou me on.
Keep thou my feet ; I do not ask to see
The distant scene ; one step enough for me.

- 2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou
Shouldst lead me on ;
I loved to choose and see my path ; but now
Lead thou me on.
I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will : remember not past years.

GENERAL HYMNS.

3. So long thy power hath blest me, sure it still
Will lead me on
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone,
And with the morn those Angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

426

J. Edmeston, 1791-1867.

- LEAD us, heavenly Father, lead us
O'er the world's tempestuous sea ;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us,
For we have no help but thee ;
Yet possessing every blessing
If our God our Father be.
- 2 Saviour ! breathe forgiveness o'er us,
All our weakness thou dost know,
Thou didst tread this earth before us,
Thou didst feel its keenest woe ;
Lone and dreary, faint and weary,
Through the desert thou didst go.
3. Spirit of our God, descending,
Fill our hearts with heavenly joy,
Love with every passion blending,
Pleasure that can never cloy :
Thus provided, pardoned, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy !

427

George Herbert, 1593-1632.

- LET all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King !
The heavens are not too high,
His praise may thither fly ;
The earth is not too low,
His praises there may grow.
Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King !

GENERAL HYMNS.

2. Let all the world in every corner sing,
 My God and King !
 The Church with psalms must shout,
 No door can keep them out ;
 But above all, the heart
 Must bear the longest part.
Let all the world in every corner sing,
 My God and King !

428

C. Wesley, 1707-88, and others.

- LET saints on earth in concert sing
With those whose work is done ;
For all the servants of our King
In earth and heaven are one.
- 2 One family, we dwell in him,
 One Church, above, beneath ;
Though now divided by the stream,
 The narrow stream of death.
- 3 One army of the living God,
 To his command we bow ;
Part of his host hath crossed the flood,
 And part is crossing now.
- 4 E'en now to their eternal home
 There pass some spirits blest,
While others to the margin come,
 Waiting their call to rest.
5. Jesu, be thou our constant Guide ;
 Then, when the word is given,
Bid Jordan's narrow stream divide,
 And bring us safe to heaven.

429

H. Montagu Butler.

- LIFT up your hearts ! ' We lift them, Lord,
 to thee ;
Here at thy feet none other may we see :
' Lift up your hearts ! ' E'en so, with one accord,
We lift them up, we lift them to the Lord.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 Above the level of the former years,
The mire of sin, the slough of guilty fears,
The mist of doubt, the blight of love's decay,
O Lord of Light, lift all our hearts to-day!
- 3 Above the swamps of subterfuge and shame,
The deeds, the thoughts, that honour may not name,
The halting tongue that dares not tell the whole,
O Lord of Truth, lift every Christian soul!
- 4 Lift every gift that thou thyself hast given;
Low lies the best till lifted up to heaven:
Low lie the bounding heart, the teeming brain,
Till, sent from God, they mount to God again.
5. Then, as the trumpet-call, in after years,
'Lift up your hearts!' rings pealing in our ears,
Still shall those hearts respond, with full accord,
'We lift them up, we lift them to the Lord!'

430

Mrs. Frances M. Owen, 1842-83.

- LIGHTEN the darkness of our life's long night,
Through which we blindly stumble to the day.
Shadows mislead us: Father, send thy light
To set our footsteps in the homeward way.
- 2 Lighten the darkness of our self-conceit—
The subtle darkness that we love so well,
Which shrouds the path of wisdom from our feet,
And lulls our spirits with its baneful spell.
 - 3 Lighten our darkness when we bow the knee
To all the gods we ignorantly make
And worship, dreaming that we worship thee,
Till clearer light our slumbering souls awake.
 4. Lighten our darkness when we fail at last,
And in the midnight lay us down to die;
We trust to find thee when the night is past,
And daylight breaks across the morning sky.

GENERAL HYMNS.

431

*St. Thomas à Kempis, 1380-1471. Tr. J. M. Neale.
Jerusalem luminosa.*

LIGHT'S abode, celestial Salem,
Vision dear whence peace doth spring,
Brighter than the heart can fancy,
Mansion of the highest King ;
O, how glorious are the praises
Which of thee the prophets sing !

- 2 There for ever and for ever
Alleluya is outpoured ;
For unending, for unbroken
Is the feast-day of the Lord ;
All is pure and all is holy
That within thy walls is stored.
- 3 There no cloud nor passing vapour
Dims the brightness of the air ;
Endless noon-day, glorious noon-day,
From the Sun of suns is there ;
There no night brings rest from labour,
There unknown are toil and care.
- 4 O how glorious and resplendent,
Fragile body, shalt thou be,
When endued with so much beauty,
Full of health, and strong, and free,
Full of vigour, full of pleasure
That shall last eternally !
- 5 Now with gladness, now with courage,
Bear the burden on thee laid,
That hereafter these thy labours
May with endless gifts be paid,
And in everlasting glory
Thou with joy may'st be arrayed.
6. Laud and honour to the Father,
Laud and honour to the Son,
Laud and honour to the Spirit,
Ever Three and ever One,
Consubstantial, co-eternal,
While unending ages run. Amen.

GENERAL HYMNS.

432

J. Quarles, 1624-65, and H. F. Lyte.

- LONG did I toil, and knew no earthly rest,
 Far did I rove, and found no certain home ;
 At last I sought them in his sheltering breast,
 Who opes his arms, and bids the weary come :
 With him I found a home, a rest divine,
 And I since then am his, and he is mine.
- 2 The good I have is from his stores supplied,
 The ill is only what he deems the best ;
 He for my Friend, I'm rich with nought beside,
 And poor without him, though of all possest :
 Changes may come, I take, or I resign,
 Content, while I am his, while he is mine.
- 3 Whate'er may change, in him no change is seen,
 A glorious Sun that wanes not nor declines,
 Above the clouds and storms he walks serene,
 And on his people's inward darkness shines ;
 All may depart, I fret not, nor repine,
 While I my Saviour's am, while he is mine.
4. While here, alas ! I know but half his love,
 But half discern him, and but half adore ;
 But when I meet him in the realms above
 I hope to love him better, praise him more,
 And feel, and tell, amid the choir divine,
 How fully I am his, and he is mine.

433

Richard Baxter†, 1615-91.

- LORD, it belongs not to my care
 Whether I die or live ;
 To love and serve thee is my share,
 And this thy grace must give.
- 2 If life be long, I will be glad,
 That I may long obey ;
 If short, yet why should I be sad
 To end my little day ?

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 Christ leads me through no darker rooms
Than he went through before ;
He that into God's kingdom comes
Must enter by this door.
- 4 Come, Lord, when grace hath made me meet
Thy blessed face to see :
For if thy work on earth be sweet,
What will thy glory be !
- 5 Then I shall end my sad complaints
And weary, sinful days,
And join with the triumphant Saints
That sing my Saviour's praise.
6. My knowledge of that life is small,
The eye of faith is dim ;
But 'tis enough that Christ knows all,
And I shall be with him.

434

O. Wendell Holmes, 1809-94.

- LORD of all being, throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star ;
Centre and soul of every sphere,
Yet to each loving heart how near !
- 2 Sun of our life, thy quickening ray
Sheds on our path the glow of day ;
Star of our hope, thy softened light
Cheers the long watches of the night.
 - 3 Our midnight is thy smile withdrawn,
Our noontide is thy gracious dawn,
Our rainbow arch thy mercy's sign ;
All, save the clouds of sin, are thine.
 - 4 Lord of all life, below, above,
Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Before thy ever-blazing throne
We ask no lustre of our own.

GENERAL HYMNS.

5. Grant us thy truth to make us free
And kindling hearts that burn for thee,
Till all thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heavenly flame.

435

P. Pusey†, 1799–1855. Based on Christe du Beistand, M. von Löwenstern, 1594–1648.

LORD of our life, and God of our salvation,
Star of our night, and Hope of every nation,
Hear and receive thy Church's supplication,
Lord God Almighty.

- 2 See round thine ark the hungry billows curling ;
See how thy foes their banners are unfurling ;
Lord, while their darts envenomed they are hurl-
ing,

Thou canst preserve us.

- 3 Lord, thou canst help when earthly armour fail-
eth,
Lord, thou canst save when deadly sin assaileth ;
Christ, o'er thy Rock nor death nor hell prevaileth ;
Grant us thy peace, Lord.

- 4 * Peace in our hearts, our evil thoughts assuaging ;
Peace in thy Church, where brothers are engag-
ing ;
Peace, when the world its busy war is waging :
Calm thy foes' raging.

5. Grant us thy help till backward they are driven,
Grant them thy truth, that they may be forgiven ;
Grant peace on earth, and, after we have striven,
Peace in thy heaven.

436

Sir H. W. Baker, 1821–77.

LORD, thy word abideth,
And our footsteps guideth ;
Who its truth believeth
Light and joy receiveth.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 When our foes are near us,
Then thy word doth cheer us,
Word of consolation,
Message of salvation.
- 3 When the storms are o'er us,
And dark clouds before us,
Then its light directeth,
And our way protecteth.*
- 4 Who can tell the pleasure,
Who recount the treasure
By thy word imparted
To the simple-hearted ?
- 5 Word of mercy, giving
Succour to the living ;
Word of life, supplying
Comfort to the dying.
6. O that we discerning
Its most holy learning,
Lord, may love and fear thee,
Evermore be near thee !

437

C. Wesley, 1707-88.

- LOVE Divine, all loves excelling,
Joy of heaven, to earth come down,
Fix in us thy humble dwelling,
All thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesu, thou art all compassion,
Pure unbounded love thou art ;
Visit us with thy salvation,
Enter every trembling heart.
- 2 Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all thy life receive ;
Suddenly return, and never,
Never more thy temples leave.

GENERAL HYMNS.

Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve thee as thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise thee, without ceasing,
Glory in thy perfect love.

3. Finish then thy new creation,
Pure and spotless let us be ;
Let us see thy great salvation,
Perfectly restored in thee,
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise !

438

12th cent. Tr. Y. H.

Amor Patris et Filii.

- LOVE of the Father, love of God the Son,
From whom all came, in whom was all begun ;
Who formest heavenly beauty out of strife,
Creation's whole desire and breath of life.
- 2 Thou the all-holy, thou supreme in might,
Thou dost give peace, thy presence maketh right ;
Thou with thy favour all things dost enfold,
With thine all-kindness free from harm wilt hold.
- 3 Hope of all comfort, splendour of all aid,
That dost not fail nor leave the heart afraid :
To all that cry thou dost all help accord,
The Angels' armour, and the Saints' reward.
- 4 Purest and highest, wisest and most just,
There is no truth save only in thy trust ;
Thou dost the mind from earthly dreams recall,
And bring through Christ to him for whom are all.
5. Eternal glory, all men thee adore,
Who art and shalt be worshipped evermore :
Us whom thou madest, comfort with thy might,
And lead us to enjoy thy heavenly light.

GENERAL HYMNS.

439

Ray Palmer, 1808-87.

- MY faith looks up to thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine!
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away,
O let me from this day.
Be wholly thine.
- 2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
O may my love to thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire.
- 3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my guide;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.
4. When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll,
Blest Saviour, then in love
Fear and distrust remove;
O bear me safe above,
A ransomed soul.

440

Charlotte Elliott, 1789-1871.

- MY God and Father, while I stray,
Far from my home, in life's rough way,
O teach me from my heart to say,
'Thy will be done!'

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 If but my fainting heart be blest
With thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
My God, to thee I leave the rest—
Thy will be done!
- 3 Renew my will from day to day,
Blend it with thine, and take away
All that now makes it hard to say,
‘Thy will be done!’
4. Then when on earth I breathe no more
The prayer oft mixed with tears before,
I’ll sing upon a happier shore—
‘Thy will be done!’

441

F. W. Faber, 1814–68.

- MY God, how wonderful thou art,
Thy majesty how bright,
How beautiful thy mercy-seat,
In depths of burning light!
- 2 How dread are thine eternal years,
O everlasting Lord,
By prostrate spirits day and night
Incessantly adored!
- 3 How wonderful, how beautiful,
The sight of thee must be,
Thine endless wisdom, boundless power,
And awful purity!
- 4 O, how I fear thee, living God,
With deepest, tenderest fears,
And worship thee with trembling hope,
And penitential tears!
- 5 Yet I may love thee too, O Lord,
Almighty as thou art,
For thou hast stooped to ask of me
The love of my poor heart.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 6 No earthly father loves like thee,
No mother, e'er so mild,
Bears and forbears as thou hast done
With me thy sinful child.
7. Father of Jesus, love's reward,
What rapture will it be
Prostrate before thy throne to lie,
And gaze and gaze on thee.

442

Y. H., based on I. Watts.

- MY Lord, my Life, my Love,
To thee, to thee I call ;
I cannot live if thou remove :
Thou art my joy, my all.
- 2 My only sun to cheer
The darkness where I dwell ;
The best and only true delight
My song hath found to tell.
- 3 To thee in very heaven
The Angels owe their bliss ;
To thee the Saints, whom thou hast called
Where perfect pleasure is.
- 4 And how shall man, thy child,
Without thee happy be,
Who hath no comfort nor desire
In all the world but thee ?
5. Return my Love, my Life,
Thy grace hath won my heart ;
If thou forgive, if thou return,
I will no more depart.

443

J. Byron†, 1692-1763.

- MY spirit longs for thee
Within my troubled breast,
Though I unworthy be
Of so divine a Guest.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 Of so divine a Guest
Unworthy though I be,
Yet has my heart no rest
Unless it come from thee.
- 3 Unless it come from thee,
In vain I look around ;
Let all that I can see
No rest is to be found.
4. No rest is to be found
But in thy blessèd love :
O, let my wish be crowned,
And send it from above !

444

Sarah F. Adams, 1805-48.

- NEARER, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee !
E'en though it be a cross
That raiseth me :
Still all my song would be,
'Nearer, my God, to thee,—
Nearer to thee !'
- 2 Though, like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone ;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee !
3. There let the way appear,
Steps unto heaven ;
All that thou send'st to me
In mercy given.
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee !

GENERAL HYMNS.

445

W. Cowper, 1731-1800.

O FOR a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame ;
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb !

2 Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest ;
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

3 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

4. So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame ;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

446

C. Wesley, 1707-88.

O FOR a thousand tongues to sing
My dear Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of his grace !

2 Jesus—the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease ;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace.

3 He breaks the power of cancelled sin,
He sets the prisoner free ;
His Blood can make the foulest clean ;
His Blood availed for me.

GENERAL HYMNS.

4 He speaks ;—and, listening to his voice,
New life the dead receive,
The mournful broken hearts rejoice,
The humble poor believe.

5 Hear him, ye deaf ; his praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ ;
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come ;
And leap, ye lame, for joy !

6. My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim
And spread through all the earth abroad
The honours of thy name.

447

P. Doddridge, 1702-51, and J. Logan.

O GOD of Bethel, by whose hand
Thy people still are fed,
Who through this weary pilgrimage
Hast all our fathers led :

2 Our vows, our prayers, we now present
Before thy throne of grace ;
God of our fathers, be the God
Of their succeeding race.

3 Through each perplexing path of life
Our wandering footsteps guide ;
Give us each day our daily bread,
And raiment fit provide.

4. O spread thy covering wings around,
Till all our wanderings cease,
And at our Father's loved abode
Our souls arrive in peace.

GENERAL HYMNS.

448

G. Thring, 1823-1903.

- O GOD of mercy, God of might,
In love and pity infinite,
Teach us, as ever in thy sight,
To live our life to thee.
- 2 And thou, who cam'st on earth to die
That fallen man might live thereby,
O hear us, for to thee we cry,
In hope, O Lord, to thee.
- 3 Teach us the lesson thou hast taught,
To feel for those thy Blood hath bought,
That every word, and deed, and thought
May work a work for thee.
- 4 For all are brethren, far and wide,
Since thou, O Lord, for all hast died :
Then teach us, whatsoe'er betide,
To love them all in thee.
- 5 In sickness, sorrow, want, or care,
Whate'er it be, 'tis ours to share ;
May we, where help is needed, there
Give help as unto thee.
6. And may thy Holy Spirit move
All those who live to live in love,
Till thou shalt greet in heaven above
All those who give to thee.

449

T. Hughes, 1823-96.

- O GOD of truth, whose living word
Upholds whate'er hath breath,
Look down on thy creation, Lord,
Enslaved by sin and death.
- 2 Set up thy standard, Lord, that we
Who claim a heavenly birth
May march with thee to smite the lies
That vex thy groaning earth.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 Ah! would we join that blest array,
And follow in the might
Of him, the Faithful and the True,
In raiment clean and white!
- 4 We fight for truth! we fight for God!
Poor slaves of lies and sin;
He who would fight for thee on earth
Must first be true within.
- 5 Then, God of truth, for whom we long—
Thou who wilt hear our prayer—
Do thine own battle in our hearts,
And slay the falsehood there.
6. Yea, come! then, tried as in the fire,
From every lie set free,
Thy perfect truth shall dwell in us,
And we shall live in thee.

450 Ps. 90.

I. Watts †, 1674-1748.

- O GOD, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home;
- 2 Under the shadow of thy throne
Thy Saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.
 - 3 Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.
 - 4 A thousand ages in thy sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away ;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.
6. O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home. •

451

F. W. Faber, 1814-63.

- O GOD, thy power is wonderful,
Thy glory passing bright ;
Thy wisdom, with its deep on deep,
A rapture to the sight.
- 2 Thy justice is the gladdest thing
Creation can behold ;
Thy tenderness so meek, it wins
The guilty to be bold.
- 3 Yet more than all, and ever more,
Should we thy creatures bless,
Most worshipful of attributes,
Thine awful holiness.
- 4 There's not a craving in the mind
Thou dost not meet and still ;
There's not a wish the heart can have
Which thou dost not fulfil.
5. O little heart of mine, shall pain
Or sorrow make thee moan,
When all this God is all for thee,
A Father all thine own ?

452

J. M. Neale, 1818-66.

- O HAPPY band of pilgrims,
If onward ye will tread
With Jesus as your fellow
To Jesus as your Head !

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 O happy if ye labour
As Jesus did for men ;
O happy if ye hunger
As Jesus hungered then !
- 3 The Cross that Jesus carried
He carried as your due ;
The Crown that Jesus weareth,
He weareth it for you.
- 4 The faith by which ye see him,
The hope in which ye yearn,
The love that through all troubles
To him alone will turn,
- 5 What are they but forerunners
To lead you to his sight ?
What are they save the effluence
Of uncreated Light ?
- 6 The trials that beset you,
The sorrows ye endure,
The manifold temptations
That death alone can cure,
- 7 What are they but his jewels
Of right celestial worth ?
What are they but the ladder
Set up to heaven on earth ?
8. O happy band of pilgrims,
Look upward to the skies,
Where such a light affliction
Shall win you such a prize !

453

C. Coffin, 1676-1749. Tr. J. Chandler.

O fons amoris, Spiritus.

O HOLY Spirit, Lord of grace,
Eternal source of love,
Inflame, we pray, our inmost hearts
With fire from heaven above.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 As thou dost join with holiest bonds
 The Father and the Son,
 So fill thy saints with mutual love
 And link their hearts in one.
3. To God the Father, God the Son,
 And God the Holy Ghost,
 Eternal glory be from man,
 And from the Angel-host. Amen.

454

Pentecostarion, c. 8th cent. Tr. J. B.

Βασιλεῦ οὐράνιε, Παράκλητε.

- O KING enthroned on high,
 Thou Comforter divine,
 Blest Spirit of all truth, be nigh
 And make us thine.
- 2 Thou art the Source of life,
 Thou art our treasure-store;
 Give us thy peace, and end our strife
 For evermore.
3. Descend, O heavenly Dove,
 Abide with us alway;
 And in the fullness of thy love
 Cleanse us, we pray.

455

H. S. Oswald, 1751-1834. Tr. F. E. Cox †.

Weim in Leidenstagen.

- O LET him whose sorrow
 No relief can find,
 Trust in God, and borrow
 Ease for heart and mind.
- 2 Where the mourner weeping
 Sheds the secret tear,
 God his watch is keeping,
 Though none else be near.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 God will never leave thee,
All thy wants he knows,
Feels the pains that grieve thee,
Sees thy cares and woes.
- 4 Raise thine eyes to heaven
When thy spirits quail,
When, by tempests driven,
Heart and courage fail.
- 5 When in grief we languish,
He will dry the tear,
Who his children's anguish
Soothes with succour near.
- 6 All our woe and sadness
In this world below
Balance not the gladness
We in heaven shall know.
7. Jesu, gracious Saviour,
In the realms above
Crown us with thy favour,
Fill us with thy love.

456

J. G. Whittier, 1807-92.

- O LORD, and Master of us all,
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own thy sway, we hear thy call,
We test our lives by thine.
- 2* Thou judgest us ; thy purity
Doth all our lusts condemn ;
The love that draws us nearer thee
Is hot with wrath to them ;
- 3 Our thoughts lie open to thy sight ;
And naked to thy glance
Our secret sins are in the light
Of thy pure countenance.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 4 Yet weak and blinded though we be
Thou dost our service own ;
We bring our varying gifts to thee,
And thou rejectest none.
- 5 To thee our full humanity,
Its joys and pains belong ;
The wrong of man to man on thee
Inflicts a deeper wrong.
- 6 Who hates, hates thee ; who loves, becomes
Therein to thee allied :
All sweet accords of hearts and homes
In thee are multiplied.
7. Apart from thee all gain is loss,
All labour vainly done ;
The solemn shadow of thy Cross
Is better than the sun.

457

J. Anstice, 1808-36.

O LORD, how happy should we be
If we could cast our care on thee,
If we from self could rest ;
And feel at heart that One above,
In perfect wisdom, perfect love,
Is working for the best.

- 2 Could we but kneel, and cast our load,
E'en while we pray, upon our God,
Then rise with lightened cheer ;
Sure that the Father, who is nigh
To still the famished raven's cry,
Will hear in that we fear.

GENERAL HYMNS.

3. Lord, make these faithless hearts of ours
Such lessons learn from birds and flowers—
Make them from self to cease ;
Leave all things to a Father's will,
And taste, before him lying still,
E'en in affliction, peace.

458

E. H. Plumptre, 1821-91.

O LORD of hosts, all heaven possessing,
Behold us from thy sapphire throne,
In doubt and darkness dimly guessing,
We might thy glory half have known ;
But thou in Christ hast made us thine,
And on us all thy beauties shine.

- 2 Illumine all, disciples, teachers,
Thy law's deep wonders to unfold ;
With reverent hand let wisdom's preachers
Bring forth their treasures, new and old ;
Let oldest, youngest, find in thee
Of truth and love the boundless sea.

- 3 Let faith still light the lamp of science,
And knowledge pass from truth to truth,
And wisdom, in its full reliance,
Renew the primal awe of youth ;
So holier, wiser, may we grow,
As time's swift currents onward flow.

4. Bind thou our life in fullest union
With all thy Saints from sin set free ;
Uphold us in that blest communion
Of all thy Saints on earth with thee ;
Keep thou our souls, or there, or here,
In mightiest love, that casts out fear.

GENERAL HYMNS.

459

15th cent. Tr. B. Webb.

O Amor quam ecstaticus.

O LOVE, how deep, how broad, how high !
How passing thought and fantasy
That God, the Son of God, should take
Our mortal form for mortals' sake.

- 2 He sent no Angel to our race
Of higher or of lower place,
But wore the robe of human frame,
And he himself to this world came.
- 3 For us baptized, for us he bore
His holy fast, and hungered sore ;
For us temptations sharp he knew ;
For us the tempter overthrew.
- 4 For us to wicked men betrayed,
Scourged, mocked, in crown of thorns arrayed ;
For us he bore the Cross's death ;
For us at length gave up his breath.
- 5 For us he rose from death again,
For us he went on high to reign,
For us he sent his Spirit here
To guide, to strengthen, and to cheer.
6. All honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to thee,
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

460

J. Scheffler, 1624-77. Tr. C. Winkworth.

Liebe die du mich zum Bilde.

O LOVE, who formedst me to wear
The image of thy Godhead here ;
Who soughtest me with tender care
Through all my wanderings wild and drear :
O Love, I give myself to thee,
Thine ever, only thine to be.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 O Love, who once in time wast slain,
Pierced through and through with bitter woe ;
O Love, who wrestling thus didst gain
That we eternal joy might know :
- 3 O Love, of whom is truth and light,
The Word and Spirit, life and power,
Whose heart was bared to them that smite,
To shield us in our trial hour :
- 4 O Love, who lovest me for ay,
Who for my soul dost ever plead ;
O Love, who didst my ransom pay,
Whose power sufficeth in my stead :
5. O Love, who once shalt bid me rise
From out this dying life of ours ;
O Love, who once above yon skies
Shalt set me in the fadeless bowers :

461

Harriet Auber, 1773-1862.

O PRAISE our great and gracious Lord
And call upon his name ;
To strains of joy tune every chord,
His mighty acts proclaim ;
Tell how he led his chosen race
To Canaan's promised land ;
Tell how his covenant of grace
Unchanged shall ever stand.

- 2* He gave the shadowing cloud by day,
The moving fire by night ;
To guide his Israel on their way,
He made their darkness light ;
And have not we a sure retreat,
A Saviour ever nigh,
The same clear light to guide our feet,
The Dayspring from on high ?

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 We too have Manna from above,
The Bread that came from heaven ;
To us the same kind hand of love
Hath living waters given.
A Rock we have, from whence the spring
In rich abundance flows ;
That Rock is Christ, our Priest, our King,
Who life and health bestows.
4. O let us prize this blessed food,
And trust our heavenly Guide ;
So shall we find death's fearful flood
Serene as Jordan's tide,
And safely reach that happy shore,
The land of peace and rest,
Where Angels worship and adore,
In God's own presence blest.

462

L. Tuttielt, 1825-99.

- O QUICKLY come, dread Judge of all ;
For, awful though thine advent be,
All shadows from the truth will fall,
And falsehood die, in sight of thee :
O quickly come ; for doubt and fear
Like clouds dissolve when thou art near.
- 2 O quickly come, great King of all ;
Reign all around us, and within ;
Let sin no more our souls enthrall,
Let pain and sorrow die with sin :
O quickly come ; for thou alone
Canst make thy scattered people one.
- 3 O quickly come, true Life of all,
For death is mighty all around ;
On every home his shadows fall,
On every heart his mark is found :
O quickly come ; for grief and pain
Can never cloud thy glorious reign.

GENERAL HYMNS.

4. O quickly come, sure Light of all,
 For gloomy night broods o'er our way,
 And weakly souls begin to fall
 With weary watching for the day :
 O quickly come ; for round thy throne
 No eye is blind, no night is known.

463

F. L. Hosmer.

O THOU 'in all thy might so far,
 In all thy love so near,
 Beyond the range of sun and star,
 And yet beside us here :

- 2 What heart can comprehend thy name,
 Or searching find thee out,
 Who art within, a quickening flame,
 A presence round about ?
- 3 Yet though I know thee but in part,
 I ask not, Lord, for more ;
 Enough for me to know thou art,
 To love thee, and adore.
4. And dearer than all things I know
 Is childlike faith to me,
 That makes the darkest way I go
 An open path to thee.

464

F. T. Palgrave, 1824-97.

O THOU not made with hands,
 Not throned above the skies,
 Nor walled with shining walls,
 Nor framed with stones of price,
 More bright than gold or gem,
 God's own Jerusalem !

- 2 Where'er the gentle heart
 Finds courage from above ;
 Where'er the heart forsook
 Warms with the breath of love ;
 Where faith bids fear depart,
 City of God, thou art.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 Thou art where'er the proud
In humbleness melts down ;
Where self itself yields up ;
Where Martyrs win their crown ;
Where faithful souls possess
Themselves in perfect peace ;
- 4 Where in life's common ways
With cheerful feet we go ;
Where in his steps we tread,
Who trod the way of woe ;
Where he is in the heart,
City of God, thou art.
5. Not throned above the skies,
Nor golden-walled afar,
But where Christ's two or three
In his name gathered are,
Be in the midst of them,
God's own Jerusalem.

465

P. Abelard, 1079-1142. Tr. J. M. Neale.

O quanta qualia sunt illa Sabbata.

- O WHAT their joy and their glory must be,
Those endless Sabbaths the blessed ones see !
Crown for the valiant ; to weary ones rest ;
God shall be all, and in all ever blest.
- 2 What are the Monarch, his court, and his throne ?
What are the peace and the joy that they own ?
Tell us, ye blest ones, that in it have share,
If what ye feel ye can fully declare.
- 3 Truly Jerusalem name we that shore,
'Vision of peace,' that brings joy evermore !
Wish and fulfilment can severed be ne'er,
Nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer.
- 4 We, where no trouble distraction can bring,
Safely the anthems of Sion shall sing ;

GENERAL HYMNS.

- While for thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise
Thy blessed people shall evermore raise.
- 5 There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is o'er,
Those Sabbath-keepers have one and no more ;
One and unending is that triumph-song
Which to the Angels and us shall belong.
- 6 Now in the meanwhile, with hearts raised on high,
We for that country must yearn and must sigh,
Seeking Jerusalem, dear native land,
Through our long exile on Babylon's strand.
7. Low before him with our praises we fall,
Of whom, and in whom, and through whom are all ;
Of whom, the Father ; and through whom, the Son ;
In whom, the Spirit, with these ever One. Amen.

466

Ps. 104.

Sir R. Grant†, 1785–1838.

- O WORSHIP the King
All glorious above ;
O gratefully sing
His power and his love :
Our Shield and Defender,
The Ancient of days,
Pavilioned in splendour,
And girded with praise.
- 2 O tell of his might,
O sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light,
Whose canopy space.
His chariots of wrath
The deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is his path
On the wings of the storm.
- 3 This earth, with its store
Of wonders untold,
Almighty, thy power
Hath founded of old ;

GENERAL HYMNS.

Hath stablished it fast
By a changeless decree,
And round it hath cast,
Like a mantle, the sea.

4* Thy bountiful care
What tongue can recite ?
It breathes in the air,
It shines in the light ;
It streams from the hills,
It descends to the plain,
And sweetly distils
In the dew and the rain.

5* Frail children of dust,
And feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust,
Nor find thee to fail ;
Thy mercies how tender !
How firm to the end !
Our Maker, Defender,
Redeemer, and Friend.

6. O measureless Might,
Ineffable Love,
While Angels delight
To hymn thee above,
Thy humbler creation,
Though feeble their lays,
With true adoration
Shall sing to thy praise.

467 H. Kirke White (1785-1806), Frances S. Fuller-Mail-land and others (1827).

OFT in danger, oft in woe,
Onward, Christians, onward go ;
Bear the toil, maintain the strife,
Strengthened with the Bread of Life.

2 Onward, Christians, onward go,
Join the war, and face the foe ;
Will ye flee in danger's hour ?
Know ye not your Captain's power ?

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 Let your drooping hearts be glad ;
March in heavenly armour clad ;
Fight, nor think the battle long,
Victory soon shall tune your song.
- 4 Let not sorrow dim your eye,
Soon shall every tear be dry ;
Let not fears your course impede,
Great your strength, if great your need.
5. Onward then in battle move ;
More than conquerors ye shall prove ;
Though opposed by many a foe,
Christian soldiers, onward go.

468

Bishop E. H. Bickersteth, 1825-1908.

- PEACE, perfect peace, in this dark world of sin?
The Blood of Jesus whispers peace within.
- 2 Peace, perfect peace, by thronging duties pressed?
To do the will of Jesus, this is rest.
 - 3 Peace, perfect peace, with sorrows surging round?
On Jesus' bosom nought but calm is found.
 - 4 Peace, perfect peace, with loved ones far away?
In Jesus' keeping we are safe and they.
 - 5 Peace, perfect peace, our future all unknown?
Jesus we know, and he is on the throne.
 - 6 Peace, perfect peace, death shadowing us and ours?
Jesus has vanquished death and all its powers.
 7. It is enough : earth's struggles soon shall cease,
And Jesus call us to heaven's perfect peace.

469

Ps. 84.

H. F. Lyte, 1793-1847.

PLEASANT are thy courts above
In the land of light and love ;
Pleasant are thy courts below
In this land of sin and woe :

GENERAL HYMNS.

- O, my spirit longs and fairs
For the converse of thy Saints,
For the brightness of thy face,
For thy fullness, God of grace.
- 2 Happy birds that sing and fly
Round thy altars, O Most High ;
Happier souls that find a rest
In a heavenly Father's breast ;
Like the wandering dove that found
No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair,
And enjoy it ever there.
- 3 Happy souls, their praises flow
Even in this vale of woe ;
Waters in the desert rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies ;
On they go from strength to strength,
Till they reach thy throne at length,
At thy feet adoring fall,
Who hast led them safe through all.
4. Lord, be mine this prize to win,
Guide me through a world of sin,
Keep me by thy saving grace,
Give me at thy side a place ;
Sun and shield alike thou art,
Guide and guard my erring heart.
Grace and glory flow from thee ;
Shower, O shower them, Lord, on me.

470 Ps. 103.

H. F. Lyte, 1793-1847.

PRAISE, my soul, the King of heaven ;
To his feet thy tribute bring.
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who like me his praise should sing ?
Praise him ! Praise him !
Praise the everlasting King.

GENERAL HYMNS.

2 Praise him for his grace and favour
To our fathers in distress ;
Praise him still the same for ever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless.
Praise him ! Praise him !
Glorious in his faithfulness.

3 Father-like, he tends and spares us ;
Well our feeble frame he knows ;
In his hands he gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes.
Praise him ! Praise him !
Widely as his mercy flows.

4. Angels help us to adore him ;
Ye behold him face to face ;
Sun and moon, bow down before him ;
Dwellers all in time and space.
Praise him ! Praise him !
Praise with us the God of grace.

471

J. H. Newman, 1801-90.

PRAISE to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise,
In all his words most wonderful,
Most sure in all his ways.

2 O loving wisdom of our God !
When all was sin and shame,
A second Adam to the fight
And to the rescue came.

3 O wisest love ! that flesh and blood,
Which did in Adam fail,
Should strive afresh against their foe,
Should strive and should prevail ;

GENERAL 'HYMNS.

- 4 And that a higher gift than grace
Should flesh and blood refine,
God's presence and his very Self,
And Essence all-divine.
- 5 O generous love! that he who smote
In Man for man the foe,
The double agony in Man
For man should undergo ;
- 6 And in the garden secretly,
And on the Cross on high,
Should teach his brethren, and inspire
To suffer and to die.
7. Praise to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise,
In all his words most wonderful,
Most sure in all his ways.

472 Ps. 122. Scottish Psalter (1650).

- PRAY that Jerusalem may have
Peace and felicity :
Let them that love thee and thy peace
Have still prosperity.
- 2 Therefore I wish that peace may still Within thy walls remain,
And ever may thy palaces
Prosperity retain.
3. Now, for my friends and brethren's sake,
Peace be in thee, I'll say ;
And for the house of God our Lord
I'll seek thy good alway.

473 Mrs. J. C. Simpson, 1811-86, and others.

- PRAY when the morn is breaking,
Pray when the noon is bright,
Pray with the eve's declining,
Pray in the hush of night :

GENERAL HYMNS.

With mind made pure of passion,
All meaner thoughts away,
Low in thy chamber kneeling
Do thou in secret pray.

- 2 Remember all who love thee,
All who are loved by thee,
And next for those that hate thee
Pray thou, if such there be :
Last for thyself in meekness
A blessing humbly claim,
And link with each petition
Thy great Redeemer's name.

3. But if 'tis e'er denied thee
In solitude to pray,
Should holy thoughts come o'er thee
Upon life's crowded way,
E'en then the silent breathing
That lifts thy soul above
Shall reach the thronè Presence
Of Mercy, Truth and Love.

474

J. Montgomery, 1771-1854.

PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire,
Uttered or unexpressed ;
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.

- 2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye
When none but God is near.

- 3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try ;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 4 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
 Returning from his ways,
 While Angels in their songs rejoice,
 And cry, 'Behold, he prays!'
- 5 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
 The Christian's native air,
 His watchword at the gates of death :
 He enters heaven with prayer.
- 6 The saints in prayer appear as one
 In word, and deed, and mind,
 While with the Father and the Son
 Sweet fellowship they find.
7. O thou by whom we come to God,
 The Life, the Truth, the Way,
 The path of prayer thyself hast trod :
 Lord, teach us how to pray.

475

Y. H.

- REJOICE, O land, in God thy might,
 His will obey, him serve aright ;
 For thee the Saints uplift their voice :
 Fear not, O land, in God rejoice.
- 2 Glad shalt thou be, with blessing crowned,
 With joy and peace thou shalt abound ;
 Yea, love with thee shall make his home
 Until thou see God's kingdom come.
3. He shall forgive thy sins untold :
 Remember thou his love of old ;
 Walk in his way, his word adore,
 And keep his truth for evermore.

476

C. Wesley, 1707-88.

- REJOICE, the Lord is King,
 Your Lord and King adore ;
 Mortals, give thanks and sing,
 And triumph evermore :
*Lift up your heart, lift up your voice ;
 Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.*

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 Jesus, the Saviour, reigns,
The God of truth and love ;
When he had purged our stains,
He took his seat above :
- 3 His kingdom cannot fail ;
He rules o'er earth and heaven ;
The keys of death and hell
Are to our Jesus given :
4. He sits at God's right hand
Till all his foes submit,
And bow to his command,
And fall beneath his feet :

477

A. M. Toplady†, 1740-78.

- ROCK of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee ;
Let the Water and the Blood,
From thy riven side which flowed,
Be of sin the double cure,
Cleanse me from its guilt and power.
- 2 Not the labours of my hands
Can fulfil thy law's demands ;
Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears for ever flow,
All for sin could not atone ;
Thou must save, and thou alone.
 - 3 Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to thy Cross I cling ;
Naked, come to thee for dress ;
Helpless, look to thee for grace ;
Foul, I to the Fountain fly ;
Wash me, Saviour, or I die.
 4. While I draw this fleeting breath,
When mine eyes are closed in death,
When I soar through tracts unknown,
See thee on thy judgement throne ;
Rock of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee.

GENERAL HYMNS.

478

J. J. Schütz, 1640-90. Tr. F. E. Cox.

Sei Lob und Ehr' dem höchsten Gut.

SING praise to God who reigns above,
The God of all creation,
The God of power, the God of love,
The God of our salvation ;
With healing balm my soul he fills,
And every faithless murmur stills :
To God all praise and glory !

2 The Angel-host, O King of kings,
Thy praise for ever telling,
In earth and sky all living things
Beneath thy shadow dwelling,
Adore the wisdom which could span
And power which formed creation's plan :

3 What God's almighty power hath made
His gracious mercy keepeth ;
By morning glow or evening shade
His watchful eye ne'er sleepeth :
Within the kingdom of his might
Lo ! all is just, and all is right :

4 * Then all my gladsome way along
I sing aloud thy praises,
That men may hear the grateful song
My voice unwearied raises :
Be joyful in the Lord, my heart !
Both soul and body bear your part !

5. O ye who name Christ's holy name,
Give God all praise and glory :
All ye who own his power, proclaim
Aloud the wondrous story !
Cast each false idol from his throne,
The Lord is God, and he alone :

GENERAL HYMNS.

479

C. Wesley, 1707-98.

- SOLDIERS of Christ, arise,
 And put your armour on ;
 Strong in the strength which God supplies,
 Through his eternal Son ;
- 2 Strong in the Lord of Hosts,
 And in his mighty power ;
 Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
 Is more than conqueror.
- 3 Stand then in his great might,
 With all his strength endued ;
 And take, to arm you for the fight,
 The panoply of God.
- 4 From strength to strength go on,
 Wrestle, and fight, and pray ;
 Tread all the powers of darkness down,
 And win the well-fought day.
5. That having all things done,
 And all your conflicts past,
 Ye may o'ercome, through Christ alone,
 And stand entire at last.

480

18th cent. Tr. J. H. Clark.

Puguate, Christi milites.

- SOLDIERS, who are Christ's below,
 Strong in faith resist the foe ;
 Boundless is the pledged reward
 Unto them who serve the Lord.
- 2 'Tis no palm of fading leaves
 That the conqueror's hand receives ;
 Joys are his, serene and pure,
 Light that ever shall endure.
- 3 For the souls that overcome
 Waits the beauteous heavenly home,
 Where the blessed evermore
 Tread on high the starry floor.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 4 Passing soon and little worth
Are the things that tempt on earth ;
Heavenward lift thy soul's regard ;
God himself is thy reward ;
5. Father who the crown dost give,
Saviour by whose death we live,
Spirit who our hearts dost raise,
Three in One, thy name we praise. Amen.

481

J. Montgomery †, 1771-1854.

- SONGS of praise the Angels sang,
Heaven with Alleluys rang,
When creation was begun,
When God spake and it was done.
- 2 Songs of praise awoke the morn
When the Prince of peace was born ;
Songs of praise arose when he
Captive led captivity.
 - 3 Heaven and earth must pass away,
Songs of praise shall crown that day ;
God will make new heavens and earth,
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.
 - 4 And will man alone be dumb
Till that glorious kingdom come ?
No, the Church delights to raise
Psalms and hymns and songs of praise.
 - 5 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice ;
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.
 6. Hymns of glory, songs of praise,
Father, unto thee we raise ;
Jesu, glory unto thee,
Ever with the Spirit be. Amen.

GENERAL HYMNS.

482

W. H. Burleigh, 1812-71.

STILL will we trust, though earth seem dark and dreary,

And the heart faint beneath his chastening rod,
Though rough and steep our pathway, worn and weary,

Still will we trust in God !

2 Our eyes see dimly till by faith anointed,
And our blind choosing brings us grief and pain ;
Through him alone, who hath our way appointed,
We find our peace again.

3 Choose for us, God, nor let our weak preferring
Cheat our poor souls of good thou hast designed :

Choose for us, God ; thy wisdom is unerring,
And we are fools and blind.

4* So from our sky the night shall furl her shadows,
And day pour gladness through his golden gates,
Our rough path lead to flower-enamelled meadows,

Where joy our coming waits.

5. Let us press on : in patient self-denial,
Accept the hardship, shrink not from the loss ;
Our guerdon lies beyond the hour of trial,
Our crown beyond the cross.

483

Alfred, Lord Tennyson, 1809-92.

STRONG Son of God, immortal Love,
Whom we, that have not seen thy face,
By faith, and faith alone, embrace,
Believing where we cannot prove :

2 Thou wilt not leave us in the dust ;
Thou madest man, he knows not why ;
He thinks he was not made to die :
And thou hast made him, thou art just.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 Thou seemest human and divine,
The highest, holiest manhood thou :
Our wills are ours, we know not how ;
Our wills are ours, to make them thine.
4. Our little systems have their day ;
They have their day and cease to be :
They are but broken lights of thee,
And thou, O Lord, art more than they.

484

C. W. Everest†, 1814-77.

- TAKE up thy cross, the Saviour said,
If thou wouldst my disciple be ;
Deny thyself, the world forsake,
And humbly follow after me.
- 2 Take up thy cross ; let not its weight
Fill thy weak spirit with alarm ;
His strength shall bear thy spirit up,
And brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.
- 3 Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame,
Nor let thy foolish pride rebel ;
Thy Lord for thee the Cross endured,
To save thy soul from death and hell.
- 4 Take up thy cross then in his strength,
And calmly every danger brave ;
'Twill guide thee to a better home,
And lead to victory o'er the grave.
- 5 Take up thy cross, and follow Christ,
Nor think till death to lay it down ;
For only he who bears the cross
May hope to wear the glorious crown.
6. To thee, great Lord, the One in Three,
All praise for evermore ascend ;
O grant us in our Home to see
The heavenly life that knows no end.

GENERAL HYMNS.

485

G. Herbert, 1593-1632.

- TEACH me, my God and King,
 In all things thee to see ;
 And what I do in anything
 To do it as for thee !
- 2 A man that looks on glass,
 On it may stay his eye ;
 Or if he pleaseth, through it pass,
 And then the heaven espy.
- 3 All may of thee partake ;
 Nothing can be so mean,
 Which with this tincture, 'for thy sake',
 Will not grow bright and clean.
- 4 A servant with this clause
 Makes drudgery divine ;
 Who sweeps a room, as for thy laws,
 Makes that and the action fine.
5. This is the famous stone
 That turneth all to gold ;
 For that which God doth touch and own
 Cannot for less be told.

486

H. Alford, 1810-71.

- TEN thousand times ten thousand,
 In sparkling raiment bright,
 The armies of the ransomed Saints
 Throng up the steeps of light ;
 'Tis finished ! all is finished,
 Their fight with death and sin ;
 Fling open wide the golden gates,
 And let the victors in.
- 2 What rush of Alleluyas
 Fills all the earth and sky !
 What ringing of a thousand harps
 Bespeaks the triumph nigh !

GENERAL HYMNS.

- O day, for which creation
And all its tribes were made !
O joy, for all its former woes
A thousandfold repaid !
- 3 O, then what raptured greetings
On Canaan's happy shore,
What knitting severed friendships up,
Where partings are no more !
Then eyes with joy shall sparkle
That brimmed with tears of late ;
Orphans no longer fatherless,
Nor widows desolate.
4. Bring near thy great salvation,
Thou Lamb for sinners slain,
Fill up the roll of thine elect,
Then take thy power and reign :
Appear, Desire of nations ;
Thine exiles long for home ;
Show in the heaven thy promised sign ;
Thou Prince and Saviour, come.

487 Sir Walter Scott, 1771-1832. Based on Dies irae.

- THAT day of wrath, that dreadful day,
When heaven and earth shall pass away,
What power shall be the sinner's stay ?
How shall he meet that dreadful day ?
- 2 When, shrivelling like a parchèd scroll,
The flaming heavens together roll ;
When louder yet, and yet more dread,
Swells the high trump that wakes the dead :
3. O, on that day, that wrathful day,
When man to judgement wakes from clay,
Be thou the trembling sinner's stay,
Though heaven and earth shall pass away !

GENERAL HYMNS.

488

L. B. C. L. Muirhead.

THE Church of God a kingdom is,
Where Christ in power doth reign,
Where spirits yearn till seen in bliss
Their Lord shall come again.

2 Glad companies of saints possess
This Church below, above ;
And God's perpetual calm doth bless
Their paradise of love.

3 An altar stands within the shrine
Whereon, once sacrificed,
Is set, immaculate, divine,
The Lamb of God, the Christ.

4 There rich and poor, from countless lands,
Praise Christ on mystic Rood ;
There nations reach forth holy hands
To take God's holy Food.

5 There pure life-giving streams o'erflow
The sower's garden-ground ;
And faith and hope fair blossoms show,
And fruits of love abound.

6. O King, O Christ, this endless grace
To us and all men bring,
To see the vision of thy face
In joy, O Christ, our King.

489

S. J. Stone, 1839-1901.

THE Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ, her Lord ;
She is his new creation
By water and the Word :
From heaven he came and sought her
To be his holy Bride,
With his own Blood he bought her,
And for her life he died.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 Elect from every nation,
 Yet one o'er all the earth,
 Her charter of salvation
 One Lord, one Faith, one Birth ;
 One holy name she blesses,
 Partakes one holy Food,
 And to one hope she presses
 With every grace endued.
- 3 Though with a scornful wonder
 Men see her sore opprest,
 By schisms rent asunder,
 By heresies distrest,
 Yet Saints their watch are keeping,
 Their cry goes up, 'How long ?'
 And soon the night of weeping
 Shall be the morn of song.
- 4 'Mid toil, and tribulation,
 And tumult of her war,
 She waits the consummation
 Of peace for evermore ;
 Till with the vision glorious
 Her longing eyes are blest,
 And the great Church victorious
 Shall be the Church at rest.
5. Yet she on earth hath union
 With God the Three in One,
 And mystic sweet communion
 With those whose rest is won :
 O happy ones and holy !
 Lord, give us grace that we
 Like them, the meek and lowly,
 On high may dwell with thee.

490

Ps. 23.

Sir H. W. Baker, 1821-77.

THE King of love my Shepherd is,
 Whose goodness faileth never ;
 I nothing lack if I am his
 And he is mine for ever.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 Where streams of living water flow
 My ransomed soul he leadeth,
 And where the verdant pastures grow
 With food celestial feedeth.
- 3 Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
 But yet in love he sought me,
 And on his shoulder gently laid,
 And home, rejoicing, brought me.
- 4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill
 With thee, dear Lord, beside me ;
 Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
 Thy Cross before to guide me.
- 5 Thou spread'st a table in my sight ;
 Thy unction grace bestoweth :
 And O what transport of delight
 From thy pure chalice floweth !
6. And so through all the length of days
 Thy goodness faileth never ;
 Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise
 Within thy house for ever.

491

Ps. 23.

J. Addison, 1672-1719.

- THE Lord my pasture shall prepare,
 And feed me with a shepherd's care ;
 His presence shall my wants supply,
 And guard me with a watchful eye ;
 My noonday walks he shall attend,
 And all my midnight hours defend.
- 2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
 Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
 To fertile vales and dewy meads
 My weary wandering steps he leads,
 Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
 Amid the verdant landscape flow.
 - 3 Though in a bare and rugged way
 Through devious lonely wilds I stray,

GENERAL HYMNS.

Thy bounty shall my pains beguile ;
The barren wilderness shall smile
With sudden greens and herbage crowned,
And streams shall murmur all around.

4. Though in the paths of death I tread,
With gloomy horrors overspread,
My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
For thou, O Lord, art with me still :
Thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
And guide me through the dreadful shade.

492 Ps. 85-6. J. Milton (cento), 1608-74.

THE Lord will come and not be slow,
His footsteps cannot err ;
Before him righteousness shall go,
His royal harbinger.

- 2 Truth from the earth, like to a flower,
Shall bud and blossom then ;
And justice, from her heavenly bower,
Look down on mortal men.
- 3 Rise, God, judge thou the earth in might,
This wicked earth redress ;
For thou art he who shalt by right
The nations all possess.
- 4 The nations all whom thou hast made
Shall come, and all shall frame
To bow them low before thee, Lord,
And glorify thy name.
5. For great thou art, and wonders great
By thy strong hand are done :
Thou in thy everlasting seat
Remainest God alone.

493 Mrs. C. F. Alexander, 1823-95.

THE roseate hues of early dawn,
The brightness of the day,
The crimson of the sunset sky,
How fast they fade away !

GENERAL HYMNS.

- O for the pearly gates of heaven,
 O for the golden floor ;
 O for the Sun of righteousness
 That setteth nevermore !
 2 The highest hopes we cherish here,
 How fast they tire and faint ;
 How many a spot defiles the robe
 That wraps an earthly saint !
 O for a heart that never sins,
 O for a soul washed white ;
 O for a voice to praise our King,
 Nor weary day or night !
 3. Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope,
 And grace to lead us higher ;
 But there are perfectness and peace,
 Beyond our best desire.
 O by thy love and anguish, Lord,
 O by thy life laid down,
 O that we fall not from thy grace,
 Nor cast away our crown !

494 The Alleluyatic Sequence. B. Notker, 840-912.
Tr. J. M. Neale.

Cantemus cuncti melodum.

THE strain upraise of joy and praise,
Alleluya!

To the glory of their King
Shall the ransomed people sing Alleluya!

And the choirs that dwell on high
Shall re-echo through the sky, Alleluya!

- 2 They, through the fields of Paradise that roam,
The blessed ones, repeat through that bright home
Alleluya!
The planets glittering on their heavenly way,
The shining constellations, join and say
Alleluya!

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 Ye clouds that onward sweep,
 Ye winds on pinions light,
 Ye thunders, echoing loud and deep,
 Ye lightnings, wildly bright,
 In sweet consent unite your Alleluya !
- 4 Ye floods and ocean billows,
 Ye storms and winter snow,
 Ye days of cloudless beauty,
 Hoar frost and summer glow,
 Ye groves that wave in spring,
 And glorious forests, sing Alleluya !
- 5 First let the birds, with painted plumage gay,
 Exalt their great Creator's praise, and say Alleluya !
 Then let the beasts of earth, with varying strain,
 Join in creation's hymn, and cry again Alleluya !
- 6 Here let the mountains thunder forth sonorous Alleluya !
 There let the valleys sing in gentler chorus Alleluya !
 Thou jubilant abyss of ocean, cry Alleluya !
 Ye tracts of earth and continents, reply Alleluya !
- 7 To God, who all creation made,
 The frequent hymn be duly paid, Alleluya !
 This is the strain, the eternal strain, the Lord of all things loves, Alleluya !
 This is the song, the heavenly song, that Christ himself approves, Alleluya !
 Wherefore we sing, both heart and voice awaking,
 Alleluya !
 And children's voices echo, answer making,
 Alleluya !
8. Now from all men be outpoured
 Alleluya to the Lord ;

GENERAL HYMNS.

With Alleluya evermore
The Son and Spirit we adore.
Praise be done to the Three in One.
Alleluya! Alleluya! Alleluya!

(Nos. 371, 392, 412 are from the same source)
Bernard of Cluny, 12th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Hera novissima.

THE world is very evil ;
The times are waxing late ;
Be sober and keep vigil,
The Judge is at the gate :
The Judge that comes in mercy,
The Judge that comes with might,
To terminate the evil,
To diadem the right.

- 2 Arise, arise, good Christian,
Let right to wrong succeed ;
Let penitential sorrow
To heavenly gladness lead.
Then glory yet unheard of
Shall shed abroad its ray,
Resolving all enigmas,
An endless Sabbath-day.
- 3 The home of fadeless splendour,
Of flowers that fear no thorn,
Where they shall dwell as children
Who here as exiles mourn ;
The peace of all the faithful,
The calm of all the blest,
Inviolable, unvaried,
Divinest, sweetest, best ;
- 4 The peace that is for heaven,
And shall be too for earth ;
The palace that re-echoes
With festal song and mirth ;

GENERAL HYMNS.

The garden breathing spices,
The paradise on high ;
Grace beautified to glory,
Unceasing minstrelsy.

5 O happy, holy portion,
Refection for the blest ;
True vision of true beauty,
Sweet cure of all distress !
Strive, man, to win that glory ;
Toil, man, to gain that light ;
Send hope before to grasp it,
Till hope be lost in sight ;

6. And through the sacred lilies
And flowers on every side,
The happy dear-bought people
Go wandering far and wide ;
Their one and only anthem,
The fullness of his love,
Who gives, instead of torment,
Eternal joys above.

496

Sir H. W. Baker, 1821-77.

THERE is a blessèd home
Beyond this land of woe,
Where trials never come,
Nor tears of sorrow flow ;
Where faith is lost in sight,
And patient hope is crowned,
And everlasting light
Its glory throws around.

2 There is a land of peace,
Good Angels know it well,
Glad songs that never cease
Within its portals swell ;

GENERAL HYMNS.

Around its glorious throne
Ten thousand Saints adore
Christ, with the Father One
And Spirit, evermore.

3 O joy all joys beyond,
To see the Lamb who died,
And count each sacred wound
In hands, and feet, and side ;
To give to him the praise
Of every triumph won,
And sing through endless days
The great things he hath done.

4. Look up, ye saints of God,
Nor fear to tread below
The path your Saviour trod
Of daily toil and woe ;
Wait but a little while
In uncomplaining love,
His own most gracious smile
Shall welcome you above.

497

J. Keble, 1792-1866.

THERE is a book who runs may read,
Which heavenly truth imparts,
And all the lore its scholars need,
Pure eyes and Christian hearts.

2 The works of God above, below,
Within us and around,
Are pages in that book, to show
How God himself is found.

3 The glorious sky, embracing all,
Is like the Maker's love,
Wherewith encompassed, great and small
In peace and order move.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 4 The moon above, the Church below,
A wondrous race they run ;
But all their radiance, all their glow,
Each borrows of its sun.
- 5 * The Saviour lends the light and heat
That crowns his holy hill ;
The Saints, like stars, around his seat
Perform their courses still.
- 6 * The Saints above are stars in heaven—
What are the saints on earth ?
Like trees they stand whom God has given,
Our Eden's happy birth.
- 7 * Faith is their fixed unswerving root,
Hope their unfading flower,
Fair deeds of charity their fruit,
The glory of their bower.
- 8 The dew of heaven is like thy grace,
It steals in silence down ;
But where it lights, the favoured place
By richest fruits is known.
- 9 * One name, above all glorious names,
With its ten thousand tongues
The everlasting sea proclaims,
Echoing angelic songs.
- 10 The raging fire, the roaring wind,
Thy boundless power display ;
But in the gentler breeze we find
Thy Spirit's viewless way.
- 11 Two worlds are ours : 'tis only sin
Forbids us to descry
The mystic heaven and earth within,
Plain as the sea and sky.
12. Thou, who hast given me eyes to see
And love this sight so fair,
Give me a heart to find out thee,
And read thee everywhere.

GENERAL HYMNS.

498

I. Watts, 1674-1748.

- THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where Saints immortal reign ;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
- 2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers ;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.
- 3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green ;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.
- 4 But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea,
And linger shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.
- 5 O could we make our doubts remove,
These gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
With unclouded eyes !
6. Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore !

499

F. W. Faber, 1814-63.

- THERE'S a wideness in God's mercy,
Like the wideness of the sea ;
There's a kindness in his justice,
Which is more than liberty.
- 2 There is no place where earth's sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven ;
There is no place where earth's failings
Have such kindly judgement given.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 There is grace enough for thousands
Of new worlds as great as this ;
There is room for fresh creations
In that upper home of bliss.
- 4 For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of man's mind ;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
- 5 But we make his love too narrow
By false limits of our own ;
And we magnify his strictness
With a zeal he will not own.
- 6 There is plentiful redemption
In the Blood that has been shed,
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.
- 7 'Tis not all we owe to Jesus ;
It is something more than all ;
Greater good because of evil,
Larger mercy through the fall.
8. If our love were but more simple,
We should take him at his word ;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

500

J. M. Neale, 1818-66, and others.

THEY whose course on earth is o'er,
Think they of their brethren more ?
They before the throne who bow,
Feel they for their brethren now ?

- 2 We, by enemies distrest—
They in Paradise at rest ;
We the captives—they the freed—
We and they are one indeed ;

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 One in all we seek or shun,
One—because our Lord is one ;
One in home and one in love—
We below, and they above.
- 4 Those whom space on earth divides,
Mountains, rivers, ocean-tides ;
Have they with each other part ?
Have they fellowship in heart ?
- 5 Each to each may be unknown,
Wide apart their lots be thrown ;
Differing tongues their lips may speak,
One be strong, and one be weak ;
- 6 Yet in Sacrament and prayer
Each with other hath a share ;
Hath a share in tear and sigh,
Watch, and fast and litany.
- 7 Saints departed even thus
Hold communion still with us ;
Still with us, beyond the veil,
Praising, pleading without fail.
8. So with them our hearts we raise,
Share their work and join their praise,
Rendering worship, thanks, and love
To the Trinity above.

501

G. Rorison, 1821-69.

- THREE in One, and One in Three,
Ruler of the earth and sea,
Hear us, while we lift to thee
Holy chant and psalm.
- 2 Light of lights ! with morning-shine
Lift on us thy Light Divine ;
And let charity benign
Breathe on us her balm.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 Light of lights! when falls the even,
Let it sink on sin forgiven;
Fold us in the peace of heaven;
Shed a vesper calm.
4. Three in One, and One in Three,
Darkling here we worship thee;
With the Saints hereafter we Hope to bear the palm.

502 Ps. 34. N. Tate and N. Brady, New Version (1696).

THROUGH all the changing scenes of life,
In trouble and in joy,
The praises of my God shall still
My heart and tongue employ.

- 2 O magnify the Lord with me,
With me exalt his name;
When in distress to him I called,
He to my rescue came.
- 3 The hosts of God encamped around
The dwellings of the just;
Deliverance he affords to all
Who on his succour trust.
- 4 O make but trial of his love,
Experience will decide
How blest they are, and only they,
Who in his truth confide.
- 5 Fear him, ye saints, and you will then
Have nothing else to fear;
Make you his service your delight,
Your wants shall be his care.
6. To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory, as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore. Amen.

GENERAL HYMNS.

503

B. S. Ingemann, 1789-1862. Tr. S. B.-G.

Igjennem Nat og Trængsel

THROUGH the night of doubt and sorrow
Onward goes the pilgrim band,
Singing songs of expectation,
Marching to the Promised Land.

- 2 Clear before us through the darkness
Gleams and burns the guiding light ;
Brother clasps the hand of brother,
Stepping fearless through the night.
- 3 One the light of God's own presence
O'er his ransomed people shed,
Chasing far the gloom and terror,
Brightening all the path we tread ;
- 4 One the object of our journey,
One the faith which never tires,
One the earnest looking forward,
One the hope our God inspires :
- 5 One the strain that lips of thousands
Lift as from the heart of one ;
One the conflict, one the peril,
One the march in God begun ;
- 6 One the gladness of rejoicing
On the far eternal shore,
Where the One Almighty Father
Reigns in love for evermore.
- 7 Onward, therefore, pilgrim brothers,
Onward with the Cross our aid ;
Bear its shame, and fight its battle,
Till we rest beneath its shade.
8. Soon shall come the great awaking,
Soon the rending of the tomb ;
Then the scattering of all shadows,
And the end of toil and gloom.

GENERAL HYMNS.

504

F. L. Hosmer.

- THY kingdom come! on bended knee
The passing ages pray;
And faithful souls have yearned to see
On earth that kingdom's day.
- 2 But the slow watches of the night
Not less to God belong;
And for the everlasting right
The silent stars are strong.
- 3 And lo, already on the hills
The flags of dawn appear;
Gird up your loins, ye prophet souls,
Proclaim the day is near:
- 4 The day in whose clear-shining light
All wrong shall stand revealed,
When justice shall be throned in might,
And every hurt be healed;
5. When knowledge, hand in hand with peace,
Shall walk the earth abroad;—
The day of perfect righteousness,
The promised day of God.

505

H. Bonar, 1808-89.

- THY way, not mine, O Lord,
However dark it be;
Lead me by thine own hand,
Choose out the path for me.
- 2 Smooth let it be or rough,
It will be still the best;
Winding or straight, it leads
Right onward to thy rest.
- 3 I dare not choose my lot;
I would not if I might;
Choose thou for me, my God,
So shall I walk aright.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 4 The kingdom that I seek
Is thine, so let the way
That leads to it be thine,
Else I must surely stray.
- 5 Take thou my cup, and it
With joy or sorrow fill,
As best to thee may seem ;
Choose thou my good and ill.
- 6 Choose thou for me my friends,
My sickness or my health ;
Choose thou my cares for me,
My poverty or wealth.
7. Not mine, not mine, the choice
In things or great or small ;
Be thou my Guide, my Strength,
My Wisdom, and my All.

506

William Blake, 1757-1827.

- TO Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love,
All pray in their distress,
And to these virtues of delight
Return their thankfulness.
- 2 For Mercy, Pity, Peace and Love,
Is God our Father dear ;
And Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love,
Is Man, his child and care.
 - 3 For Mercy has a human heart,
Pity, a human face ;
And Love, the human form divine,
And Peace, the human dress.
 - 4 Then every man, of every clime,
That prays in his distress,
Prays to the human form divine :
Love, Mercy, Pity, Peace.

GENERAL HYMNS.

5. And all must love the human form,
In heathen, Turk, or Jew ;
Where Mercy, Love, and Pity dwell,
There God is dwelling too.

507

c. 15th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

Gloriosi Salvatoris.

- TO the name that brings salvation
Honour, worship, laud we pay :
That for many a generation
Hid in God's foreknowledge lay,
But to every tongue and nation
Holy Church proclaims to-day.
- 2* Name of gladness, name of pleasure,
By the tongue ineffable,
Name of sweetness passing measure,
To the ear delectable ;
'Tis our safeguard and our treasure,
'Tis our help 'gainst sin and hell.
- 3* 'Tis the name for adoration,
'Tis the name of victory ;
'Tis the name for meditation
In the vale of misery :
'Tis the name for veneration
By the citizens on high.
- 4 'Tis the name that whoso preaches
Finds it music in his ear ;
'Tis the name that whoso teaches
Finds more sweet than honey's cheer :
Who its perfect wisdom reaches
Makes his ghostly vision clear.
- 5 'Tis the name by right exalted
Over every other name :
That when we are sore assaulted
Puts our enemies to shame :
Strength to them that else had halted,
Eyes to blind, and feet to lame.

GENERAL HYMNS.

6. Jesu, we thy name adoring,
Long to see thee as thou art :
Of thy clemency imploring
So to write it in our heart,
That hereafter, upward soaring,
We with Angels may have part.

508

W. Bullock, 1798-1874, and Sir H. W. Baker.

- WE love the place, O God,
Wherein thine honour dwells ;
The joy of thine abode
All earthly joy excels.
- 2 We love the house of prayer,
Wherein thy servants meet ;
And thou, O Lord, art there
Thy chosen flock to greet.
- 3 We love the sacred font,
For there the holy Dove
To pour is ever wont
His blessing from above.
- 4 We love thine altar, Lord ;
O, what on earth so dear !
For there, in faith adored,
We find thy presence near.
- 5 We love the word of life,
The word that tells of peace,
Of comfort in the strife,
And joys that never cease.
- 6 We love to sing below
For mercies freely given ;
But O, we long to know
The triumph-song of heaven !
7. Lord Jesus, give us grace
On earth to love thee more,
In heaven to see thy face,
And with thy Saints adore.

GENERAL HYMNS.

509 Mrs. A. Richter (1834), J. H. Gurney (1851), and others.

WE saw thee not when thou didst come
To this poor world of sin and death,
Nor e'er beheld thy cottage-home
In that despised Nazareth ;
But we believe thy footsteps trod
Its streets and plains, thou Son of God.

2 We did not see thee lifted high
Amid that wild and savage crew,
Nor heard thy meek, imploring cry,
'Forgive, they know not what they do' ;
Yet we believe the deed was done
Which shook the earth and veiled the sun.

3 We stood not by the empty tomb
Where late thy sacred Body lay,
Nor sat within that upper room,
Nor met thee in the open way ;
But we believe that Angels said,
'Why seek the living with the dead ?'

4 We did not mark the chosen few,
When thou didst in the cloud ascend,
First lift to heaven their wondering view,
Then to the earth all prostrate bend ;
Yet we believe that mortal eyes
From that far mountain saw thee rise.

5. And now that thou dost reign on high,
And thence thy waiting people bless,
No ray of glory from the sky
Doth shine upon our wilderness ;
But we believe thy faithful word,
And trust in our redeeming Lord.

510 T. Kelly, 1769-1854.

WE sing the praise of him who died,
Of him who died upon the Cross ;
The sinner's hope let men deride,
For this we count the world but loss.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 Inscribed upon the Cross we see
In shining letters, 'God is Love';
He bears our sins upon the Tree;
He brings us mercy from above.
- 3 The Cross! it takes our guilt away;
It holds the fainting spirit up;
It cheers with hope the gloomy day,
And sweetens ev'ry bitter cup.
- 4 It makes the coward spirit brave,
And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
It takes its terror from the grave,
And gilds the bed of death with light;
5. The balm of life, the cure of woe,
The measure and the pledge of love,
The sinners' refuge here below,
The Angels' theme in heaven above.

511

J. Addison, 1672-1719.

- WHEN all thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love, and praise.
- 2 Unnumbered comforts to my soul
Thy tender care bestowed,
Before my infant heart conceived
From whom those comforts flowed.
- 3 When in the slippery paths of youth
With heedless steps I ran,
Thine arm unseen conveyed me safe,
And led me up to man.
- 4 When worn with sickness oft hast thou
With health renewed my face;
And when in sins and sorrows sunk,
Revived my soul with grace.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 5 Through every period of my life
 Thy goodness I'll pursue,
 And after death in distant worlds
 The glorious theme renew.
6. Through all eternity to thee
 A joyful song I'll raise ;
 For O ! eternity's too short
 To utter all thy praise. ♫

512

19th cent. Tr. F. Caswall.

Beim frühen Morgenlicht.

WHEN morning gilds the skies,
 My heart awaking cries,
 May Jesus Christ be praised :
 Alike at work and prayer
 To Jesus I repair ;
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

2 The sacred minster bell
 It peals o'er hill and dell,
 May Jesus Christ be praised :
 O hark to what it sings,
 As joyously it rings,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

3* My tongue shall never tire
 Of chanting in the choir,
 May Jesus Christ be praised :
 The fairest graces spring
 In hearts that ever sing,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

4* When sleep her balm denies,
 My silent spirit sighs,
 May Jesus Christ be praised : *
 When evil thoughts molest,
 With this I shield my breast,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 5 Does sadness fill my mind ?
A solace here I find,
 May Jesus Christ be praised :
Or fades my earthly bliss ?
My comfort still is this,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.
- 6 The night becomes as day,
When from the heart we say,
 May Jesus Christ be praised :
The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.
- 7 In heaven's eternal bliss
The loveliest strain is this,
 May Jesus Christ be praised :
Let air, and sea, and sky
From depth to height reply,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.
8. Be this, while life is mine,
My canticle divine,
 May Jesus Christ be praised :
Be this the eternal song
Through all the ages on,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

513

H. H. Milman, 1791-1868.

WHEN our heads are bowed with woe,
When our bitter tears o'erflow,
When we mourn the lost, the dear,
Gracious Son of Mary, hear.

- 2 Thou our throbbing flesh hast worn,
Thou our mortal griefs hast borne,
Thou hast shed the human tear ;
Gracious Son of Mary, hear.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 3 When the sullen death-bell tolls
For our own departed souls,
When our final doom is near,
Gracious Son of Mary, hear.
- 4 Thou hast bowed the dying head,
Thou the blood of life hast shed,
Thou hast filled a mortal bier ;
Gracious Son of Mary, hear.
- 5 When the heart is sad within
With the thought of all its sin,
When the spirit shrinks with fear,
Gracious Son of Mary, hear.
6. Thou the shame, the grief, hast known,
Though the sins were not thine own ;
Thou hast deigned their load to bear ;
Gracious Son of Mary, hear.

514

Bishop W. W. How, 1823-97.

WHO is this so weak and helpless,
Child of lowly Hebrew maid,
Rudely in a stable sheltered,
Coldly in a manger laid ?
'Tis the Lord of all creation,
Who this wondrous path hath trod ;
He is God from everlasting,
And to everlasting God.

- 2 Who is this—a Man of Sorrows,
Walking sadly life's hard way,
Homeless, weary, sighing, weeping
Over sin and Satan's sway ?
'Tis our God, our glorious Saviour,
Who above the starry sky
Now for us a place prepareth
Where no tear can dim the eye.

GENERAL HYMNS.

3 Who is this—behold Him raining
 Drops of blood upon the ground ?
 Who is this—despised, rejected,
 Mocked, insulted, beaten, bound ?
 'Tis our God, who gifts and graces
 On his Church now poureth down ;
 Who shall smite in holy vengeance
 All his foes beneath his throne.

4. Who is this that hangeth dying,
 With the thieves on either side ?
 Nails his hands and feet are tearing,
 And the spear hath pierced his side.
 'Tis the God who ever liveth
 'Mid the shining ones on high,
 In the glorious golden city
 Reigning everlastingly.

515

John Donne†, 1573–1631.

WILT thou forgive that sin, by man begun,
 Which was my sin though it were done before ?

Wilt thou forgive that sin, through which I run,
 And do run still, though still I do deplore ?
 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
 For I have more.

2 Wilt thou forgive that sin which I have won
 Others to sin, and made my sin their door ?
 Wilt thou forgive that sin which I did shun
 A year or two, but wallowed in a score ?
 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
 For I have more.

3. I have a sin of fear, that when I've spun
 My last thread, I shall perish on the shore ;
 But swear by thyself, that at my death thy Son
 Shall shine, as he shines now and heretofore :
 And, having done that, thou hast done :
 I fear no more.

GENERAL HYMNS.

516

G. Thring, 1823-1908.

WORK is sweet, for God has blest
Honest work with quiet rest ;
Rest below, and rest above,
In the mansions of his love,
When the work of life is done,
When the battle's fought and won.

2 Work ye, then, while yet 'tis day,
Work, ye Christians, while ye may ;
Work for all that's great and good,
Working for your daily food,
Working whilst the golden hours,
Health, and strength, and youth, are yours.

3 Working not alone for gold,
Not for work that's bought and sold ;
Not the work that worketh strife,
But the working of a life ;
Careless both of good or ill,
If ye can but do his will.

4. Working ere the day is gone,
Working till your work is done ;
Not as traffickers at marts,
But as fitteth honest hearts ;
Working till your spirits rest
With the spirits of the blest.

517

R. Baxter, 1615-91 ; and R. R. Chope.

YE holy Angels bright,
Who wait at God's right hand,
Or through the realms of light
Fly at your Lord's command,
Assist our song,
For else the theme
Too high doth seem
For mortal tongue.

GENERAL HYMNS.

- 2 Ye blessèd souls at rest,
Who ran this earthly race,
And now, from sin released,
Behold the Saviour's face,
God's praises sound,
As in his light
With sweet delight
Ye do abound.
- 3 Ye saints, who toil below,
Adore your heavenly King,
And onward as ye go
Some joyful anthem sing ;
Take what he gives
And praise him still,
Through good or ill,
Who ever lives !
4. My soul, bear thou thy part,
Triumph in God above :
And with a well-tuned heart
Sing thou the songs of love !
Let all thy days
Till life shall end,
Whate'er he send,
Be filled with praise.

518

P. Doddridge †, 1702-51.

- YE servants of the Lord,
Each in his office wait,
Observant of his heavenly word,
And watchful at his gate.
- 2 Let all your lamps be bright,
And trim the golden flame ;
Gird up your loins as in his sight,
For awful is his name.
- 3 Watch ! 'tis your Lord's command,
And while we speak, he's near ;

GENERAL HYMNS.

Mark the first signal of his hand,
And ready all appear.

- 4 O, happy servant he,
In such a posture found !
He shall his Lord with rapture see,
And be with honour crowned.
5. Christ shall the banquet spread
With his own royal hand,
And raise that faithful servant's head
Amidst the angelic band.

519

A. R.

- YE watchers and ye holy ones,
Bright Seraphs, Cherubim and Thrones,
Raise the glad strain, Alleluya !
Cry out Dominions, Princedoms, Powers',
Virtues, Archangels, Angels' choirs,
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya !
- 2 O higher than the Cherubim,
More glorious than the Seraphim,
Lead their praises, Alleluya !
Thou Bearer of the eternal Word,
Most gracious, magnify the Lord,
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya !
- 3 Respond, ye souls in endless rest,
Ye Patriarchs and Prophets blest,
Alleluya, Alleluya !
Ye holy Twelve, ye Martyrs strong,
All Saints triumphant, raise the song
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya !
4. O friends, in gladness let us sing,
Supernal anthems echoing,
Alleluya, Alleluya !
To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya !

PART VI.
SPECIAL OCCASIONS.
FOR ABSENT FRIENDS.

520

Isabella S. Stephenson.

- HOLY Father, in thy mercy,
Hear our anxious prayer,
Keep our loved ones, now far absent,
'Neath thy care.
- 2 Jesus, Saviour, let thy presence
Be their light and guide ;
Keep, O, keep them, in their weakness,
At thy side.
- 3 When in sorrow, when in danger,
When in loneliness,
In thy love look down and comfort
Their distress.
- 4 May the joy of thy salvation
Be their strength and stay ;
May they love and may they praise thee
Day by day.
- 5 Holy Spirit, let thy teaching
Sanctify their life ;
Send thy grace, that they may conquer
In the strife.
6. Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
God the One in Three,
Bless them, guide them, save them, keep them
Near to thee.

ALMSGIVING.

521

Bishop Chr. Wordsworth, 1807-85.

- O LORD of heaven, and earth, and sea,
To thee all praise and glory be ;
How shall we show our love to thee,
Giver of all ?
- 2 The golden sunshine, vernal air,
Sweet flowers and fruits, thy love declare ;
Where harvests ripen, thou art there,
Giver of all !
- 3 For peaceful homes, and healthful days,
For all the blessings earth displays,
We owe thee thankfulness and praise,
Giver of all !
- 4 Thou didst not spare thine only Son,
But gav'st him for a world undone,
And freely with that Blessèd One
Thou givest all.
- 5 Thou giv'st the Spirit's blessèd dower,
Spirit of life, and love, and power,
And dost his sevenfold graces shower
Upon us all.
- 6 For souls redeemed, for sins forgiven,
For means of grace and hopes of heaven,
Father, what can, to thee be given,
Who givest all ?
- 7 We lose what on ourselves we spend,
We have as treasure without end
Whatever, Lord, to thee we lend,
Who givest all ;
8. To thee, from whom we all derive
Our life, our gifts, our power to give :
O may we ever with thee live,
Giver of all !

SPECIAL OCCASIONS.

522

Bishop W. W. How, 1823-97.

- WE give thee but thine own,
Whate'er the gift may be :
All that we have is thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from thee.
- 2 May we thy bounties thus
As stewards true receive,
And gladly, as thou blessest us,
To thee our first-fruits give.
- 3 O hearts are bruised and dead ;
And homes are bare and cold ;
And lambs, for whom the Shepherd bled,
Are straying from the fold.
- 4 To comfort and to bless,
To find a balm for woe,
To tend the lone and fatherless,
Is Angels' work below.
- 5 The captive to release,
To God the lost to bring,
To teach the way of life and peace,—
It is a Christlike thing.
- 6 And we believe thy word,
Though dim our faith may be ;
Whate'er for thine we do, O Lord,
We do it unto thee.

The following are also suitable :

BEGINNING AND END OF TERM.

523

H. J. Buckoll, 1803-71.

LORD, behold us with thy blessing,
Once again assembled here ;
Onward be our footsteps pressing,
In thy love and faith and fear :
Still protect us
By thy presence ever near.

AT A FAREWELL.

- 2 For thy mercy we adore thee,
For this rest upon our way ;
Lord, again we bow before thee,
Speed our labours day by day :
Mind and spirit
With thy choicest gifts array.

Part 2.

- 3 Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing ;
Thanks for mercies past receive ;
Pardon all, their faults confessing ;
Time that's lost may all retrieve :
May thy children
Ne'er again thy Spirit grieve.
4. Let thy Father-hand be shielding
All who here shall meet no more ;
May their seed-time past be yielding
Year by year a richer store :
Those returning
Make more faithful than before.

AT A FAREWELL.

524

J. E. Rankin, 1828-1904.

- GOD be with you till we meet again ;
By his counsels guide, uphold you,
With his sheep securely fold you :
God be with you till we meet again.
- 2 God be with you till we meet again ;
'Neath his wings protecting hide you,
Daily manna still provide you :
God be with you till we meet again.

SPECIAL OCCASIONS.

- 3 God be with you till we meet again ;
When life's perils thick confound you,
Put his arm unfailing round you :
God be with you till we meet again.
4. God be with you till we meet again ;
Keep love's banner floating o'er you,
Smite death's threatening wave before you :
God be with you till we meet again.

HOSPITALS.

525

Charles Kingsley, 1819-75.

- FROM thee all skill and science flow,
All pity, care, and love,
All calm and courage, faith and hope—
O, pour them from above !
- 2 And part them, Lord, to each and all,
As each and all shall need
To rise, like incense, each to thee,
In noble thought and deed.
- 3 And hasten, Lord, that perfect day
When pain and death shall cease,
And thy just rule shall fill the earth
With health, and light, and peace ;
4. When ever blue the sky shall gleam,
And ever green the sod,
And man's rude work deface no more
The Paradise of God.

526

E. H. Plumptre, 1821-91.

- THINE arm, O Lord, in days of old
Was strong to heal and save ;
It triumphed o'er disease and death,
O'er darkness and the grave ;

HOSPITALS.

To thee they went, the blind, the dumb,
The palsied and the lame,
The leper with his tainted life,
The sick with fevered frame.

2 And lo ! thy touch brought life and health,
Gave speech, and strength, and sight ;
And youth renewed and frenzy calmed
Owned thee the Lord of light ;
And now, O Lord, be near to bless,
Almighty as of yore,
In crowded street, by restless couch,
As by Gennesareth's shore.

3. Be thou our great deliverer still,
Thou Lord of life and death ;
Restore and quicken, soothe and bless
With thine almighty breath ;
To hands that work, and eyes that see,
Give wisdom's heavenly lore,
That whole and sick, and weak and strong,
May praise thee evermore.

527

G. Thring, 1823-1903.

THOU to whom the sick and dying
Ever came, nor came in vain,
Still with healing words replying
To the wearied cry of pain,
Hear us, Jesu, as we meet
Suppliants at thy mercy-seat.

Need a brother's, sister's care ;
On thy higher help relying
May we now their burden share,
Bringing all our offerings meet,
Suppliants at thy mercy-seat.

SPECIAL OCCASIONS.

Willing both in hand and heart,
All the law of love fulfilling,
Ever comfort to impart;
Ever bringing offerings meet,
Suppliant to thy mercy-seat.

To thy healing power yield,
Till the sick and sad, in gladness,

In others' good he finds his own,
Life's worth in fellowship is known.
We, friends and comrades on life's way,
Gather within these walls to pray :
Bless thou our fellowship to-day.
- 3 O Christ, our Elder Brother, who

- SON of God, eternal Saviour,
Source of life and truth and grace,
Son of Man, whose birth incarnate
Hallows all our human race,
Thou, our Head, who, throned in glory,
For thine own dost ever plead,
Fill us with thy love and pity,
Heal our wrongs, and help our need.
- 2 As thou, Lord, hast lived for others,
So may we for others live ;
Freely have thy gifts been granted,
Freely may thy servants give.
Thine the gold and thine the silver,
Thine the wealth of land and sea,
We but stewards of thy bounty,
Held in solemn trust for thee.
- 3 Come, O Christ, and reign among us,
King of love, and Prince of peace,
Hush the storm of strife and passion,
Bid its cruel discords cease ;
By thy patient years of toiling,
By thy silent hours of pain,
Quench our fevered thirst of pleasure,
Shame our selfish greed of gain.
- 4 Ah, the past is dark behind us,
Strewn with wrecks and stained with blood ;
But before us gleams the vision
Of the coming brotherhood.

SOCIETIES : MOTHERS'.

530

Christian Burke.

LORD of life and King of glory,
Who didst deign a child to be,
Cradled on a mother's bosom,
Throned upon a mother's knee :
For the children thou hast given
We must answer unto thee !

2 Since the day the blessèd Mother
Thee, the world's Redeemer, bore,
Thou hast crowned us with an honour
Women never knew before ;
And that we may bear it meetly
We must seek thine aid the more.

3 Grant us, then, pure hearts and patient,
That in all we do or say
Little souls our deeds may copy,
And be never led astray ;
Little feet our steps may follow
In a safe and narrow way.

4 When our growing sons and daughters
Look on life with eager eyes,
Grant us then a deeper insight
And new powers of sacrifice :
Hope to trust them, faith to guide them,
Love that nothing good denies.

5. May we keep our holy calling
Stainless in its fair renown,
That when all the work is over
And we lay the burden down,
Then the children thou hast given
Still may be our joy and crown !

THANKSGIVING.

532

Ps. 136.

J. Milton †, 1608-74.

LET us, with a gladsome mind,
Praise the Lord, for he is kind :
*For his mercies ay endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.*

- 2 Let us blaze his name abroad,
For of gods he is the God :
- 3 He with all-commanding might
Filled the new-made world with light :
- 4 He the golden-tressèd sun
Caused all day his course to run :
- 5 The hornèd moon to shine by night,
'Mid her spangled sisters bright :
- 6 He his chosen race did bless
In the wasteful wilderness :
- 7* He hath, with a piteous eye,
Looked upon our misery :
- 8 All things living he doth feed,
His full hand supplies their need :
9. Let us, with a gladsome mind,
Praise the Lord, for he is kind :

533

M. Rinkart, 1586-1649. Tr. C. Winkworth.

Nun danket alle Gott.

NOW thank we all our God,

Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.

SPECIAL OCCASIONS.

- 2 O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,

In this world and the next.
3. All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and him who reigns
With them in highest heaven,
The One eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore ;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore. Amen.

534 Ps. 148. T. B. Browne of Mellington, 1817-89.
Laudate Dominum.

- PRAISE the Lord of heaven ; praise him in the height ;
Praise him, all ye Angels ; praise him, stars and
light ;
Praise him, skies and waters, which above the skies,
When his word commanded, stablished did arise.
- 2 Praise the Lord, ye fountains of the deeps and seas,
Rocks and hills and mountains, cedars and all trees ;
Praise him, clouds and vapours, snow and hail and fire,
Stormy wind fulfilling only his desire.
3. Praise him, fowls and cattle, princes and all kings ;
Praise him, men and maidens, all created things ;
For the name of God is excellent alone ;
On the earth his footstool, over heaven his throne.

THANKSGIVING.

535

Ps. 148.

Foundling Hospital Coll. (1796).

PRAISE the Lord ! ye heavens, adore him ;
 Praise him, Angels, in the height ;
 Sun and moon, rejoice before him,
 Praise him, all ye stars and light :
 Praise the Lord ! for he hath spoken,
 Worlds his mighty voice obeyed ;
 Laws, which never shall be broken,
 For their guidance hath he made.

2 Praise the Lord ! for he is glorious ;
 Never shall his promise fail ;
 God hath made his Saints victorious,
 Sin and death shall not prevail.
 Praise the God of our salvation ;
 Hosts on high, his power proclaim ;
 Heaven and earth, and all creation,
 Laud and magnify his name !

Part 2.

E. Osler, 1798-1863.

3. Worship, honour, glory, blessing,
 Lord, we offer to thy name ;
 Young and old, thy praise expressing,
 Join their Saviour to proclaim.
 As the Saints in heaven adore thee,
 We would bow before thy throne ;
 As thine Angels serve before thee,
 So on earth thy will be done.

536

J. Neander, 1650-80. Tr. C. Winkworth and others.

Lobe den Herren.

PRAISE to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation ;
 O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation :
 All ye who hear,
 Brothers and sisters draw near,
 Praise him in glad adoration.

SPECIAL OCCASIONS.

2 Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth,
Shelters thee under his wings, yea, so gently sustaineth :
Hast thou not seen
How thy entreaties have been Granted in what he ordaineth ?

3 Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work,
and defend thee ;
Surely his goodness and mercy here daily attend thee :
Ponder anew
What the Almighty can do,
If with his love he befriend thee.

4* Praise to the Lord, who, when tempests their warfare are waging,
Who, when the elements madly around thee are raging,
Biddeth them cease,
Turneth their fury to peace,
Whirlwinds and waters assuaging.

5* Praise to the Lord, who when sickness with terror uniting,
Deaf to entreaties of mortals, its victims is smiting,
Pestilence quells,
Sickness and fever dispels,
Grateful thanksgiving inviting.

6* Praise to the Lord, who when darkness of sin is abounding,
Who, when the godless do triumph, all virtue confounding,
Sheddeth his light,
Chaseth the horrors of night,
Saints with his mercy surrounding.

THANKSGIVING.

7. Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!

All that hath life and breath come now with praises before him!

His works of love proclaim

The greatness of his name;

For he is God alone,

Who hath his mercy shown:

Let all his Saints adore him!

2. When in distress to him we cried

, He heard our sad complaining;

O trust in him, whate'er betide,

O praise our God alway:

Let all his Saints adore him!

• IN TIME OF TROUBLE.

538

F. L. Hosmer.

FATHER, to thee we look in all our sorrow,
Thou art the fountain whence our healing
flows ;

Dark though the night, joy cometh with the morrow ;

Safely they rest who on thy love repose.

- 2 When fond hopes fail and skies are dark before us,
When the vain cares that vex our life increase,
Comes with its calm the thought that thou art
o'er us,

And we grow quiet, folded in thy peace.

- 3 Nought shall affright us, on thy goodness leaning ;
Low in the heart faith singeth still her song ;
Chastened by pain we learn life's deeper meaning,
And in our weakness thou dost make us strong.

4. Patient, O heart, though heavy be thy sorrows ;
Be not cast down, disquieted in vain ;
Yet shalt thou praise him, when these darkened
furrows,

Where now he plougheth, wave with golden grain.

The following are also suitable :

435 Lord of our life, and God of our salvation.

IN TIME OF WAR.

539

A. C. Benson.

- O LORD of hosts, who didst upraise
Strong captains to defend the right,
In darker years and sterner days,
And armedst Israel for the fight ;
Thou madest Joshua true and strong,
And David framed the battle-song.
- 2 And must we battle yet ? Must we,
Who bear the tender name Divine,
Still barter life for victory,
Still glory in the crimson sign ?
The Crucified between us stands,
And lifts on high his wounded hands.
- 3 Lord, we are weak and wilful yet,
The fault is in our clouded eyes ;
But thou, through anguish and regret,
Dost make thy faithless children wise :
Through wrong, through hate, thou dost approve
The far-off victories of love.
- 4 * And so, from out the heart of strife,
Diviner echoes peal and thrill ;
The scorned delights, the lavished life,
The pain that serves a nation's will :
Thy comfort stills the mourner's cries,
And love is crowned by sacrifice.
5. As rains that weep the clouds away,
As winds that leave a calm in heaven,
So let the slayer cease to slay ;—
The passion healed, the wrath forgiven,
Draw nearer, bid the tumult cease,
Redeemer, Saviour, Prince of Peace !

W. Whiting, 1825-78.

ETERNAL Father, strong to save,
Whose arm doth bind the restless wave,
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep :

O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea.

2 O Saviour, whose almighty word
The winds and waves submissive heard,
Who walkedst on the foaming deep,
And calm amid its rage didst sleep :

O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea.

3 O sacred Spirit, who didst brood
Upon the chaos dark and rude,
Who bad'st its angry tumult cease,
And gavest light and life and peace :

O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea.

4. O Trinity of love and power,
Our brethren shield in danger's hour ;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
Protect them wheresoe'er they go :

And ever let there rise to thee
Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

541

G. Thring, 1823-1903.

FIERCE raged the tempest o'er the deep,
Watch did thine anxious servants keep,
But thou wast wrapped in guileless sleep,
Calm and still.

2 'Save, Lord, we perish !' was their cry,
'O save us in our agony !'

Thy word above the storm rose high,
'Peace, be still.'

FOR USE AT SEA.

- 3 The wild winds hushed ; the angry deep
Sank, like a little child, to sleep ;
The sullen billows ceased to leap,
At thy will.
4. So, when our life is clouded o'er,
And storm-winds drift us from the shore,
Say, lest we sink to rise no more,
'Peace, be still.'

- HOW are thy servants blest, O Lord !
How sure is their defence !
Eternal Wisdom is their guide,
Their help Omnipotence.
- 2 In foreign realms and lands remote,
Supported by thy care,
Through burning climes they pass unhurt,
And breathe in tainted air.
- 3 And though in dreadful whirls they hang
High on the broken wave,
They know thou art not slow to hear,
Nor impotent to save.
- 4 The storm is laid, the winds retire,
Obedient to thy will ;
The sea, that roars at thy command,
At thy command is still.
- 5 In midst of dangers, fears, and death,
Thy goodness we'll adore ;
And praise thee for thy mercies past,
And humbly hope for more.
6. Our life, while thou preserv'st that life,
Thy sacrifice shall be ;
And death, when death shall be our lot,
Shall join our souls to thee.

T. A. L.

- O FAITH of England, taught of old
By faithful shepherds of the fold,
The hallowing of our nation ;
Thou wast through many a wealthy year,
Through many a darkened day of fear,
The rock of our salvation.
Arise, arise, good Christian men,
Your glorious standard raise again,
The Cross of Christ who calls you ;
Who bids you live and bids you die
For his great cause, and stands on high
To witness what befalls you.
- 2* Our fathers heard the trumpet call
Through lowly cot and kingly hall
From oversea resounding ;
They bowed their stubborn wills to learn
The truths that live, the thoughts that burn,
With new resolve abounding.
Arise, arise, good Christian men,
Your glorious standard raise again,
The Cross of Christ who guides you ;
Whose arm is bared to join the fray,
Who marshals you in stern array,
Fearless, whate'er betides you.
- 3 Our fathers held the faith received,
By Saints declared, by Saints believed,
By Saints in death defended ;
Through pain of doubt and bitterness,
Through pain of treason and distress,
They for the right contended.

CHURCH AND PEOPLE.

Arise, arise, good Christian men,
Your glorious standard raise again,
The Cross of Christ who bought you ;
Who leads you forth in this new age
With long-enduring hearts to wage
The warfare he has taught you.

- 4.* Though frequent be the loud alarms,
Though still we march by ambushed arms
Of death and hell surrounded,
With Christ for Chief we fear no foe,
Nor force nor craft can overthrow
The Church that he has founded.
Arise, arise, good Christian men,
Your glorious standard raise again,
The Cross wherewith he signed you ;
The King himself shall lead you on,
Shall watch you till the strife be done,
Then near his throne shall find you.

545

E. H. Plumptre, 1821-91.

THY hand, O God, has guided
Thy flock, from age to age ;
The wondrous tale is written,
Full clear, on every page ;
Our fathers owned thy goodness,
And we their deeds record ;
And both of this bear witness,
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

- 2 Thy heralds brought glad tidings
To greatest, as to least ;
They bade men rise, and hasten
To share the great King's feast ;
And this was all their teaching,
In every deed and word,
To all alike proclaiming
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

THE CHURCH.

- 3 Through many a day of darkness,
Through many a scene of strife,
The faithful few fought bravely
To guard the nation's life.
Their Gospel of redemption,
Sin pardoned, man restored,
Was all in this enfolded,
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.
- 4 * And we, shall we be faithless ?
Shall hearts fail, hands hang down ?
Shall we evade the conflict,
And cast away our crown ?
Not so : in God's deep counsels
Some better thing is stored ;
We will maintain, unflinching,
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.
5. Thy mercy will not fail us,
Nor leave thy work undone ;
With thy right hand to help us,
The victory shall be won ;
And then, by men and angels,
Thy name shall be adored,
And this shall be their anthem,
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

Skyward and seaward, high and wide,—
The sun that lights its shining folds,
The Cross on which the Saviour died.
- 2 Fling out the banner! angels bend
In anxious silence o'er the sign,
And vainly seek to comprehend
The wonders of the love divine.
- 3 Fling out the banner! heathen lands
Shall see from far the glorious sight,
And nations, crowding to be born,
Baptize their spirits in its light.

That sink and perish in the strife,
Shall touch in faith its radiant hem,

Skyward and seaward, high and wide,
Our glory only in the Cross,

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Java's isle,
Though every prospect pleases
And only man is vile :
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown,
The heathen in his blindness
Bows down to wood and stone !

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted

Can we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny ?
Salvation ! O, salvation !
The joyful sound proclaim,

Has learned Messiah's name.

The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King; Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

 The sins that put to shame.

CHURCH AND PEOPLE.

- 3 Thy best gifts from on high
In rich abundance pour,
That we may magnify
And praise thee more and more.
- 4 The powers ordained by thee
With heavenly wisdom bless ;
May they thy servants be,
And rule in righteousness.
- 5 The Church of thy dear Son
Inflame with love's pure fire,
Bind her once more in one,
And life and truth inspire.
- 6 The pastors of thy fold
With grace and power endue,
That faithful, pure, and bold,
They may be pastors true.
- 7 O let us love thy house,
And sanctify thy day,
Bring unto thee our vows,
And loyal homage pay.
- 8 Give peace, Lord, in our time ;
O let no foe draw nigh,
Nor lawless deed of crime
Insult thy majesty.
9. Though vile and worthless, still
Thy people, Lord, are we ;
And for our God we will
None other have but thee.

566

Ebenezer Elliott †, 1781-1849.

WHEN wilt thou save the people ?
O God of mercy, when ?
The people, Lord, the people,
Not thrones and crowns, but men !

NATIONAL.

Flowers of thy heart, O God are they ;
Let them not pass, like weeds, away—
Their heritage a sunless day.

God save the people !

- 2 Shall crime bring crime for ever,
Strength aiding still the strong ?
Is it thy will, O Father,
That man shall toil for wrong ?
'No,' say thy mountains ; 'No,' thy skies ;
Man's clouded sun shall brightly rise,
And songs be heard instead of sighs.
God save the people !

3. When wilt thou save the people ?
O God of mercy, when ?
The people, Lord, the people,
Not thrones and crowns, but men !
God save the people ; thine they are,
Thy children, as thy Angels fair ;
From vice, oppression, and despair,
God save the people !

The following are also suitable :

- 423 Judge eternal, throned in splendour.
450 O God, our help in ages past.
458 O Lord of hosts, all heaven possessing.
475 Rejoice, O land, in God thy might.
492 The Lord will come, and not be slow.
529 Son of God, eternal Saviour.

PART VIII.
FOR MISSION SERVICES.

567

Elizabeth C. Clephane, 1830-69.

- BENEATH the Cross of Jesus
I fain would take my stand—
The shadow of a mighty Rock
Within a weary land ;
A home within a wilderness,
A rest upon the way,
From the burning of the noontide heat
And the burden of the day.
- 2 O safe and happy shelter !
O refuge tried and sweet !
O trysting-place where heaven's love
And heaven's justice meet !
As to the exiled patriarch
That wondrous dream was given,
So seems my Saviour's Cross to me
A ladder up to heaven.
- 3 There lies beneath its shadow,
But on the further side,
The darkness of an open grave
That gapes both deep and wide ;
And there between us stands the Cross,
Two arms outstretched to save,
Like a watchman set to guard the way
From that eternal grave.
- 4 Upon that Cross of Jesus
Mine eye at times can see
The very dying form of One,
Who suffered there for me.

MISSION SERVICES.

And from my stricken heart, with tears
Two wonders I confess,—
The wonders of redeeming love,
And my own worthlessness.

5. I take, O Cross, thy shadow,
For my abiding-place ;
I ask no other sunshine than
The sunshine of his face :
Content to let the world go by,
To know no gain nor loss,—
My sinful self my only shame,
My glory all—the Cross.

568

S. Baring-Gould.

DAILY, daily sing the praises
Of the City God hath made ;
In the beauteous fields of Eden
Its foundation-stones are laid :
*O, that I had wings of Angels
Here to spread and heavenward fly ;
I would seek the gates of Sion,
Far beyond the starry sky !*

- 2 All the walls of that dear City
Are of bright and burnished gold ;
It is matchless in its beauty,
And its treasures are untold :
- 3 In the midst of that dear City
Christ is reigning on his seat,
And the Angels swing their censers
In a ring about his feet :
- 4 From the throne a river issues,
Clear as crystal, passing bright,
And it traverses the City
Like a beam of living light :

MISSION SERVICES.

- 5 There the meadows green and dewy
Shine with lilies wondrous fair ;
Thousand, thousand are the colours
Of the waving flowers there :
- 6 There the forests ever blossom,
Like our orchards here in May ;
There the gardens never wither,
But eternally are gay :
- 7 There the wind is sweetly fragrant,
And is laden with the song
Of the Seraphs, and the Elders,
And the great redeemed throng :
8. O I would my ears were open
Here to catch that happy strain !
O I would my eyes some vision
Of that Eden could attain !

569

J. Purchas†, 1823-72.

EVENSONG is hushed in silence,
And the hour of rest is nigh ;
Strengthen us for work to-morrow,
Son of Mary—God most high !
Thou who in the village workshop,
Fashioning the yoke and plough,
Didst eat bread by daily labour,
Succour them that labour now.
*We are weary of life-long toil,
Of sorrow, and pain, and sin ;
But there is a City with streets of gold,
And all is peace within.*

- 2 How are we to reach that City,
Whose delights no tongue may tell ?
By the faith that looks to Jesus,
By a life of doing well.

MISSION SERVICES.

Sinful men and sinful women,
He will wash our sins away ;
He will take us to the sheepfold
Whence no sheep can ever stray.

1. There the dear ones who have left us
We shall some day meet again ;
There will be no bitter partings,
No more sorrow, death, or pain.
Evensong has closed in silence,
And the hour of rest is nigh ;
Lighten thou our darkness, Jesu,
Son of Mary—God most high !

570

P. P. Bliss, 1888-76.

HO ! my comrades, see the signal
Waving in the sky !
Reinforcements now appearing,
Victory is nigh !
*'Hold the fort, for I am coming,'
Jesus signals still ;
Wave the answer back to heaven,
'By thy grace we will.'*

- 2 See the mighty host advancing,
Satan leading on ;
Mighty men around us falling,
Courage almost gone !
- 3 See the glorious banner waving !
Hear the trumpet blow !
In our Leader's name we'll triumph
Over every foe.
4. Fierce and long the battle rages,
But our help is near ;
Onward comes our great Commander,
Cheer, my comrades, cheer !

MISSION SERVICES.

571

F. W. Faber, 1814-63.

HOLY Ghost, come down upon thy children,
Give us grace and make us thine ;
Thy tender fires within us kindle,
Blessèd Spirit, Dove divine.

- 2 For all within us good and holy
Is from thee, thy precious gift ;
In all our joys, in all our sorrows,
Wistful hearts to thee we lift.
Holy Ghost, come down, &c.

- 3 For thou to us art more than father,
More than sister, in thy love ;
So gentle, patient, and forbearing,
Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove.
Holy Ghost, come down, &c.

- 4 O we have grieved thee, gracious Spirit !
Wayward, wanton, cold are we ;
And still our sins, new every morning,
Never yet have wearied thee.
Holy Ghost, come down, &c.

- 5 Ah ! sweet Consoler, though we cannot
Love thee as thou lovest us,
Yet if thou deign'st our hearts to kindle
They will not be always thus.
Holy Ghost, come down, &c.

6. With hearts so vile how dare we venture,
King of kings, to love thee so ?
And how canst thou, with such compassion,
Bear so long with things so low ?
Holy Ghost, come down, &c.

572

Frances R. Havergal, 1836-79.

I COULD not do without thee,
O Saviour of the lost,
Whose precious Blood redeemed me
At such tremendous cost ;

MISSION SERVICES.

Thy righteousness, thy pardon,
Thy precious Blood must be
My only hope and comfort,
My glory and my plea.

2 I could not do without thee,
I cannot stand alone,
I have no strength or goodness,
No wisdom of my own ;
But thou, beloved Saviour.
Art all in all to me,
And weakness will be power
If leaning hard on thee.

3 I could not do without thee,
O Jesus, Saviour dear ;
E'en when my eyes are holden
I know that thou art near ;
How dreary and how lonely
This changeful life would be Without the sweet communion,
The secret rest with thee.

4. I could not do without thee ;
For years are fleeting fast,
And soon in solemn loneliness
The river must be passed ;
But thou wilt never leave me,
And though the waves roll high,
I know thou wilt be near me,
And whisper, ' It is I.'

573

L. Hartsough.

I HEAR thy welcome voice,
That calls me, Lord, to thee,
For cleansing in thy precious Blood
That flowed on Calvary.

*I am coming, Lord !
Coming now to thee !
Wash me, cleanse me, in the Blood
That flowed on Calvary.*

MISSION SERVICES.

- 2 Though coming weak and vile,
 Thou dost my strength assure ;
 Thou dost my vileness fully cleanse,
 Till spotless all and pure.
- 3 'Tis Jesus calls me on
 To perfect faith and love,
 To perfect hope, and peace, and trust
 For earth and heaven above.
- 4 'Tis Jesus who confirms
 The blessed work within,
 By adding grace to welcomed grace,
 Where reigned the power of sin.
5. All hail, atoning Blood !
 All hail, redeeming grace !
 All hail, the gift of Christ our Lord,
 Our Strength and Righteousness !

574

H. Bonar, 1808-89.

- I HEARD the voice of Jesus say,
 ‘ Come unto me and rest ;
 Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
 Thy head upon my breast : ’
I came to Jesus as I was,
 Weary, and worn, and sad ;
I found in him a resting-place,
 And he has made me glad.
- 2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 ‘ Behold, I freely give
 The living water, thirsty one ;
 Stoop down, and drink, and live : ’
I came to Jesus, and I drank
 Of that life-giving stream ;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
 And now I live in him.

MISSION SERVICES.

3. I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 'I am this dark world's Light ;
Look unto me, thy morn shall rise,
 And all thy day be bright :'
I looked to Jesus, and I found
 In him my Star, my Sun ;
And in that light of life I'll walk
 Till travelling days are done.

575

H. Bonar, 1808-89.

- I LAY my sins on Jesus,
The spotless Lamb of God ;
He bears them all, and frees us
 From the accursèd load.
I bring my guilt to Jesus,
 To wash my crimson stains
White in his Blood most precious,
 Till not a spot remains.
- 2 I lay my wants on Jesus—
 All fullness dwells in him ;
He heals all my diseases,
 He doth my soul redeem.
I lay my griefs on Jesus,
 My burdens and my cares ;
He from them all releases,
 He all my sorrows shares.
- 3 I rest my soul on Jesus,
 This weary soul of mine ;
His right hand me embraces,
 I on his breast recline.
I love the name of Jesus—
 Immanuel, Christ, the Lord ;
Like fragrance on the breezes
 His name abroad is poured.
4. I long to be like Jesus,
 Meek, loving, lowly, mild ;
I long to be like Jesus,
 The Father's holy Child.

MISSION SERVICES.

I long to be with Jesus,
Amid the heavenly throng,
To sing with Saints his praises,
To learn the Angels' song.

576

F. Whitfield †, 1827-1904.

- I NEED thee, precious Jesu,
For I am full of sin ;
My soul is dark and guilty,
My heart is dead within.
I need the cleansing fountain
Where I can always flee,
The Blood of Christ most precious,
The sinner's perfect plea.
- 2 I need thee, precious Jesu,
For I am very poor ;
A stranger and a pilgrim,
I have no earthly store.
I need the love of Jesus
To cheer me on my way,
To guide my doubting footsteps,
To be my strength and stay.
- 3 I need thee, precious Jesu :
I need a friend like thee,
A friend to soothe and pity,
A friend to care for me.
I need the heart of Jesus
To feel each anxious care,
To tell my every trouble,
And all my sorrow share.
4. I need thee, precious Jesu,
And hope to see thee soon,
Encircled with the rainbow,
And seated on thy throne ;
There, with thy blood-bought children,
My joy shall ever be,
To sing thy praises, Jesu,
To gaze, my Lord, on thee.

MISSION SERVICES.

577

J. E. Bode, 1816-74.

- O JESUS, I have promised
To serve thee to the end ;
Be thou for ever near me,
My Master and my Friend ,
I shall not fear the battle
If thou art by my side,
Nor wander from the pathway
If thou wilt be my Guide.
- 2 O let me feel thee near me :
The world is ever near ;
I see the sights that dazzle,
The tempting sounds I hear ;
My foes are ever near me,
Around me and within ;
But, Jesus, draw thou nearer,
And shield my soul from sin.
- 3 O let me hear thee speaking
In accents clear and still,
Above the storms of passion,
The murmurs of self-will ;
O speak to reassure me,
To hasten or control ;
O speak, and make me listen,
Thou Guardian of my soul.
- 4 O Jesus, thou hast promised
To all who follow thee,
That where thou art in glory
There shall thy servant be ;
And, Jesus, I have promised
To serve thee to the end ;
O give me grace to follow,
My Master and my Friend.
5. O let me see thy footmarks,
And in them plant mine own ;
My hope to follow duly
Is in thy strength alone ;

MISSION SERVICES.

O guide me, call me, draw me,
Uphold me to the end ;
And then in heaven receive me,
My Saviour and my Friend.

578

Bishop W. W. How, 1823-97.

O JESU, thou art standing
Outside the fast-closed door,
In lowly patience waiting
To pass the threshold o'er :
Shame on us, Christian brothers,
His name and sign who bear,
O shame, thrice shame upon us
To keep him standing there !

2 O Jesu, thou art knocking :
And lo ! that hand is scarred,
And thorns thy brow encircle,
And tears thy face have marred :
O love that passeth knowledge
So patiently to wait !
O sin that hath no equal
So fast to bar the gate !

3. O Jesu, thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,
'I died for you, my children,
And will ye treat me so ?'
O Lord, with shame and sorrow
We open now the door :
Dear Saviour, enter, enter,
And leave us nevermore.

579

J. S. B. Monsell, 1811-75.

REST of the weary,
Joy of the sad,
Hope of the dreary,
Light of the glad ;

MISSION SERVICES.

Home of the stranger
Strength to the end,
Refuge from danger,
Saviour and Friend.

2 Pillow where, lying,
Love rests its head ;
Peace of the dying,
Life of the dead ;•
Path of the lowly,
Prize at the end ;
Breath of the holy,
Saviour and Friend.

3 When my feet stumble,
I'll to thee cry ;
Crown of the humble,
Cross of the high.
When my steps wander,
Over me bend,
Truer and fonder,
Saviour and Friend.

4. Ever confessing
Thee, I will raise
Unto thee blessing,
Glory and praise ;
All my endeavour,
World without end,
Thine to be ever,
Saviour and Friend.

580

Frances J. Van Alstyne †.

SAFE in the arms of Jesus,
Safe on his gentle breast,
There, by his love o'ershadowed,
Sweetly my soul shall rest.

MISSION SERVICES.

Hark ! 'tis the voice of Angels
 Borne in a song to me,
 Over the fields of glory,
 Over the jasper sea.
Safe in the arms, &c.

2 Safe in the arms of Jesus,
 Safe from corroding care,
 Safe from the world's temptations,
 Sin shall not harm me there.
 Free from the blight of sorrow,
 Free from my doubts and fears,
 Free from my daily trials,
 Free from my frequent tears.
Safe in the arms, &c.

3. Jesus, my heart's dear Refuge,
 Jesus has died for me ;
 Firm on the Rock of ages
 Ever my trust shall be.
 Here let me wait with patience,
 Wait till the night is o'er ;
 Then may I see the morning
 Break on the golden shore.
Safe in the arms, &c.

581

G. Duffield, 1818-88.

STAND up !—stand up for Jesus !
 Ye soldiers of the Cross ;
 Lift high his royal banner,
 It must not suffer loss.
 From victory unto victory
 His army he shall lead,
 Till every foe is vanquished,
 And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up !—stand up for Jesus !
 The solemn watchword hear,
 If while ye sleep he suffers,
 Away with shame and fear ;

MISSION SERVICES.

Where'er ye meet with evil,
Within you or without,
Charge for the God of battles,
And put the foe to rout.

3 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
The trumpet call obey,
Forth to the mighty conflict
In this his glorious day,
Ye that are men now serve him
Against unnumbered foes;
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

4 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you,
Ye dare not trust your own.
Put on the Gospel armour,
Each piece put on with prayer;
Where duty calls or danger,
Be never wanting there!

5. Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song.
To him that overcometh
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of Glory
Shall reign eternally.

582

Frances R. Havergal, 1836-79.

TAKE my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to thee;
Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.
Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of thy love.
Take my feet, and let them be
Swift and beautiful for thee.

MISSION SERVICES.

- 2 Take my voice, and let me sing
 Always, only, for my King ;
 Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from thee.
- Take my silver and my gold ;
 Not a mite would I withhold.
- Take my intellect, and use
 Every power as thou shalt choose.
3. Take my will, and make it thine:
 It shall be no longer mine.
 Take my heart ; it is thine own :
 It shall be thy royal throne.
 Take my love ; my Lord, I pour
 At thy feet its treasure-store.
 Take myself, and I will be
 Ever, only, all for thee.

583

K. Hankey.

TELL me the old, old story,
 Of unseen things above,
 Of Jesus and his glory,
 Of Jesus and his love.
 Tell me the story simply,
 As to a little child,
 For I am weak and weary,
 And helpless and defiled.
*Tell me the old, old story,
 Of Jesus and his love.*

- 2 Tell me the story slowly,
 That I may take it in—
 That wonderful redemption,
 God's remedy for sin.
 Tell me the story often,
 For I forget so soon ;
 The early dew of morning
 Has passed away at noon.
- 3 Tell me the story softly,
 With earnest tones and grave ;

MISSION SERVICES

Remember, I'm the sinner
Whom Jesus came to save.
Tell me that story always,
If you would really be,
In any time of trouble,
A comforter to me.

4. Tell me the same old story,
When you have cause to fear
That this world's empty glory
Is costing me too dear.
Yes, and when that world's glory
Shall dawn upon my soul,
Tell me the old, old story,
'Christ Jesus makes thee whole.'

584

Elizabeth C. Clephane, 1830-69.

- THERE were ninety and nine that safely lay
In the shelter of the fold,
And one was out on the hills away,
Far off from the gates of gold ;
Away on the mountains wild and bare,
Away from the tender Shepherd's care.
- 2 'Lord, thou hast here thy ninety and nine ;
Are they not enough for thee ?'
But the Shepherd made answer : 'This of mine
Has wandered away from me ;
And although the road be rough and steep,
I go to the desert to find my sheep.'
- 3 But none of the ransomed ever knew
How deep were the waters crossed ;
Nor how dark the night that the Lord passed through
Ere he found his sheep that was lost.
Out in the desert he heard its cry—
Sick and hopeless, and ready to die.
- 4 'Lord, whence are those blood-drops all the way,
That mark out the mountain's track ?'
'They were shed for one that had gone astray
Ere the Shepherd could bring him back.'

MISSION SERVICES.

‘Lord, whence are thy hands so rent and torn?’
 ‘They are pierced to-night by many a thorn.’

5. And all through the mountains, thunder-riven,
 And up from the rocky steep,
 There rose a cry to the gates of heaven,
 ‘Rejoice! I have found my sheep!’
 And the Angels echoed around the throne,
 ‘Rejoice, for the Lord brings back his own!’

585

Emily E. S. Elliott, 1835-97.

THOU didst leave thy throne and thy kingly
 crown
 When thou camest to earth for me;
 But in Bethlehem's home was there found no room
 For thy holy nativity.

*O come to my heart, Lord Jesus;
 There is room in my heart for thee.*

- 2 Heaven's arches rang when the Angels sang,
 Proclaiming thy royal degree;
 But in lowly birth didst thou come to earth,
 And in great humility.
- 3 The foxes found rest, and the birds had their nest
 In the shade of the cedar tree;
 But thy couch was the sod, O thou Son of God,
 In the deserts of Galilee.
- 4 Thou camest, O Lord, with the living word
 That should set thy people free;
 But with mocking scorn, and with crown of thorn
 They bore thee to Calvary.
5. When heaven's arches shall ring, and her choirs shall sing
 At thy coming to victory,
 Let thy voice call me home, saying, Yet there is room,
 There is room at my side for thee.

PART IX.
AT CATECHISM.

586

K. Hankey.

ADVENT tells us, Christ is near :
Christmas tells us Christ is here !
In Epiphany we trace
All the glory of his grace.

2 Those three Sundays before Lent
Will prepare us to repent ;
That in Lent we may begin
Earnestly to mourn for sin.

3 Holy Week and Easter, then,
Tell who died and rose again :
O that happy Easter Day !
'Christ is risen indeed,' we say.

4 Yes, and Christ ascended, too,
To prepare a place for you ;
So we give him special praise,
After those great Forty Days.

5 Then, he sent the Holy Ghost,
On the Day of Pentecost,
With us ever to abide :
Well may we keep Whitsuntide !

6. Last of all, we humbly sing
Glory to our God and King,
Glory to the One in Three,
On the Feast of Trinity.

AT CATECHISM.

587 Suitable also for Adults.

Mrs. C. F. Alexander, 1823-95.

ALL things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.

2 Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings.

3 The purple-headed mountain,
The river running by,
The sunset and the morning,
That brightens up the sky ;

4 The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,—
He made them every one ;

5* The tall trees in the greenwood,
The meadows where we play,
The rushes by the water,
We gather every day ;—

6. He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well.

588

• Bishop W. W. How, 1823-97.

BEHOLD a little Child,
Laid in a manger bed ;
The wintry blasts blow wild
Around his infant head.
But who is this so lowly laid ?
'Tis he by whom the worlds were made.

AT CATECHISM.

- 2 Alas ! in what poor state
The Son of God is seen ;
Why doth the Lord so great
Choose out a home so mean ?
That we may learn from pride to flee,
And follow his humility.
- 3 Where Joseph plies his trade,
Lo ! Jesus labours too ;
The hands that all things made
An earthly craft pursue,
That weary men in him may rest,
And faithful toil through him be blest.
- 4 Among the doctors see
The Boy so full of grace ;
Say, wherefore taketh he
The scholar's lowly place ?
That Christian boys, with reverence meet,
May sit and learn at Jesus' feet.
5. Christ ! once thyself a boy,
Our boyhood guard and guide ;
Be thou its light and joy,
And still with us abide,
That thy dear love, so great and free,
May draw us evermore to thee.

589

Mrs. C. F. Alexander, 1823-95.

DO no sinful action,
Speak no angry word ;
Ye belong to Jesus,
Children of the Lord.

- 2 Christ is kind and gentle,
Christ is pure and true ;
And his little children
Must be holy too.

AT CATECHISM.

3 There's a wicked spirit
Watching round you still,
And he tries to tempt you
To all harm and ill.

4 But ye must not hear him,
Though 'tis hard for you
To resist the evil,
And the good to do.

5 For ye promised truly,
In your infant days,
To renounce him wholly,
And forsake his ways.

6 Ye are new-born Christians,
Ye must learn to fight
With the bad within you,
And to do the right.

7. Christ is your own Master,
He is good and true,
And his little children
Must be holy too.

590 Suitable also for Adults.

Mrs. C. F. Alexander, 1823-95.

EVERY morning the red sun
Rises warm and bright ;
But the evening cometh on,
And the dark, cold night.
There's a bright land far away,
Where 'tis never-ending day.

2 Every spring the sweet young flowers
Open bright and gay,
Till the chilly autumn hours
Wither them away.
There's a land we have not seen,
Where the trees are always green.

AT CATECHISM.

- 3 Little birds sing songs of praise
All the summer long,
But in colder, shorter days
They forget their song.
There's a place where Angels sing,
Ceaseless praises to their King.
- 4 Christ our Lord is ever near
Those who follow him ;
But we cannot see him here,
For our eyes are dim ;
There is a most happy place,
Where men always see his face.
5. Who shall go to that bright land ?
All who do the right :
Holy children there shall stand
In their robes of white ;
For that heaven, so bright and blest,
Is our everlasting rest.

591

C. Wesley, 1707-88.

GENTLE Jesus, meek and mild,
Look upon a little child ;
Pity my simplicity,
Suffer me to come to thee.

- 2 Fain I would to thee be brought,
Dearest God, forbid it not ;
Give me, dearest God, a place
In the kingdom of thy grace.

Part 2.

- 3 Lamb of God, I look to thee ;
Thou shalt my example be :
Thou art gentle, meek and mild,
Thou wast once a little child.
- 4 Fain I would be as thou art ;
Give me thy obedient heart.
Thou art pitiful and kind,
Let me have thy loving mind.

AT CATECHISM.

- 5 Let me, above all, fulfil
God my heavenly Father's will,
Never his good Spirit grieve,
Only to his glory live.

Part 3.

- 6 Thou didst live to God alone ;
Thou didst never seek thine own ;
Thou thyself didst never please :
God was all thy happiness.
- 7 Loving Jesus, gentle Lamb,
In thy gracious hands I am :
Make me, Saviour, what thou art ;
Live thyself within my heart.
8. I shall then show forth thy praise,
Serve thee all my happy days ;
Then the world shall always see
Christ, the holy Child, in me.

592

HAIL the Sign, the Sign of Jesus,
Bright and royal Tree !
Standard of the Monarch, planted
First on Calvary !

*Hail the Sign all signs excelling,
Hail the Sign all ills dispelling,
Hail the Sign hell's power quelling,
Cross of Christ, all hail !*

- 2 Sign the Martyrs' strength and refuge,
Sign to Saints so dear !
Sign of evil men abhorred,
Sign which devils fear :

AT CATECHISM.

- 3 Sign which, when the Lord returneth,
In the heavens shall be ;
Sinners quail, while Saints with rapture
Shall the vision see :
- 4 Lo, I sign the Cross of Jesus
Meekly on my breast ;
May it guard my heart when living,
Dying be its rest :
5. In the name of God the Father,
Name of God the Son,
Name of God the blessed Spirit,
Ever Three in One :

593

Bishop Chr. Wordsworth, 1807-85.

- HEAVENLY Father, send thy blessing
On thy children gathered here,
May they all, thy name confessing,
Be to thee for ever dear ;
May they be, like Joseph, loving,
Dutiful, and chaste, and pure ;
And their faith, like David proving,
Steadfast unto death endure.
- 2 Holy Saviour, who in meekness
Didst vouchsafe a Child to be,
Guide their steps, and help their weakness,
Bless, and make them like to thee ;
Bear thy lambs when they are weary,
In thine arms, and at thy breast ;
Through life's desert, dry and dreary,
Bring them to thy heavenly rest.
3. Spread thy golden pinions o'er them,
Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
Guide them, lead them, go before them,
Give them peace, and joy, and love ;

AT CATECHISM.

Temples of the Holy Spirit,
May they with thy glory shine,
And immortal bliss inherit,
And for evermore be thine !

Emily Miller.

I LOVE to hear the story
Which Angel voices tell,
How once the King of glory
Came down on earth to dwell.
I am both weak and sinful,
But this I surely know,
The Lord came down to save me,
Because he loved me so.

2 I'm glad my blessèd Saviour
Was once a Child like me,
To shōw how pure and holy
His little ones might be ;
And if I try to follow
His footsteps here below,
He never will forsake me,
Because he loves me so.

3. To tell his love and mercy
My sweetest songs I'll raise ;
And though I cannot see him,
I know he hears my praise ;
For he himself has promised
That even I may go
To sing among his Angels,
Because he loves me so.

595

Mrs. J. Luke, 1813-1906.

I THINK when I read that sweet story of old,
When Jesus was here among men,
How he called little children as lambs to his fold,
I should like to have been with him then.

AT CATECHISM.

I wish that his hands had been placed on my head,
That his arm had been thrown around me ;
And that I might have seen his kind look when he said,

‘Let the little ones come unto me.’

- 2 Yet still to his footstool in prayer I may go,
And ask for a share in his love ;
And if I thus earnestly seek him below,
I shall see him and hear him above :
In that beautiful place he is gone to prepare
For all that are washed and forgiven,
And many dear children are gathering there,
‘For of such is the kingdom of heaven.’
3. But thousands and thousands who wander and fall
Never heard of that heavenly home ;
I should like them to know there is room for them all,
And that Jesus has bid them to come.
I long for the joy of that glorious time,
The sweetest, and brightest, and best,
When the dear little children of every clime
Shall crowd to his arms and be blest.

596

W. Chatterton Dix, 1837-98.

IN our work, and in our play,
Jesus, be thou ever near ;
Guarding, guiding all the day,
Keeping in thy holy fear.

- 2 Thou didst toil, O royal Child,
In the far-off Holy Land,
Blessing labour undefiled,
Pure and honest, of the hand.

- 3 Thou wilt bless our play-hour too,
If we ask thy succour strong ;
Watch o'er all we say or do,
Hold us back from guilt and wrong.

AT CATECHISM.

4. O ! how happy thus to spend
Work and playtime in his sight,
Who that day which shall not end
Gives to those who do the right.

597

Bishop W. W. How, 1823-97.

- IT is a thing most wonderful,
Almost too wonderful to be,
That God's own Son should come from heaven,
And die to save a child like me.
- 2 And yet I know that it is true :
He chose a poor and humble lot,
And wept, and toiled, and mourned, and died,
For love of those who loved him not.
- 3 I cannot tell how he could love
A child so weak and full of sin ;
His love must be most wonderful,
If he could die my love to win.
- 4 I sometimes think about the Cross,
And shut my eyes, and try to see
The cruel nails and crown of thorns,
And Jesus crucified for me.
- 5 But even could I see him die,
I could but see a little part
Of that great love, which, like a fire,
Is always burning in his heart.
- 6 It is most wonderful to know
His love for me so free and sure ;
But 'tis more wonderful to see
My love for him so faint and poor.
7. And yet I want to love thee, Lord ;
O light the flame within my heart,
And I will love thee more and more,
Until I see thee as thou art.

JESU, good above all other,
Gentle Child of gentle Mother,
In a stable born our Brother,
Give us grace to persevere.

2 Jesu, cradled in a manger,
For us facing every danger,
Living as a homeless stranger,
Make we thee our King most dear.

3 Jesu, for thy people dying,
Risen Master, death defying,
Lord in heaven, thy grace supplying,
Keep us by thine altar near.

4 Jesu, who our sorrows bearest,
All our thoughts and hopes thou sharest,
Thou to man the truth declarest ;
Help us all thy truth to hear.

5. Lord, in all our doings guide us ;
Pride and hate shall ne'er divide us ;
We'll go on with thee beside us,
And with joy we'll persevere !

599 Evening. Mary L. Duncan, 1814-40.

JESU, tender Shepherd, hear me,
Bless thy little lamb to-night ;
Through the darkness be thou near me,
Watch my sleep till morning light.

2 All this day thy hand has led me,
And I thank thee for thy care ;
Thou hast clothed me, warmed and fed me,
Listen to my evening prayer.

3. Let my sins be all forgiven,
Bless the friends I love so well ;
Take me, when I die, to heaven,
Happy there with thee to dwell.

Mrs. J. A. Carney (1845).

LITTLE drops of water,
Little grains of sand,
Make the mighty ocean
And the beauteous land.

2 And the little moments,
Humble though they be,
Make the mighty ages
Of eternity.

3 Little deeds of kindness,
Little words of love,
Make our earth an Eden,
Like the heaven above.

4 So our little errors
Lead the soul away,
From the paths of virtue
Into sin to stray.

5 Little seeds of mercy
Sown by youthful hands,
Grow to bless the nations
Far in heathen lands.

6. Glory then for ever
Be to Father, Son,
With the Holy Spirit,
Blessèd Three in One. Amen.

601

Jane Taylor, 1783-1824.

LORD, I would own thy tender care,
And all thy love to me ;
The food I eat, the clothes I wear,
Are all bestowed by thee.

2 'Tis thou preservest me from death
And dangers every hour ;
I cannot draw another breath
Unless thou give me power.

AT CATECHISM.

- 3 Kind Angels guard me every night,
As round my bed they stay ;
Nor am I absent from thy sight
In darkness or by day.
- 4 My health and friends and parents dear
To me by God are given ;
I have not any blessing here
But what is sent from heaven.
5. Such goodness, Lord, and constant care,
A child can ne'er repay ;
But may it be my daily prayer
To love thee and obey.

602

Jane E. Leeson, 1807-82.

- LOVING Shepherd of thy sheep,
Keep thy lamb, in safety keep ;
Nothing can thy power withstand,
None can pluck me from thy hand.
- 2 Loving Saviour, thou didst give
Thine own life that we might live ;
And the hands outstretched to bless
Bear the cruel nails' impress.
 - 3 I would bless thee every day,
Gladly all thy will obey,
Like thy blessed ones above,
Happy in thy precious love.
 - 4 Loving Shepherd, ever near,
Teach thy lamb thy voice to hear ;
Suffer not my steps to stray
From the straight and narrow way.
 5. Where thou leadest I would go,
Walking in thy steps below,
Till before my Father's throne
I shall know as I am known.

NOW the day is over,
Night is drawing nigh,
Shadows of the evening
Steal across the sky.

2 Now the darkness gathers,
Stars begin to peep,
Birds and beasts and flowers
Soon will be asleep.

3 Jesu, give the weary
Calm and sweet repose ;
With thy tenderest blessing
May our eyelids close.

4 Grant to little children
Visions bright of thee ;
Guard the sailors tossing
On the deep blue sea.

5 Comfort every sufferer
Watching late in pain ;
Those who plan some evil
From their sin restrain.

6 Through the long night watches
May thine Angels spread
Their white wings above me,
Watching round my bed.

7 When the morning wakens,
Then may I arise
Pure, and fresh, and sinless
In thy holy eyes.

8. Glory to the Father,
Glory to the Son,
And to thee, blest Spirit,
Whilst all ages run. Amen.

O DEAREST Lord, by all adored,
Our trespasses confessing,
To thee this day thy children pray,
The holy Faith professing !
Accept, O King, the gifts we bring,
Our songs of praise, the prayers we raise ;
And grant us, Lord, thy blessing.

O NCE in royal David's city
Stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a Mother laid her Baby
In a manger for his bed :
Mary was that Mother mild,
Jesus Christ her little Child.

2 He came down to earth from heaven,
Who is God and Lord of all,
And his shelter was a stable,
And his cradle was a stall ;
With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

3 And through all his wondrous childhood
He would honour and obey,
Love, and watch the lowly Maiden,
In whose gentle arms he lay ;
Christian children all must be
Mild, obedient, good, as he.

4 For he is our childhood's pattern,
Day by day like us he grew,
He was little, weak, and helpless,
Tears and smiles like us he knew ;
And he feeleth for our sadness,
And he shareth in our gladness.

AT CATECHISM.

- 5 And our eyes at last shall see him,
Through his own redeeming love,
For that Child so dear and gentle
Is our Lord in heaven above ;
And he leads his children on
To the place where he is gone.
6. Not in that poor lowly stable,
With the oxen standing by,
We shall see him ; but in heaven,
Set at God's right hand on high ;
When like stars his children crowned
All in white shall wait around.

606

R. S. Hawker, 1804-73.

- SING to the Lord the children's hymn,
His gentle love declare,
Who bends amid the Seraphim
To hear the children's prayer.
- 2 He at a mother's breast was fed,
Though God's own Son was he ;
He learnt the first small words he said
At a meek mother's knee.
- 3 He held us to his mighty breast,
The children of the earth ;
He lifted up his hands and blessed
The babes of human birth.
- 4 Lo ! from the stars his face will turn
On us with glances mild ;
The Angels of his presence yearn
To bless the little child.
5. Keep us, O Jesus, Lord, for thee,
That so, by thy dear grace,
We, children of the font, may see
Our heavenly Father's face.

AT CATECHISM.

A. Midlane.

- THERE'S a Friend for little children
 Above the bright blue sky,
 A Friend who never changes,
 Whose love will never die ;
 Our earthly friends may fail us,
 And change with changing years,
 This Friend is always worthy
 Of that dear name he bears.
- 2 There's a rest for little children
 Above the bright blue sky,
 Who love the blessed Saviour,
 And to the Father cry ;
 A rest from every trouble,
 From sin and danger free,
 Where every little pilgrim
 Shall rest eternally.
- 3 There's a home for little children
 Above the bright blue sky,
 Where Jesus reigns in glory,
 A home of peace and joy ;
 No home on earth is like it,
 Nor can with it compare ;
 And every one is happy,
 Nor could be happier there.
- 4 There's a crown for little children
 Above the bright blue sky,
 And all who look to Jesus
 Shall wear it by and by ;
 A crown of brightest glory,
 Which he will then bestow
 On those who found his favour
 And loved his name below.
- 5 There's a song for little children
 Above the bright blue sky,
 A song that will not weary,
 Though sung continually ;

AT CATECHISM.

A song which even Angels
Can never, never sing ;
They know not Christ as Saviour
But worship him as King.

6. There's a robe for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
And a harp of sweetest music,
•And palms of victory.
All, all above is treasured,
And found in Christ alone ;
O come, dear little children,
That all may be your own.

608 Suitable also for Adults. A. Young, 1807-89.

THERE is a happy land,
Far, far away,
Where Saints in glory stand,
Bright, bright as day.
O, how they sweetly sing,
Worthy is our Saviour King !
Loud let his praises ring,
Praise, praise for ay.

- 2 Come to this happy land,
Come, come away ;
Why will ye doubting stand ?
Why still delay ?
O, we shall happy be,
When, from sin and sorrow free,
Lord, we shall live with thee,
Blest, blest for ay.

3. Bright in that happy land
Beams every eye ;
Kept by a Father's hand
Love cannot die.
On then to glory run,
Be a crown and kingdom won,
And bright above the sun
Reign, reign for ay !

Morning.

W. Canton.

THROUGH the night thy Angels kept
Watch beside me while I slept ;
Now the dark has passed away,
Thank thee, Lord, for this new day.

2 North and south and east and west
May thy holy name be blest ;
Everywhere beneath the sun,
As in heaven, thy will be done.

3. Give me food that I may live ;
Every naughtiness forgive ;
Keep all evil things away
From thy little child this day.

610

Mrs. C. F. Alexander, 1823-95.

WE are but little children poor,
And born in very low estate ;
What can we do for Jesu's sake,
Who is so high and good and great ?

2* We know the Holy Innocents
Laid down for him their infant life,
And Martyrs brave and patient Saints
Have stood for him in fire and strife.

3* We wear the Cross they wore of old,
Our lips have learned like vows to make ;
We need not die, we cannot fight,—
What may we do for Jesu's sake ?

4 O, day by day, each Christian child,
Has much to do, without, within,—
A death to die for Jesu's sake,
A weary war to wage with sin.

5 When deep within our swelling hearts
The thoughts of pride and anger rise,
When bitter words are on our tongues,
And tears of passion in our eyes,—

AT CATECHISM.

- 6 Then we may stay the angry blow,
Then we may check the hasty word,
Give gentle answers back again,
And fight a battle for our Lord.
7. There's not a child so small and weak
But has his little cross to take,
His little work of love and praise
That he may do for Jesu's sake !

611

Laurence Housman.

- WHEN Christ was born in Bethlehem,
Fair peace on earth to bring,
In lowly state of love he came
To be the children's King.
- 2 A mother's heart was there his throne,
His orb a maiden's breast,
Whereby he made through love alone
His kingdom manifest.
- 3 And round him, then, a holy band
Of children blest was born,
Fair guardians of his throne to stand
Attendant night and morn.
- 4 And unto them this grace was given
A Saviour's name to own,
And die for him who out of heaven
Had found on earth a throne.
- 5 O blessed babes of Bethlehem,
Who died to save our King,
Ye share the Martyrs' diadem,
And in their anthem sing !
- 6 Your lips, on earth that never spake,
Now sound the eternal word ;
And in the courts of love ye make
Your children's voices heard.

AT CATECHISM.

7. Lord Jesus Christ, eternal Child,
Make thou our childhood thine ;
That we with these the meek and mild
May share the love divine.

612

B. R. Hanby.

WHO is he, in yonder stall,
At whose feet the shepherds fall ?
'Tis the Lord ! O wondrous story !
'Tis the Lord, the King of Glory !
At his feet we humbly fall ;
Crown him, crown him Lord of all !
At his feet we humbly fall—the Lord of all :
Crown him, Lord of all !

- 2 Who is he, in yonder cot,
Bending to his toilsome lot ?
3 Who is he, in deep distress,
Fasting in the wilderness ?
4 Who is he that stands and weeps
At the grave where Lazarus sleeps ?
5 Lo ! at midnight, who is he,
Prays in dark Gethsemane ?
6 Who is he, in Calvary's throes,
Asks for blessings on his foes ?
7 Who is he that from the grave
Comes to heal and help and save ?
8. Who is he that on yon throne
Rules the world of light alone ?

The simpler Hymns in other parts of the book are also suitable for use at Catechism, and should be freely used in addition to the Hymns in this part. A list of such hymns is given in the Musical Edition.

PART X.

PROCESSIONAL.

The following Hymns need not always be sung in the order given: those in the first section (613-640) which are not taken from the English processionals are arranged on similar principles, but are suitable also for use as separate hymns on other occasions.

A CHRISTMAS PROCESSION.

613

Prudentius, b. 348. Tr. R. F. D.

Corde natus ex parentis.

OF the Father's heart begotten,
Ere the world from chaos rose,
He is Alpha: from that Fountain
All that is and hath been flows;
He is Omega, of all things
Yet to come the mystic Close,
Evermore and evermore.

- 2 By his word was all created;
He commanded and 'twas done;
Earth and sky and boundless ocean,
Universe of three in one,
All that sees the moon's soft radiance,
All that breathes beneath the sun,
- 3 He assumed this mortal body,
Frail and feeble, doomed to die,
That the race from dust created
Might not perish utterly,
Which the dreadful Law had sentenced
In the depths of hell to lie,
- 4 O how blest that wondrous birthday,
When the Maid the curse retrieved,
Brought to birth mankind's salvation,
By the Holy Ghost conceived;
And the Babe, the world's Redeemer,
In her loving arms received,

CHRISTMAS PROCESSION.

- 5 * This is he, whom seer and sybil
Sang in ages long gone by ;
This is he of old revealèd
In the page of prophecy ;
Lo ! he comes, the promised Saviour ;
Let the world his praises cry !
- 6 * Sing, ye heights of heaven, his praises ;
Angels and Archangels, sing !
Wheresoe'er ye be, ye faithful,
Let your joyous anthems ring,
Every tongue his name confessing,
Countless voices answering,
- 7 Hail ! thou Judge of souls departed ;
Hail ! of all the living King !
On the Father's right hand thronèd,
Through his courts thy praises ring,
Till at last for all offences
Righteous judgement thou shalt bring,

At the entrance into the Choir.

- 8 * Now let old and young uniting
Chant to thee harmonious lays,
Maid and matron hymn thy glory,
Infant lips their anthem raise,
Boys and girls together singing
With pure heart their song of praise,
9. Let the storm and summer sunshine,
Gliding stream and sounding shore,
Sea and forest, frost and zephyr,
Day and night their Lord adore ;
Let creation join to laud thee
Through the ages evermore,

At the Sanctuary step.

℣. Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

℞. God is the Lord who hath showed us light.

Collect for Christmas Day.

PROCESSIONAL.

A SECOND CHRISTMAS PROCESSION.

614 18th cent. Tr. F. Oakeley, W. T. Brooke, and others.

Adeste, fideles.

- O COME, all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem ;
Come and behold him
Born the King of Angels :
 O come, let us adore him,
 O come, let us adore him,
 O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord !
- 2 God of God,
Light of Light,
Lo ! he abhors not the Virgin's womb ;
Very God,
Begotten, not created :
- 3 See how the Shepherds,
Summoned to his cradle,
Leaving their flocks, draw nigh with lowly fear ;
We too will thither
Bend our joyful footsteps :
- 4 * Lo ! star-led chieftains,
Magi, Christ adoring,
Offer him incense, gold, and myrrh ;
We to the Christ Child
Bring our hearts' oblations :
- 5 Child, for us sinners
Poor and in the manger,
Fain we embrace thee, with awe and love ;
Who would not love thee,
Loving us so dearly ?
- 6 Sing, choirs of Angels,
Sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above ;
Glory to God
In the Highest :

EPIPHANY PROCESSION.

At the entrance into the Choir.

7. Yea, Lord, we greet thee,
Born this happy morning,
Jesu, to thee be glory given ;
Word of the Father,
Now in flesh appearing :

At the Sanctuary step.

Y. Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

R. God is the Lord, who hath showed us light.

Collect for Lady Day.

EPIPHANY PROCESSION.

615

G. Thring, 1823-1903.

FROM the eastern mountains
Pressing on they come,
Wise men in their wisdom,
To his humble home ;
Stirred by deep devotion,
Hasting from afar,
Ever journeying onward,
Guided by a star.

- 2 There their Lord and Saviour
Meek and lowly lay,
Wondrous light that led them
Onward on their way,
Ever now to lighten
Nations from afar,
As they journey homeward
By that guiding star.
- 3 Thou who in a manger
Once hast lowly lain,
Who dost now in glory
O'er all kingdoms reign,

PROCESSIONAL.

Gather in the heathen,
Who in lands afar
Ne'er have seen the brightness
Of thy guiding star.

4 Gather in the outcasts,
All who've gone astray,
Throw thy radiance o'er them,
Guide them on their way ;
Those who never knew thee,
Those who've wandered far,
Guide them by the brightness
Of thy guiding star.

5 Onward through the darkness
Of the lonely night,
Shining still before them
With thy kindly light,
Guide them, Jew and Gentile,
Homeward from afar,
Young and old together,
By thy guiding star.

6 *. Until every nation,
Whether bond or free,
'Neath thy star-lit banner,
Jesu, follows thee,
O'er the distant mountains
To that heavenly home
Where nor sin nor sorrow
Evermore shall come.

616 At the entrance into the Choir. Basil Woodd, 1760-1831.

HAIL, thou Source of every blessing,
Sovereign Father of mankind !
Gentiles now, thy grace possessing,
In thy courts admission find.

PALM SUNDAY PROCESSION.

- 2* Once far off, but now invited,
We approach thy sacred throne ;
In thy covenant united,
Reconciled, redeemed, made one.
- 3* Now revealed to eastern sages,
See the Star of mercy shine,
Mystery hid in former ages,
Mystery great of love divine.
4. Hail, thou universal Saviour !
Gentiles now their offerings bring,
In thy temple seek thy favour,
Jesus Christ, our Lord and King.

At the Sanctuary step.

- V. The voice of the Lord is upon the waters.
R. The Lord is upon many waters.

Collect for the Epiphany.

PALM SUNDAY.

617 Anthems during the Distribution of Palms. Sarum Processional.

The children of the Hebrews, carrying palms and olive-branches, went forth to meet the Lord, crying out and saying, Hosanna in the highest !

The children of the Hebrews spread in the way their clothes and garments, and cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David : Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord !

618 The prophetic Anthem. Sarum Processional.

O Jerusalem, look toward the East, and behold : lift up thine eyes, O Jerusalem, and behold the power of thy King !

PROCESSIONAL.

619 If required, the following Carol may also be sung.
G. Moultrie, 1829-85.

COME, faithful people, come away,
Your homage to your Monarch pay ;
It is the feast of palms to-day.
Hosanna in the highest !

- 2 When Christ, the Lord of all, drew nigh
On Sunday morn to Bethany,
He called two loved ones standing by :
- 3 'To yonder village go,' said he,
'An ass and foal tied shall ye see,
Loose them and bring them unto me :'
- 4 'If any man dispute your word,
Say, "They are needed by the Lord,"
And he permission will accord :'
- 5 The two upon their errand sped,
And found the ass as he had said,
And on the colt their clothes they spread :
- 6 They set him on his throne so rude ;
Before him went the multitude,
And in the way their garments strewed :
- 7 * Go, Saviour, thus to triumph borne,
Thy crown shall be the wreath of thorn,
Thy royal garb the robe of scorn :
- 8 * They thronged before, behind, around,
They cast palm-branches on the ground,
And still rose up the joyful sound :
- 9 * 'Blessèd is Israel's King,' they cry ;
'Blessèd is he that cometh nigh
In name of God the Lord most high :'
10. Thus, Saviour, to thy Passion go,
Arrayed in royalty of woe,
Assumed for sinners here below :

PALM SUNDAY PROCESSION.

620 And this Hymn. H. J. Milman, 1791-1868.

RIDE on ! ride on in majesty !
Hark, all the tribes hosanna cry ;
Thine humble beast pursues his road
With palms and scattered garments strowed.

2 Ride on ! ride on in majesty !
In lowly pomp ride on to die :
O Christ, thy triumphs now begin
O'er captive death and conquer'd sin.

3 Ride on ! ride on in majesty !
The winged squadrons of the sky
Look down with sad and wondering eyes
To see the approaching sacrifice.

4 Ride on ! ride on in majesty !
Thy last and fiercest strife is nigh ;
The Father, on his sapphire throne,
Expects his own anointed Son.

5. Ride on ! ride on in majesty !
In lowly pomp ride on to die ;
Bow thy meek head to mortal pain,
Then take, O God, thy power, and reign.

The Gospel. St. Matthew xxi. 1-9.

621 At the Procession. St. Theodulph of Orleans, d. 821.
(Sarum Processional.) Tr. W. J. B., and others.

Gloria, laus et honor.

GLORY and praise and dominion be thine, King
Christ the Redeemer :

Children in sweetness and grace raised their hosannas to thee.

2 Israel's King art thou, King David's glorious offspring,
Thou that approachest, a King, blest in the name of the Lord.

PROCESSIONAL.

- 3 Thee in the height extol thine Angels, thronging around thee,
Man with nature on earth joining, in act to adore.
4. Palm leaves bearing on high came Hebrew crowds to thy welcome ;
We with our prayers and our hymns now to thy presence draw near.

622 Or this Version of the above. Tr. J. M. Neale †.

*ALL glory, laud, and honour
To thee, Redeemer, King,
To whom the lips of children
Made sweet hosannas ring.*

- 2 Thou art the King of Israel,
Thou David's royal Son,
Who in the Lord's name comest,
The King and blessed One.
- 3 The company of Angels
Are praising thee on high,
And mortal men and all things
Created make reply.
- 4 The people of the Hebrews
With palms before thee went ;
Our praise and prayer and anthems
Before thee we present.
- 5 To thee before thy passion
They sang their hymns of praise ;
To thee now high exalted
Our melody we raise.
6. Thou didst accept their praises,
Accept the prayers we bring,
Who in all good delightest,
Thou good and gracious King.

PALM SUNDAY PROCESSION.

At the Chancel step.

O Saviour of the world, who by thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us, save us and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

623 At the entrance into the Choir. Claude de Santeuil, 1628-84. Tr. J. Chandler, and Sir H. W. Baker.

Prome vocem meus canoram.

NOW my soul, thy voice upraising,
Tell in sweet and mournful strain
How the Crucified, enduring
Grief and wounds, and dying pain,
Freely of his love was offered,
Sinless was for sinners slain.

2* See, his hands and feet are fastened !
So he makes his people free ;
Not a wound whence Blood is flowing
But a fount of grace shall be ;
Yea, the very nails which nail him
Nail us also to the Tree.

3. Jesu, may those precious fountains
Drink to thirsting souls afford ;
Let them be our cup and healing,
And at length our full reward :
So a ransomed world shall ever
Praise thee, its redeeming Lord.

At the Sanctuary step.

V. Deliver me from mine enemies, O God.

R. Defend me from them that rise up against me.

Collect for Palm Sunday.

PROCESSIONAL.

EASTER-DAY: MORNING PROCESSION.

624

Bishop Venantius Fortunatus, 530-609.

(Sarum Processional.) Tr. M. F. B.

Salve, festa dies.

*H*AIL thee, Festival Day! blest day that art
hallowed for ever;

Day wherein God o'ercame hell and arose from the dead.

2 Lo, the fair beauty of earth, from the death of the winter arising,

Every good gift of the year now with its Master returns.

3 He who was nailed to the Cross is God and the Ruler of all things;

All things created on earth worship the Maker
of all.

4 God of all pity and power, let thy word be assured to the doubting;

Light on the third day returns: rise, Son of God,
from the tomb!

5 Ill doth it seem that thy limbs should linger in lowly dishonour,

Ransom and price of the world, veiled from the vision of men.

6* Ill it beseemeth that thou, by whose hand all things are encompassed,

Captive and bound shouldst remain, deep in the gloom of the rock.

7* Rise now, O Lord, from the grave and cast off
the shroud that enwrapped thee;

Thou art sufficient for us: nothing without thee exists.

8 Mourning they laid thee to rest, who art Author of life and creation;

Treading the pathway of death, life thou bestow-
edst on man.

EASTER-DAY: MORNING PROCESSION.

- 9 Show us thy face once more, that the ages may joy in thy brightness ;
Give us the light of day, darkened on earth at thy death.
- 10 * Out of the prison of death thou art rescuing
numberless captives ;
Freely they tread in the way whither their Maker has gone.
- 11 *. Jesus has harrowed hell ; he has led captivity captive :
Darkness and chaos and death flee from the face of the light.

625 At the entrance into the Choir. Ascribed to 18th cent.
Finita jam sunt praelia. Tr. F. P.

THE strife is o'er, the battle done ;
Now is the Victor's triumph won ;
O let the song of praise be sung.

Alleluya !

- 2 Death's mightiest powers have done their worst,
And Jesus hath his foes dispersed ;
Let shouts of praise and joy outburst.
- 3 * On the third morn he rose again
Glorious in majesty to reign ;
O let us swell the joyful strain.
- 4 * He brake the age-bound chains of hell ;
The bars from heaven's high portals fell ;
Let hymns of praise his triumph tell.
5. Lord, by the stripes which wounded thee
From death's dread sting thy servants free,
That we may live, and sing to thee.

At the Sanctuary step.

℣. The Lord is risen from the tomb.

℞. Who for our sakes hung upon the Tree.

Alleluya.

Collect for Easter Day.

PROCESSIONAL.

EASTER-DAY : EVENING PROCESSION.

626

Ascribed to 17th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

O filii et filiae.

ALLELUYA ! Alleluya ! Alleluya !
Ye sons and daughters of the King,
Whom heavenly hosts in glory sing,
To-day the grave hath lost its sting.

Alleluya !

- 2 On that first morning of the week,
Before the day began to break,
The Marys went their Lord to seek.
- 3 An Angel bade their sorrow flee,
For thus he spake unto the three :
'Your Lord is gone to Galilee.'
- 4 That night the Apostles met in fear,
Amidst them came their Lord most dear,
And said : 'Peace be unto you here !'
- 5 When Thomas afterwards had heard
That Jesus had fulfilled his word,
He doubted if it were the Lord.
- 6 'Thomas, behold my side,' saith he,
'My hands, my feet, my body see ;
'And doubt not, but believe in me.'
- 7 No longer Thomas then denied ;
He saw the feet, the hands, the side ;
'Thou art my Lord and God,' he cried.
- 8 * Blessed are they that have not seen,
And yet whose faith hath constant been,
In life eternal they shall reign.
- 9 * On this most holy day of days,
To God your hearts and voices raise
In laud, and jubilee, and praise.
- 10 *. And we with Holy Church unite,
As evermore is just and right,
In glory to the King of Light.

EASTER-DAY: EVENING PROCESSION.

℣. The Lord is risen from the tomb.

℞. Who for our sakes hung upon the Tree.
Alleluya.

Collect for Easter Even.

In returning up the Nave. Ps. 115, Non nobis Domine, may be sung by Chanters and People in alternate verses, with Alleluya at the end of each verse.

At the Chancel step all may stand, while verse 15, Ye are the blessed of the Lord, to the end of the Gloria Patri is sung, followed by:

℣. Tell it out among the heathen.

℞. That the Lord hath reigned from the Tree.
Alleluya.

Collect for Palm Sunday.

627 At the entrance into the Choir. T. Kelly†, 1769-1854

THE Lord is risen indeed !
Now is his work performed ;
Now is the mighty Captive freed,
And death's strong castle stormed.

2 The Lord is risen indeed !
Then hell has lost his prey ;
With him is risen the ransomed seed
To reign in endless day.

3. The Lord is risen indeed !
He lives, to die no more ;
He lives, the sinner's cause to plead,
Whose curse and shame he bore.

At the Sanctuary step

℣. O Lord, hear our prayer.

℞. And let our cry come unto thee.

Collect for Lady Day.

PROCESSIONAL.

ASCENSION-DAY PROCESSION.

628

Bishop Venantius Fortunatus (530-609). (Sarum Processional.) Tr. P. D.

Salve, festa dies.

HAILEE thee, Festival Day! blest day that art
hallowed for ever;
Day when our God ascends high in the heavens to reign.

- 2 Lo, the fair beauty of earth, from the death of the winter arising,
Every good gift of the year now with its Master
returns.
- 3 Daily the loveliness grows, adorned with the glory of blossom;
Heaven her gates unbars, flinging her increase of light.
- 4 Christ in his triumph ascends, who hath vanquished the devil's dominion;
Gay is the woodland with leaves, bright are the meadows with flowers.
- 5 Christ overwhelms the domain of Hades and rises to heaven;
Fitly the light gives him praise—meadows and ocean and sky.
- 6 Loosen, O Lord, the enchained, the spirits imprisoned in darkness;
Rescue, recall into life those who are rushing to death.
- 7 * So shalt thou bear in thine arms an immaculate people to heaven,
Bearing them pure unto God, pledge of thy victory here.
- 8 * Jesu the Health of the world, Creator of man and Redeemer,
Son of the Father supreme, only-begotten of God!

WHIT-SUNDAY PROCESSION.

9 * Equal art thou, co-eternal, in fellowship ay with the Father ;

In the beginning by thee all was created and made.

10 *. And it was thou, blessèd Lord, who discerning humanity's sorrow,

Humbledst thyself for our race, taking our flesh for thine own.

629 At the entrance into the Choir. 17th cent. Tr. W. J. Blew.
Supreme Rector caelitum.

O KING most high of earth and sky
On prostrate death thou treadest,
And with thy Blood dost mark the road
Whereby to heaven thou leadest.

2 O Christ, behold thine orphaned fold,
Which thou hast borne with anguish,
Steeped in the tide from thy rent side :
O leave us not to languish !

3. The glorious gain of all thy pain
Henceforth dost thou inherit ;
Now comes the hour—then gently shower
On us thy promised Spirit !

At the Sanctuary step.

V. God is gone up with a merry noise.

R. And the Lord with the sound of the trump.
Alleluya !

Collect for Ascension-Day.

WHIT-SUNDAY PROCESSION.

630 c. 14th cent. (York Processional.) Tr. G. G.
Salve, festa dies.

HAIL thee, Festival Day ! blest day that art
hallowed for ever ;
Day wherein God from heaven shone on the world with his grace.

PROCESSIONAL.

- 2 Lo ! in the likeness of fire, on them that await his appearing,
He whom the Lord foretold, suddenly, swiftly, descends.
- 3 Forth from the Father he comes with his seven-
fold mystical dowry,
Pouring on human souls infinite riches of God.
- 4 Hark ! in a hundred tongues Christ's own, his chosen Apostles,
Preach to a hundred tribes Christ and his wonderful works.
- 5 Praise to the Spirit of life, all praise to the Fount of our being,
Light that dost lighten all, Life that in all dost abide. •
- 6 God, who art Giver of all good gifts and Lover of concord,
Pour thy balm on our souls, order our ways in thy peace.
- 7 * God Almighty, who fillest the heaven, the earth and the ocean,
Guard us from harm without, cleanse us from evil within.
- 8 *. Kindle our lips with the live bright coal from the hands of the Seraph ;
Shine in our minds with thy light ; burn in our hearts with thy love.

631 At the entrance into the Choir. Foundling Hospital Collection (1774).

SPIRIT of mercy, truth, and love,
Shed thy blest influence from above,
And still from age to age convey
The wonders of this sacred day.

TRINITY SUNDAY PROCESSION.

- 2 * In every clime, in every tongue,
Be God's eternal praises sung;
Through all the listening earth be taught
The acts our great Redeemer wrought.
3. Unfailing Comfort, heavenly Guide,
Over thy favoured Church preside;
Still may mankind thy blessings prove,
Spirit of mercy, truth, and love.

At the Sanctuary step.

- ℣. The Apostles did speak with other tongues.
℞. The wonderful works of God. Alleluya.

Collect for Whit-Sunday.

TRINITY SUNDAY PROCESSION.

632

18th cent. Tr. R. F. Littledale's.

Aeterna Lux, Divinitas.

ETERNAL Light, Divinity,
O Unity in Trinity,
Thy holy name thy servants bless,
To thee we pray, and thee confess.

- 2 We praise the Father, mighty One;
We praise the sole-begotten Son;
We praise the Holy Ghost above,
Who joins them in one bond of love.
- 3 For of the Father infinite
Begotten is the Light of light,
And from his love eternally
Proceeds the Spirit, God most high.
- 4 None can more high or holy be,
Co-equal is their Deity,
The substance of the Three is One,
And equal laud to them is done.

PROCESSIONAL.

- 5 The Three are One Immensity,
The Three One highest Verity,
The Three One perfect Charity,
And they are man's Felicity.
- 6 O Verity ! O Charity !
O Ending and Felicity !
In thee we hope, in thee believe,
Thyself we love, to thee we cleave.
- 7 Thou First and Last, from whom there springs
The Fount of all created things,
Thou art the Life which moves the whole,
Sure Hope of each believing soul.
- 8 * Thou who alone the world hast made,
Art still its one sufficing aid,
The only Light for gazing eyes,
And, unto them that hope, the Prize.
9. O Father, Source of God the Word,
O Word with him co-equal Lord,
O Spirit of like majesty,
O Triune God, all praise to thee. Amen.

633 *At the entrance into the Choir. Before 11th cent.
Tr. J. D. Chambers†.*

Ave colenda Trinitas.

ALL hail, adored Trinity ;
All hail, eternal Unity ;
O God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, ever One :

- 2* To thee, upon this holy day,
We offer up our thankful lay ;
Thou hearest in thy love's great wealth,
And praising thee is all our health.
- 3 Three Persons praise we evermore,
One only God our hearts adore ;
In thy sweet mercy ever kind
May we our sure protection find.

DEDICATION FESTIVAL PROCESSION

4. O Trinity ! O Unity !

Be present as we worship thee ;

And with the songs that Angels sing

Unite the hymns of praise we bring.

At the Sanctuary step.

℣. Blessed be the name of the Lord.

℞. From this time forth for evermore.

Collect for Trinity Sunday.

DEDICATION FESTIVAL PROCESSION.

634

c 13th cent. (York Processional.) Tr. M. F. B.

Salve, festa dies.

HAIL thee, Festival Day ! blest day that art
hallowed for ever ;

Day when the Church, Christ's bride, is to her bridegroom espoused.

2 This is the house of God, a place of peace and refreshing ;

Solomon here to the poor offers a treasure untold.

3 Scion of David is he who has called us to share in his glory ;

Here in his Father's house God we shall find him and man.

4 Ye who have put on Christ are indeed his mystical body,

If ye have kept the faith, longed to become as your Lord.

5 Mystical also the new and the heavenly city of Sion,

Fitly adorned for her spouse, clad with the light from on high.

6 * Here, at his holy font, does the heavenly King and the righteous

Grace for their cleansing and growth grant to his people on earth.

PROCESSIONAL.

- 7 * Tower of David is this ; here are pledges of life
and salvation,
If with unwavering feet swift to this stronghold we run.
- 8 * Here is the ark of God, a refuge of grace to the faithful ;
Safe to the haven it bears mariners tossed by the waves. .
9. Ladder of Jacob, by none but by thee we can mount to the heavens ;
Grant that thy people, O Lord, thither ascending may reign.

635 At the entrance into the Choir. I. Watts, 1674-1748, and J. Wesley.

ETERNAL Power, whose high abode
Becomes the grandeur of a God,
Infinite lengths beyond the bounds
Where stars revolve their little rounds :

- 2 Thee while the first Archangel sings,
He hides his face behind his wings ;
And ranks of shining thrones around
Fall worshipping and spread the ground.
3. Lord, what shall earth and ashes do ?
We would adore our Maker too !
From sin and dust to thee we cry,
The Great, the Holy, and the High !

At the Sanctuary step.

- Y. Blessèd are they that dwell in thy house.
R. They will be alway praising thee.

Collect for St. Simon and St. Jude.

DEDICATION FESTIVAL PROCESSION
A SECOND DEDICATION FESTIVAL
PROCESSION.

636

c. 9th cent. Tr. M. J. Blacker

Christe cunctorum Dominator alme.

ONLY-BEGOTTEN, Word of God eternal,
Lord of Creation, merciful and mighty,
List to thy servants, when their tuneful voices
Rise to thy presence.

- 2 Thus in our solemn Feast of Dedication,
Graced with returning rites of due devotion,
Ever thy children, year by year rejoicing,
Chant in thy temple.
- 3 This is thy palace ; here thy presence-chamber ;
Here may thy servants, at the mystic banquet,
Daily adoring, take thy Body broken,
Drink of thy Chalice.
- 4 Here for thy children stands the holy laver,
Fountain of pardon for the guilt of nature,
Cleansed by whose water springs a race anointed,
Liegemen of Jesus.
- 5 Here in our sickness, healing grace aboundeth,
Light in our blindness, in our toil refreshment ;
Sin is forgiven, hope o'er fear prevaleth,
Joy over sorrow.
- 6 Hallowed this dwelling where the Lord abideth,
This is none other than the gate of Heaven ;
Strangers and pilgrims, seeking homes eternal,
Pass through its portals.
- 7 Lord, we beseech thee, as we throng thy temple,
By thy past blessings, by thy present bounty,
Smile on thy children, and with tender mercy
Hear our petitions.
8. God in Three Persons, Father everlasting,
Son co-eternal, ever-blessed Spirit,
Thine be the glory, praise, and adoration,
Now and for ever. Amen.

PROCESSIONAL.

637 *At the entrance into the Choir. G. Tersteegen, 1697-1769.
Tr. J. Wesley.*

Gott ist gegenwartig.

- L O! God is here! let us adore
And own how dreadful is this place!
Let all within us feel his power,
And silent bow before his face,
Who know his power, his grace who prove,
Serve him with awe, with reverence love.
2. Lo! God is here! Him day and night
The united choirs of Angels sing;
To him, enthroned above all height,
Heaven's hosts their noblest praises bring;
To thee may all our thoughts arise
Ceaseless, accepted Sacrifice.

At the Sanctuary step.

- ℣. Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness.
℞. And let thy saints sing with joyfulness.

Collect for St. Simon and St. Jude.

PROCESSION FOR ANY SAINT'S DAY.

638 F. B. P. † (c. 1580). Based on St. Augustine.

- JERUSALEM, my happy home,
When shall I come to thee?
When shall my sorrows have an end?
Thy joys when shall I see?
- 2 O happy harbour of the Saints!
O sweet and pleasant soil!
In thee no sorrow may be found,
No grief, no care, no toil.
- 3 In thee no sickness may be seen,
No hurt, no ache, no sore;
In thee there is no dread of death,
But life for evermore.
- 4 No dampish mist is seen in thee,
No cold nor darksome night;

SAINT'S DAY PROCESSION.

- There every soul shines as the sun ;
There God himself gives light.
- 5 There lust and lucre cannot dwell ;
There envy bears no sway ;
There is no hunger, heat, nor cold,
But pleasure every way.
- 6 Jerusalem, Jerusalem,
God grant I once may see
Thy endless joys, and of the same
Partaker ay may be !
- 7 Thy walls are made of precious stones,
Thy bulwarks diamonds square ;
Thy gates are of right orient pearl ;
Exceeding rich and rare ;
- 8 * Thy turrets and thy pinnacles
With carbuncles do shine ;
Thy very streets are paved with gold,
Surpassing clear and fine ;
- 9 * Thy houses are of ivory,
Thy windows crystal clear ;
Thy tiles are made of beaten gold—
O God that I were there !
- 10 * Within thy gates no thing doth come
That is not passing clean,
No spider's web, no dirt, no dust,
No filth may there be seen.
- 11 Ah, my sweet home, Jerusalem,
Would God I were in thee !
Would God my woes were at an end,
Thy joys that I might see !

Part 2.

(If sung separately, may begin with ver. 1.)

- 12 Thy Saints are crowned with glory great ;
They see God face to face ;
They triumph still, they still rejoice :
Most happy is their case.

PROCESSIONAL.

- 13 We that are here in banishment,
Continually do mourn ;
We sigh and sob, we weep and wail,
Perpetually we groan.
- 14 Our sweet is mixed with bitter gall,
Our pleasure is but pain,
Our joys scarce last the looking on,
Our sorrows still remain.
- 15 But there they live in such delight,
Such pleasure and such play,
As that to them a thousand years
Doth seem as yesterday.
- 16 * Thy vineyards and thy orchards are
Most beautiful and fair,
Full furnished with trees and fruits,
Most wonderful and rare ;
- 17 * Thy gardens and thy gallant walks
Continually are green ;
There grow such sweet and pleasant flowers
As nowhere else are seen.
- 18 * There's nectar and ambrosia made,
There's musk and civet sweet ;
There many a fair and dainty drug
Is trodden under feet.
- 19 * There cinnamon, there sugar grows,
There nard and balm abound ;
What tongue can tell, or heart conceive,
The joys that there are found !
(This Part may conclude with ver. 26.)

Part 3.

(If sung separately, may begin with ver. 1.)

- 20 Quite through the streets with silver sound
The flood of life doth flow,
Upon whose banks on every side
The wood of life doth grow.

SAINT'S DAY PROCESSION.

- 21 There trees for evermore bear fruit,
And evermore do spring ;
There evermore the Angels sit,
And evermore do sing ;
- 22 There David stands with harp in hand
As master of the choir :
Ten thousand times that man were blest
That might this music hear.
- 23 Our Lady sings Magnificat
With tune surpassing sweet ;
And all the Virgins bear their parts,
Sitting about her feet.
- 24 Te Deum doth Saint Ambrose sing,
Saint Austin doth the like ;
Old Simeon and Zachary
Have not their songs to seek.
- 25 There Magdalene hath left her moan,
And cheerfully doth sing
With blessed Saints, whose harmony
In every street doth ring.
26. Jerusalem, my happy home,
Would God I were in thee !
Would God my woes were at an end
Thy joys that I might see !

If the starred verses are omitted, Parts 1 and 2 together will form a Procession of average length ; or either Part separately will form a short Hymn suitable for general use.

For Festivals of St. Mary the Virgin the following is also suitable :

218 Ye who own the faith of Jesus.

For other Saints'-days :

200 Joy and triumph everlasting.

252 Our Father's home eternal.

641 For all the Saints.

For Michaelmas.

245 Stars of the morning.

PROCESSIONAL.

639 At the entrance into the Choir. C. Wesley, 1707-88.

THE Church triumphant in thy love,
Their mighty joys we know ;
They sing the Lamb in hymns above,
And we in hymns below.

2 Thee in thy glorious realm they praise,
And bow before thy throne ;
We in the kingdom of thy grace :
The kingdoms are but one.

3. The holy to the holiest leads,
From hence our spirits rise,
And he that in thy statutes treads
Shall meet thee in the skies.

640 *Or this, on festivals of St. Mary the Virgin.
Bishop R. Heber, 1783-1826.*

VIRGIN-BORN, we bow before thee :
Blessèd was the womb that bore thee ;
Mary, Mother meek and mild,
Blessèd was she in her Child.
Blessèd was the breast that fed thee ;
Blessèd was the hand that led thee ;
Blessèd was the parent's eye
That watched thy slumbering infancy.

2. Blessèd she by all creation,
Who brought forth the world's salvation,
And blessèd they—for ever blest,
Who love thee most and serve thee best.
Virgin-born, we bow before thee :
Blessèd was the womb that bore thee ;
Mary, Mother meek and mild,
Blessèd was she in her Child.

At the Sanctuary step.

℟. Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoice in the Lord.
R. And be joyful, all ye that are true of heart.

Collect for All Saints' Day.

SUITABLE FOR USE IN PROCESSION.

641

Bishop W. W. How, 1823-97.

FOR all the Saints who from their labours rest,
Who thee by faith before the world confest,
Thy name, O Jesu, be for ever blest.

Alleluia!

- 2 Thou wast their Ròck, their Fortress, and their Might ;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight ;
Thou in the darkness drear their one true Light.
- 3 O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the Saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.
- 4 O blest communion ! fellowship divine !
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine ;
Yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
- 5 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.
- 6 The golden evening brightens in the west ;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest :
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.
- 7 But lo ! there breaks a yet more glorious day ;
The Saints triumphant rise in bright array :
The King of glory passes on his way.
8. From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

642

H. Alford †, 1810-71.

FORWARD ! be our watchword,
Steps and voices joined ;
Seek the things before us,
Not a look behind ;

PROCESSIONAL.

Burns the fiery pillar
At our army's head ;
Who shall dream of shrinking,
By our Captain led ?
Forward through the desert,
Through the toil and fight ;
Jordan flows before us,
Sion beams with light.

2 Forward, when in childhood
Buds the infant mind ;
All through youth and manhood,
Not a thought behind ;
Speed through realms of nature,
Climb the steps of grace ;
Faint not, till around us
Gleams the Father's face.
Forward, all the life-time,
Climb from height to height ;
Till the head be hoary,
Till the eve be light.

3 Forward, flock of Jesus,
Salt of all the earth,
Till each yearning purpose
Spring to glorious birth ;
Sick, they ask for healing,
Blind, they grope for day ;
Pour upon the nations
Wisdom's loving ray.
Forward, out of error,
Leave behind the night ;
Forward through the darkness,
Forward into light.

4 Glories upon glories
Hath our God prepared,
By the souls that love him
One day to be shared ;

SUITABLE FOR USE IN PROCESSION.

Eye hath not beheld them,
Ear hath never heard ;
Nor of these hath uttered
Thought or speech a word ;
Forward, marching eastward,
Where the heaven is bright,
Till the veil be lifted,
Till our faith be sight.

5* Far o'er yon horizon
Rise the city towers,
Where our God abideth ,
That fair home is ours :
Flash the streets with jasper,
Shine the gates with gold ;
Flows the gladdening river,
Shedding joys untold.
Thither, onward thither,
In the Spirit's might ;
Pilgrims to your country,
Forward into light.

6* Into God's high temple
Onward as we press,
Beauty spreads around us,
Born of holiness ;
Arch, and vault, and carving,
Lights of varied tone,
Softened words and holy,
Prayer and praise alone :
Every thought upraising
To our city bright,
Where the tribes assemble
Round the throne of light.

7* Nought that city needeth
Of these aisles of stone ;
Where the Godhead dwelleth
Temple there is none ;

PROCESSIONAL.

All the saints that ever
In these courts have stood
Are but babes, and feeding
On the children's food.
On through sign and token,
Stars amidst the night,
Forward through the darkness,
Forward into light.

8. To the Father's glory
Loudest anthems raise ;
To the Son and Spirit
Echo songs of praise ;
To the Lord Almighty,
Blessèd Three in One,
Be by men and Angels
Endless honour done.
Weak are earthly praises,
Dull the songs of night ;
Forward into triumph,
Forward into light !

643

S. Baring-Gould.

ONWARD, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before.
Christ the royal Master
Leads against the foe ;
Forward into battle,
See, his banners go !
*Onward, Christian soldiers
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before.*

- 2 At the sign of triumph
Satan's legions flee ;
On then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory.

SUITABLE FOR USE IN PROCESSION.

Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise ;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise.

3 Like a mighty army
Moves the Church of God ;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the Saints have trod ;
We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity.

4 Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain ;
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that Church prevail ;
We have Christ's own promise,
And that cannot fail.

5. Onward, then, ye people,
Join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song ;
Glory, laud, and honour
Unto Christ the King ;
This through countless ages
Men and Angels sing.

644

E. H. Plumptre, 1821-91.

REJOICE, ye pure in heart,
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing ;
Your orient banner wave on high,
The Cross of Christ your King.

PROCESSIONAL.

- 2 Bright youth and snow-crowned age,
 Strong men and maidens meek,
 Raise high your free exulting song,
 God's wondrous praises speak.
- 3 With all the Angel choirs,
 With all the saints on earth,
 Pour out the strains of joy and bliss,
 True rapture, noblest mirth.
- 4 Your clear hosannas raise,
 And alleluyas loud ;
 Whilst answering echoes upward float,
 Like wreaths of incense cloud.
- 5 With voice as full and strong
 As ocean's surging praise,
 Send forth the hymns our fathers loved,
 The psalms of ancient days.
- 6 Yes on, through life's long path,
 Still chanting as ye go,
 From youth to age, by night and day,
 In gladness and in woe.
- 7 Still lift your standard high,
 Still march in firm array,
 As warriors through the darkness toil
 Till dawns the golden day.
- 8 At last the march shall end,
 The wearied ones shall rest,
 The pilgrims find their Father's home,
 Jerusalem the blest.
- 9 Then on, ye pure in heart,
 Rejoice, give thanks, and sing ;
 Your orient banner wave on high,
 The Cross of Christ your King.
10. Praise him who reigns on high,
 The Lord whom we adore,
 The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 One God for evermore. Amen.

G. Thring, 1823-1908.

SAVIOUR, blessèd Saviour,
Listen while we sing,
Hearts and voices raising
Praises to our King.
All we have we offer,
All we hope to be,
Body, soul, and spirit,
All we yield to thee.

2 Nearer, ever nearer,
Christ, we draw to thee,
Deep in adoration
Bending low the knee.
Thou for our redemption,
Cam'st on earth to die ;
Thou, that we might follow,
Hast gone up on high.

3 Great and ever greater
Are thy mercies here ;
True and everlasting
Are the glories there ;
Where no pain, nor sorrow,
Toil, nor care, is known,
Where the Angel-legions
Circle round thy throne.

4 Clearer still and clearer
Dawns the light from heaven,
In our sadness bringing
News of sins forgiven ;
Life has lost its shadows,
Pure the light within ;
Thou hast shed thy radiance
On a world of sin.

PROCESSIONAL.

5 Brighter still and brighter
Glow the western sun,
Shedding all its gladness
O'er our work that's done ;
Time will soon be over,
Toil and sorrow past ;
May we, blessed Saviour,
• Find a rest a last.

6 Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o'er the road
Worn by Saints before us,
Journeying on to God ;
Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking
Till the prize is won.

7. Higher then and higher
Bear the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgotten,
Saviour, to its goal ;
Where in joys unthought of Saints with Angels sing,
Never weary raising
Praises to their King.

646

T. Olivers†, 1725-99. Based on the Yigdal.

THE God of Abraham praise
Who reigns enthroned above,
Ancient of everlasting days,
And God of love :
To him uplift your voice,
At whose supreme command
From earth we rise, and seek the joys
At his right hand.

SUITABLE FOR USE IN PROCESSION.

- 2* Though nature's strength decay,
And earth and hell withstand,
To Canaan's bounds we urge our way
At his command.
The watery deep we pass,
With Jesus in our view ;
And through the howling wilderness
Our way pursue.
- 3 The goodly land we see,
With peace and plenty blest ;
A land of sacred liberty
And endless rest ;
There milk and honey flow,
And oil and wine abound,
And trees of life for ever grow,
With mercy crowned.
- 4 There dwells the Lord our King,
The Lord our Righteousness,
Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
The Prince of Peace ;
On Sion's sacred height
His kingdom he maintains,
And glorious with his Saints in light
For ever reigns.
- 5 Before the great Three-One
They all exulting stand,
And tell the wonders he hath done
Through all their land :
The listening spheres attend,
And swell the growing fame,
And sing, in songs which never end,
The wondrous name.
- 6 The God who reigns on high
The great Archangels sing,
And 'Holy, Holy, Holy,' cry,
'Almighty King !

PROCESSIONAL.

Who was, and is, the same,
And evermore shall be :
Eternal Father, great I AM,
We worship thee.'

- 7* Before the Saviour's face
The ransomed nations bow,
O'erwhelmed at his almighty grace
For ever new ;
He shows his prints of love,—
They kindle to a flame,
And sound through all the worlds above
The slaughtered Lamb.
8. The whole triumphant host
Give thanks to God on high ;
'Hail ! Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,'
They ever cry :
Hail ! Abraham's God, and mine !
(I join the heavenly lays),
All might and majesty are thine,
And endless praise. Amen.

T. B. Pollock †, 1836-96.

GOD the Father, God the Son,
God the Spirit, Three in One,
Hear us from thy heavenly throne :
Spare us, Holy Trinity.

- 2 Father, hear thy children's call ;
Humbly at thy feet we fall,
Prodigals, confessing all :

We beseech thee, hear us.

LITANY OF PENITENCE.

- 3 Christ, beneath thy Cross we blame
All our life of sin and shame ;
Penitent we breathe thy name :
- 4 Holy Spirit, grieved and tried,
Oft forgotten and defied,
Now we mourn our stubborn pride :
- 5 Love, that caused us first to be,
Love, that bled upon the Tree,
Love, that draws us lovingly :
- 6 We thy call have disobeyed,
Into paths of sin have strayed,
Have neglected and delayed :
- 7 Sick, we come to thee for cure,
Guilty, seek thy mercy sure,
Evil, long to be made pure :
- 8 Blind, we pray that we may see,
Bound, we pray to be made free,
Stained, we pray for sanctity :
- 9 Thou who hear'st each contrite sigh,
Bidding sinful souls draw nigh,
Willing not that one should die :
- 10 By the gracious saving call
Spoken tenderly to all
Who have shared man's guilt and fall :
- 11 By the nature Jesus wore,
By the stripes and death he bore,
By his life for evermore :

That with loving sorrow torn
Truly contrite we may mourn :

Help us to resist the foe,
Fearing what indeed is woe :
- 18 Let not sin within us reign,
May we gladly suffer pain,
If it purge away our stain :
- 19 May we to all evil die,
Fleshly longings crucify,
Fix our hearts and thoughts on high :
- 20 Grant us faith to know thee near,
Hail thy grace, thy judgement fear,
And through trial persevere :
- 21 Grant us hope from earth to rise,
And to strain with eager eyes
Towards the promised heavenly prize :
- 22 Grant us love thy love to own,
Love to live for thee alone,
And the power of grace make known :

As we ever onward press,
Till we perfect holiness :

Anon. 1867.

GOD the Father, seen of none,
G God the sole-begotten Son,
God the Spirit, with them One :
Spare us, Holy Trinity.

2 Jesu, who for us didst bear
Scorn and sorrow, toil and care,
Hearken to our lowly prayer :
Hear us, Holy Jesu.

3 By that hour of agony
Spent while thine Apostles three
Slumbered in Gethsemane :

4 By the prayer thou thrice didst pray
That the cup might pass away,
So thou mightest still obey :

5 By the kiss of treachery
To thy foes betraying thee,
By thy harsh captivity :

6 By thy being bound in thrall,
When they led thee, one and all,
Unto Pilate's judgement-hall :

7 By the scourging thou hast borne,
By the purple robe of scorn,
By the reed, and crown of thorn :

8 By the folly of the Jews
When Barabbas they would choose,
And would Christ their King refuse :

LITANIES.

- 9 By thy going forth to die
When they raised their wicked cry,
‘Crucify him, crucify!’
- 10 By the Cross which thou didst bear,
By the cup they bade thee share,
Mingled gall and vinegar :
- 11 By thy nailing to the Tree,
By the title over thee,
On the hill of Calvary :
- 12 By thy seven words then said,
By the bowing of thy head,
By thy numbering with the dead :
- 13 By the piercing of thy side,
By the stream of double tide,
Blood and Water, thence supplied :
- 14 When temptation sore is rife,
When we faint amidst the strife,
Thou, whose death hath been our life :
Save us, Holy Jesu.
- 15 While on stormy seas we toss,
Let us count all things as loss,
But thee only on thy Cross :
16. So, with hope in thee made fast,
When death’s bitterness is past,
We may see thy face at last :

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Tr. J. B.

Ὑπὲρ τῆς ἀνωθεν εἰρήνης.

LORD, to our humble prayers attend,
Let thou thy peace from heaven descend,
And to our souls salvation send : •

Have mercy, Lord, upon us.

- 2 Rule in our hearts, thou Prince of Peace,
The welfare of thy Church increase,
And bid all strife and discord cease :
- 3 To all who meet for worship here
Do thou in faithfulness draw near ;
Inspire with faith and godly fear :
- 4 O let thy priests be clothed with might,
To rule within thy Church aright,
That they may serve as in thy sight :
- 5 The sovereign ruler of our land
Protect by thine almighty hand,
And all around the throne who stand :
- 6 Let clouds and sunshine bless the earth,
Give flowers and fruit a timely birth,
Our harvests crown with peaceful mirth :
- 7 Let voyagers by land and sea
In danger's hour in safety be ;
The suffering and the captive free :
8. Around us let thine arm be cast,
Till wrath and danger are o'erpast,
And tribulation's bitter blast :

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

- ℣. Lord, thou hast been our refuge.

LITANY OF THE CHURCH.

T. B. Pollock, 1886-96.

GOD the Father, God the Son,
God the Spirit, Three in One,
Hear us from thy heavenly throne :
Spare us, Holy Trinity.

2 Jesu, with thy Church abide,
Be her Saviour, Lord, and Guide,
While on earth her faith is tried :
We beseech thee, hear us.

3 Keepest her life and doctrine pure,
Help her patient to endure,
Trusting in thy promise sure :

4 Be thou with her all the days ;
May she, safe from error's ways,
Toil for thine eternal praise :

5 May her voice be ever clear,
Warning of a judgement near,
Telling of a Saviour dear :

6 All her ruined works repair,
Build again thy temple fair,
Manifest thy presence there :

— 7 All her fettered powers release,
Bid our strife and envy cease,
Grant the heavenly gift of peace :

8 May she one in doctrine be,
One in truth and charity,
Winning all to faith in thee :

9 May she guide the poor and blind,
Seek the lost until she find,
And the broken-hearted bind :

10 Save her love from growing cold,
Make her watchmen strong and bold,
Fence her round, thy peaceful fold :

LITANY OF THE CHURCH.

- 11 May her priests thy people feed,
Shepherds of the flock indeed,
Ready, where they call, to lead :
- 12 Judge her not for work undone,
Judge her not for fields unwon,
Bless her works in thee begun :
- 13 For the past give deeper shame,
Make her jealous for thy name,
Kindle zeal's most holy flame :
- 14 Raise her to her calling high,
Let the nations far and nigh
Hear thy heralds' warning cry :
- 15 May her lamp of truth be bright,
Bid her bear aloft its light
Through the realms of heathen night :
- 16 May her scattered children be
From reproach of evil free,
Blameless witnesses for thee :
- 17 Arm her soldiers with the Cross :
Brave to suffer toil or loss,
Counting earthly gain but dross ;
18. May she holy triumphs win,
Overthrow the hosts of sin,
Gather all the nations in :

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Ἀντιλαβοῦ, σῶσον, ἐλέησον.

GOD of all grace, thy mercy send ;
Let thy protecting arm defend ;
Save us and keep us to the end :

Have mercy, Lord.

2 And through the coming hours of night,
Fill us, we pray, with holy light ;
Keep us all sinless in thy sight :
Grant this, O Lord.

3 May some bright messenger abide
For ever by thy servants' side,
A faithful guardian and our guide :

4 From every sin in mercy free,
Let heart and conscience stainless be,
That we may live henceforth for thee :

5 We would not be by care opprest,
But in thy love and wisdom rest ;
Give what thou seest to be best :

6 While we of every sin repent,
Let our remaining years be spent
In holiness and sweet content :

7. And when the end of life is near,
May we, unshamed and void of fear,
Wait for the Judgement to appear :

Shepherds, coming thee to greet,
Knelt to pay their worship meet :

Wise men, hastening to adore,
Gold and myrrh and incense bore :

COMMENDATORY LITANY.

655

R. F. Littledale, 1833-90.

GOD the Father, God the Son,
Holy Ghost, the Comforter,
Ever blessed Three in One,
Hearken to our humble prayer :
Hear us when we call to thee,
Spare us, Holy Trinity.

- 2 Hear us, Son of God, O hear !
We approach thee for our dead ;
Lead them, in the vale of fear,
Be thy wings around them spread :
Lord of life and love, we pray,
Grant them mercy in that day.

- 3 Child of Mary, who didst bear
Mortal flesh, for man to die ;
Child of sorrow, toil, and care,
Grant them rest eternally :

- 4 Dweller in the vale of death,
Second Adam, Source of Life,
Wearer of the thorny wreath,
Victor in the deadly strife :

COMMENDATORY LITANY.

- 5 Thou who didst let fall the tear,
On the grave of Bethany ;
Who at Nain didst stay the bier
That lone mother's tear to dry :
- 6 Thou whose voice could wake the dead,
'Maid ! I say to thee, arise !'
Who didst bow thy dying head
On the day of sacrifice :
- 7 Thou who passedst through the gloom
Which enshrouds the vale of death,
Guide their footsteps through the tomb,
Shelter them thine arms beneath :
- 8 By thy flesh with scourges torn,
By thy suffering human soul,
By the crown of woven thorn,
By the mocking title-scroll :
- 9 By the quiet rock-hewn cave,
Where thy body slept so well,
When thy Spirit, through the grave,
Entered to the realms of hell :
- 10 By thy preaching of the Christ
To the souls in prison bound,
When was rolled away the mist
Which had hung their vision round :
- 11 By the eternal Sacrifice
Which thou pleadest at the throne,
Only gift which can suffice,
For that gift is all thine own :
- 12 By the Offering which we plead,
One with thine in heaven above,
By the Lamb whose five wounds bleed,
To fill full our Cup of Love :

Day of fury and of ire,
When the earth shall melt away
In the thunder-blast of fire :

THE STORY OF THE CROSS.

656

E. Monro and M. D.

THE QUESTION.

SEE him in raiment rent,
With his blood dyed :
Women walk sorrowing
By his side.

2 Heavy that Cross to him,
Weary the weight :
One who will help him stands
At the gate.

3 Multitudes hurrying
Pass on the road :
Simon is sharing with Him the load.

4 Who is this travelling
With the curst tree—
This weary prisoner—
Who is he ?

THE STORY OF THE CROSS.

THE ANSWER.

- 5 Follow to Calvary,
Tread where he trod :
This is the Lord of life—
Son of God.
- 6 Is there no loveliness—
You who pass by—
In that lone Figure, which Marks the sky ?
- 7 You who would love him, stand,
Gaze at his face ;
Tarry awhile in your Worldly race.
- 8 As the swift moments fly
Through the blest week,
Jesus, in penitence,
Let us seek.

THE STORY OF THE CROSS.

- 9 On the Cross lifted up,
Thy face I scan,
Scarred by that agony—
Son of Man.
- 10 Thorns form thy diadem,
Rough wood thy throne,
To thee thy outstretched arms
Draw thine own.
- 11 Nails hold thy hands and feet,
While on thy breast
Sinketh thy bleeding head
Sore opprest.
- 12 Loud is thy bitter cry,
Rending the night,
As to thy darkened eyes
Fails the light.

THE STORY OF THE CROSS.

- 13 Shadows of midnight fall,
 Though it is day ;
 Friends and disciples stand
 Far away.
- 14 Loud scoffs the dying thief,
 Mocking thy woe ;
• Can this my Saviour be Brought so low ?
- 15 Yes, see the title clear,
 Written above,—
 ‘ Jesus of Nazareth ’—
 Name of love !
- 16 What, O my Saviour dear,
 What didst thou see,
 That made thee suffer and
 Die for me ?

THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS.

- 17 Child of my grief and pain !
 From realms above,
 I came to lead thee to
 Life and love.
- 18 For thee my Blood I shed,
 For thee I died :
 Safe in my faithfulness
 Now abide.
- 19 I saw thee wandering,
 Weak and at strife ;
 I am the Way for thee,
 Truth and Life.
- 20 Follow my path of pain,
 Tread where I trod :
 This is the way of peace
 Up to God.

THE STORY OF THE CROSS.

THE RESOLUTION.

- 21 O I will follow thee,
Star of my soul !
Through the great dark I press
To the goal.
- 22 Yea, let me know thy grief,
Carry thy Cross,
Share in thy sacrifice,
Gain thy loss.
- 23 Daily I'll prove my love
Through joy and woe ;
Where thy hands point the way,
There I go.
24. Lead me on year by year,
Safe to the end, ●
Jesus, my Lord, my Life,
King and Friend.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father.

- ℣. I will declare thy name unto my brethren.
℞. In the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

Dec. 22. O Emmanuel. O Emmanuel, our King and Lawgiver, the Desire of all nations, and their Salvation : Come and save us, O Lord our God.

Dec. 23. O Virgo virginum. O Virgin of virgins, how shall this be ? For neither before thee was any like thee, nor shall there be after. Daughters of Jerusalem, why marvel ye at me ? The thing which ye behold is a divine mystery.

AN ADVENT PROSE.

735 RODATE. Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness.

1. Be not wroth very sore, O Lord, neither remember iniquity for ever : thy holy cities are a wilderness, Sion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation : our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee.

2. We have sinned, and are as an unclean thing, and we all do fade as a leaf : and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away ; thou hast hid thy face from us : and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.

3. Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen ; that ye may know me and believe me : I, even I, am the Lord, and beside me there is no Saviour : and there is none that can deliver out of my hand.

INTROITS AND ANTHEMS.

4. Comfort ye, comfort ye my people ; my salvation shall not tarry : I have blotted out as a thick cloud thy transgressions : Fear not, for I will save thee : for I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Redeemer.

A LENT PROSE.

736 ATTENDE. Hear us, O Lord, have mercy upon us : for we have sinned against thee.

1. To thee, Redeemer, on thy throne of glory : lift we our weeping eyes in holy pleadings : listen, O Jesu, to our supplications.

2. O thou chief Corner-stone, Right Hand of the Father : Way of Salvation, Gate of Life Celestial : cleanse thou our sinful souls from all defilement.

3. God, we implore thee, in thy glory seated : bow down and hearken to thy weeping children : pity and pardon all our grievous trespasses.

4. Sins oft committed now we lay before thee : with true contrition, now no more we veil them : grant us, Redeemer, loving absolution.

5. Innocent, captive, taken unresisting : falsely accused, and for us sinners sentenced, save us, we pray thee, Jesu our Redeemer.

GOOD FRIDAY : THE REPROACHES.

737 O, my people, what have I done unto thee, or wherein have I wearied thee ? Testify against me. Because I brought thee forth from the land of Egypt, thou hast prepared a Cross for thy Saviour.

GOOD FRIDAY—EASTER.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal, have mercy upon us.

2. Because I led thee through the desert forty years, and fed thee with manna, and brought thee into a land exceeding good, thou hast prepared a Cross for thy Saviour.

3. What more could I have done unto thee that I have not done? I indeed did plant thee, O my vineyard, with exceeding fair fruit, and thou art become very bitter unto me : for vinegar, mingled with gall, thou gavest me when thirsty, and hast pierced with a spear the side of thy Saviour.

Behold the Cross displayed, whereon the Saviour of the world did hang : O come ye, let us worship.

We venerate thy Cross, O Lord, and praise and glorify thy holy Resurrection : for by virtue of the Cross joy hath come to the whole world.

Ps. 67. Deus misereatur. (Without Gloria.)

Hymns 95 and 98 (Pt. 1), opening with the following verse (which is repeated after each verse as chorus), and ending with the Doxology and chorus.

*Faithful Cross! above all other,
One and only noble Tree!
None in foliage, none in blossom,
None in fruit thy peer may be;
Sweetest wood, and sweetest iron!
Sweetest weight is hung on thee.*

Со святыми упокой, Христе

(Μετὰ τῶν ἁγίων ἀνάπαυσον, Χριστέ).

744 Give rest, O Christ, to thy servant with thy Saints : where sorrow and pain are no more ; neither sighing, but life everlasting.

Thou only art immortal, the Creator and Maker of man : and we are mortal, formed of the earth, and unto earth shall we return : for so thou didst ordain, when thou createdst ~~me~~, saying, Dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. All we go down to the dust ; and, weeping o'er the grave, we make our song : alleluya, alleluya, alleluya.

Give rest, O Christ, to thy servant with thy Saints, where sorrow and pain are no more ; neither sighing, but life everlasting.
